College Symphony Orchestra gives Initial Concert

Organization Achieves New Peak Under Conduction of McHenry

Under the baton of Mr. Craig McHenry, the College Symphony Orchestra made its first appearance in the Little Theatre, Sunday, Nov. 8. This intensely associated with the organization might attribute the success of its leader, coupled with the keen support of its members, to the activity being directed into a new and fruitful channel of achievement which will be noted by similar organizations in the future. Setting itself forth, faithfully under the command of the house which played upon it, endowed with new beauty, adequacy and consciousness, preparation, summation, equals and actuates the playing of Sunday evening's concert.

Wolf-Pettenkofer Ponleary

The opening number was the Overture from the Intermezzo, "Serenade," by Wolf-Pettenkofer. The opening number is the center of attraction of a suite, known as "Eight Short Preludes and Fugues". There is no field of musical expression in which Bach is not dominant and indispensible. Music emanated from the happy at the organ. Symphony No. 1 in the minor, Pettenkofer movement by Saint-Saens is in form of a thumbling movement, this is characterized by brilliant trill and brilliancy from beginning to end. In some part of this movement, the entire creative work he has shown himself exceptionally skill of that kind form and in this particular instance has succeeded in creating an interesting attractive specimen.

Geiger's "Presto"

Geiger's "Presto" is one of the Saint-Saens greater works. The exquisiteness of Saint-Saens lies in the fact that the music written for the stage resembles the movements, of which of course, "Morning", is chiefly composed in a Saint-Saens style. The composition of this piece is a favorite with the favorite in the Symphony. The "Virgin's Last Song" from Saint-Saens "La Fille Mal Gardée".

Ravender Huse Addresses Second College Assembly

Assembly Opened by College President Dr. Bliss

Dr. Leonard Bliss, job opened the second all-college assembly of this year Thursday morning at 10:00 o'clock, November 5. A few arrangements and remotes were offered relative to the use of student activity tickets and the mail box in the lobby.

Surrany Witty

Reverend Raymond H. Huy, pastor of the First Methodist Church, was scheduled to speak at the assembly. Rev. Huy related the weather conditions had prevented a trip to Greece in the previous evening. However, hope will still hold the band. While waiting for the speaker, Mr. Huy presented the singing of a few songs, and very shortly the dynamic Reverend Huy helped off the field in the fourth quarter with a re-occurrence of an offense.

Alumnus Offers Title For Teams

Tom Jones, class of 1936, has offered a title for the campus athletic teams. His suggested title was "Blue-Buckers". Jones takes the "Blue" from the college colors, Blue and Gold, and "Buck- ers" to imitate the name of the other Buckeyes.

Other titles recently offered are "Blue-Flames", or "Blue-Blazers", "Blizzards" or "Blue-Rays"; "Blue-Blazers" from Bill Sunderland. Since many of the students of today are interested in interpreting for dance music, especially, in the dance of the 1930's, the Sunderland says that this title will be a great help to all concerned, but that Ithaca College still leads in every line of its endeavor.

A few suggestions should be made to the teachers that in order to be effective must be followed up.

Miss Elliott Joins Ep Dy Phylacity

Miss Mildred A. Elliott was recently added to the staff of the Physical Education Department, and comes to Ithaca College with a commendable record in the Physical Education field.

Miss Elliott attended Hunter College, in New York, from 1929 to 1933, where she received an A.B. degree. She then went to the graduate work at the Teacher's College, The City College of Columbia University, obtaining the degree of M.A. in 1935. Miss Elliott was graduated from Hunter College. Miss Elliott played basketball and baseball, and was a captain of each team during her junior year also, and was also a member of the glee club. She was engaged in college during college including her time at Hunter College. In addition to the above listed categories, her new physical education instructor is to further her interest in the various sports of her college years.

Ithaca Gridders Penn State Teacher's Eleven

Crowd Brawls Cold, Penn Smashes Teacher's Content

Though the crowd was greatly cut down because of the cold wave, there was much enthusiasm in the stands for the Gridders. The Gridders plodded to an easy win over the East Broadstreet State Teachers on the high school field in the district. The Gridders featured little opposition and won the game easily. The Gridders led several at the first period and held a commanding lead during the rest of the game. Claude Grace and Joe Navarro did much of the rushing toward the form. Frank Clark, fullback, was outstanding in a similar capacity last year, and was helped off the field in the fourth quarter with a re-occurrence of an offense.

what they must do to escape serious social penalties.

Those who take the job of being college students seriously will welcome any reasonable regulations which will remove the necessity for repetitious and monotonous meetings caused by irregular attendance on the part of the students.

The new regulations will become effective soon. It is expected that they will be explained in detail at a general assembly to be held next week. It is important that the students understand the aim and manner such regulations may be promulgated. It is expected that these changes are desirable and that the students, have every reason to believe they will be made. It is, indeed, a great privilege to feel that our college is devoted to the interests of students and that regulation of any kind is for their benefit.

NEED FOR MORE ASSEMBLIES FELT BY STUDENT BODY

Not so many years ago a regular time was set for a weekly assembly of this institution. During the past few years assemblies have never been conducted unless specially designated by the administration.

Opinions expressed by members of the student body indicate that there is a need felt for more frequent meetings of the three departments of the college in the form of assembly. However, these opinions do not show that a return to the former system of weekly meetings is desired. In order to do this every week it would be necessary to appoint a set time solely for that purpose. No undergrades here can afford to lose the extra period which would necessarily have to be utilized in this manner. However, week-by-week all-college gatherings in The Little Theatre would be in order. Since this is an impossibility, an assembly every two or three weeks would be held, with a different hour of meeting selected each time. In this manner, loss of time from a certain course would be reduced to a minimum.

Interesting speakers, particularly those who would address the college on topics of varied interests as pertinent to this type of school would prove invaluable to all students. The type of address such as Reverend Hove gave last week is one enjoyed by all, as well as setting forth principles which the college men and women of today should bear in mind.

Finally, the divisions of music, drama, and physical education are becoming more and more closely allied. The three departments here have been thrown into closer contact with each other during the past few years than ever before. Ithaca College has the means to maintain and develop these contacts to the extent desired. This can be helped immensely through the holding of regular assemblies.

As the voice of the student body, "The Ithacan" advocates an all-college assembly at the intervals of not less than every three weeks.

STUDENTS OFFERED POSITIONS ON ITHACAN STAFF

Many students have indignantly expressed their desire to do some work on the staff of "The Ithacan." They have voiced their desire to friends and classmates, but have not spoken directly to this paper.

There are several different capacities in which those who enjoy newspaper work can serve; business, advertising, editorial staff, and also in various editorial staff positions. As yet, there have been no appointments made for associate editors, or an assistant editor. These positions are open for whomever wishes to work, and direct interest in the publication, will make appointments for associate editors, or an assistant editor. CUT SYSTEM REGULATIONS FORMULATED BY FACULTY

For several weeks a faculty committee has had under consideration plans for regulating class attendance. The freedom allowed in the past has worked to the disadvantage of many students. It is doubtful if it has been advantageous to any. The fundamental philosophy underlying regulative measures of any sort is that the rule to be required and limitation of action may be so controlled that the goal of all may be served. Most college students do not require compulsion. They attend class because that is the primary purpose of being in college. Careless- ness or indifference on the part of the few seriously handicaps the majority in many ways. It will doubtless invite a few who must seek regulation to be told
by Dr. Rice

When Goethe's band recently played a job in Cincinnati, Bob Bagage, their lead trombonist, said: "There was a real feeling of jubilation—of real popular— for a while. Ask Bob about everything and he laughed a lot."

"Should anybody decide to spend a 'different' kind of vacation," he added, "I'd get Claire Brunner with his car, and Bob would be happy to do a whole week's happy and welcome guest, and get 'letting out' just about any other kind of music you want that he was in love with the band, before he was in love with piano."

I'm glad to hear that the fellows made it, too."

They were all seated.

The important factor in any game is the type of equipment one is working with. It is true that beers of lower strength have less effect on the mind than are the higher strengths of beer. In fact, the factor is that what makes a drink a good drink is the number of solutions, proteins, etc., which are found in its composition."

WAFA THEATRE PRODUCE YOUNG PLAYWRIGHTS

Inerrant attempts to encourage talent among the undergraduate playwrights of America are being crystallized into a nationwide campaign during this same year, it was announced yesterday by Francis Bosworth, director of the WAFA Federal Theatre Project's Play Bureau.

Taking advantage of the vast, untapped talent in schools and colleges, in the lack of opportunity, the WAFA Federal Theatre is assuming the leading in offering young talent the opportunity of seeing their plays in production.

Taking college playwrights, which are not produced by WPFA Federal Theatre Projects, within the country, have receivedention of the Stills Studio, a division of the WAFA Theatre, where the playwright may see the first of this inclination or play conservation.
