Dr. Job To Be Feted At Home-Coming

The second annual Fall Home-coming for alumni is scheduled for November 9-11. A highlight of the week-end will be the luncheon to be held in the Ithaca Hotel, Saturday, November 10, 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m., honoring Dr. Leonard B. Job, who will retire from the presidency of Ithaca College next February. Before the luncheon Dr. Job will greet alumni in the foyer of the hotel.

Dr. Job told alumni of his intention to retire next February 15 when he will have completed 25 years as president, at the reunion held in Ide's Drone April 30.

At the annual association meeting later that day alumni voted to host the luncheon for Dr. Job and Mrs. Job. A committee to make plans for the occasion

During the summer they met with Mr. Short and Mrs. Vail, Charles Fleming M.S. of Binghamton, and Mr. Clark D.B. of Alfred served on the committee.

Robert Killian will be MC for the luncheon program which will feature representatives from many of the classes graduated since Dr. Job became president. They will express the appreciation of alumni to him for his years of devoted service.

Since his graduation from IC Mr. Killian received the Master's Degree in education from Rochester U '68, and has been principal of the JF-Sr, High School of Penn Yan the past six years.

He is president of Rotary Club.

In response to requests from alumni the celebration will conduct tours of all college properties by bus.

Why I Will Vote For Ike
Peter Bush

In this Presidential election we have heard many lesser speakers promise us life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness if their party members are elected to power. It would appear that no matter which party which party members were in power, all our troubles would be solved. I will attempt to state the stand of the Eisenhower Administration and let the reader draw his own conclusions.

On Foreign Policy the policy is that the United States covets nothing that belongs to other people and does not seek to dominate other lands. President Eisenhower sees a world in which each free people can meet their own ends and not be attacked by poverty, disease, ignorance, and fear, and it is sincerely hoped that in the future, all people will be able to live under a totalitarian rule. May one day share the prosperity and freedom that we now know. In contrast to its political opposition the administration feels responsible to guarantee its own people safety and maintain military strength in the foreseeable future. I believe that once a criminal is created, the world is his enemy and not the one who created him.

Why I Won't Vote For Ike
by Carl Pirko

While the column which appears to the side of this contains a mass of glowing generalities, this writer seeks to present some concrete and logical reasons why he will not vote for the re-election of President Eisenhower.

In a fit of vindictiveness, the Republican 80th Congress in 1947, lashed out at the American people for daring to vote for a Democrat for president in 1948. They said it was needed.

It's time for a change and Stevenson is the man for the job. I'm going to be a tax payer in the near future. I think Stevenson has the right ideas.

It's a mere hot day. Let's look at his administration's record so far and see if it's a sure thing for Ike.

Eisenhower's Efforts, Phl. Ed. '57

Personally, I do not see how one can vote against Ike, but if we all don't vote, we might as well have a third party because he was sick and tired of the obstructionism of the Demo­cratic Party.

Eisenhower, Carl Pirko

It might be rough. Too many people figure it's a sure thing for Ike.

Eisenhower, Carl Pirko

It has to be Ike. If someone gets out and does something part of the time, you'll have a good chance of getting re-elected.

Dick Everitt, Radio-TV, '58

With Nixon as his running mate, Ike's chances are cobbled somewhat, but the guarantee of a third party because he was sick and tired of the obstructionism of the Democratic Party makes it worth the risk.

Carl Pirko

That would be the first thing for a little education. Fine, let's begin. Oh, didn't you say that everything is all right because the professor who gave me the F will probably send me a D.

Radio Station to Cover Elections

Through the combined facilities of WITJ-WIBC, the Ithaca College Department of Radio and Television, and the general public, the campus will be able to present complete coverage of the November 6, Presidential Elections.

This program, produced by New­man-Rhysling, will feature complete election returns, election analysis by Alabama political authorities, and the normal internal side of the election. This will be the first complete election coverage of its kind undertaken by the above stations.

The broadcast will be simulcast on AM and FM and will include direct, and recorded reports from key points throughout the city. Special emphasis will be given to the local election scene, and local personalities.

Sign on will be at 6:30 P.M. and the broadcast will continue until a definite result is known. Major­ity Report will be organized along three lines. Research and tabulation, directed by Ar­mand de Bono, Remote operation under the super­vision of John Pettit, and Op­eration Center, broadcast control point, under the direction of Larry Murphy will be a part of the whole. This work will be the news section of the T, a cooperative program being established by the American Tobacco Company as a resourceful adequate advertising medium.

WITJ-WIBC Acquires UP Wire Service

The WIBC News Department has announced the acquisition of the United Press Wire Service, for broadcast here. This is the first time in the history of the Depart­ment of Radio and Television, that the two sister stations, WITJ­WIBC, will have ready access to the UP coverage of news and sports.

The teletype will be installed in approximately one week. It was negotiated under the name of "The American Tobacco Company. Ed C. Drumm, Director of Special Events stated... that having a wire service readily available will be a great help to the stations. One of the... major roles it will play in current operations will be as a "time collector and the project of phonic news coverage, Majority Report." American Tobacco Co. Distributing Smokes Here at IC

Ithaca College has recently been recognized by the American To­bacco Company as a resourceful area for its advertising campaign. Through the Student Marketing Institute of New York City, Frank Murphy serves as the Campus Repre­sentative. It is Frank's job to distribute sample packages of Pall Mall, and Lucky Strikes for the purpose of acquainting students with these products. An important aspect of this method of advertising, the student often discovers a more favorable cig­arette and in turn, the American Tobacco Company increases its amount of annual sales.

From time to time, Frank is found sampling students and gaining their reactions in the various school buildings.

IC Students Participate in Model UN

Last weekend, Oct. 19-21, Ithaca College students participated over 100 Cornell University stu­dents in the annual Cornell Model United Nations. For the first time, the program included a Security Council, as well as the General Assembly.

The United Nations consists of 54 nations which formed two committees to discuss Cyprus and atomic energy, and Israel-Jordan and apartheid. (pronounced "apar-za") refers to the Negro-White problem peculiar to the Union of South Africa.

Five permanent and six temper­orary countries composed the make­ up of the Security Council. These nations discussed issues and com­mitted China.

Ithaca College students participat­ing in the council meetings are as follows:

- Security Council: Iran, Carl Pir­ce; Peru, David Williams
- General Assembly: Belgium, Eric Muir; Jordan Salesme; Bol­ivia, Ronald Platt; Colombia, David W. Sass; Guatemala, Douglas Wight; Nicaragua: Peter Bush, Nick Ippolito; Peru, Gerald Brinthaupt; Iceland. Daniel Edsall; Union of South Afri­ca: Marjorie B. Wilson.

"Strange Bedfellows"

Ed Kechele

On October 12, 1956, the Ithaca College Drama Department presented as its fall major production the farcical, provocatively entitled comedy "Strange Bedfellows". The Little Theater's near-capacity crowd responded favorably to a rather middling script. The action takes place, entirely, on Nob Hill, in the plush parlor of a mansion belonging to Senator Cromwell. The theme of Woman Suffrage is quickly arrived at. The peaceable status quo of the Cromwell residence gives no hint of being injured, until Matthew Cromwell, the senator's returning from Europe, arrives with his new bride, Clarissa. It is quickly learned that the senator's wife, Jill (Lynn Moree), and her partner in puppy love; Stilson's portrayal of Tillie Park er, the madam, was superb, as she added a strong foundation for her Clar­ issa, and so she fell to the ground. The husband and wife team of Addie and Gillford Hampton, added well in filling in. They gave the show its shots of adrenalin and blended the body movement all over the stage, Her strong foundation for her Clar­ issa, and so she fell to the ground.

Frosh Booters In Good Shape

“A spirited bunch who are eager to play,” says coach Carp Wood of the Ithaca College Froshmen soccer team. The Frosh hosted a 3-0 triumph over the Seniors last Saturday at home.

Mr. Wood was particularly pleased with the showing of the back against the Cornell back four, which he cited as “the best of its kind.” The resilient back four, led by Bill Herlihy and Larry Dows, has been a mainstay of the Froshmen’s success.

Roger Cole, Chuck Andrews, and Jim Miller were among the Froshmen’s leaders that day. The back-fourers, along with the midfielders, are playing an excellent defensive game while Cole and Don Rayburn are doing well offensively.

The Frosh booters will be play- ing Cortland tomorrow afternoon at 3:00 p.m. at home. They are tied with the Johnson Vocational booters with three each, before the Brooklyn contest. Bob Burtchy, Gene Smith, and Bill Brockport are playing an excellent defensive game while Cole and Don Rayburn are doing well offensively.

National Teacher Exams Announced by E.T.S.

PRINCETON, N. J., October 12. The National Teacher Examinations, prepared and administered annually by Educational Testing Service, will be given at 200 test centers throughout the United States on Saturday, February 28, 1957.

At the one-day testing session a candidate may take the Common Examinations, which include tests in General Information, Cultural Expression, English Expression, Mathematics, History, Government, and three of eight other (and on Ike, too) in attempts to gain control of the party. They had no choice. If Ike wins, then the Old Guard is finished. This time the Republicans nominated “The Dick and Dick” for another term. Nixon won the election, and he has much less practical experience, and his election, it seems to many who voted for him, was against neither, but is for both. Nixon has the added advantage of having been a successful business executive.

President Eisenhower’s campaign was marked by a strong leadership from the candidates. Nixon was on campus. He has an excellent record in business; this Administration is not against competitive capitalism and which is sorely needed. They are satisfied to go back to their earlier rut and remain there.

Last week Mr. Eisenhower spoke up in favor of a 22nd Amendment. So did David Lawrence, with whom this writer rarely agrees. They denied this to broadcast.

To Vote, or Not To Vote

President faced the questions of the nation with a televised press conference. Questions ranged from the “How” bomb to public housing. Cornell University has been under the microscope of laymen and educators for allowing a political candidate to hold “political rallies” at the university. Mr. Nixon stated, however, that this was not intended to be a campaign trip and that his appearance at Cornell in no way indicated endorsement by the University of the Republican Party or himself.

The University officials asked the students’ body to refrain from any demonstrations while Mr. Nixon was on campus. Among the Colleges and Universities represented at the press conference were Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Notre Dame and UCLA. Ithaca College was represented by the Editor of the Ithacan, Dave Clapper.

WITJ-WICR To Broadcast Sports Events

Ithaca College sporting activity is being given a wide play by the Ithaca College Department of Radio and Television. The department, through the combined operations of WITJ and WICR, are planning and acting the athletic heroes of IC.

(Heading the list of sports programs is “Sports News and Views,” a daily roundup of the latest events and in around the world heard presently on WICR, 600 kc, at 7:15. Starting November 1, “Sports Corner” will bounce into the line up. It is a report of the week’s happenings on the athletic field and a crystal ball look at the upcoming events. It will be heard each Thursday night at 7:15 on WITJ-WICR. Live broadcasts of home football games are still the number one item on the Sports department’s list. Matt Cardero and Norm Warner will team up to do the play-by-play reporting of the Ithaca College-Brockport gridiron clash, at 8:00 P.M., Friday, October 28.

On Friday, November 2, Norm Warner and John Peddito will “realize” the IC-Lockhaven season closer. Tentative plans are being made here at Ithaca College along with court clashing.

Educational TV Being Explored In New York

New York, N. Y. (L.P.)—An educational experiment in which New York University and WRCA-TV join forces to determine the best television techniques for closed-circuit instruction with television will commence with the present fall semester.

The university, under a grant from the Fund for the Advancement of Education, will conduct a three-credit course through its closed-circuit television facilities. Members of WRCA-TV’s technical and production staffs, under the supervision of Richard R. Hefner, producer in charge of WRCA-TV’s educational and religious programs, will cooperate in the presentations.

The courses to be offered this fall are English composition and the literature of England, under the guidance of the English department of NYU’s Washington Square College of Arts and Science, and “Man’s Cultural Heritage,” conducted by the School of Education. The experiment will continue through the academic year, ending in June, 1957.

WRCA-TV, which is the National Broadcasting Company’s New York station, will aid the project through production, technical, and directorial assistance; advice on the conception and preparation of visual materials; orientation of faculty personnel; and dramatic talent when appropriate.

Study Abroad

More American students are attending the non-profit Scandinavian Seminars that ever before, Angelo Rosendal Nielsen, executive director of the Scandinavian Seminars for Cultural Studies, 123A East Third Street, New York 21, has announced. Some 50 American students are now attending the nine-month-long Seminars in Scandinavia, he said, and this is the largest group to attend since they were established 8 years ago. Applications are now being accepted for the 1957-58 Seminars for a special fee of $900, which includes tuition, board and room, plus travel.

Dr. Halldin Gregersen is the academic advisor for the program in Scandinavia. Dr. Gregersen, formerly Dean of Williams College, Williamsburg, Mass., was a professor at Harvard University.

Three types of students may enroll for the Scandinavian Seminars, including college juniors, seniors, graduate students and teachers. Undergraduates may obtain academic credit by individual arrangement with their colleges for their junior year in Scandinavia.

To Vote — Or Not To Vote (Cont’d from page 3)

while this amendment is on the books and until the attitude of the Republican Party and its leaders changes.

If Mr. Eisenhower is re-elected, he will be the oldest person ever elected president. But while voting for Ike, one should reflect for a moment on the character of his running mate, Vice-President Nixon.

He has shown the country a new face this year. He now claims to be an Eisenhower Republican. If so, the Old Guard will never allow him to be elected president. But they really have no worry. To me the issue is crystal clear. The Democrats nominated their candidate in a free and open convention, while Mr. Nixon and his newly-named vice-president candidate, Joe Smith, the choice is clear. The vote you cast in November is either for Stevenson or Nixon.
