Revised Rules Concerning Cuts Effective in January

A new revision of the rules concerning cuts will go into effect beginning Jan. 25, 1951, the first day of the second semester.

A college bulletin defines the regulations and specifies that “Cutting” will include any unexcused absence from any course excepted the number of weekly meetings required for the course. Absences in excess of the number permitted will be totalled and the student will be required to earn, for graduation, an extra semester hour of credit for each three, or major fraction thereof, of the absences in excess of the permitted number. An additional fee will be charged for such additional credits.

“Only absences resulting from required attendance at college-sponsored activities, certified by a proctor or the head nurse at the college infirmary, job interviews and examinations for military service may be excused and these only by department directors.”

Foreign Students Aided by TAP

Theta Alpha Phi has arranged with the Ithaca Woodwind Ensemble to present a portion of their proceeds from performances of one-acts to the foreign students aid fund. At 8:15, Jan. 15, 6: TAP will present in the college theater a program of three one-act plays, written, selected and directed by Ithaca College students. After the play, information about the production expenses one-half of the proceeds thereafter will go toward the fund.

President Joe Pulos released this information last week.

Faculty Ensemble To Perform In First Public Appearance

On Sunday, Dec. 17, the newly named Ithaca Woodwind Ensemble will present a concert in the Little Theater at 8:15 P.M. This is the first public appearance of the group, whose personnel includes three faculty members and two students of the Music Department: Carl Wickstrom, clarinet; Louis Stout, horn, and Fulcher, bassoon, and Theodore Moro, flute.

The following program has been announced:

Adagio and Allegro ............Soneto

Juniors To Present Christmas Pageant, “Jesus Is Born”

A Christmas pageant, “Jesus Is Born,” will be presented in the College Theater Tuesday night at 8:15. This program, sponsored by the Junior Class, is open to the whole school and the public.

The script has been adapted directly from the New Testament and will be narrated by Roxane Brooks and Ronald Pedrone while a choir of sixteen voices will provide music, under the direction of Robert Bennett. Tantors will be Shirley Deshart, Helen Yan, and Bennett. Accompanists will be Arthur Willinger and Robert Crum on the violin and piano.

Acting the Biblical characters’ roles will be Sally Wyles and Vincent Tupino as Mary and Joseph; Doris Bryden and Rosemary Gsppin as angels; Lee Ish; Eric Warner, and Robert Tupino as the Three Wise Men; and Lee Fuller, Calvin German, and Alan Lee as the Shepherds.

State managing the pageant will be John Gilmour assisted by Cecilia Fidler on properties and Peter Pampas and Howard Sides on sound. Programs have been prepared by Lee Tio and Nancy Zinman while decorations will be arranged by Ray Paillo and Joe Kuein. Costumes have been prepared by Ethel Wilkin, Nancy Jeffrey and Janet Hume.

Richard Howard and the class publicity committee are handling all details of invitations and advertising. While Herbert Thors, Betty Lou Cohen, and Ruth Carper will manage the house.

Admission is free for this program which is under the direction of Morton Clark with the assistance of Dean Earl Clark, class advisor, and Mr. Donald Seltzer.

Annual Christmas Concert To Be Presented

Scamper's Dance Tryouts Mon.

By James Parker

A newspaper idea will provide the theme for the forthcoming show which will include approximately a dozen scenes. The choice of Production Director was left to Oracle who selected Joseph Kahn for this position. His Kremer is Musical Director and Con ductor of the Scamper Orchestra. Priscilla Usher has been chosen and Shale Manager, while Jerold Cowan will design the settings. Mel Spier will act as Rehearsal Coordinator. As the show progresses, other technical hands will be added.

Those directors who have been assigned include: Melvina Davidson, Richard Jenner, Lewis Galle, William Coppins, Robert Moore, Mel Spier, Mortimer Clark, and John Kontraschi.

At this writing, members of the cast were not known but the cast lists would be ready by Wednesday, and Openings for writers and directors. The choice of chorographers would also be announced at these conferences.

Miss Doris Lefkowitz was very pleased with the showings at the basic tryouts and wishes to extend her appreciation to Robert Mott, Mrs. Jennie Calcutt, and Mr. Craig McHenry for their help at these tryouts. Watch the Admission Bulletin for further details and information.

S-Council to Head Drive For Blood Donations

At a meeting Thursday, Dec. 7, the Student Council made the final preparations for its campaign for Blood Donations.

The chairman of the Student Council, Mrs. Beatrice MacLeod has announced that “Let’s make an Opera” will be the next major production here. With music by Benjamin Brit ten and libretto by Eric Crozier, this opera was opened Wednesday evening at the Golden Theater in New York City after more than 100 performances in England. It is scheduled for production here on Mar. 13-17.

The unusual feature of this opera is that the characters are all on stage. Supplied with sheet music as they enter the theater, they actually participate in four numbers, assisting the cast of twelve—six children and six adults. The first half of “Let’s make an Opera” tells the story of a group of children planning to stage an opera for their annual entertainment. They choose the opera, cast, composer and conductor, rehearse the show, and in the third act actually present the opera.

Staging the New York production is Marc Blitzstein, and Norman Del Mar conducts the musical portions. The College Theater production will be under the direction of Mrs. MacLeod, Mrs. McHenry and Mr. Craig McHenry conducting the orchestra and chorus. Mrs. MacLeod hopes the show will be presented while Christmas, so that rehearsals can get under way immediately after vacation.

According to Mr. Del Mar, the opera works on the theory that “people like to sing when everybody else is singing, too.” Although the singing is not professional, it is surprisingly good, and the audience, he says,”applauds itself wildly after each number.”

Information concerning donations is being circulated via the department, bulletin boards, and by dorms, freshman and sophomore dorms. For the use of Ithaca subscribers some of the items must be set aside. Students are not permitted to sign themselves from parents or legal guardians. Blood donors are being distributed by Student Council members and through the house and dorms. The college administration will contact parents for permission to donate.

All eligible students are urged to contribute blood. The miracle effect of donations and plasma is known to everyone. It would be a fine thing to be responsible for such a miracle.

Annual Christmas Concert To Be Presented

Wednesday evening, Dec. 20, at 8:15 P.M. is the time set for the Annual Christmas Concert. As in previous years, the program will consist of carols from many lands; represented will be the world’s singing countries, ranging from early Christendom to the 17th century. The choir is under the direction of Professor Donald Dube; Jack Eason is the accompanist.

The program will be directed by Evelyn Hutchinson and David Reardon. A brass quintet will accompany one of the songs, and a flute and clarinet will accompany another.

Tickets for printed programs will not be available at the concert, a program form has been prepared by the Ithaca Booster Club, and can be found on an inside page of this issue.

The choir will make five appearances in Ithaca during the Christmas season.
THIS IS CHRISTMAS

This is Christmas—

Big windows filled with toys.
Happy shoppers jammed sidewalk.
Window displays of all sorts—lovely and graceful and gaudy and comical.

School children and choir practicing carols.

It is midnight in the town of Siena—

I Wonder As I Wander by Niles and Horton
Po' Little Jesus by Todt
Three Kings by Romeu
Where Santa Clauses laugh and dance in show windows
It's all been said before and by those whose voices you have
Swallowed up in the noise of the crowds.

SAI To Hold Holly Hop

Epsilon chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota will hold its annual Holly Hop at the house this Saturday night. The affair is closed to the public.

Orchestra performs Handel's Messiah

Tonight is the night and broadcast time is 8:00 p.m. If you can't tune in WITJ, 91.7 on your FM dial, and hear this wonderful work.

Newman Clubs Holds Dinner

The Newman Club will hold its annual Christmas dinner this Monday at 5:30 p.m. The house committee is in charge.

Radio at Random

Bob Rice and I had a wonderful experience last Sunday morning. While watching the wrestling matches the night before between Queens University of Canada and Ithaca College, I decided to ask for an interview of the coach and some of the boys on the Queens team. Since they were scheduled to leave Ithaca Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, it was arranged to tape-record the interview just before their departure.

Mr. John Dining Hall Chef

It's surprising what little we know about our dining hall chef, Mr. John. He's been here for about two years. I found out a little more about that happy-looking gentleman who cooks our meals for us. Thus, after making my way to the back of the kitchen on a busy, hot, night, I found Mr. John about to leave after a long day of hard work. I questioned him and began firing questions at him about his life as a cook.

Ithaca College will receive more national attention on Wednesday, December 19, at 4:30 p.m., when the Ithaca College Choir and Orchestra performing Handel's Messiah over the Rural Radio Network, by transcription, Saturday, December 22, at 6:05 p.m.

WITJ Goes National

Ithaca College has been invited to broadcast over the coast-to-coast network of the Rural Radio Network, this week and next, on Tuesdays from 7-8 p.m. The collegechoir, under the direction of Donald Bube, will be heard over the coast-to-coast network of the Rural Radio Network. The broadcast time is 8:00 p.m. If you can't tune in WITJ, 91.7 on your FM dial, and hear this wonderful work.

Attention Seniors

Caygna senior bleachers are located at your departmental mailboxes, fill in and return to Leni Ellis, Lit. Editor before Xenos recess.

Hillard Dance Success

Hillard House was the scene of a typical Winter Wonderland in downtown entertainment on Friday, Dec. 13. The dance, an annual Christmas affair, was closed to all external girls and that's that. Environment was presented in keeping with the Yuletide spirit. The entertainment ran from musical selections to dramatic presentations.

Delta Phi To Have Party

December 8th. Delta Phi Zeta held its annual open house earlier this week, attended, and an evening of dancing and refreshments was enjoyed by all.

Jim LaRock, with the mild mannered gentleman who prefers not to be interviewed, is one of the best college wrestlers in the United States. He is now a senior here at Ithaca College, and has gone on to become one of the best college wrestlers in the United States. He is now a senior here at Ithaca College, and has begun to come into his own as a wrestler.

Jim began life and education up in the north country in Ogdensburg. Every once in a while, there's too much snow that it's hard to get around. So the LaRock family moved south to that little haven of beauty, Ithaca, N.Y. They soon became settled in this new, ideal environment.

Jim went to high school here at Ithaca, and he began going over to the YMCA every afternoon right after school. He already had an interest in wrestling via his brother who wrestled for the chartering display at the top of the Cornell. Well, at the "I" Bill Layton, instructor in wrestling, coached Jim and helped him develop into the great athlete he is.

After his graduation from high school Jim spent thirty months in the army, visiting England, France, Germany, and even smaller places like Denmark. Maybe we have been a nice trip under different circumstances. After he was discharged he came home and enrolled at IC.

Besides his amazing record of not having been defeated in three years of college competition, Jim is a good student. Phi Epsilon Kappa claims him as one of their brothers, and he is a member of the Varsity Club.

Right now he is very interested in the Cornell Park Dance Club.

Since 1943 Jim has been at the top of many inter-college meets. He achieved second place at the Cleveland Interstate, and the Junior and Senior Intercollegiate meet in the north country. He has placed first in many of his first meets at Cornell. Since then he has placed first at the Collegiate Interstate, second at the Cornell and the National YMCA Championships. This is a great record; Ithaca College is proud to have Jim representing it.

As for his future Jim wants to work on his Masters or get a job while he waits for the next Olympic Meet to roll around. After that he may branch off into recreation for a vocation. Good luck, Jim—a good season this year!
Matmen Face Cortland Tomorrow

By Dick Gordon

Coach Clyde (Whitney) Cole's grapplers will invade Cortland State Teachers College tomorrow night in a "grunt and groan" effort to bring home a victory from their traditionally rival Red Dragons. Last year the Ithacans lost to the Teachers' 22-6 on Cortland's mats but then were reversed by the Dragons 29-3 on their own mats, so if they make a try as taken as a criterion, it is ITC's turn to win against the Dragons.

The Blue and Gold matmen have been working hard after their opening win and are highly determined to produce as fine a record as the 7-2 last year of that. Tonight's meeting will surely be a difficult test of the past, prove to be one of the toughest tests of their present strength, and the Ithacans will do their work out for them if they are to maintain an unblemished record.

Cortland State Teachers is the home of one of the finest grapplers ever seen in wrestling circles, classmate in one of the last he has ever met. However, in view of his outstanding last record, Leckholm seems to have the edges in favor to emerge the victor. Meanwhile, as this goes to press, it is expected that the Ithacans will encounter them on Cortland's own mats but then were reversed by the Dragons 29-3 on their own mats.

Yearning Grapplers Journey To Dragonland For Revenge

Coach Herb Broadway's fresh man unit invades Cortland State Teachers College tomorrow night as they seek revenge on last year's setback by the Red Dragons.

Last Saturday on the Bartus Hall mats the Broadway men lost 31-3 to the Cornellians.

The 126 pound class Bob Burke pinned Cornell's Bill Moore with a half Nelson and escrot hold at 5:50 of the first period. It was the afternoon's quickest match.

The following is the Interdepartmental reports: Men's

1-17-Spencer, default.

Cornell's Paul Stein took the mes in the 133 pound class. He won by an escrot hold at 1:41 of the first period. Joyce used a half Nelson and escrot hold to gain the fall.

In the afternoon's longest match Don Johnson pinned the Blues and Bob's Jim Kley at 0:44 of the third period in their 147 pound tussle.

Paul Thomain lost the day's final match to the Ithaca College Frosh in the 168 pound class, cumbling to a half Nelson and body press at 2:59 of the first period in their 157 pound tussle.

The Ithaca Frosh performed capably, however, in the highly touted Cornell team and should give Cortland a stern test.
