SCAMPERS ON ITS WAY: FIRST MEETING IN OCTOBER

Hey! Pass the word around, all you Ithacans... "Scampers" is getting ready to meet and greet you on the Ithaca College campus! So take warning and be prepared... for... THE BEST! Scampers! Scampers!... Scampers!...

But not just a show. It is scheduled for the afternoon of an October morning and is the springboard for putting the campus in the fall season. The students, staff, and faculty... all will be there. It's a meeting of the minds and the bodies.

The show must go on. That's what it's all about. A show that is put together by YOU, the students, the faculty, the staff, and the administration. It is the place where ideas are needed. It is the place where ideas are passed around. It is the place where ideas are put to the test. It is the place where ideas are put into action.

So mark your calendars. It's going to be a great day. Mark your calendars. It's going to be a great day. Mark your calendars. It's going to be a great day.

Scampers is a show. But it's more than a show. It's a meeting of the minds. It's a meeting of the bodies. It's a meeting of the ideas. It's a meeting of the campus. It's a meeting of the future.

Music Students Begin Teaching

Practice teachers of the music department have started their preparations for the new year. Under the supervision of Mrs. Carla Stieger, Mrs. Carl Wikstrom, Mr. R. W. Woods, and Mr. H. H. Weber, the program of practice teaching is being maintained. Practice teaching is a unique experience for college students who wish to pursue a career in music education. Under the supervision of practice teachers in both vocal and instrumental departments, the students will get a glimpse of the teaching profession and the importance of the instrumental work.

Both junior and senior members of the music department are in vocal practice teaching. Juniors, under the guidance of Mr. J. H. McLean, will teach first grade students at SUNY East Lawn, Varna, Bethel Grove, and Ludlowville. Seniors have the responsibility of instructing the students in vocal practice.

In the instrumental department, the students are divided into groups, with each group focusing on a specific instrument or music style. The groups are led by Mr. H. H. Weber and Mr. R. W. Woods. This method ensures that each student receives personalized attention and guidance.

Each teacher is responsible for his or her students in the classroom, providing a comprehensive and engaging curriculum to ensure the students' understanding and mastery of their subjects.

Sophomore News

The Sophomores held their first meeting this year on Tuesday Oct. 1. The president, Dan Rubinstein, delivered a speech welcoming everyone back and elected Mr. R. W. Woods as vice-president. Mr. V. Wadsworth, secretary, gave a report on the activities of the club during the summer and introduced the new members.

Major team sports, football, basketball, and baseball are popular among the students. The students are encouraged to participate in various sports for the enjoyment of players as well as spectators. The sports programs support the athletes who are competing for their sports. The money earned from the sports program is used to support the athletic teams, allowing them to compete at a high level.

Dr. Hunter also made it clear that he will be one of the top ten players in the country. His training and dedication have earned him a place in the national teams.

Slocum, Mrs. Carl Wickstrom in vocal practice, Mrs. Wickstrom in instrumental practice, and Mr. McLean, Ludlowville, are some of the instructors who are making a difference in the lives of their students.

Evelyn Coville, Art supervisor and Junior College of Emergency, will participate in various groups, teaching, and coaching. Her teaching program will be greatly assisted by the new Aurora Memorial Auditorium.

Mr. C. Weber, Ward, J., Ward, Central High School Sis., is unique in that it has an equal number of students for each grade level.

The Perfect Post-Grad

At last the dream of all ambitious drama students will be coming true. That is the opportunity to receive a post-graduate degree and experience under the guidance of the American National Theatre and Academy. The institute is comprised of both professionals and managers. That is what the American National Theatre and Academy offers to students who seek the perfect recognition for their hard work.

A.N.T.A. (American National Theatre and Academy) is the best place to start this postgraduate program. It is a highly competitive institution that accepts only students with significant experience in acting. The institute provides a full range of courses designed to prepare students for a career in the performing arts. The program is divided into two main parts: acting classes and management courses.

For those interested in acting, the program offers a variety of classes, including acting for the camera, stage acting, and voice and movement training. These classes are taught by experienced professionals who have worked in the industry for years. Students will learn the latest techniques and performance methods used in today's theater and film industry.

The A.N.T.A. also offers management courses to prepare students for careers in theater management, production, and production management. These courses cover topics such as budgeting, production planning, and publicity. Students will learn how to manage a successful theater production and how to work with a wide range of people, from actors to technicians.

The program is highly competitive, and only the most talented and dedicated students are accepted. This is a great opportunity for students who are serious about pursuing a career in the performing arts. If you are interested in applying, be sure to submit your application as soon as possible.

The program is offered in several locations throughout the United States, including New York, Los Angeles, and Chicago. Each location has its own set of requirements, so be sure to check the specific requirements for the location you are interested in.

In conclusion, the A.N.T.A. is a great opportunity for students who are serious about pursuing a career in the performing arts. The program offers a unique blend of acting and management courses that will prepare students for success in the industry. If you are interested, be sure to submit your application as soon as possible.
