The Conductors

Deborah A. Mello

Founding and Artistic Director of the Children's Chorus of Sussex County, Deborah Mello is the recipient of the Master Teacher Award from the New Jersey Music Educators Association, the Governor's Award for Arts in Education, and the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra Master Teacher Collaborative Award, sponsored by the Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation. She has taught numerous workshops on elementary music education and choral singing with children in the United States, England, Sweden, and Scotland. Mello, in collaboration with composer Jill Gallina, wrote "All-American Sing Along Songs", a collection of patriotic songs with companion lesson plans and accompanying compact disc published by Shawnee Press.

Joseph H. Mello

Joseph Mello has been the choral director at Kittatinny Regional High School in Newton, NJ for thirty-six years and his choirs have performed widely on the east coast, in California, and have also been featured on the NBC Today Show. He has received such awards as the New Jersey Governor's Recognition Award, Sussex County (NJ) Teacher of the Year, the Governor's Award for Arts in Education Distinguished Leadership Award, the Yale Distinguished Music Educator Award, and has been named New Jersey's Master Music Teacher. Mr. Mello has served as the New Jersey Music Educators Association president for two terms. In addition to his extensive educational background, Mr. Mello has been choirmaster and director of music at Christ Episcopal Church in Newton, NJ for thirty-two years and has performed as a baritone soloist in New Jersey and New York.

Leslie B. Dunner

Leslie B. Dunner is an internationally renowned conductor giving concerts in South Africa, Canada, Estonia, and Russia in addition to the United States. He has conducted many major orchestras in the US including Baltimore, Atlanta, New York, Minneapolis, and San Francisco. In 1999, Dr. Dunner ended an eleven-year association with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra where he held the positions of Resident, Associate and Assistant Conductor. Leslie B. Dunner has received international prizes and awards such as in the Arturo Toscanini International Conducting Competition. Most recently he was awarded Chicago's 2009 "3Arts Award" for his contributions to the musical life of Chicago.

Stephen Peterson

Stephen Peterson is the director of bands at the Ithaca College School of Music. Dr. Peterson conducts the Ithaca College Wind Ensemble and also heads the wind and band MM conducting programs. Previously, he was the conductor of the renowned Northshore Concert Band. He held positions as associate and interim director of bands at Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, Texas and has several years of successful teaching experience in the public schools in Arizona. Dr. Peterson holds the Doctor of Music degree from Northwestern University and Master's and Bachelor's degrees from Arizona State University.
