College Alumni To Give Scholarships

Last semester the Ithaca College Alumni Association awarded $1,950 in scholarships to 31 students. The money was given to the editors and business managers of the two student papers, the Ithacan and the Cayugan. It was applied on 2nd term tuition.

Funds for these awards are raised through the annual payment of dues to the association. The present plan is to continue awards of the same amount each year. Any student interested in the payment of these scholarships, in mid-year of 57-58, is assured.

The campus approved the recommendation.

World-Wide Revolutions In Entertainment

A talent show featuring all students will be held Saturday afternoon, Nov. 5, in the Ithaca College theater. The Friday evening and the Saturday afternoon will be devoted to entertainment programs. The weekend will be highlighted by a formal dance, called Taka-Take, which will begin at 10 p.m. until 1 a.m. at the VFW. Dick DeBenedictis and his combo, The Three Times, will be scheduled.

A picnic is planned for Sunday, Nov. 6, the three day activities will officially begin with a 4 pm session, labeled Take-Off, which will start at 10 p.m. until 1 a.m. at the VFW. Dick DeBenedictis and his combo, The Three Times, will be scheduled.

World-Wide Graduate Directory Available

To answer the needs of educators, the Advancement and Placement Institute announces publication of their first annual WORLD-WIDE GRADUATE AWARD DIRECTORY. This new directory has been prepared as an aid for American teachers, administrators, and students.

The directory is the result of several years of research by the staff of the ADVANCEMENT AND PLACEMENT INSTITUTE, a non-commercial, professional organization. The directory and advisory service for the field of education since 1952, may be examined at the Graduate School, University Placement, or the Ithaca College library, or may be ordered from The Institute at 10 W 43rd, Greenpoint Station, Brooklyn 22, New York for $2.00 a copy.

Students Asked to Use Annex Bulletin Board

A bulletin board for student notices has been provided at the west entrance of the Annex. Any announcement pertaining to anything elsewhere in the building will be emplaced. Students are not permitted to post announcements in other locations, such as the halls, classrooms, the walls of the building, or in the windows of the building.

When this policy was instituted three years ago, several organizations were placing posters and notices throughout the Annex. This action resulted not only in the illegibility of the notices, but often in the annoyance of the student body to whom it was directed. The bulletin board was constructed.

The Student Council is supervising the bulletin board policy and along with the Administration, requests the cooperation of the student body in seeing that it is carried out.

Directory

The 1957-58 Ithaca College Student Directory, which includes the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all students, is ready for distribution in less than two weeks. All students will receive their directories along with the November issue of the Ithacan. The directory was constructed.

Dean John W. Nelsen headed the committee in charge of the directory. Other committee members included Dean Warren Dickman; Dean Craig McHenry; Ronald Anderson; Professor George M. Anderson; Mrs. H. Edith Pearson, chairman of the Board of Trustees; and Professor John C. H. Newell, chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Our college is open to students, faculty, alumni, trustees, and friends of Ithaca College. I wish to talk with you about the significance of this assembly."

"This annual convocation is a unique event in the life of our college. It is not a time for reflection or introspection, but rather a time for celebration and reflection. It is a time to reflect on the achievements of the past year and to look forward to the challenges of the upcoming academic year.

It is a time to reflect on the significance of our work and to be proud of the contributions we are making to the college community.

"This convocation is a time for us to reflect on the future. We face many challenges in the years ahead, but we also have many opportunities. It is a time to reflect on the future and to be excited about the possibilities that lie ahead.

"This convocation is a time for us to reflect on the importance of our work. We are here to serve our students, to help them achieve their goals, and to make a difference in their lives. WITJ Announces New Programs

New shows seem to dominate the WITJ program schedule. The nightly opera is 'Kandahar,' conceived and produced by John Pedito, is a blend of the classic happenings in news, sports, and the woman's world combined with a selective good of pops and the mood music and Madness' takes to the top in pops and the mood music. At 10:05, top WITJ disc jockey's shows such little interest in the WITJ program schedule after an absence of one summer's. This program is designed for those students who seek the finest in classical music. At 9, "Holiday With Music," another Pedito contribution, is heard. "Holiday" takes you on a tour to an interesting spot each week day evening.

At 5:30, each Monday evening, "Haste and Madness" takes to the air. Arnie Sherman and Berdie Rustenberg team up to bring you, pardon the paraphrase, "Humor in the Saratoga Way." At 10:00, top WITJ disc jockey's takes dance with Music to Moonlight. This show features both the tops in pops and the mood music that is so popular today. Added to this, the men from WITJ have been visiting the girls dorms and letting the girls play DJ. They will continue to do so until all the dorms have been visited.

All in all, it shapes up to be another banner year for WITJ.
Faculty Spotlight
On Dr. Lawrence Grant
by Esther Glenn

This year Ithaca College can pride itself on making two important achievements: the first is the introduction of Philosophy into the general college; the second is the appointment of Dr. Lawrence Grant, Ph.D.

Down through the ages, the questioning of great men whose names still ring foremost today, men concerned with the truths underlying all knowledge and humanity, echo as loud and clear in our halls of study as they did in their own day.

When we consider how much our college training in this era, even courtesy and thoughtful consideration of others, is branched from the principal purpose of our attending college, its responsiveness to inevitably separate the chaff from the wheat. Because of our particular segment of time, with its sights set on speed and its "frenetic with the mostest" motto, we miss the humorous subtleties which, if checked, could harness this conglomeration of space racers, and eventually we could possibly settle back and relax...just a little.

Illustrate this with a recent occurrence. In a Ithaca nightspot, "If we don't get to the moon before those Russians, I'll die, I'll just die!" Apparently we've run the gamut. There's just nothing more to do on our own planet. The jazz on Mars in wild, the stars on Venus are jocular, the water skiing on the Sun is well, "out of this world." This astrophysical surge is embarrassing people. Those whom we tag as vain and detached are merely conserving energy, until you find it crazed with science fiction. The moon's library whom you visualized and lectures will be posted at the psychotherapy Building.

Tames A Shrew

Ithaca College played host to the Players Incorporated of Catholic

University last October 4th as part of the New York State Community

Theatre Association's 12th annual conference. The Catholic

Players presented an excellent production of William Shakespeare's The Taming of the Shrew

Little Theatre. An important feature of the N.Y.S.C.T.A.'s three day conference, the dramatic production by the Catholic Players was a tromendous ending to a remarkable weekend of theatrical activity.

Most of the players that appeared in The Taming of the Shrew

had graduated from Catholic University. Their display of ability, cooperation, and interest in the theatre conference certainly spoke well

for their Alma Mater.

The play was well received by what may be considered a highly critical audience well versed in the elements of theatre. Director

Leo Brady and his fine cast deserve congratulations for a job well done.

NOT MUCH ON LOOKS...BUT LOTS OF PERSONALITY
Cornell Closes House Parties

 Cornell University has announced that all house parties are closed. The only exception is for official events and initiations. The campus police have been ordered to arrest any outsiders and to cite them for trespassing with a written invitation from a member of the house where the party is in progress.

 This step is the result of the violent and destructive behavior exhibited at last year's (1957) Spring Weekend. It is re-emphasized that this new policy is optional with all College Students cooperate fully.

 Alumni Notes

 W. Cole, physical educator, '31, is the Associate Director of Health, Physical Education, Athletics, and Recreation of the State Education Department. Recently he was appointed State Director of the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, and Chairman of the Commission on Professional Education and Certification. Mr. Cole resides in Ithaca.

 Clarence R. Warrington, B.S.; M.S.; Music, '39, has been appointed Professor of Music at the Eastman School of Music, Rochester, New York, for the coming year. He is currently serving on his Doctorate of Musical Arts degree. His association has in the pursuit of, than in the assemblies.

 "Perhaps the tolerance shown by the people and by public officials toward the excessive manifestations of the movement suggests that, sometimes gets out of hand, is based on an intuitive understanding of the situation, but that we sometimes express in social and political language the feelings of an awakening of fear forces which can be channelled into constructive activity.

 "The college man and woman is realizing the dream of individual freedom, of the opportunity to achieve something of deepest insight into human experience. As he learns to know himself and to understand the reactions of other human beings, he learns humility and its complement, knowledge."

 "Humility is a counterpoint, a balancing of pride. It is the recognition of the limits of his knowledge, the recognition of the limits of the knowledge of man as he attempts to control the forces of life."

 "If the spirit of humility is conducive to kindness, we should perhaps justify this second virtue in terms of the American præmatura, in terms of the moral atmosphere which is described by the students. Is this not the case?"

 "Our college communities have a contribution to make toward the development of better understanding among our citizens. It is true that the college is concerned with the teaching of scholarship, but it is also concerned with the development of character and citizenship."

 "More emphasis needs to be placed on student participation in the learning process. We all recognize that education is not a process of merely receiving information, but the active participation of the learner."

 "I hope that this has been of value to our students and to our community, and that we will continue to work towards the development of better understanding among our citizens."
Bombers Win One

I.C. versus WILKES

By Bernice Rutenberg

Friday, October 12

The lights at Percy Field, a strong Bomber team shot out Wilkes by the score of 19-0. Al Cain made the Bombers' record 2 wins against one defeat as they prepared to meet Cortland.

Sophomore fullback Al Cain was the offensive star of the game. Cain gained 91 yards on a touchdown drive and finally scored from the one yard line. During this drive, Cain carried the ball nine times in eleven plays. The stand-out play of this series was a forty-five yard shuttle at right end by the fullback which put the ball on the enemy's 15 yard line.

The second touchdown was scored on a pass interception by center Dick Brown. Brown got good blocking from Mike Angelo and Charlie Boots and raced into the end zone to make the score 12-0. Cain then converted for the extra point.

The third and final touchdown was set up by a Perry Noun to Carlo Vieni pass which covered fifty yards. These plays later, reverse halfback Gerry Neufang went around right end for the score. Charlie Boots' attempted kick was blocked and the score was 19-0.

In the second half, the Bombers marched 60 yards from the opening kickoff, only to fumble. However, the tables turned as Carlo Vieni recovered a Cortland fumble on the 50 yard line. Vince Giglio, Lou Youcis and Perry Noun collaborated on a touchdown plunge, capped by Molasses skirting the end for a 25 yard scoring thrust. This 25-13 count was soon changed to 32-13 as Tom Decker made the score 3-0. The Dragons sandwiched in six points, capping by Molasses skirting the end for a 32 yard scoring thrust. This time, it was a pass from Decker to Wayne Weiss for 32 yards.

Speak of the Dragons, they scored their only point against the Bombers in the second half. From the home team's 40, the invaders marched to perfection, with Art Smith throwing the pigskins across the goal line. The P.A.T. was converted and the scoreboard showed Cortland 7, Ithaca 0.

The bluebirds of Ithaca then started a touchdown drive which carried them 61 yards. Brian Wade led the leather five times in six plays, with Art Smith losing the pigskins across the goal line. The P.A.T. was converted and the scoreboard showed Cortland 7, Ithaca 0.

The third and final touchdown was set up by a Perry Noun to Carlo Vieni pass which covered fifty yards. These plays later, reverse halfback Gerry Neufang went around right end for the score. Charlie Boots' attempted kick was blocked and the score was 19-0.

The big two sophomores tackle, Charlie Boots and Steve Bedworth, played fine ball in the forward wall for the Bombers. Richile Brown at center and Carlo Vieni and John Pasolino were also standouts in the line.

In the backfield, Coaches Art Orrick and Hal Seidenberg used a great deal of ingenuity as they two-platooned their quarterbacks, Perry Noun and Bob Ryza. Both these boys are fine ballhandlers and passers, but Noun has a slight edge on experience and speed. Brian Wade played his usual strong, steady game and both offensively and defensively, Al Cain and Don Pacito combined to make the Bombers strong at the fullback slot.

Final Score Ithaca 15, Wilkes 0.
