First Concert of Band Featured By Wagner Overture

Program Made Up Of Finest Literature

Conducted by Mr. Reeder, the Ithaca College Concert Band presented its first concert of the current season Sunday afternoon in the Little Theatre. The program was representative of the finest and best literature in the field of band literature, "The Flying Dutchman," of Wagner, "Quartette from Rigoletto," of Verdi, "Concerto for clarinet and orchestra," of Mozart, and "March to the Sea," of Tchaikovsky.

It is, indeed, unfortunate that so many manifestations of philanthropy are not observed, but which they call to solicit "sophistication"—upon entering college, many students are led by their idealism and their desire for social justice to scrutinize the trends of the day. Furthermore, the speech and actions employed in attempting to interpret or control these trends are distinctly derogatory to the Americanism that we all so much admire and wish to preserve. CORTLAND DOWNED IN SOCCER CONTEST

Finally the Ethics College soccer team defeated Cortland, by the score, 2-1. Both Mondays, troubleshielding in Cortland field, playing under very favorable weather conditions. John's passing attack functioned overmanley, with the score during the first quarter by Herrett, after receiving a return from Milletten. Herrett's kick brought exultant cheers from the crowd. Cortland was unable to score through the defense presented by Kufman. Wood and Miller were outstanding until the third quarter. Ithaca scored a point in the second period when Mullally registered the point after receiving a kick from Austin. Sunlight; Wood and McCord were active in the second quarter; Milletten, Milletten, and Herrett made up the Ithaca team, while Austin entered the game to replace Wilson in the second quarter. Scoring was the objective throughout the contest, playing a wonderful defensive and offensive game.

BOB PRESENTS OLYMPIC

During "Olympic" comments
One thing I remember—wish I could remember—is that I have forgotten more about the atmosphere and crudities as they crop up during the course of work than what I have seen in the world. I don’t know if you will forget your preferences of 1896 and permit yourself to be transported, by an easy effort to the imagination, back to the humble days and primitive political winds of fifty years ago.

The principles upon which the art of lifting being practiced are as follows:

In the Johnb College production—William Bemus is stage manager. "The Poet" is under the direction of Mr. Dunn. Paul Mowry has charge of the lighting and Oliver Veitz is publicity and business manager.

A male quartette, Leston Condon, William Myers, Henry Funkle, and Luke Mate, under the direction of Professor Lyon is preparing five numbers which include "How Can I Bear to Leave Thee," "My Bonnie," and "Unin Through the Rain." Comic McHenry is undertaking a band con- sure of Harold Davis, Edward Gru- dam, Jan Mothers, Kenner Wetzel, and Donald Spear in six numbers for the performance. The Little Theatre orchestra will be in the pit.

For Digestive Sake... Smoke Camels

MENTAL EFFORT

The especially long-handled cigarette is built up tension and puts an end to nervousness. When you wind up, give an invigorating "lift" with a Camel. And at the same time you're doing a digestive's sake... smoke Camels. Camels set you right!

Lester Stoefen, tennis champion whose smashing service goes at the amazing speed of 125 miles an hour. He prefers Camels. "An adverse has no better digestion," says Lance. "It makes a hot during meals and after. Camels make food taste better and digest easily."

HOLLYWOOD RADIO TREAT!

"Talk About a Grand Feeling," reports Sydney Jones, expert witness. "I have taken the part of my meals which I will fall back and have another Camel. Camels make food taste better... can... make my food taste better and help my digestion."

"Looking for the best cigarette...?"

"My advice is to buy a Camel. Camels are made from finest, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand."

AT THE WORLD-FAMOUS "COCONUT GROVE" IN LOS ANGELES. This famous rendezvous of the Ambassadors Head is a center for dining de luxe. Here they all seem to smoke Camels: There is a delightful sense of well-being and proper nutrition. Mild, rich-tasting Camels are a refreshing stand-by the whole day through. They give you a cheery "lift" when you need it most. Camels set you right! They never get on your nerves... save your taste... irritate your throat. So, make Camel your "lift" when you need it most. ALUMNI NOTES

Ithaca College Alumni Associations are becoming increasingly active. It was only since last spring that the association has assumed the functions which are necessary to an organization of this sort.

In the Green Room, decorated for the occasion, Wednesday evening, October 21, a Halloween party was held by the Alumni Association. Several people attended in costumes, Mrs. George Driscoll was awarded first prize for having the funniest costume, while Mrs. Douglas received the prize for having the best costume. Mr. and Mrs. Sturgis will be remembered by Ithaca College as Jean and Rice, Class of 1932. Carlson Bentley '36, was in town for a few days last week. He is engaged in teaching English and directing drama activities in the Marion, N. Y. high school.

Success of the Alumni Association is due to the organization and untiring efforts of the secretary, John Brown, Alumni Association; treasurer, T. HHS, director of the Physical Education Department and John Brown, Alumni Secretary.

Among the fifty-one persons present at the dinner were Chris, Mary, president of the Capital District Association; Missors, S. HHS, director of the Physical Education Department and John Brown, Alumni Secretary. Success of the Alumni Association is due to the organization and untiring efforts of the secretary, John Brown. He has applied himself diligently to the task ever since taking over his office last year. This work deserves just praise and commendation from all.

Sixty-five people attended in costume. Mrs. Sturgis will be remembered by Ithaca College as Jean and Rice, Class of 1932. Carlson Bentley '36, was in town for a few days this week.
