First Student Recital
Of the Fall Season Very Well Rendered
A group of very talented musicians played for an appreciative audience, Red and White, Wednesday, November 25, in the Little Theater. The program was well planned and well executed to be fine entertainment.

"El Scopo" - Lazzio Biondi '40 - Lazzio Biondi's performance was welcomed by all of us who have missed her radiant in the past years' recitals due to a long illness. Although her playing lacked an emotional depth, her cadenzas were skillfully and beautifully executed.

"Yuvarli" Piano, from Alcina, Handel Jean Schneider '49, Contralto Miss Schneider was a new member of the Freshman Club to attend in a student recital. If her talent is any criterion of what we shall hear from her classmates, we are looking forward to many more performances. We believe she has talent and we look forward to Mr. Lyman's guidance, the great voices of her college will do.

"Malauguean" - Leucino Biondi '40, Piano
Once again, Mr. Biondi's performance displayed the fine musical spirit of the Treb. Dances Tzigane, Q. 14 - Niceler Marian Lurbe '40, Harp. The homely and the Tzigan "Dances Tzigane" inspired Miss Lurbe to technical facility and command of her instrument. This performance was quite the Biondi's display so far.

"Mighty Lord, and King Alleii Glori", from "Christen Omnipotens" - Kenneth Sturmer '40, Baritone Baritone Mr. Sturmer has once again gratified the audience with a rendition of which he requires no introduction, with a rich and beautiful voice and a fine appreciation of great art. "Cappuccio in F sharp minor" Mendelssohn
The technical flexibility and beauty of tone which were outstanding in Mr. Campbell's performance today, his students were present, among our most talented the day. Those of us who attended the first recital of the first half of the year appreciated the good work of all the performers and only wished that there were more to share the pleasure and enjoyment.

EXEMPLARY FRESHMEN TO PUBLISH MEET ALFRED HERE

The only college sport attraction for this week-end will pit Ben Light's Freshmen outfit against the Col. Cortland Normal Athenians at the Freshman Field at 3 o'clock on Saturday. The drive is scheduled for 2:30. The drive is expected to be a good game. The Freshmen will play as the Freshmen and the senior team will be scheduled for the same time. The Freshmen will play as the Freshmen and the senior team will be scheduled for the same time.

VASTLY IMPROVED FRAMES TO MEET ALFRED HERE

The Freshmen are meeting at the Freshman Gym at 2:30. The Freshmen will play as the Freshmen and the senior team will be scheduled for the same time.

ROLLER SKATING PARTY PROVES A SUCCESS AS FIRST EVENT OF FROST

A gay evening of laughs and spills was the outcome of the Freshman Skating Party held Saturday night, October 28, at the Old Armory. Eight sides found all the royal members of the freshman class, along with a good showing of upper classmen, in the lobby awaiting final instructions from President Ryan. Boys who enjoyed their fresh frosts and frost pangs could be hidden in the party and everyone should get in on the fun.

The Old Armory was a haven for after the brisk tramp up the street. To some members skating was an art, but there were others who found the sport hard on the system. A "beautiful" fall was witnessed by President Ryan and his partner collided with another harder member of the college. Ryan described the sensation as "flashing feet through the air with no understanding." Other sides came up at the necessary excitement.

Newcomers at the Armory got plenty of a "kick" from the colorful parties and applied for sale in one of the inconspicuous corners.

Skating continued until midnight when the party broke everybody trudging wearily but happily home, swelling with pride for the spirit which had displayed at this first venture of their four years as undergraduates.

ROGER CHADWICK HALL

The freshman girls' dormitory at 311 North Triana Street has been named Chadwick Hall in memory of the late Archibald Chadwick, a leader of a group of Newcomer students at Ithaca College. The dormitory will now be officially known by the name.

THREE NEW MEMBERS PLEDGED TO ORACLE

A meeting of Oracle, senior honorary society, was held October 19 at which time various committees were appointed, and duties of each committee were defined. It was decided that the fall banquet would be given at William Penfield's home.

Miss Martha Lough, Miss Pearl Pes Noe and Miss Ethelbert Lohr were appointed to the committee on October 21. They will be responsible for the entire fraternity on November 11th. Oracle is very proud of its ability to have these girls in its number.

"You Can't Take It With You" CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU

Rehearsals for "You Can't Take It With You," which will open next week-end in the Little Theater, are rapidly being pushed forward. The cast is proving equal to the firecracking tempo of the play and is enjoying it at the same time. The play is fast-breaking with words, but also its definite human appeal will open the new season, favorably and literally, with a bang.

The cast, made up of fresh- men and upperclassmen under the direction of Mr. Dean, are working hard to carry out the performance of the animals, but they will be fine before the opening of "You Can't Take It With You", John Pom's "Stinker," and the Y. M. C. A., under the direction of Mr. Ross, is making the most of its development. This unusual play will have to work hard to hold the attention of the audience in the long duration of the season. The cast is finding the work of great interest as the play is done without the aid of scenery. However, the word is working hard to make it as appealing as it should be.

In living with people one of the fundamentals is seeing no evil in anyone until it is definitely proven. It's hard to believe that many people are deliberately malicious. In some way you always love the actions of someone you believe to be a friend, but I can deeply, Ra­tionalize, and find a reason for the actions. This is because you can truly elucidate the darkness from yourself and only later in life will you only make yourself sus­ceptible to living with the darkness.

You don't do it. Don't air your troubles constantly to your friends, just because you have a friend. It is in­finitely better to confide it in one or two people over the air. They are more likely to find out and, don't worry your worries completely away, but set some new tremendous woes of your own in it, in reality, very trivial. We all have our enemies to know how much you don't help to burden yours on.

Your course of performances, every Drama student will be required to write a criticism of the play, or a criticism of the play of which they have been. Your assignment will be light and easy: reading, criticism, and writing, perhaps various enlight­ening. Alexander Pope, in his "Essay on great­er writers would be in order.

William Dean Howells says (and his statement applies to other than the English) that "The English have not enough, but they have not taste enough; or rather, their taste has been perverted by their fabulous criticism, which is based upon personal preference, and not upon princ­i­ple; which incurs a man to think that what he is fond of is good; instead of such a way that you dis­tinguish what is good before you have any prejudice."

Irving Babbitt says, "To reduce criticism indeed to the satisfaction of a temperamental urge, to the utter­tion of one's vanity and digestion, is to run counter to the very logic of the world."

Inter-Fraternity Council pledging initiation rules

The Inter-Fraternity Council of Ithaca College is revising Section 2 of the Pledging and Initiation Rules for first-year men and women. In order that they may be brought is satisfactory academic average for the first semester. Unless otherwise specified by the student, should a pledge fail to meet the academic requirements for the first semester, he may be in­vited to return the second semester.

b. Advanced Student Initiation. New students, coming to Ithaca College with one or more semesters of advanced collegiate credit, may be initiated at any time by the ac­cepting organization provided the transfer record shows compliance with existing academic standards.

c. Offense. Any organization violating or disregarding the rules for rushing, holding, and initiating may be accused by any member or­ganization or by any other recognized or­ganization on the campus who may prove its case. Accusations may be presented to the President of the Council whose duty shall be to call a meeting of the council for consideration and action.

d. Penalties. If a member group is found guilty of violating the rules herein above enumerated or rules which may hereafter be added (Continued on page 4).

Both active members and the alumnae agreed that last weekend was the most successful reunion we have had in several years. A joint meeting was held Sunday morning at 10:00. At this time Dorothy Zerbes, Grand National President, gave a brief report on the national convention held in Denver, Colorado. We were all glad to see Betty Cornell, Martha Van Wellen, Charlotte Holmes, National Editor, Dorothy Zerbes, Grand National President, and many others back with us again.

A meeting was held Monday night, October 16. Plans were discussed for the rush party Wednesday, October 18 and a date was set for the annual Balloon Ball which will be December 1.

The rush party which was held for the transfers Wednesday was in the form of a masquerade. Everyone dressed to represent a book title. Among the guests were Ruth Lueder, Virginia Wade, Beatrice Caro, Gertrude Johnson, Anne Courtade, Dorothy Nedboy, Doris Phelan, Helen Kameh, Amelia Verrone and Miss Lee Page.

The following have been elected House officers for this year: Kay Gannles, President; Pat Hill, Vice-President; Nancy Parks, Treasurer; Anita Thomas, Secretary, and Dorothy Ahearn, Representative.

Kappa Gamma Psi

We started our social season with a house opening on October 17 and we hope to keep our other activities on the same plane.

On Tuesday we held a smoker at the house for freshmen and transfers. This affair was capably handled by Brother Wells Jenney. Tonight, October 27, we will hold our first house dance of the year. We are looking forward to an opportunity to "let down our hair." Light refreshments will be served. At the next meeting we shall discuss and vote upon those things which we think are eligible as pledges.

Phi Epsilon Kappa

On October 17 Phi Epsilon Kappa had its usual smoker for all students. Short talks were given by Mr. Yavits, Mr. Freeman, Mr. Coe, Mr. Shrader, Mr. Wuest, and Mr. Light. The subject matter was confined more or less to the field of education and contained a lot of humor and experiences gained by those already in the field. Snaps were sung, and refreshments were served.

Delta Phi Epsilon Kappa

The annual Masquerade Dance will be held Halloween night, October 31 from 9 to 12 in the gymnasium. Everyone is urged to dress for the occasion and be prepared for the dance of the season. A band made up of a group of gifted men from the fraternity will render music suitable and appropriate for the gala event.

The phosphorescent tournament headed by Herb Masden is well under way.

Sigoro Alpha Iota

Rehearsals for the formal musical will be held on October 24 and 25, give a brief report on the subject matter. Van Campen Helner, the director of the house, will hold its annual smoker for all the weekend. Short talks were given by Brother Wells Jenney. Tonight, October 27, we will hold our first house dance of the year. We are looking forward to an opportunity to "let down our hair." Light refreshments will be served. At the next meeting we shall discuss and vote upon those things which we think are eligible as pledges.

Perhaps the music students are会上演Theophrastus on their next again and this year: the opportunity for the new books which have been added to the library for our benefit and which we, the drama students, have failed to take advantage of. We complain about a poorly equipped library, and yet in the course of a year or two there are hundreds of books, dealing wholly with the drama, have been placed on the shelves. Too few names from our department are to be found on the cards from those books. The music students to date have been much more grateful. We can find on those shelves some of the best known plays written by recognized contemporary playwrights, works on modern dramas, and historical and literary back-grounds.

Do we realize that Sidney Howard's play, "The Ghost of Yankee Doodle" presents America in the present world situation? Do you know what "The Federal Theatre Plays"? We find that this organization has been the biggest contribu­tors to the latest newspaper tech­nique of writing? These things would be familiar to you if you would explore the yet undiscovered shelves facing you enter the Ithaca College library.

"The Plough and the Stars" by Sean O'Casey, one of the best of the Irish playwrights; "Dead End" by Ring Lardner, dealing with one of the most current problems facing American youth to-day; and "The Subway", an expressionistic play by Elmer Rice, are some of the definite importance to students of the drama. "Dramatic Methods" we find that Barker not only advoc­ate but also put into practice. Will you, if you read Lawrence's "Theory and Technique of Playwriting". In one easy chapter you can discover how little you know of what really makes up the backbone of a good play. Then, also, is Steinbeck's "The Igorod Laying on the Grass". Confidentially, how many of the above mentioned books have you bothered to read?

Thaca College Attend Ted Shaw Dance Recital

Last Monday evening, October 25, a surprisingly large contingent of Thaca College students and faculty attended the dance recital presented by the famous Ted Shaw, in the spacious auditorium of the Cortland Normal School. The program, entitled "O Liberty", was divided into three acts. The first act, depicting the past, was a portrayal of the ancient American civilization. This was followed by a Spanish dance by Mr. Shawn, and the act concluded with a romantically typed "Fyfoon Ninety". Act two, representing the present, brought us from a scene of 1914 through "The Way", which included a "Call to Arms". Act three, which was a deploration of the present, was a dramatic "No Man's Land" scene, and the "Return of the Hero". The dancers continued with an interesting and true interpretation of the "Jazz Dance", the "Dipsisde", and the "Recovery". The program concluded with a portrayal of the ancient Aztec, tenn as "The War", which included a "Call to Arms", and the "Return of the Hero". Ithaca Loses to Clarkson

Ithaca loses to Clarkson in the opening game of the season, with a final score of 24-21. The Bombers, led by their star, Ted Shaw, were unable to overcome the strong defense of the visiting team. The game was marked by a series of close calls, with the Bombers narrowly missing several opportunities to take the lead. Despite the loss, the team showed great promise and will look to improve in future games.

An intramural program has become a popular activity among the student body, providing a break from academic pressures and offering a sense of community. Intramural sports are a great way to stay active and engage in friendly competition.

Intramural Sports

Intramural sports are an important aspect of the physical education program. They offer a great outlet for the average student to achieve his goals and maintain a healthy lifestyle. Intramural sports are open to both men and women and are designed to be inclusive and supportive. Intramural programs promote teamwork, cooperation, and sportsmanship, providing a platform for students to develop essential life skills.

FUTURAMA

Brittoie Gardner, Freshman; Music Department. So registered a tiny little girl with giants, in the fall of 1936. She had just graduated from Pulaski Academy, Pulaski, N.Y., where she had spent four years in band, orchestra, club, and operatic; three years on the girls' basketball team; three years on the Debate Club; and a year of Print Speaking. In the spring of 1937, she attended the National Music Contest at Cleveland where she received a rating of three.

Her first year here was a very successful one, for not only did she get her permanent place in the College Band and Orchesta, but her scholastic standings elected her to Sigma Alpha Iota. She was elected foreman of the WSGA board and secretary of the Cayugan. These first two years she has worked outwards from the oratory for her room and board, but now in her Junior year she lives at SAI. This year she is also President of WSGA, Music Editor of the Cayugan, and Secretary of the Cayugan. These first two years she has worked outside the oratory for her room and board, but now in her Senior year she lives at SAI. This year she is also President of that organization, President of WSGA, Music Editor of the Cayugan, and Ichiren Representative for the Student Council.

Now "Bea" who has been one of the most active girls in school, is on the last lap of her education. She wants to teach and can certainly be recommended most highly.
