The report of the Ithaca Plan Controversy Aired

The Reporter-at-Large program announced to its listeners that they would broadcast the first of a series of programs dealing with the Ithaca Plan controversy. The program was broadcast over WITJ, the local station, and was followed by a lively discussion on the airwaves.

Philip Arcuri, Elwin Bentley, and Eca Gym. The Erwins are tops in the last issue of this paper has sub- presented their views on The Ithaca Plan over WITJ Station WITJ. The views were welcomed and followed by the summary of events since the publication of the Fall Homecoming Planted For Alumni

November 11-13 has been set aside for "Novemberm," the second opportunity for the five year alumni to reunite and the first Fall Homecoming.

The college will stage a student entertainment Friday night, scheduled after the Athletics Day parade. The Ithaca College marching band and many bands directed by our graduates in Ithaca and area will furnish music in this parade. Art and Elsie Erwin, former alumnus, are coming especially to "run the show" at the country square dance, Saturday night at the Seneca Gym. The Erwins are tops in this form of recreation and they are graciously offering their talent here to make the dance for "Novemberm Days," a novel to forgotten event. A highlight of the weekend will be the "bazaar that promises to be a "sell out."" Checks and donations have been coming in at a great pace. Proceeds from the event will go to the Ithaca College Development Fund.

THE VETERANS

As a counterproposal, the reporters suggested that instead of destroying school spirit, the college could make betterment of the Varsity Club, and deserving seniors. It is the hope of the Varsity Club, in cooperation with the Alumni Association, to sponsor the sale of athletic equipment every Tuesday.

There seems to have been a lot of interest. Which was better, to use the high school facilities, or the cost of adapting the building to college needs would be prohibitive. A question was posed to the feeling of the still-silent Board of Education. The reporters recommended that the Board would prefer to use the high school building as a supplementary junior high because of the overcrowded conditions at Boynton Junior High.

As a counterproposal, the reporters recommended that either the city services be moved to the high school or that the high school be used as a parking lot during the day. It was agreed.

Mr. William Raper, in response to an offer from the Reporter-at-Large program, broadcast his reasons for supporting the Ithaca Plan.

He took the opposing viewpoint that the facilities would be more than ample for the enlarged and improved benefit to Ithaca College. Rather than destroy school spirit, he suggested the city benefits and increases.

Outlook for the future was excellent for the Ithaca Plan, which was published in the I. D. E. O. billboard for further notices.

Vote For M.V.P.

Phil Edelen-Kopp's yearly award of the most valuable player trophies will be given to the man whom you choose. Attend the soccer and football games. Observe the players and talk to the participants so you can get in a good vote. Voting boxes will be placed in various places in the college. Information on the voting procedure will be posted and explained in the ITHACA.

SALD Plans By To Be Second Production of '55-'56 Season

"Golden Boy" the second play of the season, will begin on November 26. "Golden Boy" is a pageant of American city life, telling the story of a sensitive New York lad who has had to balance in his mind, the spiritual confusion and the world, has it become something of a drug.

"Golden Boy" opens on November 26, which is the last night of the season. The Ithaca College season will run through April 6.

Class of '57 To Sponsor Sadie Hawkins Dance

November 15 may well be one of those nights college students remember. Ron McKeen, social chairman of the sophomore class of '57, announced that the Junior Class of 1957 will sponsor an Old Clothes Sadie Hawkins Dance to be held in Seneca Gym from 9:00 to 12:00. Let's permission will allow everyone to enjoy themselves. There will be door prizes for those dressed in their Sunday worst, and when we say old, please note that they're for everyone. Old clothes will fill the surroundings for the Seneca Gym, if you must dress up, as you would never believe Seneca Gym could be decorated. There will be entertainment, and the surprise of the evening will be a guest star—Sadie Hawkins. There will be a wonderful benefit to Ithaca College, and the entertainment for the evening will be a grand success. Something to be expected: refreshments will be served. There will be a beautiful mixture of the round and an occasional "square dance" to swing music, a new feature that only the Junior Class of Ithaca College could bring you. Tickets may be purchased at the door or around school.

There seems to have been a lot of controversy in the past few weeks about dancing. Here is the chance to remedy the situation. Let's get together; let's enjoy Sadie Hawkins. We ask only one thing: with all the great guys in school—girls, you don't have to look far. There's enough to go around. Everyone has a chance for a dance, and find out that there's enough to go around. Every- one has a chance for a dance, and find out that Sadie Hawkins Dance won't be one of them.

It's the hope of the Varsity Club to have the show as much as possible by buying their sporting needs at these sales.

"Golden Boy" will be show for the season, which will be presented on November 26. The Ithaca College production of "Golden Boy" will be directed by Shirl Emond, and Glenn Gohier will design the scenery and the show. The technical director will be George Emond.

The load role of Joe Gustartner, the delightful director, will be played by a coming attraction, and Hoff Newman, Howard Ingr- man will take the part of Tom Moody, the fight manager. The film industry will be taken by Roxy Dexter as Lorna Moon, and Judy Schwartz in Anna, the little Italian girl. Mr. Gustartner, the ambitious director, will be portrayed by Rolly Dexter.

The following Ithaca students have minor roles in "Golden Boy": Ed Emond, Joe Gustartner, Clyde Russell, Ronnie Ross, Al Blum, Bob Sommers, Arline Sherman, Ed Washburn, Norm Hanes, and Fred Polfiner. Get your tickets early for "Golden Boy," they're a theater MUST for November.

Robbie To Lecture

On November 5, Robbie Felix will give a lecture to the Hillel organization about his recent trip to Israel. Photos will be shown of the places he visited. Elections for new officers will also be held.
Welcome Alumni

In response to many requests from alumni through the Alumni Council, it has been decided to hold a full reunion from November 11 through the 13. Many interesting features will be arranged.

We are sure that as you walk through the Administration building, the Annex and the surrounding area, it will bring back many pleasant memories of class days in the past. The better prepared you are to voice your own opinions, the better government we can have. Our democracy has one basic idea behind it. Our government is for the people, by the people, and to the people. It cannot be thus unless the people themselves take an active part.

Now is a good time to start working together to prepare to make yourself good citizens of tomorrow.

Underway

A total of 44 students enrolled in the tournament which started at Ithaca today. The game goes to Press first round of games should be well under way. However, the results will be published in the paper as soon as possible within the prescribed time limit.

We hope the women's di-versus was hardly unlucky in partici-pation. Although there were several women who were not able to play due to sickness or other reasons, there were many new participants who have already shown interest in the game.

The best way to improve your game is to play as many games as possible. You can hardly conceal your love for this exciting sport by playing it. After all, the game is fun and has been declared that no apologies are due.

Editorial: "Fact or Fallacy"

The editorial "Fact or Fallacy," which was printed in the October 21 issue of THE ITHACAN could not escape our attention. The editorial was so strong and disturbing that the choice of words was unconvincing and unnecessary. The editorial stated that the Reporter-at-Large are spokesman for WITJ is, in effect, a lie. As we noted in our October 21 broadcast: "We of the Reporter-at-Large program do not in any way reflect station policy or the position of the Reporter-at-Large program."

It is our impression that THE ITHACAN policy is to discourage adverse opinions from persons who oppose the newspaper on any controversial issue. The editorial further states that the reporting attempt to place the responsibility for the ignorance of the student on the college, on these matters, this being the role of the Reporter-at-Large for the contingent personal attack.

The editorial states that the Reporter-at-Large program did not reflect statements about the station, nor did it claim that the Reporter-at-Large program was a complete failure. It is the responsibility to place front page news on the front page, THE ITHACAN is a student newspaper and as such, it is its duty to keep the student informed.

We feel that as a gesture of courtesy, two apologies are due—one to the Reporter-at-Large for the WITJ for the unmitigated broadside leveled at them in the editorial, and two-to-us, the Reporter-at-Large for the regrettable personal attack.

Jack Kutz

When people speak of versatility at Ithaca College, eyes take on a crafty gleam and the conversation usually centers quietly closing in on the talented individual. Jack Kutz is one of these people.

Jack's interest in the theatre began early, he has been involved with Ithaca College's Touring Players, which tour each fall during the college's break. He has been a member of the group since his freshman year at Ithaca.

For Jack, acting has been a means of self-expression. He enjoys the fact that acting allows him to become someone else and experience different emotions.

When not performing on stage, Jack is often found in the classroom, where he is a member of the Phi Alpha Theta National English Honor Society. He is also a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society, which recognizes academic excellence.

Jane Patch

One of our busiest senior girls is an independent young lady named Jane Patch. This charming executive secretaire student is currently preparing for two simultaneous assignments, the time when she's in meetings and the time in between.

This one was a time, before the age of meetings, when Jane had been born and lived quietly for three years in Bristol, Connecticut. She passed peacefully through grade school and attended Bristol High School, playing piano lessons and joining the choir.

In the fall of 1958, Jane entered Ithaca College and started a new chapter of her life. She claimed her freshman year was relatively free of the academic pressures because "I went steady," and after that, it was a few years later. Jane and her roommate put together a character named Honey Bailey and the two of them set up a dance, and played the Bailey Hall Ithaca Contest of College Talent. Their dance consisted of a spirited portrayal of "The Prince of the Dance," which is known as the "Flapper Play," a little-known by Honey Bailey.

Jane apparently wasn't going steady in her sophomore year; she settled down to work and began her year by being elected president of Hilliard House. She provided many people with interest and excitement into the art of the house: the fraternities and the sororities. Jane got off to a slow start over the summer, and the next year was a sophomore year. She joined the photography staff of the Campus, which appeared in the Ithaca Times and sang in the Ithaca Variety. Jane faced a television camera for the second time in her life when she sang in the chorus of "The Trojan War," an Ithaca production that was telecast in Syracuse with great success. She maintained her interest in photography as a representative on the Scampers Committeee.

Jane graduated in addition to membership in Student Council and M.E.C., Jane is secretary of the Ithaca College Alumni, and she joined the photographer staff of the Campus, which appeared in the Ithaca Times and sang in the Ithaca Variety. Because only Viceroy gives you 20,000 filter traps in every filter tip, made from a pure natural substance—cellulose—found in delicious fruits and other edibles!

1. Yes, only Viceroy has this filter composed of 20,000 tiny filter traps. You cannot obtain the same filtering action in any other cigarette.
2. The Viceroy filter isn't just whipped up and rushed to market to meet the new and skyrocketing demand for filtering cigarettes. Viceroy pioneered, started research more than 20 years ago to create the pure and perfect filter.
3. Smokes on a music report that filtered Viceroy have a flavor that is not just a touch of smoking. They satisfy, yet pleasantly mild.
4. Viceroy draws so easily that you couldn't know, looking, that it even had a filter tip... and Viceroy costs only a penny or two more than cigarettes without filters. That's why more college women smoke Viceroy than any other filter cigarette... that's why Viceroy is the largest-selling filter cigarette in the world!
FACULTY SPOTLIGHT

With this issue THE ITHACAN continues a series of articles about members of the Ithaca College faculty. This will also include sociable and service personnel. Purpose of the series is to enable the readers to know their faculty better.

The first faculty spotlight of the school year 1955-56 allows the Gordon C. Chen, Assistant Professor of Management, Accounting, and Economics here at Ithaca College.

This is Mr. Chen’s first year here but he is already well known among the students and faculty. Mr. Chen received his B.S. degree in Management (from the Great China University) located in Shanghai. He came to the United States and studied Labor and Industrial Management at the State University of Iowa. He received his M.A. in 1950. He is presently a candidate for his doctorate in Iowa.

While at Iowa, Mr. Chen was circulation manager of the "Daily Iowa," Assistant recipient of the Distinguished Service Award from the University faculty. This will also be the key to your library. Mr. Chen was elected to the executive board. The next Hockey-Tennis season will be at Iowa.

Radio Review

The Radio Station Open House which was held Monday, October 14, proved a tremendous success. Guided tours led the guests through the station and the various functions of each department were explained. The highlight of the evening was the special program: This Is Your Life, Dean Taylor! Mr. Erle, Chairman of the Radio Department, was the MC. Many thanks to Dean Rawski, Dean Hill, Mr. Haney, Dr. Dillingham, Dean Hinman, Mr. Randall, Mrs. West, and Mrs. Clarke who portrayed the people in Mrs. Taylor’s life and helped retell some of her past. Mr. Taylor was presented with a WITJ microphone pin and made an honorary staff member, a key to her brand new Jaguar (toy of course), and a tape recording of the entire show.

Why don’t Ithaca College Students listen to WITJ? Look at FM radio—that’s why. Why doesn’t the school supply every dorm, sorority and fraternity house with an FM station? The students should be given the opportunity to hear WITJ in action.

Is your organization or club planning on something special? Why not have WITJ develop a special program for you. WITJ has extended its broadcast time until 9:30. But there are still many openings for good programs—so if you have an idea let us know about it.

College Soccer Team Won 3; Lose 2; Tie 3

The Ithaca College Soccer Team won two of their last three games and now have a season record of three wins, three losses, and two ties.

The Bombers played Hobart at Titus Plaza, and won 3-1. Jim McEvo scored a first period goal on a penalty kick. Hobart tied the score in the third quarter, in the fourth quarter, Al Clark scored the winning goal with an assist from Jim Zannvasy. I.C. downed Syracuse University 1-0, at Cornell Alumni Field. Lee "Shell" Geiger scored the goal after five minutes of the second period had gone by. Because of the heavy rains, the game could not be played at Titus Plaza as originally scheduled.

At Cortland, the Bombers lost by a score of 3-1. Zannvasy scored the goal for Ithaca.

Larry Sind is still playing outstanding ball for the team. Jim McEvo, Al Clark, and Glenn Heil- ther have also been playing fine ball.

The game against Brockport, Oct. 15, was delayed and rescheduled for Oct. 31. Brockport figures to be the toughest game of the year for Ithaca. The Bombers will play Rochester at home, Nov. 2, and will finish the season at RPI, Nov. 5.

We thank Matt Aleoti for the information of the soccer game. Matt is the team's official time-keeper.

The hottest news in the sports world was the trade between Cleveland and Chi-Cao. Acquisition of Larry Doby gave Pale Hose their needed catch-up hitter. Besides being a long ball hitter, Doby ranked among the best defensive center fielders in the majors. The Indians, who seemingly got the worst of the deal, were in need of a good shortstop, but Carew was an unappreciated star whom he never attained at Windy City. Ruby, who is just about the fastest Center fielder in the game, was a disappointment at the plate last season hitting only .239. However, his .300 plus average for the previous season may be truer indication of his hitting powers.

Free basketball swings into high gear this week and the defending champs, the Syracuse Nats, may have quite a battle in retaining their crown. Addition of 7 foot Writer Duke, gives the Knicks the best scored team in the Circuit. The Celts with Cousy, Macsawky, and Shirman are always tough, and the Warriors with the addition of Tom Golm, whom many experts call the best collegiate player of the century, will also be tough to keep down. The East shapes up as a real battle royal, while defending champion P.S. Wayne Pistons, and runnerup Lakers appear to be teams to beat in their division.

College Football, with the half way mark reached, is beginning to battle it out for post-season bowls and lucrative rewards. In the Big Ten, Michigan and Ohio State remain deadlocked, neither team having lost in Conference play. Wallis on the Coast, their Rose Bowl rival contains to lock horns. UCLA and So. Cal, appear the best candidates for the New Year's day classic.

Alfred Saxons Top Ithaca Bombers 26 - 0

The Alfred Saxons led by a small-hard-charging forward wall, bowled over I.C. by a score of 26-0 at Percy Field on October 21.

The Bombers, although confined to their own territory for most of the contest, nevertheless, looked very good on numerous occasions. Inability to pick up short yardage was no true picture of their vaunt. A blocking punt, an intercepted pass and 2 fumbles, which attests to their hard-hitting defense, but certainly was no true picture of their vaunt.

The Bombers held the Saxons on their own 19 midway through the first period, but a poor pass from center resulted in a blocked punt and Alfred took over on the I.C. 15. Ryan eventually scored from 8 yard out, and Harrnett passed to Dennis for the P.A.T.

Following the kickoff, the Bombers launched their first threat of the evening. Fresh Rudy Dunmore broke away for 49 yards and a first down on the Alfred 9. The Saxons tough forward well refused to give; the Bombers failed to score. Just before the half, Wrenn's 8 yard T.D. run was nullified by an offensive penalty.

At the start of the second half, another bad pass sailed over Harrnett's head on a punt formation and Alfred took over on the 15. Zucholski rambled for the 19 yards and the Saxons led 26-0.

The remainder of the second half developed into a tight defensive duel with the Bombers showing well. So, the Saxon T.D.'s were set up by a blocked punt, an intercepted pass and 2 fumbles, which attests for the reports of their hard-hitting line and fine defense, but certainly was no true picture of their vaunt.

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER--Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!
