Campus Organizations and Activities

WICB

WICB is the college radio station and services both Ithaca and Cornell. Through a cooperative effort, the Cornell University station, WVBR and WICB broadcast a single program on the College Broadcast Network. Ithaca College students will hear their own fellow students on air from 4 p.m. to midnight. At midnight, IC students can hear Cornell disc jockeys on WCBN.

The Station Manager of WICB, is a senior Radio TV major, John Von Soosten. The AM program director is Bill Groody, and the FM director is Dee Adamezyk.

The TV programming will be expanded this year.

EUB

The Egbert Union Board is a student groups whose responsibility it is to provide various cultural, social and recreational events through the year.

The Board is formed entirely of students with the Union Director serving as Advisor. The President of the Union Board is Bob Lorenz. The President is aided by an Executive Board which oversees the seven committees working for the Union. These committees are: Exhibit, Film, Forum, Improvement and Development, Performing Arts, Recreation, and Social.

EUB regularly sponsors various cultural series; among these, the best known is the C. P. Snow Lecture Series. This year, EUB is presenting two concert series, the Gold and the Blue. Among other annual events are the Student Art Show and the Spring Picnic.

The Pub

The Pub, located in the Towers complex, is to be used by Ithaca College students and their guests. No student who is under 18 will be served in the Pub. The bartenders have a list of all students who are not yet legal. Proof of age is to be shown, and no beer may be taken from the Pub area.

The Pub hours are: week days from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m.; Friday, from 4 p.m. to midnight; Saturday from 1 p.m. to 1 a.m. Sunday is considered a week-day.

Along with the student bartenders there is the Liquor Commission which is also composed of students. The Commissioners' purpose is to supervise the Pub area and maintain order.

Student Publications

There are three regular publications at Ithaca College. The Cayugan, an annual yearbook; The Ithacan, a weekly newspaper, and South Hill, an annual literary magazine are published by students for the college community.

All three publications require extensive support from the students through actual work, compliments and criticisms. These publications serve the needs of the students by supplying resumes of the year, a collation of literary talent of campus, and weekly events. All three staffs are composed of members from all schools.

Musical Organization

There are three concert bands, one orchestra, one marching band, and a Jazz Lab at Ithaca all of which are open to any student who qualifies. For students interested in singing, there are the Concert Choir and the I.C. Chorus.

The Concert Band, under the direction of Walter Beeler, is composed of the best musicians at Ithaca College. The Repertory Band is primarily designed for acquainting musicians with the knowledge of band literature. This band is under the direction of Hubert Hutchinson. The third band at Ithaca is the Training Band, under the direction of Edward Gobrecht. Here the students, primarily freshmen, are taught the proper techniques of playing in large ensembles.

Don Wells, a conducting teacher, is in charge of the orchestra. The purpose of this group is to provide string players with an opportunity for large ensemble playing.

The Marching Band is starting its third season. James Finn, music coordinator of West Genesee schools, heads the Marching Band. This organization provides entertainment through precision music during the football season.

The Jazz Lab, supervised by Donald Sinta, experiments with modern jazz trends. This provides a unique experience for those not interested in strictly classical music.

Ithaca College has a Concert Choir and a Chorus both of which are under the direction of Greg Smith. The Chorus is open to any student who wishes to sing. The Choir is a select group of 40 people. The Concert Choir has toured Europe and has recorded for Stravinsky.

All students interested in auditioning for any of the above should contact Walter Beeler, Assistant Dean of the School of music.

Sports Clubs

There are many clubs geared for the athletically minded students. The Women's Athletic Association, the Men's Intramural Athletic Association, and the Varsity Club are open to students from all three schools. The Major's Club is only open to students of Physical Education or Physical Therapy.

WAA is composed of interested women who enjoy sports and the spirit of good sportsmanship. The sports schedules set up for this year include volleyball, badminton, tennis, basketball, softball, and bowling.

MIAA's purpose is to make possible for each male undergraduate to participate in group sports. During the fall and spring the main attraction are football and softball, respectively. Generally, dorms or fraternities form teams to compete against one another in round robin tournaments.

The Varsity Club is composed of all of students who have earned a letter in one of the major sports here. The Majors Club serves to promote further interest in the standards of health and physical education.

Religious Groups

There are three religious organizations on campus to serve the needs of the students here. The Newman Club serves primarily Catholic students; UCF incorporates all the Protestant faiths; and Hillel is for the Jewish students.

The faiths are represented by the Rabbi Goldfarb, the Reverend Clarkson, and Father Graf all of whom has offices located in the basement of Dorm No. 3.

All three faiths sponsor activities pertaining to the religions. There are also many discussion groups held. The Newman Club holds a mass each Sunday in Ford Hall Auditorium at 11 a.m. Mass will start this Sunday.

Inter-Fraternity Council

The Inter Fraternity Council is responsible for coordinating the activities of all the fraternities and sororities on the campus. Under the new program for the Greeks, made in conjunction with the new housing complex, the Council is also responsible for serving in a judicial capacity for some of the violation of college rules involving Greeks.

There are 16 professional and social fraternities on the I.C. campus. All social fraternities and sororities are local. The professional fraternities are organized by subjects and have activities pertaining to their given fields.

Freshmen may not join a fraternity until their second semester, at which time they must have a 2:100 index. This rule exists so that freshmen will have time to adjust to their studies before they can participate in pledging. However, Frosh are generally invited to attend the Fall Rush Parties to meet the Greeks.

The President of IFC is Bill Thayer who is also chairman for the IFC Weekend which will replace the Fall Weekend of past years. Prior to IFC Weekend, the various Greeks will be introducing themselves to you on a formal basis during the Rush Period from October 1-14.

Student Government

MGB

The Men's Governing Board is the judicial and legislative body of male students of Ithaca College. Its function is to recommend and assist in establishing and enforcing college regulations pertaining to male conduct on campus.

It is the responsibility of MGB to cooperate with the constituted authority of Ithaca College and the student government organization to formulate rules and regulations which shall be observed in all male dormitories on campus.

The president of MGB is Fred Alexander.

WGB

Women's Governing Board is the Executive and Judicial body of the Women students at Ithaca College. It works with the House Councils and the Administration in promoting the smooth functioning of dormitory living. It meets periodically with the House Residents, the Student Council representatives and the Freshmen representatives.

WGB also reviews some of the more serious social offenses and makes recommendations to the Dean of Women.

Last year, WGB was expanded to ten members; the president for this year is Vicki Werder.

Student Congress

The Student Congress is the legislative branch of Student Government. The Congress Chairman is elected in the spring semester for the Congress representatives. He, along with the President of the Student Body, coordinate student affairs and activities.

Student Congress endeavors to maintain and uphold the social regulations and the customs and traditions of the college. The Congress meetings are open to all students so that there may be intelligent discussions and decisions made that will be of benefit to as many students as possible.

Among the Congress' responsibilities are Orientation, Grievances, Services, Activities, and Cooperative endeavors with Student Government of other college in the College Center of the Finger Lakes.

The President of the Student Body is Dave Gearhart. The Chairman of Congress is Phil Sloat.

Student Court

Student Court acts as an intermediary between the administration in cases involving disciplinary penalties. It also acts as an intermediary in cases of disputes between student organizations. The Court is composed of seven justices: one chief justice plus one male student and one female student from each of the upper three undergraduate classes.

Student Court is important in that it allows for peer judgment and a further insight into the responsibilities of growing maturity.

The chief justice for this academic year is Bill Schwab.

Fraternities and Sororities

The local socials are: Delta Kappa, social fraternity; Delta Phi Zeta, social sorority; Gamma Delta Pi, social service sorority; Pi Lambda Chi, social fraternity; and Sigma Alpha Nu, social fraternity.

The professional Greeks at Ithaca are generally affiliated nationally or internationally. There are 11 in all. They are: Alpha Epsilon Rho, National Honorary Radio-Television fraternity; Delta Sigma Pi, International Professional Business fraternity; Kappa Gamma Psi, National Music Fraternity of America, Inc.; Mu Phi Epsilon, International Professional Music sorority; Phi Delta Pi, National Professional Physical Education Fraternity for Women; Phi Epsilon Kappa, National Physical Education fraternity; Phi Mu Alpha, Sinfonia, National Music Fraternity of America; Pi Theta Phi, local Physical Therapy co-ed fraternity; Rho Mu Theta, math and science fraternity; Sigma Alpha Iota, National Professional Music Fraternity for Women; and Theta Alpha Phi, National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity for men and women.

Aside from the regularly incorporated Greeks, there are some honorary organizations on campus which use Greek letters for their names but are not considered fraternities or sororities.

These groups are: Delta Mu Delta, National Honor Society for Business Administration; Epsilon Nu Gamma, Literary Society of Ithaca College; Pi Kappa Delta, co-educational National Honorary Speech Fraternity connected with the Ithaca College Forensic Association; and Zeta Sigma Nu, Freshmen Honorary Society. Oracle is the Honor Society for upperclassmen.

A Message From Your Student Body President

This week has in all probability been filled with a variety of new experiences for each of you. The activities that you encountered are just examples of many more which Ithaca offers. Student Government is one of the most important in that it affects the lives of all the students. Our office is located on the top floor of the Union. It will be open every weekday night except Thursday from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. We are more than willing to be of any help concerning your problems and want to hear your ideas.

Student Government as you might know, encompasses all activities within the college community. The integral parts of Student Government are Women's Governing Board, Men's Governing Board, the Executive Committee, Student Congress, and Student Court. IFC, whole not directly within the borders of Student Government is closely affiliated in that the Inter Fraternal Council serves only the Greeks directly; and Student Government serves and works with all students.

THE CLASS OF '70 — A NEW ERA

Just five short years ago, the Ithaca College campus was slightly more than a mud hole. You entering Freshmen see before you a fantastic accomplishment. The first graduating class to spend their college years on South Hill was the Class of '66. When they entered as Freshmen they were greeted by five little dorms (the upper girls quad), one Student Union, and a Health Center.

The Class of '67 witnessed the complete additions of five more little dorms (lower boys quad), and half a Science Building.

The Class of '68 had a finished Science Building, and a Music Building, and a Physical Education Building, and half of Noah's Ark.

The Class of '69 had a completed Noah's Ark and complex, and a library. The Towers complex—containing two dorms, one cafeteria, one snack bar, and one Pub.

And now, you, the Class of '70 also witness the almost complete small housing complex, housing fraternities, sororities, and honor dorms. The excavation for the Fine Arts complex is scheduled to begin in November.

For the Class of '71, there will be a completed campus—for convenience and finer opportunities. However, and more importantly, behind the completed complex, there lies for the Class of '71 a legacy from our President and his tireless staff. Dr. Dillingham, an extremely competent president and fine Public Relations man has built us a campus. Remember that without his effort and constant drive to have a unified, modern, attractive, and well designed campus, South Hill would still be a quaint mudhole—if that.

This campus, with its building and expansion program, has also undergone new changes in the old curricula. The Arts and Science school has perhaps made the most changes. We are fortunate to have many fine professors here who are not complacent with the past, but who are constantly trying to improve the courses, studying conditions, and entire educational motivation.

Remember, Class of '70, you have before you an extremely unique campus compared with other campuses in the United States. You have some very fine people working for you. There will be times when you, like us, will become annoyed about something or another.

That's healthy. But, at the same time, keep in mind all that you have already been given, try to reason things out. Question? Yes, by all means. That's healthy. But it is unhealthy just to complain. Remember, Class of '70, you are perhaps more fortunate that the rest of us here. You have an almost complete campus with very few inconveniences before you. It is up to you to live up to what you have been given by a very tireless president and some of his staff.

Traffic Improvement

The Ithacan has been watching the progress of the Ithaca College program of expansion on South Hill for a few years now. While there are always a lot of problems due to construction and repair, this college opening has differed from all others. Generally during Orientation and the permanent location of all students, the chaos and disorder was considerable.

This year, however, under the direction of Chief Ed O'Mara, Ithaca College Safety Patrol, the traffic condition was minimized to no confusion. The Chief was ably assisted by George Herrin, the new Superintendent of Building and Grounds. Both men worked out a system which made moving around the campus as easy as possible.

We think that this improvement helped the general morale aside from easing parents of further annoyances. It was a job well done.

An Easy Move

A second vote of thanks goes again to George Herrin for his arrangements for moving upperclassmen into the new Terrace Apartments. Many students were inconvenienced by temporary living accommodations in other dorms; however, Herrin made available his men and trucks to help move, easily and quickly and skillfully all the possessions into the new houses.

Moving in has always been a problem here, as well as the traffic situation. The men moved one or two people at a time, and nothing was lost.

The Ithacan would appreciate the attendance of any students with a working knowledge of journalism or with a desire to learn the art & fun of publishing, to a meeting on Monday, at 7 p.m. in the Ithacan Office, located in the basement of Dorm 3.
