Freshmen Finish Busy Week

By Don Roberts

With the opening of I.C.'s freshman camp, September 17th, 1959, approximately 200 freshmen began their college lives. Freshman camp ran from September 17th through 25th and was followed by an orientation program which started on the 21st of September and ended on the 25th.

The camp was officially opened with the address of welcome to the new students. After the students were settled, introductory speeches were given by the directors, associate professor of Zoology and director of frats, Mr. Green associate professor of Physical Education and Dean Clark. On Friday morning, the superintendent of the I.I.T. (Interfraternity Council) and chairman of the History Department, Sr. Dr. Herber, the associate professor of English, talked to the new students on various aspects of college life and college problems.

That evening a talent show was presented by each of the "cabins" of frats.

President Speaks

Dr. Hickman, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, and president of the college, then spoke to the freshmen on Saturday. After Dr. Dillingham's speech, the Deans introduced their respective faculty members. A coffee hour followed.

In the afternoon, the freshmen attended the 1.I.T. football games against South Hill. An informal dance was held later that evening at the college main lodge.

MacPherson coordinator

A program for all entering students was held at the college during September 21st-25th. Faculty coordinator for the orientation program was Dr. John B. MacPherson. Dr. MacPherson is an associate professor of history. Hal C. Yingling, Jr., associate professor of Biology, is the freshmen advisor and he is on the faculty in the College of Arts and Sciences.

On Monday morning, the new students of the College of Arts and Sciences met with Dean MacPherson; the School of Music students met with Dean Selkirk and the School of Health and Physical Education—including divisions of Physical Therapy—met with Dean Morgan.

At three meetings, the students received an explanation of the learning program. The last was to start that morning and continue through the afternoon.

Convocation held

Later that evening, a convocation for all freshmen and transfer students. In the evening, an address was given by Dr. Dillingham in the college theater.

After the convocation, an informal dance was held for the new students at the Aurora St. gym. The dance was sponsored by the Varsity Club.

Tuesday morning training conducted for the students of the College of Arts and Sciences. In the evening, Dr. Dillingham spoke to the new students. The topic of his speech was "The Relationship Between the Freshmen and Faculty of Residents and The Freshmen."

Later in the afternoon, a meeting was held in the college theater. Dean Hickman explained the col-

PERSONALITY OF THE MONTH

Jack Cantwell, R-TV, '60

The Ithacan this month salutes an outstanding student and personality at Ithaca College—Jack Cantwell.

Jack is a senior in the Radio and Television Department and will graduate in January. In his years at Ithaca College, he has been active in various school affairs and has made many friends—old friends that he remembers him as a serious and capable television director once more, and as a comic character with his arrow through his hat the next, and saw friends that he met at Frosh Camp where he managed so well the job of co-director this September.

Born in Pennsylvania

Pennsylvania was his original home and he later moved to Illinois for high school and two years of college. Abandoning his experiment as a chemistry major at Franklin and Marshall, Jack went into the service. The arroy took him to Korea for security work. Jack can speak and write Korean.

His next jump was in Korea. There he found an opportunity to revive his previous college interest in theater as a member of an acting group that did in his successful run of The Diary of Anne Frank. This play was a very important factor in Jack's life. Perhaps it was influential in his choice of what major field to pursue.

TV DIRECTOR

At any rate, it has continued to bring him recognition at Ithaca College. He is an actor in the Green Room production and a television director in his own production The Diary. Last year Jack worked as cameraman for the Dr. Harvey show and was promoted to assistant director for the Dr. Ogden show. Of course, he was practically everywhere at one time or another on Showtime. Dean Dean in Scoundrels, Pudge Master of Delia Rappa, and member of the Ithaca staff were among his other activities. And he managed good grades.

Graduates in January

This will be Jack's last semester at Ithaca College. Already he has done his field training in advertising and television and already he has "programmed" Frosh Camp. He will assist the director on a new TV show "Teen Jury" and will act as Historian for his group. Advertising or programming is what Jack plans to do in the future. It will be a big semester for Jack and we hope he will have a big future.

THE TWO ITHACAS

Ken Murray

Often in the excitement of getting ready another school year, we, the students of Ithaca College, tend to forget that we are blessed by the privilege of attending college in a beautiful city, Ithaca. We also tend to forget that when we, the students of Ithaca College, and others like us from a neighboring institution of higher education, turn to the task of buying a little town each Fall, we bring with us a hustle and bustle and change that is unknown to the natives of this little central New York community in the good old Summer time.

The fact is that Ithaca in the Summer is far different from Ithaca in the Winter, (also Ithaca in the Spring and Fall). O'Murray was no one to exaggerate. Take, for example, his statement in 1959, "Ithaca is a bed of shamrocks if you could see it. It is an Ithaca that works hard, lives hard (there seems to have been a certain doubt in the minds of some as to the validity of the last statement), above all, plays hard.

This is the Ithaca of the weekends and parties, and classes, and weekends and parties, and, weekend and parties. This is the Ithaca that defines the claims that Milwaukee was the city that made all those beer famous. (Or was it that they were supposed to have made Milwaukee famous? I never did get that straight). Anyway, this is the city where that challenge awaits the whole state.

The fact is that Ithaca in the Summer is the equal of any city in the country. People come here for rest. People come to enjoy the wonderful scenic beauty of the countryside. People come here to get away from it all. Yes, Ithaca, in the summer of 1959, has changed only outwardly from the good old days. There is still that spirit in the town that prompted the noted late nineteenth century author H. O'Conn or to say, "This beautiful hamlet (Ithaca), no doubt as it is among rolling hills and grazing the shores of a large and beautiful lake, is indeed a shining gem."

The big question is, "Upon graduation, what business and with which company should I associate myself?" Two further considerations are, "Will I really enjoy what I am doing?" and "Can I do something in the things which are asked of me?"

All the questions you may ask about a career, you may have, and research you conduct can't answer. Only experience can assure a man that he will really like what he does, and that he can be eminently successful in it.

Appreciatively Helpful

This obvious conclusion was reached many years ago in the medical and legal professions and was the basic reason for the system of internship and clerkship which are peculiar to these careers. These periods of practical apprenticeship are, of course, largely responsible for the high incidence of lasting merit which mark the practice of these professions.

One of the outstanding inter­ national organizations on behalf of the Provident Mutual Life Insurance Company. The first life insurance company to adopt such a plan on a broad scale, the Company began its initial work in this field in 1921. Since that time, Provident Mutual has widened its operation to cover forty colleges and universities across the United States.

To Ithaca Program

Your first interview will be as an intern with one of the Company's agencies. He will determine in detail the way the program can fit into your own particular schedule. Some of the major things he will want to discuss with you are:

1. How much time will this take?
2. Why I have to give up other activities?
3. What kind of training will there be?
4. What are the income possibilities?
5. What about summer work?
6. How will I be selected?
7. What happens when I am graduated?

Mr. Myers, manager of Provident Mutual's Rochester Agency, will be on campus October 26 to select and organize the Ithaca College Campus Unit. Please contact Mrs. Lynch for the time and location of your interview.

DID YOU KNOW THAT: LC's Mel Girolao was named to the District 2 NCAA all-star baseball team. He made it as a left-fielder. Skip Lyons, an infielder from Bound Brook, N. J., led the fresh hitters last season with a .340 average. . . . I.C. lost to Penn State in the District 2 finals of the NCAA tourney last June. 7-5, after it had nipped the University of Pittsburgh, 4-3, in the semi-finals. . . . Bob Graham hit and hurled the Bombers to the 11 inning victory. He scattered eight hits and struck out 11 in a stirring performance. . . . The Bombers won that one by virtue of a run home in the 11th. . . . Who hit it? . . . You guessed it—Graham himself. . . . The 1965 Bombers finished their ride with a 15-2 won-lost record.

BOMBER'S RECORD: Bob Graham

Offensive RE记ND: 51 1B; 1-0 HR; 0-0 3B; 15-2 BB; 10-0 K.

Fielding Record: 1-0 E; 18-0 DP.

Stolen Bases: 15; 11-2 Pl.

Career Record: 217 1B; 340 2B; 14 3B; 14 4B; 15 5B; 16 HR.

How About This Team: Ithaca's team batting average for 17 games was a lusty .306. . . . Stew Bower, the puppy little second baseman, led all the hitters with a .456 average, with 25 for 56. . . . Shortstop Wll Chabata had 52 for 117 for a .451 average. . . . Mel Girolao cracked 27 for 65 to hit .415. . . . Other batting averages were: Joe Materle, '67; Perry Nunn, '67 (Perry led the squad in stats with 26 for 52); Al Cala, '68; Bob Hoyt, '68; and Brian Mees, '68.

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING: Girolao and Hoyt tied for team leadership in batters with three each. . . . Girolao was also the most productive Bomber with 26 RBIs in 17 games. . . . Bowers' 36 hits led in that department. . . . Bob Carty, junior porterfield from Hydeville, N. Y., led the pitchers with a 2-0 record, and a remarkable R.E.A. of .00 (And you can't get any lower than that). . . . Bob Graham was undefeated in five decisions. Rich Sheckowak was 5-2, and Bud Curry, who led the team in strikeouts with 61 in 49 innings, was 5-3.

DURING THE SUMMER: Graham, Sheckowak, Materle, Nunn, and Curry took pro contracts. . . . Graham was with Hartingfield of the Class B Three-F League, Curry with with Guelph, a Canadian team; Sheckowak was with Penn of the Class C California league. Nunn was with the Chicago Cubs organization, and Materle was with Peninsula of the Class D Alabama-Florida league. . . . Materle, a durable first baseman, with a strong right arm, received an estimated $6,000 green ones to sign with the Orioles. . . . Sheckowak made an impressive debut with a four hit calcutta job over Modesto. . . . Ken Slater, who earned for the 1956 fresh team a good year with the Auburn Yankees of the NY-P league. . . . Ken reportedly hit .372 after an early season slump kept him around the .220 mark. . . . Andy Sesto also had a fine year with the play for pay boys in a Class D southern circuit. . . . Andy started at short stop for the 1956 College varsity. . . . I.C. WILL HAVE a new freshman football coach in Vincent J. Messina, of Bowling Green State U., Ohio. . . . This season will also see a "captain-system" being used on the field. . . . Lyon innovated the idea when John Fasolino, elected captain for this season, was shelved with a left knee injury sustained in last year's Cortaca-Johnson game. . . . Lyon, who is in his final year, was also the most productive bomber with 26 RBIs and 36 hits. . . . Andy Scerbo had the unenviable task of holding down the tough first basemen slot on the soccer squad this year. . . . Phil follows two I.C. greats at center-half, Pete Sands, '58, and Joe Drum, '59.
