Ithaca College Man Organizes Little Theatre Movement
In West Virginia

Arthur C. Rowland, on an Ithaca College student, has started the Little Theatre movement in West Virginia. He is planning to organize a club of players in this city last evening at a session held at the high school building.

Mr. Rowland has spent the past years in Ithaca, New York, taking studying dramatics and during that time, have secured many small roles and received intensive training in the art of acting. He has appeared in many amateur plays in this community and has taken many stellar roles during his high school days for which he is widely known and respected. His acting ability and rendering of exceptional ability and has made a mark on the little theatre movement in this country.

Mr. Rowland, who has had much experience and interest in drama, was elected president of the club.

THE BLUE AND GOLD

Word by Bob deLaney, '30
Musical by Robert Ritter, '32
Arranged by Charles M. Howard and Arthur Whitman, '32

The Ithaca College Band will occupy the Hall at three o'clock. The strains of the Ithaca College Band will accompany the chapel hour. Last year this organization met with such student approval that the Little Theatre Hall was completely crowded at each band assembly.

We should be grateful to the administration for the abandonment of compulsory student attendance at assemblies. We can show our approval by willing attendance. —E.F.

The conservatory students have Professor Weaver of Cornell in a talk on the University Conservatory.

The first student recital takes place in the Little Theatre on Tuesday, October 15.

Ithaca M. holds to Cortland, 12-0. The Physical Education students start off well but became baffled when opponents open up a splendid passing game. Lott's Daklarke and Millcreek star on offense. The game is played amid snow flurries.

Dorothy Wood arranges a program for freshman room night. The event is held under the auspices of W.S.G.A.

Professor Yavitz heads the Mad Hatter's Ball parade. Professor Tabor is guest of honor with a dog mascot as prize for the most original costume.

Ernest S. Williams, dean of the Ithaca Military Band school, makes changes in organization. Three bands are started: the second, first, and the concert. Only Freshmen play in the second band.

Miss Gertrude Evans, director of publicity, speaks to the members of W.S.G.A., as representative of the Welfare Committee. Dean Powell sends to the girls for the first time of the quarter.

Jean Lee Latham of the Williams School faculty accepts a position as editor and play reviewer for the dramatic Publishing Company of Clumps.

Theatre and a restriction into selling can openers. And when they are as low as $19.00 it seems a shame to get less than the best.

I wish you knew what I know about clothes.

Then you’d know what to buy when you see the picture.

We had a very pleasant surprise last week-end. Grace Salton, an alumna of the class of 1931, came back to see us. Our guests were glad to see her big way, but I guess we weren't the only ones. Grace was in Rochester and Magie Langer journeyed to Marge's home in Ogdensburg, New York, for the week end. Sunday night we had house commit tee elections. The following were voted elected:

President—Marion Wooster

Vice President—Vi Covell

Secretary—Betty Graham

Treasurer—Grace McNees

We are happy to welcome Ruth Cunningham to our midst once more.

Times were increased. Metal daily gold was 0.000 lire. Sunday, after sketches, he had made an almost perfect score by the national standard of 100 yards. He then fired 100 rounds in twenty-four hours, each shot hitting the target within the outside limits of the circle. But, as he turned from firing, he failed to scan the breach lock of the rifle. Mr. Lyon, the Secretariat Brodini said: "I am sorry, Mr. Sperry, but you are five lire late."

Premier Benito Mussolini similarly paid off a five lire fine (25 cents) for not being made perfect on the national mark. This strike was the result of a twenty-four-hour vigil, each shot hitting the target within the outside limits of the circle. But, as he turned from firing, he failed to scan the breach lock of the rifle. Mr. Lyon, the Secretariat Brodini said: "I am sorry, Mr. Sperry, but you are five lire late."
