Ithacan To Be Published Weekly For 1958-59

Editor-in-Chief of the ITHACAN, Tony Buttino has announced that the newspaper's plans to be circulated every week for the 1958-59 school year.

A meeting of President Dillingham, Dean Clarke, Tony Buttino, and Harry Davis, Business manager of the ITHACAN, at the end of the last school year, gave the ITHACAN the go-ahead if the editors and staff were deemed capable.

Although plans have been talked about in previous years, this year will mark the first time in the history of the college that a weekly newspaper will become a reality. The weekly issue of the newspaper will go away with much of the dead news that occurs in many bi-weekly newspapers.

In order to budget for a weekly, the ITHACAN will consist of four pages. The page will be eight pages long, circulation will occur from 1-7:00 P.M. as close to Wednesday as possible for larger issues.

Freshmen Introduced To I.C.; Camp Successful

Monday morning meetings were held with the decks of the various schools to explain the testing program. The rest of the day the freshmen took placement tests which evaluated their ability to do college work. In the evening an address by President Dillingham in the College Theatre stressed the idea that "most of what is accomplished by students comes within their degree of maturity." Following the president's address, a dance was given in the Seneca Room sponsored by the Yacht Club.

Tuesday was registration day for the freshmen. In the evening a convocation in the College Theatre was held to explain the function of the various organizations and government at the college.

Wednesday afternoon an informal affair for freshmen girls was held at the President's home. This was sponsored by the Women's Student Government Committee. In the evening an assembly of all freshmen men and upperclass counselors was held in the College Theatre with the Dean of Students as the principal speaker.

The orientation week ended Friday with a freshmen dance sponsored by the Newman Club at the Seneca Gym.

The Freshman advisor is Edward Pescatore, Assistant Professor of Physical Education and the Freshman Coordinator for the orientation program was John B. MacIntire, Associate Professor of History.

Scampers Rally To Be Held Saturday In College Theatre

The Scampers Rally will be given this year on October 4th at 1:00 P.M. in the College Theatre. There is no admission price. Songs and sketches from previous Scampers productions will be performed by Ithaca College talent. The basic purpose of this rally is to further acquaint Freshman and Transfer Students with Scampers—what it is and how it operates.

Deadline for the submission of all written material has been set as November 5th. Castings will begin shortly after that. All interested in working on Scampers "staff" are urged to sign on the list posted on the bulletin board next to the Snack Bar.

Barbara Bolhorst, Production Manager, and Jared Brown, Editor, reiterate that eligibility for Scampers is in no way determined by department or class. Any student is welcome to apply for any available job.

Library Hours Are Lengthened To Aid Students

The library hours for the school year 1958-59 have been announced by Mary Campellfield, Librarian.

Monday through Thursday the library will be open from 8:30 A.M. to 6:00 P.M. and 7 to 9:00 in the evening. On Fridays and Saturdays the hours are from 8:30 A.M. to 8:00 P.M. and on Sunday from 1-7:00 P.M.

Reserve books may be taken for half hour before closing and will be returned by 9:00 A.M. the following morning, or before 9:00 A.M. Monday if taken on Saturday. Reserve books will be held at the library until Sunday as those hours are for study and use of books in the library.

The longer hours are the result of a poll taken by the Student Council last spring. In this poll, most were overwhelmingly in favor of extended hours at the library. The new hours are the result of a poll taken by the Student Council last spring.
Beanies? Humiliation

Shortly over two weeks ago the members of the freshmen class were sold beanies, and they were expected to wear them as they are to do until they are directed to do otherwise.

To the freshmen student the beanies seem to be of little benefit to them. Yet the beanies were meant to serve a good and useful purpose. The purpose is not one of humiliation or punishment, although some upper class students try to humiliate the frosh for wearing their beanies. The purpose of the beanies is not required in the identification of the members of the freshmen class by the upper class students. Likewise the tradition of making freshmen students "SOUND OFF" is to acquaint the upper class students with the names of the freshmen and to introduce the freshmen to the upper class men and women.

If this system had been used faithfully by the freshmen and the upper class students in the way in which it was intended, perhaps there would not be any difficulties with the beanies now.

The situation caused by certain upper class students in taking advantage of the freshmen and their beanies, many of the freshmen students are not living up to the traditions of the school wearing their beanies.

The first problem which must be solved is whether or not we are going to continue with the past tradition of the school, that is whether or not we are going to continue the tradition of having freshmen students wear beanies. If we are to continue with the beanies we must have some way of enforcing the rules pertaining to them. The W. S. G. has some ways for enforcing the Freshmen women to comply with the beanies regulations, yet there seems to be no way of enforcing the men freshmen to comply. Perhaps the Student Council should take over the enforcement of these regulations, or a dorm committee, and at least of the Freshman men are living in dorms, it is most probable that the Freshman Class would take the initiative and enforce the regulations upon its own members.

Besides enforcement there must be a system of punishment for those who break the regulations, as well as a system of enforcing punishments.

The second problem that must be solved is the limits that the upper class students may take in making a student "SOUND OFF". Although most of the upper class students don't abuse this privilege, there are always some who enjoy humiliating and annoying others when they can get away with it. The way things stand now, about the only limitations that can generally be applied are the school regulations prohibiting Hazing, and that the beanies are to be worn between 7:00 A.M. and 7:00 P.M. It it true that this means would be cleared up, and soon, and that the beanies should be either worn by the whole freshman class as a class with sufficient rules pertaining to them or they should be forgotten and discarded on a permanent basis.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
This is my way of expressing my thanks to everyone who made Fresh Camp the big success it was. We had the weather, Marty had a varied and sundry program prepared for us—for the most part consisting of his famous original mottos. Not to be ignored was his unique and amusing fashion of presentation. Our M.C. (mental case) really made fresh camp a memorable one.

Fresh of "62" have concluded that fresh camp is way out—you know-like—and I am sure that the following classes will get it too!!!

Signed, An Appreciative Freshman

Dear Editor,
I want to thank all my friends at Fresh Camp for an unforgettable occasion and hope that next year's camp will be as successful.

Question—What has impressed you most at Ithaca College?

GARY R. KURIS, Music Dept.

I think Fresh Camp has done a great deal to help me get in the swing of college life and I only wish that all freshmen could attend.

MARGO SCHERMAN, Drama

I feel that this was the part of both Frosh Council and the faculty.

P. KINGMENHOVE, Phy. Ed.

Beautiful campus building and many students present prove that those who belong to such big institutions always will become successful when they graduate. Ithaca College then, provides its students with as many opportunities as do larger institutions, and this is what our small college impresses me with the most.

MARCIA ARBOTT, Speech and Drama

The various organizations are a help to all the students to participate in.

ANNETTE ADLER, Speech and Drama

The slopes and attitude of our fair city.

NAME WITHHELD

The name of the upperclassmen with the fresh girl is amazing!

As A Fresh Sees It

by Margo Schekman

Fresh camp lived up to all our expectations. The sunny bus ride was simply delightful. At the same time the fact that we were packed in like sardines, we were forced to make many wise-taps was really a joyous experience.

Upon arrival we were given dog tags and told to go to our assigned cabins—like we were really in the mood to take a three mile hike through a jungle. As it turned out, our Indian signs for eight hours—like wow! We as long as lasted reached our camp quarters. We will pause now for a bit about the girls cabins. They numbered twenty, each accommodating ten girls-girls-state in the top floor in an ordinary three house (not the girls, the cabins). The latrines, which had running water, were conveniently located between the four cabins and a five-mile radius of the cabins. The primary function of the female counselor was to keep the hot water running—she would take a pitcher and run for the hot water at regular intervals at the command of her group.

A bit now about the man's quarters (please note the ruggedness of the girls quarter to the boys—makes you wonder). Some of the men lived in what was known as the Lakehouse—evidently this lunch was not used to living only with the bare essentials of life; therefore the camp provided a special building. The lakehouse consisted of two floors. Two beautifully furnished master bedrooms, a large fireplace, and an ultra modern California kitchen composed the first floor. When we got off the elevator, we found ourselves on the second floor—main items of interest here included a music room, ideally equipped with the latest in Hi-FI, supplemented by a small, but adequate library of records. Thus allowing the boys to relax in their leisure to the strains of Montavani or David Rose.

Our duplex dining room was very centrally located right in the middle of nowhere—finished in what might be termed (and quite suitably so) "mode of antiques." The place was such a well-seated, and not a scrap of food was wasted; we even ate it the next day. Aside from eating our meals here, we also had the pleasure of attending numerous square dances by the faculty—members who were of what is expect at I. C. However, our attending these lectures was entirely optional (you could get the food inside out of your shoes with your wrists handcuffed, blindfolded and gagged).

Ideal weather conditions provided for such outdoor sports as indoor football, indoor volleyball, indoor underwater hula hooping, and indoor bowling. Needless to say, none of these activities conflicted with those of our meticulous cook, but C'est la vie.

For our evening entertainment we had one of the truly great events of Fresh Camp—Mr. Marty. Marty had a varied and sundry program prepared for us—for the most part consisting of his famous original mottos. Not to be ignored was his unique talent of audience participation—like giving you your wrists handcuffed, blindfolded and gagged.

SUMMER SUMMARY '58

During the summer while the Ithaca College students were enjoying their vacations, the College progressed in various areas of the college.

The College acquired the Trumbull County Memorial Hospital property at Quarry Street this past summer for $10,100. In addition, $16,000 was spent for furniture, $10,500 for general repairs, $10,000 as the initial down payment, and $10,000 for the conversion to dormitories for a total of $277,000.

As soon as the new father dormitory is finished, the students will be able to live in dormitories.

There are 21 men at Cascadilla, 22 at Stewart, 42 in the Quarry Street dorm and 145 in the Valentine Place. As soon as the Quarry Street building is turned over to the school completely by the hospital (which should transpire with the next few weeks), classes will be offered in the dormitory accommodations.

At the same time the college will commence converting the older parts of the college into dormitories. The work on the entire building is expected to be completed before the beginning of the next semester. The school plans to accommodate a limited number of upper-class men in these dorms.

Interested students should apply for accommodation to Dean Clarke. The area for upper-classmen will be separated from the freshman dormitories.

The Building

The architecture of the building lends itself to natural division so that any social group may be interested in reserving an area in one of the dormitory rooms and a parlor they might be accommodated in a unit. The mechanical building in back of the Quarry Street buildings, which was formerly a laundry building, is being converted to a biology and chemistry laboratory.

Freshmen, as well as all women students are required to eat at the cafeteria on a flat semester fee basis. All other students are encouraged to participate in this service. The decision to install the cafeteria service was based on the schools desire to provide better services for women and freshmen students and for upper-classmen who wish to avail themselves of this service.

The following is a list of the various Ithaca College organizations and their officers for 1958-59. This list makes a handy reference to those who are on campus. It is suggested that freshmen students refer to this list at a later date for further information.

SELECTIVE SERVICE SYSTEM

States Program to Students

Every male citizen whose duty it is to register with the Selective Service System must do so within five (5) days after his 18th birthday. After the 6-day period has elapsed without registration, the person concerned will be reported as "delinquent." Your home address should be given as your permanent address since it will determine the Selective Service Board of jurisdiction. Your mailing address could be your address at Ithaca College.

In order that a student may receive full consideration for deferment by his Local Board, it is advisable for him to take the College Qualification Test at the first opportunity. These tests are given twice a year. A student should know the number and address of his Local Board and his Selective Service number by the time he takes the test.

The College Student Certificate—For students on request of a student, will be sent to his Local Board by Ithaca College identifying him as a full-time or part-time student, and giving his class rank. This information may be used by Local Boards in granting deferments to students.

In connection with a call for a physical examination, a student living some distance from his Local Board and finding it inconvenient to travel to the examination center, may request permission to take his "physical" through the Local Board, No. 62, County Court House Annex, 310 North Aurora Street, Ithaca, New York.

Important Things to Remember

1. It is your responsibility to notify your Local Board if your change in mailing address, or status (student, married, etc.).

2. Be careful, and be sure you understand all documents received from Selective Service.

3. Save all communications from your Local Board. You may want to refer to them if you make an appeal.

4. Keep a carbon copy of all your correspondence to your Local Board. You may want to refer to them if you make an appeal.

GEIBOLD GOSPEL: The Bombers have finally arrived! After waiting twenty games, the college has a football team that should be proud. There are a number of reasons for this improvement. The fact that we are now set up on South Hill our own field, and in our own gymnasium, is a major plus. The new Colgate University Coach Dick Lyon, in the short time that he has been here, has amassed the love and respect of his players. True, it can be said that any coach earns respect and prestige in college football. However, the Bombers are a team that has been around a long time for fun! . . . Art Gage's year's vacation from collegiate football doesn't seem to have hurt him a bit. He looks stronger than ever. Overhears and speculation are: how good will the team be? The team might have been out of Coach Dick Lyon came here in 1946. It's food for thought . . . A great blow came to Brian Wade when he broke his jaw the first day of practice. Here at Ithaca College we are very privileged to have a new tall, crew-cut graduate of Colgate University: His name is Dick Lyon. True, it can be said that any coach

Mr. Lyon comes to us from RPI where he has coached for three years. He was born in Elmira Heights and played football in high school. During this time he was All-Conference. After he graduated, he went to Syracuse for one year and then into service. There he played for N. C. the first flight. In 1944 they placed sixth in the nation. In 1947 he graduated from Colgate where he played quarterback.

Mr. Lyon will teach two courses in football coaching, and then he will move into the administration office. The football team here at Ithaca College has been working double sessions since September. Recently Coach Lyon stated, "Their attitude towards themselves, as a team, is good and will be a major factor in the amount of games they will win."
