293 Freshmen Enroll This Fall

The Ithacan Seeks Freshman; Meeting
Wednesday, Sept. 17, 7 P.M.

How to Win Friends and Influence
People is the title of a book by Dale Cardenote, but it could also be the motto of our school paper, The Ithacan. Every year, a new staff takes over and tries to follow the motto to the best of their ability.

At this time of year, the staff of the paper is looking for freshmen to fill the vacancies that will be created by the graduating class of '55. Starting with the next term of The Ithacan, all freshmen who are willing to work well and try hard will begin an apprenticeship cycle of the different parts of the paper.

During this span of the cycle, the apprentices can find out which part of the paper is most suited to their abilities and liking. If they do find a chance for a position on the paper.
you, as an incoming freshman, have never worked on a paper before. If so, do not disqualify you; your apprenticeship will be your qualification.

If you are interested in photography, reporting, ghost-story work, or
the business phase of newspaper work,
be at the meeting for all prospective
apprentices.

There will be a meeting for all
Freshman who are interested in work­ing for the Ithacan on Wed., Sept. 17 at 7 P.M. in the Ithacan office.

January 15-17 SCANDERM

Some new and strange expe­riences are now crowding upon you that you may not have experi­enced. If so, this does not disqualify you; your apprenticeship will be your qualification.

If you are interested in photography, reporting, ghost-story work, or
the business phase of newspaper work,
be at the meeting for all prospective
apprentices.

There will be a meeting for all
Freshman who are interested in work­ing

I.C. Woman's Club
To Sponsor Picnic
Saturday, Sept. 27

The Ithaca College Woman's Club will sponsor an annual Freshman picnic, Sat., Sept. 27, at Stewart Park.

All faculty members, freshmen, and transfers are invited.

There will be dances, games, dancing, ball, games, singing, cheer-leading and refreshments.

Welcome to Freshmen!

To you Freshmen who are thinking about your averages and your indexes (don't know whether or not there are of you hardly souls around but just in case). The Ithacan office is running a bought, dramatic fraternity.

Your index is based on the marks you receive in your subjects. To make things clear for you I shall take an example:

Joe Danks comes to college and his first report card shows that he has an A in a three-hour course (This means that he has taken the course three hours a week). one in a three-hour course, two in three hour courses and one D in a three-hour course. To find out his index he does the following: A is worth four points. B is worth three. C is worth two and D is worth one. New to put in a numerical basis.

1A–3 hrs. 4 equals 12 honor pts. 1B–2 hrs. 3 equals 9 honor pts.
2C–3 hrs. 2 equals 12 honor pts.
3D–4 hrs. 1 equals 3 honor pts.

36 honor pts.

Joe has found out that he has 36 honor points. His next step is to figure out what he would have had if he had gotten a perfect score or all A's. In this case it would be 90 honor points. Now he divides 60 into 24 and the result will be his index. This lucky boy has a sixty scholarship index.

Simple wasn't it?

The Editor
Maintain Your Standards

Students and faculty members alike will have their attention aimed toward you Freshmen during the next few days.

"Who's the pretty co-ed?"

"Who owns the big convertible?"

"Who's the handsome phy. ed.?"

"His dad is loaded with money!"

This is nothing but first impressions surface-talk, therefore, forget it.

What everyone at I.C. is really interested in is your inner make-up.

"How well can you do a job or follow instructions?"

"How responsible are you?"

"Does this Frosh have what it takes to be a good student?"

Of having a hilarious college life or for the purpose of being a campus维 bringer.

For the end of four fast years they have gained only enough knowledge to adjustment to self-discipline and self-denial. Mother won't be here to give and to students with whom you shall be associated.

Homework. Balancing the budget will be your full responsibility also.

The adjustments to the new environment will be difficult, let alone adjust and to students with whom you shall be associated.

Aim for a goal and maintain the standards to reach that goal.

The Frosh, your college paper, wishes each Froshman a cordial welcome.
