11-2-1951

The Ithacan, 1951-11-02

Ithaca College

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.ithaca.edu/ithacan_1951-52

Recommended Citation

Ithaca College, "The Ithacan, 1951-11-02" (1951). The Ithacan, 1951-52. 3.
http://digitalcommons.ithaca.edu/ithacan_1951-52/3

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the The Ithacan: 1950/51 to 1959/60 at Digital Commons @ IC. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Ithacan, 1951-52 by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ IC.
Frolics Cup Taken

By Music Freshmen

"Fantasy of Love" was the skit which won the Frolics Frolics cup for the music department last Friday. Beverly Therpe, President of the W. C. C., the sponsoring organization, presented the cup to Joyce Irwin, who received it on behalf of the music department. The show was a popular drinks. Combined talents of the physical education and physiotherapy departments were responsible for "Madame President," in third place. Taking fourth place were the girls from the business department, who presented "The Land of Aphrodite." A finale utilizing all departments eliminated the evening's entertainment.

An estimated crowd of two hundred attended the performance held at Boynton Junior High.

No Clues Found in College Looting

Police investigators have found no clues to the identity of the person who invaded and ransacked the Ithaca College administration offices late Monday evening. Oct. 21.

 Forced entries were made into the offices of the Burrr, President Job, and the piano studio of Professor Frank Page. In all instances, the doors were rifled but nothing of value taken.

Access to the Burrr's office was gained by breaking a splinter in the window grille through which business is transacted. The vandalism made an unsuccessful attempt to open the college safe.

Authorities believe the burglar's motivation was monetary because large quantities of stamps were left untouched.

Grimschw Leaves Grad School

Dr. William S. Grimsch will leave his position as director of the Graduate School at Ithaca College to become a full professor in the Department of Education of the University of Massachusetts, Amherst.

He has been appointed director of a newly created major curriculum in recreational leadership for graduate and undergraduate students. He will take up his new duties at the close of the current academic semester.

President Leonard B. Job, who announced Dr. Grimsch's resignation, expressed regret over his leaving, and been appreciation for the work he has done in developing the graduate programs of students at Ithaca College.

Dr. Grimsch joined the Ithaca faculty nine years ago as professor of education. Four years came later, he became director of the newly-created Graduate School. He has directed the development of the school from a summer session enrollment of 19 students to the present annual registration of more than 400. The graduate registration in music is among the largest in America.

President Job said that no successor to Dr. Grimsch has been appointed.

Dr. Grimsch has directed a program that first provided summer session instruction leading to master degrees in music and physical education. After the war, this year-round program was developed. This year, for the first time, graduate instruction is being given in speech to full-time and part-time students.

The director of the Ithaca College Graduate School came here in 1942 after earning bachelor and master degrees at Springfield College, a Master of Arts at Columbia, and a Doctor of Education in 1941 at New York University. He has supervised community recreation programs in Norwalk, Conn., and Portland, N. Y., and Springfield, Mass. He was a teacher for 16 years in the public schools of Springfield.

He has been vice-president of the Eastern District Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation; chairman of the Constitution Committee, Eastern District Association, for 9 years; and president of the Southern Zone, New York State Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Active in community programs, he has been a director of the Kiwanis Club; on the YMCA camping committee; on the Kiwanis Club program committee; president of the Ithaca Archery Club; and secretary of the Connecticut Field Archers. He has served as Ithaca College chairman of the Community Chest drive. He was chairman of the Amity Fund at Ithaca College.

V. C. DANCE AFT Game

It's Touchdown Weekend

The Itharan

Vol. 23, No. 4
Ithaca College, Ithaca, New York, November 2, 1951

7 Events Highlight Long Fall Weekend

Initial Appearance Of Marching Band Brings Approval

The Marching Band of Ithaca College received a huge ovation upon making its first appearance during the Ithaca-Cortland football game. This 10-piece marching band, directed by Carl Wickstrom, presented a halftime show with "College Salute" as its theme. The snappy entrance and fanfare of this group began a new era of color and excitement in college life at I. C. The band moved first into a C.S. for Cortland, and then proceeded into the Ithaca logo, where it saluted the various departments of I. C. for the remainder of the show.

First, the band took the form of a football. The formation then moved outward to imitate the pumping of a football, the inflation being caused by the stepping gestures of the drum major. This procedure was an appropriate salute to the Physical Education school together with the playing of "You've Got To Be A Football Hero." As the drum major continued to pump, the inevitable happened; the football burst, and the band reassembled itself in the form of the letters of the I. C. Radio Station, WJTI, Super Value Pepsi Cola, New York Life, and the Ithaca Parade themes then serenaded the Radio Dept.'s. Halloween music then brought the band into a Skaull and Bones formation, with a pop-rally Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. in front of the Annex.

Tonight at 7 p.m. will be the "Sidewalk Sale" of the theme parade which will be Famous Baffles, and there will be a prize awarded for the best float. The game itself will begin at 8:15 when Ithaca's Bombers meet Alfred at Percy Field. During the half time the prize will be given for the outstanding float, and the I. C. Marching Band will give another demonstration. Then Ithaca College's Touchdown Queen will be crowned. Voting for the honor of Touchdown Queen is open. ShirleyThies, Lois Near, Inga-Lid Roosander, Terry Barner, Joyce Miles, Becky Walter, Jeanne Bahn, and Marlo Colberg.

After the game the freshman class will sponsor a Vie dance in the Rec. Gym.

Sunday evening at 9 o'clock the weekend's activities will come to a climax in a semi-formal dance, "Paul Piling," to be held in the newly-decorated "Williams Ballroom." Dancing to the music of the orchestra will continue until 1:30 a.m. Girls have been given late permissions until 2 a.m.

Sunday night brings up the final event of the program, a concert in the College Theater at 8:15 p.m. by the Ithaca College Concert Band under the direction of Mr. Walter Beder.

The dance committee is June Clarke; the float parade committee, Jack Eaton; the picnic committee, Eric Vinne, the pep rally, Sally Wilcox; the Vie dances, Jackie Klein.

The entire week-end is under the sponsorship of the Student Council, with I. D. E. O., S. A. 1., and the freshman class co-operating.
The Ithaca College Marching Band is now a permanent organization on our campus. Its performance is comparable to other fine marching bands. The College and its organizations must set up a fund to support its newly organized marching band.

The College Marching Band is now a permanent organization on our campus. Its performance is comparable to other fine marching bands. The College and its organizations must set up a fund to support its newly organized marching band.

Music students are sacrificing a great deal of their time so that they can prepare for good performances. Other extra-curricular activities, such as sports and dramatic productions, are supported. Why then shouldn't the college, all a united body, support its newly organized marching band?

The interdepartmental education organization is handling the drive and it requests that I. C.'s organizations lend material backing to this project. Since, as most of you will agree, the marching band helps form good moral student support, and this project should be of importance to anyone connected with Ithaca College.

Each group, class, fraternity, sorority, club, dormitory, and faculty group--gives its maximum whether it be fifty cents or fifty dollars, the fund will increase. Approximately sixty uniforms are needed. However, if everyone can give the maximum, we can all think of the students who perform week after week. After all, everyone likes to go home every week and relax or raise Cain. However, the difficulty of transportation enters into the question. Either you have no money, or you have a bus or car to leave in. Could you, even though you feel unfortunate, you realize that some people go home every week and drive at that. “Now I will be a ride with him...”, you think. You stick a furtive little notice on the Annex bulletin board and hope somebody sees it. Sometimes someone will, other times, not.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

We also suggest that this bureau handle this transportation problem. Let's be simple and straightforward: no one can handle it. John Tucker '62, Lew Devlin '53 and a few other people are working on this project. John Tucker '62, Lew Devlin '53 and a few other people are working on this project.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.

The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream. The intellectual complexity of one of America’s greatest authors, William Faulkner, has erupted again and is getting the wheels--of that same author at his new book, End of a Bad Dream.
Carol Conklin
In Senior Spot
by Ron Pedrone

Carol Louise Conklin has a warm spot reserved for those people enduring hardships. Along with me, she is positive teaching. In her untiring efforts to make life better she has been a member of Sigma Alpha Delta, the Ithaca College Dramatic League, and the Ithaca College Dramatic League. She has contributed her untiring efforts to many of the school's organizations. Among them were the Honor Society, music, social groups, the French and German clubs, the Dramatic League, and Student Council.

After graduation, Carol had decided upon what college to attend. Her tastes range from the arts to her sister's, who was an alumnus of I.C. This familiarity with Ithaca's ability to offer the courses desired, as well as the beauty of the surrounding countryside, led her to stand up, made certain that Carol was to attend I.C. She has never felt any inclination to regret her choice. She has even been heard to exclaim, "If it wasn't for Ithaca, I don't know what I'd do!"

Her activities here are as numerous as were her activities in high school. The college choir, Adelphi, A. H. 1. W. C. C., Woodstock, and Sage Chapel choir, and the Interfraternity Council are among the organizations in which she is active. Recently, Sigma Alpha Delta elected her president this year.

As for her hobbies, she has too many for any one person. Reading, tanning and walking are some of her favorites. She is a giant fan of way back. Even New York City is kind of a hobby with her, from Broadway to 10th Street. For relaxation and reading, Carol thinks a bit of patience is always in order.

If Carol had been asked several years ago what her plans were for the future, she would have answered what she was going to be an opera performer, or a member of President Franklin's office staff. Now, however, she is planning to teach English in the public schools, although she hopes her earlier dreams may be realized someday.

Even if she can't make all of her dreams come true at once, Carol indulges her passion for musical production. Some of her productions were "The Honeymooners," "The Philadelphia Story," and "The Fantasticks." Her talents have been demonstrated in the Ithaca College Dramatic League. Carol has performed in many productions there. Her latest was "Our Town," and she was the star of the show. She performed in the role of Emily Webb.

Carol has been a member of Sigma Alpha Delta, the Dramatic League, and the Student Council. She has contributed her untiring efforts to many of the school's organizations. Among them were the Honor Society, music, social groups, the French and German clubs, the Dramatic League, and Student Council.

Carol has decided upon what college to attend. Her tastes range from the arts to her sister's, who was an alumnus of I.C. This familiarity with Ithaca's ability to offer the courses desired, as well as the beauty of the surrounding countryside, led her to stand up, made certain that Carol was to attend I.C. She has never felt any inclination to regret her choice. She has even been heard to exclaim, "If it wasn't for Ithaca, I don't know what I'd do!"

Her activities here are as numerous as were her activities in high school. The college choir, Adelphi, A. H. 1. W. C. C., Woodstock, and Sage Chapel choir, and the Interfraternity Council are among the organizations in which she is active. Recently, Sigma Alpha Delta elected her president this year.

As for her hobbies, she has too many for any one person. Reading, tanning and walking are some of her favorites. She is a giant fan of way back. Even New York City is kind of a hobby with her, from Broadway to 10th Street. For relaxation and reading, Carol thinks a bit of patience is always in order.

If Carol had been asked several years ago what her plans were for the future, she would have answered what she was going to be an opera performer, or a member of President Franklin's office staff. Now, however, she is planning to teach English in the public schools, although she hopes her earlier dreams may be realized someday.

Even if she can't make all of her dreams come true at once, Carol indulges her passion for musical production. Some of her productions were "The Honeymooners," "The Philadelphia Story," and "The Fantasticks." Her talents have been demonstrated in the Ithaca College Dramatic League. Carol has performed in many productions there. Her latest was "Our Town," and she was the star of the show. She performed in the role of Emily Webb.

Carol has decided upon what college to attend. Her tastes range from the arts to her sister's, who was an alumnus of I.C. This familiarity with Ithaca's ability to offer the courses desired, as well as the beauty of the surrounding countryside, led her to stand up, made certain that Carol was to attend I.C. She has never felt any inclination to regret her choice. She has even been heard to exclaim, "If it wasn't for Ithaca, I don't know what I'd do!"

Her activities here are as numerous as were her activities in high school. The college choir, Adelphi, A. H. 1. W. C. C., Woodstock, and Sage Chapel choir, and the Interfraternity Council are among the organizations in which she is active. Recently, Sigma Alpha Delta elected her president this year.

As for her hobbies, she has too many for any one person. Reading, tanning and walking are some of her favorites. She is a giant fan of way back. Even New York City is kind of a hobby with her, from Broadway to 10th Street. For relaxation and reading, Carol thinks a bit of patience is always in order.

If Carol had been asked several years ago what her plans were for the future, she would have answered what she was going to be an opera performer, or a member of President Franklin's office staff. Now, however, she is planning to teach English in the public schools, although she hopes her earlier dreams may be realized someday.

Even if she can't make all of her dreams come true at once, Carol indulges her passion for musical production. Some of her productions were "The Honeymooners," "The Philadelphia Story," and "The Fantasticks." Her talents have been demonstrated in the Ithaca College Dramatic League. Carol has performed in many productions there. Her latest was "Our Town," and she was the star of the show. She performed in the role of Emily Webb.

Carol has decided upon what college to attend. Her tastes range from the arts to her sister's, who was an alumnus of I.C. This familiarity with Ithaca's ability to offer the courses desired, as well as the beauty of the surrounding countryside, led her to stand up, made certain that Carol was to attend I.C. She has never felt any inclination to regret her choice. She has even been heard to exclaim, "If it wasn't for Ithaca, I don't know what I'd do!"

Her activities here are as numerous as were her activities in high school. The college choir, Adelphi, A. H. 1. W. C. C., Woodstock, and Sage Chapel choir, and the Interfraternity Council are among the organizations in which she is active. Recently, Sigma Alpha Delta elected her president this year.

As for her hobbies, she has too many for any one person. Reading, tanning and walking are some of her favorites. She is a giant fan of way back. Even New York City is kind of a hobby with her, from Broadway to 10th Street. For relaxation and reading, Carol thinks a bit of patience is always in order.

If Carol had been asked several years ago what her plans were for the future, she would have answered what she was going to be an opera performer, or a member of President Franklin's office staff. Now, however, she is planning to teach English in the public schools, although she hopes her earlier dreams may be realized someday.

Even if she can't make all of her dreams come true at once, Carol indulges her passion for musical production. Some of her productions were "The Honeymooners," "The Philadelphia Story," and "The Fantasticks." Her talents have been demonstrated in the Ithaca College Dramatic League. Carol has performed in many productions there. Her latest was "Our Town," and she was the star of the show. She performed in the role of Emily Webb.

Carol has decided upon what college to attend. Her tastes range from the arts to her sister's, who was an alumnus of I.C. This familiarity with Ithaca's ability to offer the courses desired, as well as the beauty of the surrounding countryside, led her to stand up, made certain that Carol was to attend I.C. She has never felt any inclination to regret her choice. She has even been heard to exclaim, "If it wasn't for Ithaca, I don't know what I'd do!"

Her activities here are as numerous as were her activities in high school. The college choir, Adelphi, A. H. 1. W. C. C., Woodstock, and Sage Chapel choir, and the Interfraternity Council are among the organizations in which she is active. Recently, Sigma Alpha Delta elected her president this year.

As for her hobbies, she has too many for any one person. Reading, tanning and walking are some of her favorites. She is a giant fan of way back. Even New York City is kind of a hobby with her, from Broadway to 10th Street. For relaxation and reading, Carol thinks a bit of patience is always in order.

If Carol had been asked several years ago what her plans were for the future, she would have answered what she was going to be an opera performer, or a member of President Franklin's office staff. Now, however, she is planning to teach English in the public schools, although she hopes her earlier dreams may be realized someday.

Even if she can't make all of her dreams come true at once, Carol indulges her passion for musical production. Some of her productions were "The Honeymooners," "The Philadelphia Story," and "The Fantasticks." Her talents have been demonstrated in the Ithaca College Dramatic League. Carol has performed in many productions there. Her latest was "Our Town," and she was the star of the show. She performed in the role of Emily Webb.
Quirks ...

A.C.P. COMES TO ITHACAN RESCUE

Students at Ithaca College have initiated a "Share the Reid" plan in an attempt to combat the growing digs-like menace. Here's how it works. When you have an assignment for a dance, you also agree to change partners every fifteen minutes. Your first partner's name is picked out of a hat. You dance and talk to each other for the allotted time, then switch partners. The plan seems to be gaining in popularity at Ithacans.

Brass Ensemble Joins Eldridge
In Recital

Art Prof. Frank J. Eldridge will present an organ recital in the Unitarian Church on Sunday, Nov. 13, at 4:30 p.m. He will be assisted by a brass ensemble of students in the school of Fine Arts.

The program will open with the well known, but often misinterpreted, Toccata and Fugue in D Minor by J. S. Bach. It is Mr. Eldridge's desire to present this work in a manner that answers the critics and presents it in its majesty and brilliance.

With the brass ensemble, Mr. Eldridge will perform the following selections: Canon in D by Pachelbel, Fantasia in D Minor by Händel, and Gavotte in C Major by Ravel.

Several works questioned by the National Youth Panel reported they want, with "P.A.M." (P.A.M. is a combination of personality, appearance and manners. The results really are not those that should be able to talk on any subject, have his career planned and be very attentive. (Editor's note: Is that all?)

The Daily Kansan carried a story about an anonymously professor who walked into class with a large brown backpack under his arm. Before revealing its contents he told puzzled students: "When a dog barks a man, it's a little unusual, but when a teacher brings apples to his students—that's news.

According to the Daily Lass-O-an at the University of Alabama advertised for a wife with 15 children. His explanation was that he was ashamed in Korea after the last war and didn't want to go back.

A Nebraska road claimed to have a bookshop that it was unfair for students buy books at such a high price, and then get hard to buy books on the used book market.

"But," explained the bookshop owner calmly, "you couldn't buy a dress at a shop downtown and then take it back and get the same price for it, could you?"

"Well," she reiterated, "at least I'd be some use out of the dress!"

SEND HER
A CORSAGE
FROM
Pratts Flower Shop
214 E. Seneca St.
Phone 3471

Touchdown Weekend Schedule

Saturday—Sing—4:30 p.m.
Saturday—Dance—9:130 p.m.
Sunday—Picnic—2:00 p.m.
Sunday—Band Concert—8:15 p.m.

(Touchdowns and Junior Class
Are Cooperating)

Freshmen and Junior Class
Are Cooperating

Dinner
IN OUR NEW LOUNGE

George's Restaurant
COR. GREEN and CAYUGA STS.

Frosh Nominations To Be Made Monday

The froshmen class will hold a nominating meeting Monday, Nov. 1, at 7 p.m. in the Aurora Street Gym lecture room. Physical Education, Physiotherapy, Radio, Drama, Music, and Business student will each choose one member of their department to represent them. After about a week of campaigning, the elections will take place. Out of the six representatives, one is chosen for president, one for vice-president, the third for secretary-treasurer. The remaining three are served as committees head.

AH, TO DANCE

The Goldenrod, Wayne State Teachers' college, Nebraska, is a bit fed up with certain types of male dancers. Here are the types:

Harry the Hoof—He asks a girl to dance as if he were Louis B. Mayer asking a starlet to star in a million dollar picture extravaganza. While twirling his partner back and forth like a yo-yo, he is constantly speaking in a line of five jargon...

Bashful Bill—"Bill feels terribly embarrassed and the only excuse he can think of is that he just washed his feet and can't do a thing with them...

Luke the Lover—If he says he was intended to be concealed but went to a psychiatric and was cured. Now he is the neatest guy he ever met. If someone doesn't notice up to this character, he is liable to lose himself to death...

HUMOROUS? NO WONDER...

The Ohio State Lantern, slightly immersed in self-pity, recently printed the following editorial: "We note that a recent philosophy survey indicated that college freshmen have far more headaches than those with little education. "This isn't difficult to fathom... -consider the poor college senior like us. If he goes into the army, he's got to worry about what's going to happen to him there, with bullies and all. If he doesn't go into the army, he's got... a draft dalier.

... If he goes out with boys at night, for a beer, he's accused of being a drunk. If he stays home and hits the books, he's accused of tearing down the party... If he's single, he's got to worry about all his girls and which other guys they're dating. If he's married... "No wonder college men have more headaches.

Several weeks questioned by the National Youth Panel reported they want, with "P.A.M." (P.A.M. is a combination of personality, appearance and manners. The results really are not those that should be able to talk on any subject, have his career planned and be very attentive. (Editor's note: Is that all?)

A University of Texas student was bit skeptical about a British film showing in Austin. "Is it any good?" He asked the girl in the ticket office. "Pretty good," she said, "it's a British film, but the actors speak English..."

SENIORS
Year Book Portraits
by
DICK GILMORE
WINING STUDIOS
203 N. Aurora St.
Phone 2786

COZY CORNER

"The Students Hangout"

Where All Good Friends Meet

THE PLACE TO EAT, DRINK AND PLAY

Cor. Aurora and Buffalo Sts.
Tel. 9607
The Chacona Sisters

Ithaca College, Ithaca, New York, November 2, 1951
A DISTURBING ANALOGY

Following is a reprint of a recent editorial in The Iowa State Daily: "The Nazi guards at Belsen concentration camp used to play a little game. They would take an egg and stand it on end on a table and then force one of the prisoners to bend over and hold it in that position with the end of his nose. If, after a few minutes, he became tired and let the egg fall over he had to suffer the consequences."

"Sounds like fun!"

"Try it sometimes—or maybe you have, if you were ever a pledge and had to go through Hell Week. Maybe you had someone force a raw oyster down your throat with a string tied to it, then jerk it back up."

"Maybe it is good clean fun to those whose characters have reached such a low point that they delight and revel in the abasement and degradation of their fellow human beings. Actually, it is a type of revenge that their petty personalities require to justify the prostitution of their own integrity when they submitted themselves to similar treatment as pledges."

"Pledges are told that purpose of Hell Week is to unite the pledge class so that they will get to know each other and understand the nature of cooperative work. But too often those who do the hazing like to see the individual not only conform to the ways of the group but also to get down and grovel and squirm."

"It is interesting to note what happened when the veterans came back to Iowa State after the war. Many of them would not even pledge a fraternity unless they were promised the no-nonsense cooperative work that would occur at their initiation."

"They had learned elsewhere what manhood is and that is does not consist of letting others spit and wipe their feet over you. May the present and future pledge classes also hold to such principles."

A COLLEGE PROFESSOR LOOKS AT A COLLEGE PROFESSOR (ACP)

If he's hand wizard at teaching, he lacks experience.
If he's been teaching all his life, he's in a rut.
If he dressed decently, he's trying to be a fashion plate.
If he thinks about something besides clothes, he's a bum.
If he seldom admits a mistake, he's arrogant.
If he ever admits a mistake he ought to go back to bricklaying.
If he plants an occasional joke in his lectures, he's a comedian.
If he never confesses to an academic sin, he's duty dull.
If he goes to chapel with regularity, he's a hypocrite.
If he shies at sermons he's a heathen.
If he writes books, he's neglecting his teaching.
If he never publishes, he never had a thought worth printing.
If he hands out plenty of high grades he has no standards.
If he hands out plenty of low grades, he's a butcher.
If he sees notes, he's unoriginal.
If he gets along without notes, he's an ad-libber.
If he sticks to his specialty, he's got a one-track mind.
If he tours the encyclopedia, he's a show-off.
If he can't identify Fritzie Zivic and Jack Kramer, he isn't human.
If he listens to sports broadcasts, he's illiterate.
If he gets paid for outside work he's greedy.
If he does outside work for nothing, he's a sucker.
If he stands up while teaching, he's ornamental.
If he sits down while teaching, his feet hurt.
If he's young, he needs more seasoning.
If he's old, he's seen better days.
If he gives a lot of quizzes, he's a slave-driver.
If he seldom gives a test, he's too lazy to read papers.
If he gets his name in the newspapers, he's publicity mad.
If he never appears in the public prints, he's so much deadwood.
If he takes an active part in faculty business, he's a politician.
If he never serves on a committee, he's a work-dodger.
If he's on good terms with the president he's a yes-man.
If he doesn't wear out the stationary from the Ad building, he's disloyal.

IN A DISTURBING ANALOGY

College Kids Are Scared

America's universities and colleges have always been considered centers of liberal thought and intellectual freedom. A campus was thought to be a place where social pressure and "approved" thought were unconsciously dismissed. American students were firmly assured that they pleased—and so in a loud voice.

Since the war, however, professors and writers have been pointing out a new trend in the nation's campuses—a trend away from free thinking and free expression. Newswaves pointing up this trend are those gathered in a recent New York Times article. The Times studied 72 major colleges and came up with the conclusion that there is a widening tendency toward passive acceptance of the alienation, desire to conform, and narrowing of the area of tolerance in which students, faculty and administrators feel free to speak, act and think independently.

The Times listed five major areas of fear on campuses:

Social disapproval

Criticism by regents, legislatures and friends

A "plutocrat" or communist label

Rejection for further studies at graduate schools

Critique by colleagues and friends

The spotlight of investigation by government and private agencies for political activities and association with the armed forces.

Just how did the trend toward conformity manifest itself? For one thing, the Times, students are reluctant to speak out on controversial issues out of class, and are hesitant even to handle "currently unpopular concepts in regular classroom work.

For another thing, students show an unwillingness to join political clubs and subscribe to humanitarian causes. Great emphasis is placed on being "unaffiliated." Students concentrate on being the "most shining example of the one-track mind.

The teacher snapped back, "Well, that's what's being printed about him."

"I dunno," replied the student. "I'm just working to stay out of the army."

AN EDITOR'S JOB

Getting out a newspaper is no picnic. If we print jokes, people say we are silly.

If we don't, they say we are too serious.

If we clip things from other newspapers, we are too lazy to write them ourselves.

If we don't we are stuck on our own staff.

If we print every word of all contributions, we don't appreciate geniuses.

If we do print them the columns are filled with junk.

If we make a change in the other fellow's write-up, we are too critical.

If we don't, we are blamed for poor editing.

Now, like us or not some guy will say, "I wish I could have this from some other sheet."

We didn't.

JOURNALISTIC HUMOR

EDITORIAL "WE"

In answer to his daughter's question as to why editors refer to themselves as "we," a subscriber surmised it was because, the fellow who doesn't like what's being printed about him will think there are too many for him to lick.

RUTHLESSLY, RUTHLESSLY

We specialize in

Texas Hots
Homemade Chili Concarne
Quality Food, Friendly Service
Reasonable Rates.

Busy Bee

Next to Greyhound Terminal
S. Aurora St.
I.C. Sinks Lock Haven; Alfred Attacks Tonight

Playing in a driving rain storm, the Blue and Gold out-played Lock Haven for three quarters to end out at 15-14 win. The win was the third in a row and fourth out of five games for the Bombers. Powerful Alfred thrashed this record when they invade Ithaca for the Friday night game.

The Purple have scored 106 points in the last two games and trouble threatens this record when they invade Ithaca for the Friday night game.

The mud battle was tiring out the varsity and good, and the score was 16-14. Time ran out on Lock Haven before they could threaten again.

For the second straight week, I.C. rolled up over 300 yards in total offense. Jack Corson and Harry Monroe carried the ball to the one yard line with Bob Craig to draw first blood in the first period and drove 64 yards in 13 plays. Flash Monroe really lived up to his name, he intercepted two passes in the third quarter Monroe intercepted two passes and made brilliant tackles to halt Cortland’s ground attack. Jack Corson got his fast chance in the offense and made brilliant tackles to halt Cortland’s ground attack. Bob Craig, the one yard line with Bob Craig to draw first blood in the first period and drove 64 yards in 13 plays. Flash Monroe really lived up to his name, he intercepted two passes in the third quarter Monroe intercepted two passes and made brilliant tackles to halt Cortland’s ground attack. Jack Corson got his fast chance in the offense.

Cortland's ground attack. Jack Corona got his fast chance in the offense and made brilliant tackles to halt Cortland’s ground attack. Bob Craig, the one yard line with Bob Craig to draw first blood in the first period and drove 64 yards in 13 plays. Flash Monroe really lived up to his name, he intercepted two passes in the third quarter Monroe intercepted two passes and made brilliant tackles to halt Cortland’s ground attack. Jack Corson got his fast chance in the offense.

Cortland jumped right off with a bang in the first period and drove 64 yards in 13 plays. Monroe added the point after to make the score 13-6.

To be continued.

Underdog Bombers Shellock Favored CSTC Rivals 13-6

Underdog Ithaca College launched a smashing ground attack combined with a stout defense line to sink their traditional enemy, the Cortland Dragons, 13-6. For the first time this year the Bombers offense clicked with their defense to bottle up the visitors.

Cortland jumped right off with a bang in the first period and drove 64 yards in 13 plays to the Ithaca College 13-yard line. Sam Yolo recovered a fumble to stop the threat. A fumble by Monroe on the CSTC 31 set up Cortland’s only score. Quarterback Bob Wallace threw a perfect strike into the end zone to Herb Collins to draw first blood in the game. The placement try was no good and Cortland led 3-0.

Ithaca opened its scoring drive on receipt of the second quarter kickoff. The highlights of the 72-yard dash was a sparkling 50 yard drive run by Harold Monroe. A series of running plays carried the ball to the 1 yard line and Monroe went over guard for the score. The extra point try was no good and the half ended in a 6-6 tie.

Midway in the third quarter Monroe intercepted a pass and ran it back 29 yards to the 50. A roughing penalty advanced the ball to the 35 and in seven plays Jack Corson smashed over from the five. Monroe added the point after to make the score 13-6.

Ithaca’s stout defense limited the vaunted running attack of Cortland to a mere 38 yards for the game. The Dragons were kept deep in their own territory during the second half. Ithaca lost two excellent scoring chances in the fourth period, the Bombers lost the ball twice with Cortland’s ten yard, Marchen as the results of penalties.

Flash Monroe really lived up in his name in this game. The 6’6” ‘1/4” Moore picked up 140 yards in 19 carries for an average of 7.4 yards a run. On defense Monroe intercepted two passes and made brilliant tackles to halt Cortland’s ground attack. Jack Corson got his fast chance in the offense and made brilliant tackles to halt Cortland’s ground attack. Bob Craig, the one yard line with Bob Craig to draw first blood in the first period and drove 64 yards in 13 plays. Flash Monroe really lived up in his name in this game. The 6’6” ‘1/4” Moore picked up 140 yards in 19 carries for an average of 7.4 yards a run. On defense Monroe intercepted two passes and made brilliant tackles to halt Cortland’s ground attack. Jack Corson got his fast chance in the offense and made brilliant tackles to halt Cortland’s ground attack. Bob Craig, the one yard line with Bob Craig to draw first blood in the first period and drove 64 yards in 13 plays.

Underdog Ithaca College launched a smashing ground attack combined with a stout defense line to sink their traditional enemy, the Cortland Dragons, 13-6. For the first time this year the Bombers offense clicked with their defense to bottle up the visitors.

Cortland jumped right off with a bang in the first period and drove 64 yards in 13 plays to the Ithaca College 13-yard line. Sam Yolo recovered a fumble to stop the threat. A fumble by Monroe on the CSTC 31 set up Cortland’s only score. Quarterback Bob Wallace threw a perfect strike into the end zone to Herb Collins to draw first blood in the game. The placement try was no good and Cortland led 3-0.

Ithaca opened its scoring drive on receipt of the second quarter kickoff. The highlights of the 72-yard dash was a sparkling 50 yard drive run by Harold Monroe. A series of running plays carried the ball to the 1 yard line and Monroe went over guard for the score. The extra point try was no good and the half ended in a 6-6 tie.

Midway in the third quarter Monroe intercepted a pass and ran it back 29 yards to the 50. A roughing penalty advanced the ball to the 35 and in seven plays Jack Corson smashed over from the five. Monroe added the point after to make the score 13-6.

Ithaca’s stout defense limited the vaunted running attack of Cortland to a mere 38 yards for the game. The Dragons were kept deep in their own territory during the second half. Ithaca lost two excellent scoring chances in the fourth period, the Bombers lost the ball twice with Cortland’s ten yard, Marchen as the results of penalties. Flash Monroe really lived up in his name in this game. The 6’6” ‘1/4” Moore picked up 140 yards in 19 carries for an average of 7.4 yards a run. On defense Monroe intercepted two passes and made brilliant tackles to halt Cortland’s ground attack. Jack Corson got his fast chance in the offense and made brilliant tackles to halt Cortland’s ground attack. Bob Craig, the one yard line with Bob Craig to draw first blood in the first period and drove 64 yards in 13 plays. Flash Monroe really lived up in his name in this game. The 6’6” ‘1/4” Moore picked up 140 yards in 19 carries for an average of 7.4 yards a run. On defense Monroe intercepted two passes and made brilliant tackles to halt Cortland’s ground attack. Jack Corson got his fast chance in the offense and made brilliant tackles to halt Cortland’s ground attack. Bob Craig, the one yard line with Bob Craig to draw first blood in the first period and drove 64 yards in 13 plays.

Ithaca College, Ithaca, New York, November 2, 1951

Soccermen Complete Schedule Saturday

At E. Stroudsburg

The Ithaca College team will wind up its soccer season this Saturday as it faces East Stroudsburg Teachers on Titus Field at 2 p.m.

In the past week the team played Brockport Teachers and 1-4 to 1 in the last quarter on a penalty kick. Over the weekend West Point and Seton Hall also defeated Ithaca’s bouters.

Despite the numerous defeats this past year caused by lack of experience, Ithaca College has shown a great deal of improvement. Unfortunately the team is too young to handle their power-packed schedule.

Mr. Yarits feels encouraged only by the theme of increasing classmen on the team who will provide the nucleus of next year’s squad. The fighting attitude of this year’s team makes the future look hopeful.

A real hot item for Male and Female Ithaca College Students!

"6 ft. MUFFLERS COLORS—BLUE AND WHITE MAROON AND WHITE

IRV’ LEWIS

MEN’S SHOP

120 E. State St.

Girls Field Hockey Team which journeyed to Cortland October 20. The girls participated in a playoff with teams from Keuka, Cornell, Syracuse, and Cortland. Each team played the other at least once and the team that scored the most goals was winner of the playoff.

The storms were:

1. C.-S-Cortland-2
2. C.-S-Cortland-3
3. C.-S-Cortland-4

The team hopes to travel to Keuka College in the near future for a similar playoff.

don’t forget Boys CORSAGES For "The Fall Fling" by Lockwood Gardens Florists 419 First St. Dial 2246 Ithaca, New York

Girls Hockey Team third in Playday

Mrs. Rita Lachelle and Miss Martha Kotter headed the Ithaca College Girls Field Hockey Team which journeyed to Cortland October 20. The girls participated in a playoff with teams from Keuka, Cornell, Syracuse, and Cortland. Each team played the other at least once and the team that scored the most goals was winner of the playoff.

Cortland held top honors with seven goals; Cornell rated second, and I. C. Keuka, and Syracuse came in third, fourth, and fifth, respectively.

A few of the players who were outstanding were Margolis Peck, left inner; Mary Jane Newt, left wing; and Helen Hoyt, left halfback. Those who also participated were Mary Davies, right wing; Nancy Streh, right inner; Jacqueline Fodor, center forward; Janet Batcher, left halfback; June White, center halfback; Chica Chaceo, right halfback; and Joyce Anderson, right fullback.

A real hot item for Male and Female Ithaca College Students!

"6 ft. MUFFLERS COLORS—BLUE AND WHITE MAROON AND WHITE

IRV’ LEWIS

MEN’S SHOP

120 E. State St.

There’s a time to pause in every activity. When you make that pause refreshing with cool Coca-Cola you can take what comes with ease.

©1951, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY