WM Chief McNutt Defines Students Part In War

Must Supply Technicians

The college student's part in winning the war has been clearly laid down by War Manpower Chief Paul V. McNutt. The path of service forks: All able-bodied males are bound for duty in the armed forces. All others, men and co-eds, must be trained to carry the ball on the Home Front.

Mr. McNutt in a speech at Purdue recently, said:

"The colleges and universities are charged with increasing the number of technicians upon which both industry and the armed forces depend. The colleges and universities, by insuring a continual supply of technically trained men and women, can insure the continual increase of our strength for victory and for peace."

More Men Needed

In another statement, Secretary of War Stimson explained that the armed forces are already running short of manpower and new recruits must be called up. Student members of the enlisted reserve will not be summoned until some indefinite time in the future—they will be called up at the end of the present college terms as they reach the draft age of 20.

"The stepping up of the intensity of the vital combat in which we are engaged and the growing need for enlarged forces," he said, "make it clear that all young men fortunate enough to have the physical and mental qualifications to enable them to serve their country in the armed forces are destined for that service."

When the reservists are called to the colors, Mr. Stimson added, the Army will give them highly specialized training to fit them for specific military tasks. The ROTC training program will be modified, he said, but he did not enlarge on this point.

Draft Age To Be Lowered

Signs multiplied, meanwhile, that the draft age would be lowered to 18 sooner or later. The Senate Military Affairs Committee called a hearing on the Gurney bill and the comparable committee in the House is expected to take it up later. F. W. Wilby, superintendent at West Point, added his voice to those who believe that the realities of total war demand the supple bodies, clear minds and un-fettered hearts of the 18- and 19-year olds.

President Roosevelt expressed the opinion that it would not be necessary to call up the younger boys before Jan. 1. The present selective service law, he told a press conference, is providing

Cayugan To Be Published First Term

The members of the New Cayugan staff, after having given the matter thoughtful consideration, have decided that it will be best to publish the College Yearbook for this school year in December, thus eliminating the problem of mailing books to the great majority of seniors who will have graduated. By following this plan, it will be possible to continue the book on the regular two semester basis.

Editor Joe Stutzman expressed the hope that all students will realize that circumstances this year are unusual and that the time between now and December is short. Therefore, the good cooperation of everyone in getting pictures taken when appointments are made and the like will be greatly appreciated.

"Romeo and Juliet" Opens Fall Season

The Ithaca College Drama Department opens its season with a four day run of "Romeo and Juliet" on October 21, 22, 23 and 24. The coming production now in rehearsal for its second week, though admittedly one of the most ambitious undertakings of the College Theatre, has already brought out many examples of latent talent that predict a well acted play, according to the director, Dr. Charles McGaw.

Howard Johnson will play Romeo to the Juliet played by Bette Buehler, former star of the Syracuse University Civic Theatre. Gloria Hoffpauir is assigned to the playing of the Nurse, Ronald Bishop to the part of Mercutio, and Vincent Garnet to Tybalt.

An artful and judicious cutting of the play, together with the ingenious multiple setting designed by Mr. George Hoerner, will eliminate the "waits" between scenes, and insure that the play will move. The Renaissance setting of the play will be carried out in the setting, the costuming, and in the music. If present plans can be perfected, the College Orchestra, under the direction of Professor Pierre Herroite, will play the Tchaikowski score of "Romeo and Juliet."

Plans Still Underway For Servicemen's Bulletin

At a summer meeting of the Student Council, a member of the student body presented to the Council a detailed plan for maintaining a contact between the school and its former students who now form an active part of the U. S. armed forces.

The plan proposed, authorized an appropriation of funds to build

Mr. Newens Again At Helm of Drama Dept.

Mr. Adrian M. Newens who for the past four years has been director of public relations at Ithaca College, has returned to his former position as head of the drama department to take the place of Dr. Winn F. Zeller, who has resigned to assume his duties as a second lieutenant in the army air corps, it was announced last Monday by Dr. Leonard B. Job, president of the college.

Mr. Newens, who received his A.B. degree in dramatics at Drake University, Des Moines, Ia., came to Ithaca College in 1931 from Lincoln, Neb., where he had been director of the university school of music for 12 years.

At Iowa State College, Ames, Ia., he was professor of public speaking and assistant professor of English for a period of 12 years, and then, for eight years, he was active in lyceum and Chautauqua work, serving for the Redpath bureau as director of programs. After this he came to Ithaca College where he served for seven years as director of English, Speech, and Dramatics until he became Manager of the Ithaca College Council.

Mr. Newens will continue in his former capacity as far as his time will permit, especially in the editing of the Alumni News and the supervision of the alumni records with some public relations work thrown in.

a bulletin board to be placed in the Administration Building lobby. This bulletin board was to be fitted with individual cards, each card representing a serviceman who has gone from Ithaca College in the past decade. Each card was to reveal the name, office, address, and other bits of information regarding each individual.

After much debate on the part of the Council, however, the motion was defeated. The decision of the Council was a result of the following facts; one, that there is no appropriate space in the lobby or in any other of the College buildings in which a bulletin board of the size and type suggested may be erected. Two; that the sum of money suggested would be wasted in large part, because the board could not fulfill its purpose because of an inappropriate environment.

There has been evidence that many I.C. students are still in favor of the proposed idea, and are anxious to see it go into effect immediately.

The Ithaca College football team will open its '42 grid season against Albright, at Reading, Pa., next Friday, October 2. With less than three weeks practice and only one week's scrimmage under their belt the Bombers will get rolling against this powerful Pennsylvania eleven.

Ithaca, who was scheduled to play American International of Springfield on the 2nd of October was asked to cancel the game as A. & I. were unable to find the sufficient transportation facilities to engage in the opener. The following week's home game with Potomac State has also been canceled for similar reasons. One of Uncle Sam's service teams from Ft. Hamilton in Brooklyn, N. Y., will be the replacement. This game is scheduled for the 10th of October and will be played at Percy Field.

Bombers Show Increased Spirit

The I.C. gridsters show much enthusiasm over their coming tilt with Albright for the miners are rated as one of the outstanding small college football teams of the year. In previous years Albright has supported very strong schedules with such teams as Carnegie Tech., Bucknell and Hobart.

Under the veteran eyes of Coach Freeman the varsity club is undergoing stiff practice drills at Percy Field and is rapidly getting into shape. Without a doubt the boys are working hard, all striving for that starting berth. With few of last year's veterans back Bucky has several spots to fill with freshman material.

The attendance of a large number of backs make it probable that the club will have a fast-stepping backfield. With the exception of a few returning veterans the power and ability of the line is still hard to determine.

With about one more week of practice and a little smoothing

FIELD HOCKEY BECOMING POPULAR

Field hockey is comparatively new in America, but according to Miss Page, woman's physical education instructor, more Freshmen girls were acquainted with the game this year than in previous years, indicating that the sport is becoming prominent among fall activities for girls throughout the country. It is highly probable that the sport will gain in popularity since the adoption of the nationwide physical fitness program.

Here at the College, instruction periods are held once a week where-in the students are taught the fundamentals, techniques and rules of the game. Practice games are also held to add realism and offer a chance for experience.

Two Ithaca College Grads Land New Jobs

Mrs. Eleanor Irvin Hardy, who graduated from the Department of Drama at Ithaca College with the class of 1940, has been appointed Director of the Booker T. Washington Community Center, in Auburn, N. Y. Mrs. Hardy was well known at Ithaca College, where, as Eleanor Irvin, she took an active part in dramatics and was outstanding as a student.

Upon graduation from Ithaca, she was employed as teacher in a Negro school near Petersburg, Va., for two years. There, she taught English, and succeeded in creating genuine community interest in community drama projects. While a student at Ithaca College, she worked with the Southside Community Center as recreation director.

Marlin Morette, I. C. grad of '36 has recently been appointed to fill the instrumental teaching vacancy at the Ithaca Sr. High School. Mr. Morette is well known among students and faculty members at Ithaca College. During the past summer semester, he was employed here as instructor of trombone and baritone horn. It is of interest to note that under the new practice teaching set-up in music, Mr. Morette will again be working with Ithaca College students as one of our practice teaching supervisors.

Well the ole ball is beginning to roll and is rapidly gaining headway. Letters from our boys in the armed forces are coming to us from all parts of the country.

From PFC COURTLAND W. FIERO, 1st Band-B.I.R.T.C., Fort McClellan, Ala., we learn: "I received a copy of the Ithacan you sent, and since brother Homer (graduate of '41) was sent to Ft. Belvoir, Va., where he is also attached to the Band at the Engineers Replacement Training center there, I sent it on to him. WAYNE CAMP AND BOB MEADE are also here taking their basic training. Please let me know how things are at the college and what's new at Ithaca. Also, let me know any news about the fellows in the army. (We'll do our best, Court.)—Letters bring a pleasant interlude to the general routine of army life."

"I was lucky to get in the 1st band, which is fairly good as army bands go. I'm sure Mr. Beeler could make a much better one of it. About every week I get one or two dance jobs which seems more like civilian life. I GOT MY FIRST CLASS PRIVATE STRIPE. About all we do is play concerts, drill music, rehearse, and at times are sent to Birmingham and other cities for U.S.O. dances, bond sales, etc." (See what you've got to look forward to Reichenthal?) "Please give my regards to all the rest of the folks at Ithaca."

PVT. JOSEPH SEAVEY, 577 Tech. School Squadron (Sp) T.S. No. 895 A.A.F.T.C. Basic Training Center No. 4 Miama Beach, Fla., writes; "I was sent down here for my basic training but will probably be here for awhile after that. I'm going to RADIO SCHOOL as soon as there is an opening. JOHN MOTTOLA and RED BATES left here not long ago. KEN SHULTZ lives in the same hotel as I do and I am rooming with a music student from I. C. one STU WOLLY, BERNIE O'NEIL, BILL COON, ERNIE LATHERS and MIKE Mc'KILLOP are here also. The hotel we live in is swell and the food is excellent. The only trouble is that they march (CENSORED) out of us every day. The southern boys seem to be the ones who take this work seriously. The Brooklyn cowboys are the guys that get on your nerves." (Joe couldn't be referring to Jesmesjian's homeland could he—or could he? Don't worry Joe, the National League pennant race will quiet 'em down.) "Tell Bill Hope that Coon was asking for him and write soon, mail gives us all a big boost."

BRUCE E. FLAHERTY AS USNR CO. 917, Camp Green Bay, U.S. N.T.S., Great Lakes, Ill., informs us that ". . . . I think I'll be around to see you in about three and a half weeks. Our "beat" period has been shortened, due, no doubt, to the huge numbers of Navy enlistments. So 20 days from today (Sept. 17) we are supposed to blow out of here. We haven't had too bad a time here, though. Of course, there have been a lot of things to irk us, such as extra duty for not tying up our ditty bags correctly and no movies, but all in all it's been fairly nice. . . . I've got the fire-guard detail from midnight until four, so I'll sign off now. Tell the mob to please write, and soon!"

We learn from CHARLIE BAKER, Hq. Company 88th Infantry Division, Camp Gruber, Okla., that ". . . things are going great, altho I would much rather be in old I. C. "(is that so strange?) Charlie reports that HOWARD HILLIS, JOE DORAZIO AND LES BARTON are in the same camp.

AVIATION CADET ROBERT G. EDWARDS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Edwards, 76 Pine Brook Drive, Larchmont (an old grad) received the gold bars and silver wings of a second lieutenant and pilot in the Army Air Forces at graduation exercises held at Napier Field, Army Air forces, advanced flying school, Dothan, Ala., it was announced recently by the Public Relations Office.

LT. JOHN PARKANSKY, 332nd Fighter Squadron, Orange County Airport, Santa Anna, Calif, writes ". . . . we have no water. Shaving and bathing is more than a problem, especially since this joint must be the dead center of the dead center of all of the big and little dust bowls. One can see plainly that they're breaking us in . . . by rather violent steps, for some kind of foreign service . . . We are flying P-38's. I haven't had much time in them so far . . . about 5 hours. The 38 is a wonderful ship and I think the later models are the best fighter planes in the world today. I'll probably get my first formation flight today. Formation is a helluva lotta fun, but you really perspire in there until you have enough hours of practice—or rehearsal. We're rehearsing for a pretty big show—and I hope we're all around for the final curtain. By the way, I was a nervous wreck, nearly, when I took off in a P-38 for the first time. You're busier than one man trying to produce a mob scene in a marionette show all by himself. As for as I know HOWIE HALL is still at Midland Texas, and SEITER (DENNY) must be somewhere in Primary Training by this time. Say "Hello" to every-one.

Freshman had their first view of 506 East Seneca St. on September 17 at our annual smoker. Highlighted feature of the evening was a violin solo artistically rendered by Mr. Coad. Brothers Miller, Roosevelt, Cusma, Jamieson, and Korkosz also contributed to the program. After refreshments, freshman and members alike picked up instruments and "jammed" until Dr. Zeller announced quiet hour at 11:30.

Kappa Gamma will regret the loss of Gene Reichenthal who will leave shortly for the army. We're sorry you can't stick around longer Gene, you've steered us well in the short time you have been at the helm. Landon Morton has been elected as our new presiding officer.

Our next social event will be an open house dance held in conjunction with S.A.I., this evening, Friday, September 25. The welcome mat will be spread for anyone caring to drop in and "trip the light fantastic." We'll see you there.

Now that our house opening and open house dance are things of the past it may be well to look towards the future. It was both interesting and satisfying to see the large attendance of freshmen at our house dance. This indication of social mindedness on the part of the freshman is a promising note for the support of coming school social functions.

Our next social event will be a freshman smoker to be held Wednesday, September 30. The smoker will include refreshments and entertainment by house and faculty members and enough weeds to

Delta Phi Zeta

With the beginning of school, everyone is bound to find himself in a dither. Right now a great many of the Delta Phi Zeta girls find themselves so, with practice teaching, academic work and school activities on their hands. Ruth Oakey is now in Spencer, N. Y., teaching; Evelyn Keeler and June Doerner, in Binghamton, N. Y.; Harriet Wolf, in Syracuse, N. Y.; and Mary Jones in Bradford, N. Y.

However, there are many social and other activities that are pertinent at the present moment. On Saturday night, September 26, the members of Delta Phi Zeta cordially invite everyone to an informal open house dance.

On Monday Delta Phi Zeta Sorority extends its greeting to the Physical Education women in particular and hopes that there will be many of you at 510 East Seneca Street then.

Although the time may seem a little far in the future, October 10 will be upon all of us before we know it. Saturday, October 10 is the date of Delta Phi Zeta's big dance of the year, Madhatter's. Please start thinking about it everybody and don't forget to buy those tickets when they go on sale. It's formal, novel and just a great deal of fun.

FUTURAMA
By WAYNE RETZLAFF

EUGENE REICHENTHAL

Eugene Reichenthal, president of Kappa Gamma Psi, president of the Interfraternity Council, and Managing Editor of the Ithacan for two years, was born in the little town of Bronx, N. Y., on March 29, 1918.

We Ithacans often wonder how Gene can be so versatile and yet be so modest, but we don't know the half of it.

At Flushing High School, (Gene moved to Flushing at eight) he was Editor in Chief of his high school paper, and received a letter for varsity soccer. He was also secretary of the Interscholastic Algebra League.

After graduating from high school, Gene entered Clark University in Massachusetts to major in English. He changed to Modern Languages after three years and received his degree in 1939.

At Clark, Gene was prominent in extracurricular activities. He received his numerals for basketball in his Junior year and was Editor in Chief of the Clark newspaper. While in this position, Gene was almost expelled from the university for a satirical newspaper about the Clark faculty, but student appeal prevented the college authorities from carrying out their penalty.

After working for a year on a newspaper in Texas, Gene came to Ithaca College to study music. He claims that another reason for his coming to Ithaca was to keep an eye on his brother, a student in the Drama Department.

Gene will be leaving for the Army in a very few days, and gathering hints from his past record, we can expect that he will do his part.

Tape and Liniment

By Richard B. (Jess) Jesmajian

As the curtain comes down on baseball, let's hash over some of the deeds of our own I. C. boys on the baseball front, before we discuss the coming gridiron season.

Our heartiest congratulations go to Eddie Sawyer who rejoined the faculty this week, after leading his Binghamton Triplets to fourth place and to the finals in the playoffs.

Here's hoping that Ed keeps going and will some day head the Champion New York Yankees.

Charles "Tom" Fitzgerald has just completed a successful season with Hagerstown of the Interstate league. Long Tom was the big gun in his teams climb to first place, and was instrumental in their winning of the semi-final playoffs.

However, the Owls lost to Wilmington in the finals.

Down Mobile, Ala. way, rumors have it that Geo. Kissel will be moved up either to Rochester or Columbus, both double "A" clubs. George was ALL-STAR third baseman in his league and wound up the season hitting around .300. Should the war end soon, its very probable that we will see George playing with those dashing St. Louis Cardinal "Gas-House Gang."

When last heard of Fred Winker, star catcher of the great undefeated frosh nine of '41, was playing ball with Pittsfield of the Can-Am league and doing all right by himself.

Dutch Proechel served his time between Binghamton of the Eastern League and Norfolk of the Piedmont this past season, and played good ball. While with Binghamton he hit .314 in ten games.

George Copeland stellar hurler of the great '42 Ithaca club pitched his heart out for the tail end Rome team of the Can-Am league.

Several of our boys played ball on service teams throughout the country. Jack Kroh starred on the Fort Bragg nine, and little Mike Lurel was subbing for Benny McCoy, Connie Mack's $45,000 wonder, on the Great Lakes Naval team coached by Mickey Cochrane.

Fred Collins, first baseman for Kansas City, of the American association, was hitting .303 until he joined the Navy last month.

Lieut. Commdr. Jack Thiesen starred at the initial sack for his San Diego naval nine.

Frank Huchro is still pitching and pounding them out for his Coast Guard club at Staten Island. So far, Frank has been undefeated, hurling several one and two-hit ball games.

Blocks and Tackles

The cancellation of the American International game for Oct. 3 was rather fortunate for I. C. football fans, as they will get a chance to see what our boys can do against a higher ranking Albright eleven. The "Roaring Lions" from Reading, Pa., played such clubs as Bucknell, Carnegie Tech, and Franklin and Marshall. Last season they finished with six wins against 4 losses.

Heading the Red and White whirlwind attack will be triple-threat back Bob Bennett and two great ends, Bill Spangler and Tiny Durke.

It seems a shame that we will be without the services of several veterans, but we are hoping that the slack will be taken up by the incoming freshmen gridironers. As yet, Coach Freeman hasn't a definite line-up in mind, but as practice continues, he is forming several elevens and will make his starting line-up from the best of these.

Head and Toe

Coach Doe Yavits' soccer team is steadily going through its paces, and from all indications will have a successful season. The forward line seems to have the scoring punch that was lacking on last years club. Kear and Hercinger, two new members, have added considerable power and drive to the line. As yet, the half-back positions look rather weak. The full-back posts will be adequately filled by the veterans, Irv Halstead, Dick Cartwright, Tom Fitzgerald, and Jackie Mahr, while the goal duties will be capably handled by Max Talaska and Dick Willover.

It appears that this will be my first and last column for the Ithacan as Uncle Sam and F.D.R. have requested my presence and although Ithaca and I.C. have registered a permanent affection in my heart, duty now calls, and off to the wars I go.

For The Duration

And so class-mates and faculty I bid you fond farewell. I've enjoyed my stay here and I hope to return some day. Best of luck to my successor Tommy O'Connor and the Ithacan staff.
