$1,293,000 Budget Approved For Coming Year by I.C. Trustees

On Monday, October 11, Ithaca College played host to its board of trustees at both a formal and an informal meeting. The expansion of the college was the main point under discussion and several concrete recommendations will affect the future of the institution. Outstanding, as a result of the meetings was the approval of a $1,291,000 budget for the school year, the largest sum to be applied in the history of I.C.

The development and expansion program which was discussed was presented in the form of a timetable for three times as many applications for financial aid as expected were received by the college.

At the informal meeting on Monday, Oct. 11, Dr. Keating was host to the members of the board and the chief administrators of the institution. The board was held in the afternoon and was followed by a bus tour by the members. Publicity pictures were taken.

President of the board of trustees is Mr. George E. Stringfellow, Maj. Gen. Frank A. Keating, Miss Margaret Drum, and Maj. Gen. Philip C. Heard. The next step witnessed the in-...
Fraternally Yours

Kappa Psi

The local business fraternity is very busy with plans for future social affairs. At the last meeting of the Executive Council, held at the Business School, it was decided to have a dance on November 2nd. It is planned to celebrate to some extent the first anniversary. It will be semi-formal. Bob Pickering is making tentative plans for arrangements, assisted by Nanghe, Barry, and the Social Committee.

A bit further in the future, but also eagerly anticipated, is the annual banquet of the Fraternity. This event will be held just before vacation. Many suggestions were given in an open discussion regarding this event, and several members contributed.

The fraternity welcomed Victor Coggi back after a short stay on the inactive list; the chapter By-Laws were read by Conal Shuff; suggestions were put to Sports Chairman Breadon of the plan for an all-school kickball, baseball, bowling, and volleyball teams; and Treasurer Griffo closed the meeting by presenting the Financial Report.

Newman Club

The officers for 1948-49 are John Rutinke, president; Chester Sta­pyra, V.P.; Gertrude Killian, re­venue chairman; and Joseph Blic­kirk, corresponding secretary; and the Executive Council.

The first sport dance of the sea­son was given by the club at the gymnasium on October 2nd, and was a huge success.

The first meeting of the year, at which the officers were installed, was held in the Aurora Gym on October 6, and the next meeting is scheduled for the same place on October 20 at 7:15 P.M. Tickets will be sold for the dance. The IC camp are being distributed this week. The picnic will be held Sun­day, October 24. Although the pic­nic is sponsored by the Newman Club, everyone is invited. Food and transportation will be provided.

Delta Phi Zeta

On Sunday, October 17, Delta Phi held an open house at the house. In spite of the inclu­sion of the "antique" table, the occasion of pleasure was enjoyed by all.

Last week, bids were sent to Re­becca Courtnley, Helen Ferr, and Elaine Kline.

Plans are in full for the evening next week, at which time a radio will be broadcast across "sacred" part of the house, and the members of the club will be brought before court for their punishment and sentence. So long until next issue...

Carnival of Presidents

Pi Theta Phi

A Halloween Party will be held October 28th for all phytherapy residents and faculty. Miss Mar­garite Valentine of the New York City staff will be guest of honor.

Pi Theta Phi, the National phy­therapy giving party and turkey raffle. Dr. Jacob Loeb, secretary of the New York Board of Medical Examiners, will be the guest of honor, and the program will feature a new phsytherapy periodical "Fet­zio Follies," Robert Blauvelt is editor-in-chief.

W.C.C.

We opened our meeting, Tuesday, October 18, with the communi­ty report concerning smoking privileges and longer breakfast in the dining hall. The report made was:

1. Extension of breakfast hours would interfere with the schedule of the students working in the dining hall.

2. The kitchen is small and effi­cient operation requires early clear­ance to prepare for the meals.

Concerning the smoking privileges.

Many girls object to the smoke.

3. Smoke permeates and lingers in the air.

4. It creates extra work for the dishwashers and the sweepers.

5. The associated odor left by girls in the Physio-Therapy Dept.

Senior privileges as this will be their last year as students. If this re­quest was granted for the Fall of '48 and the Spring of '49, it will not be extended to future years.

W.C.C. will be held for the freshmen who, in the future, are caught without [their] Frock caps.

Richardson Appointed

Temporary Frock Chairman

Dr. Earl C. Clark, Dean of Acad­emic Life, appointed Richard Fre­eman class advisor by appointing Ann Richardson, drama student, for the temporary position. Together with a committee of students, Miss Richardson (Ernest Tolley, Phytherapy; Richard Sarr, Physical Education; and Ben Milsom, Business) will meet periodically to receive suggestions from Mr. Richardson which will be available to the class advisor at which permanent offices will be elected. The committee will meet Wednesday evenings at 7:30, and arrangements for and supervises Frock elections.

"Ithaca, dear Alma Mater . . . It's good to be home again even if it does mean starting that seemingly interminable round of classy meetings, rehearsals, homework, and what-have-you. Teaching was pleasant, and I enjoyed getting to know the high school students who were subjected to my instruction, but I guess I was inadequate."

Ithacan

Class Meetings

At a meeting held by the Sopho­more class, the members sponsored a dance at the Seneca Gym on November 5, fol­lowing the IC-Hartford football game. The theme of the dance will follow the Autumn season and will include all of the senior women's dance themes. The Sophomore classmen will also participate in the scheme by wearing old clothes, such as plaid shirts and jeans. Music for the dance will be supplied by Johnny Martinez and his orchestra.

The Sophomore class sponsored the Sophomore class banquet in the Little Theatre. The theme of the banquet was: "The House of Ithaca and the Sorority ". The Sophomore classmen will choose the banquet and will present prize to the Sophomore class banquet committee.

Ithaca Dividend

Last year the first steps toward publishing an IC literary paper were taken. The Ithacan, Ithaca College's first literary paper, should like to continue that plan and enlarge on it, if possible. Any con­tributions, or suggestions, in any form, may be left in the Ithacan box. Finance; President: Jim Moyle; Vice President: John Will; Secretary: Jim Moyle; Treasurer: Jim Moyle.

The Ithacan is a publication of the Ithaca College Ithacan Press. The Ithacan Press will accept any contribution for publication. Actual publication of material submitted will be at the discretion of the editors.

Kappa Gamma Pi Smoker

The home of President Job was the scene of the first smoker held by Kappa Gamma Pi Fraternity in several years. The smoking was sponsored by personal invitation, they signed up a schedule of affairs and received personalized silver covered match books and matching identi­fying pins.

The program, emceed by Bud Kubiskie, consisted of entertain­ment by Mr. Edward Sargent, Dale Sarro, Jim Day, Howard Deanto, Ed Gorman, Bob Blachor, Don Brown, Chippewa, and Lucky Nowak. The program opened with the fraternity hymn and closed with the alma mater. Before the program, Dr. Job informally talked with guests.

Refreshments were then served in the dining room and drawing room with Mrs. Job acting as hostess. The program and refreshments were contributed by members of the fraternity.

The fraternity wishes to extend its thanks to all who participated and assisted in making the smoker a proper occasion for Kappa Gamma Pi fraternity and its guests.

and a livelier Junior Prom. Com­mittee of four was formed to study the financial problems involved, and to turn the Junior Prom into an event envied by all.

Excellent music of the popular type was rendered at intervals by the Dancing Masters and was enjoyed by all present.
Blue and Gold Grid Machine Rolls Over Sampson 45-0

Every Bomber on the bench except the trainer, manager and (happily) the scoreshow referee, 1948 grid machine of Coach Harold "Pete" Hatch won its third game in four contests of the year but the Omegas apes were the helpless victims. Still Scored the touchdown of the day over 120 points. Six Bombers contributed to the big tally. Bob Reeder got a preview of what was going to happen at the opening pick. The opening kickoff was followed by a secondkick. Moments later a bad Sampson punt went out on their own 44 yard line. Pete Hatch kicked the ball back 30 yards to the end zone. Five Omegas tackled the Bombers on the Sampson 4 yard line; Pete Gibb could total up from there to the two yard line. Clyde Cole finally got a touchdown. It was the first of four touchdowns in the second half. Sampson's kickoff was long and pins were to score the other Omegas touchdowns. The first was a 25 yard pass to Joe Oakes. The second was a 74 yard pass to "Bobby" Sampson of the Ithaca sidelines. The second was a 50 yard pass from Westfall to Andy Sykela who wasn't too happy about the pass. Bob Dean kicked the ball over the one yard line. Joe Oakes, the bomber, gunned for his second touchdown early in the first quarter. He scored on a pass from Westfall in the second period. Sam Volo again proved a valuable asset to the Bombers. He scored again a few seconds before the final gun sounded.

Complementing the Ithaca's unable to score in the first half, the Bombers were able to answer. Andy Sykela who wasn't too happy about the pass. Bob Dean kicked the ball over the one yard line. Joe Oakes, the bomber, gunned for his second touchdown early in the first quarter. He scored on a pass from Westfall in the second period. Sam Volo again proved a valuable asset to the Bombers. He scored again a few seconds before the final gun sounded.

Complementing the Ithaca's unable to score in the first half, the Bombers were able to answer. Andy Sykela who wasn't too happy about the pass. Bob Dean kicked the ball over the one yard line. Joe Oakes, the bomber, gunned for his second touchdown early in the first quarter. He scored on a pass from Westfall in the second period. Sam Volo again proved a valuable asset to the Bombers.
