Professor Wilson said that it is ecessary for us to try to live in a world of conflicting ideas.
In the past we have believed and thought, because it is easier to believe than to think, but today thought is vital. The predictabil-therefore, we must think of the days after the war. It will be too late to think of peace when the war is over.

Professor Wilson encouraged students to believe in what young people face the most wonderful opportunities any group ever face. True, we will have troubles and trials, but our opportunities will outweigh them.
JOIN OUR SCRAP DRIVE
The Sophomore Class is presenting an overall "scrap" dance. Every person attending the dance must contribute at least one pound of scrap metal at the door. Tickets are also being sold to cover some of the expenses.
Every student should participate in this affair. You are not only required to do a good time, but as well you are doing something for your country.
All the ciders and doughnuts you can handle will be on the house.
The "Symphonians" will be in the band box with their star vocalist.
Plans are being made to feature the "Song Bird of Ithaca" whom I am sure we are all familiar with.
This is a dance you cannot afford to miss. Wear whatever you find, and dig up that old scrap metal and bring it along.

Student Recital Scheduled
The first student recital of this semester will take place on November 4th at 8:15 in the Little Theatre.
The program will be made up of piano, string and voice selections. Due to the accelerated program this year, the number of student recitals will be somewhat diminished. Therefore we deem it wise to include this date on your appointment list. It goes without saying that a good-sized audience is always an encouraging sight to our student soloists and is well appreciated.
Two of our old grads, namely WARREN and COLEMAN RYTHER, U. S. N., made quite a stir in some of the up-state papers, when it was discovered that it was the first time in history that a family has contributed two sons to act as physical educators in the Sea forces. Chief Yeoman G. T. MILAN, U.S.N., stated that "it is extremely rare to find two sons able to meet the rigid physical requirements which will qualify him for this particular branch of the service." COLEMAN is now located at the new training station in Farragut, Idaho. He hopes to be married there on October 24th, to Miss Carolyn Matica of Slingerlands. WARREN, whose football team made history last month by defeating the Championship Morris high school team 48-0, left his school in September, and is still training at Norfolk, Va. The information came from clippings sent by the boy's sister, Miss Catherine Ryther, who wrote in addition, "I do hope the new draft status won't hinder the ITHACAN too much, and I want to send my best wishes to the school and its officers. May you enjoy prosperity."

AVIATION CADET RAY CHABBONNEAU, former Sports Editor of the ITHACAN wrote to Mr. Hill saying "I am an Aviation cadet in the U.S. Navy. I can't give my address at the present for I am on Parris Island in the Marines. I like it a lot. Its really good service am should worry tho-will probably have a son anyway (son-in-law) when the ITHACAN once again get all the news from good ole I. C. ..."

CUTE QUOTES

Through the efficiency of our last and found department, some interesting quotations by one Mr. Walter Beeler have been found in an envelope left by Ed Greene at last years senior class. These exclamations were evoked from Mr. Beeler during different band rehearsals. They read as follows:

Two clarinets struggling through a vicious part: “When in doubt to the window and then sit down.”

To cornets muffling their parts: “Come on boys, put away the ocarina.”

When clarinets drowned out an oboe solo in a burst of enthusiasm: “Don’t blow so loud boys, this may sound pretty.”

Listening to Marlett play A, trying to get in tune: “Well, two or three of those tones were in tune.”

To band after poor response to a double forte sign (meaning very loud): “Well, two or three of those tones were in tune.”

Lost but not least is a quotation by Doc Smail during one of Harvey Johnson’s clarinet lessons. (A hearsal.) When clarinets drowned out an oboe solo in a burst of enthusiasm: “Don’t blow so loud boys, this may sound pretty.”

The "T-ZONE" where cigarettes are judged

The "T-ZONE"—Taste and Throat—is the proving ground for cigarettes. Only your taste and throat can decide which cigarette tastes best to you... and how it affects your throat. For your taste and throat are individual to you. Based on the experience of millions of smokers, we believe Camels will suit your "T-ZONE" to a "T". Prove it for yourself!
