Fund Drive Started For New Gym

Ithaca College will launch its general campaign on Nov. 26, to secure funds for the erection of a gymnasium on the new campus on South Hill according to a statement issued by President Leonard J. Burt and Dr. Earl W. Defleclos who have been named co-chairmen of the campaign.

The drive in the city of Ithaca will be followed by a campaign among the alumni of the college and other friends during the next six months. The announced objective of the campaign is $100,000 from all sources.

The local part of the campaign will be launched on Monday evening, Nov. 26, with a dinner at the Ithaca Hotel for all division leaders, team captains and workers. Five report meetings have been scheduled during the period of Nov. 11-13.

The new gymnasium will replace the Aurora and Seneca gym, two antiquated theater buildings in downtown Ithaca, now used by the physical education department. In addition, the new gymnasium will be located within several hundred yards of the new athletic field. This will eliminate the long distances which students must travel from the downtown gymnasium to the athletic facilities on the outskirts of the city, and will generally centralize the physical education program.

Schreiber Elected Frosh President

In the Froshmen elections, which were supervised by Frank Dugan, the Student Council representative, the following officers were chosen: Al Schreiber (Business), president; Harold Fisher (Drama-Radio), vice-president; and Elliven Elmer (Music), secretary-treasurer. Martha Patala (Phyisc), Joanne Diederich (Speech and Dramatic Arts) and Judy Huber (Pyschology and Education) will serve as committeemen and administrative committees.

New Bell and Clock System Now Installed in Annex

A new bell system and clock were installed this week in the Annex of Ithaca College. The bell system, a project of the school, has been on order some time in the past month. The system has been held up due to a gift from the senior class. It was presented to the college by the class of 1962 and is now in use.

Winter Weather
Withers Weekend
Freezing rain, snow, and generally bad weather tended to dull spirits and ease an otherwise enjoyable program last weekend.

The weather caused a pep rally to be held inside the Seneca Gym, making miserable the bid for last Friday's game against Alfred U., and forcing plinkers who had planned to spend Sunday afternoon in Stewart Park. The pep rally, held Thursday at 5:30, was attended by 150 to 160 people, who were introduced to their football team and Coach Joe Hamilton.

Friday night's final parade almost drifted out to Percy Field, and left so dry, Pi Theta Phi (Physic-trucrty) won the prize of $15 with a float depicting the flag raising at two PM. Loyal Ithacans who watched the guns went home soiled and very cold.

The bad weather was probably the cause of a relatively small turnout of 26 couples at the Fall Flag last Saturday night. Still, the dance was comparatively successful.

Sunday, the sun was shining, but the temperature was so low, that no one would venture outside. The J.C. Concert Band gave a creditable performance Sunday evening.

Reader Asks About Student Lounge

The student lounge, in the basement of the administration building, is used most of the day for the men of the school. Its location is ideal, but it has certain good and bad features. The students could give it a new name, and yet not do anything wrong.

The lounge is furnished with chairs, tables, candy, cigarette, and coke touchables, and a joke box. This is the extent of the lounge. The joke box, presently in the lounge, is quite old. Its records are also quite old with only a few modern records. There are no comic strips. All in the lounge; the walls are bare with not even an Ithaca College banner.

A few changes which could help make the lounge a more pleasant place for the student body would be some of the following: a clock for correct time so students will not miss classes; a new name for the joke box and, if possible, a new joke box. An ancient machine which could give students change can be used, and they could play nickels to work the machines. A few recreational games like ping pong, checkers, and chess could be a help for students in the lounge.

If a few additional changes were made, the student body probably would get more use out of the lounge.

From the halls of Con得ersport, Pa., comes John Tucker, actor, musician and student at the Con得ersport High School. Tucker has been very active. He has been on the school's football and basketball teams, being elected to all-star teams in his junior year. But sports gave way so he could devote more of his time to the drama department.

When he graduated, he was offered the Ithaca College Radio Workshop program. The reports were so favorable that he decided to give it a try. Soon his voice, which had become concentrated on the drama, has just been laying around his music, which was his pleasure, or don't you have the typical hometown love for the town? Vince? Vince was subjected to the secondary school environment of St. Michael's. He attended the Ithaca College Radio Workshop program. When the day came for the change from navy blue to brown, Vince decided on a banding job in New York where he worked for seven months before coming to I.C.

Vince Tutino, that smiling young man on campus, receives a beam of light from the Spotlight this week. To keep a school and happy life, a lot of people like Vince. He's never seen in a bad mood or unwilling to undertake a little responsibility.

This American People by Gerald John­ston. Mr. Johnson's essay is prompted by the widespread concern that the "typ­ical" American and prevalence of the folklore about it are blinding us to the meaning and responsibilities of life in a Democ­racy. While it is in the finest form of government yet devised, democracy is also, Mr. Johnson reminds us, "a dangerous form of government"—the architects of the American system were courageous men, willing to take colossal risks. Keeping one eye fixed on American history, Mr. Johnson carefully discusses the risks which Americans must take now and ever, if they are to be genuinely demo­cratic. The essay is a bit general in tone and specific as it might be about the concrete cases of the day. But all the same, it's something to be grateful for.

The*Ithacan* is being moved downstairs in annex.

The Ithaca College Library, until recently located in the building which houses the Cornell Public Library, on the corner of Terry and Seneca Street, is now in the process of being moved into the Annex of Ithaca College. This move has been caused by the con­demning of certain parts of the third floor of the Memorial Union, where the Library was formerly situated as shelf for public use.

The Library is now being operated in the downstairs of the Annex with room 11 and 12 as stock rooms and room 16 equipped as a reading room. The Library's staff, which con­sists of the head librarian, Mrs. Sarah O'Shea, assistant librarians Miss Mary Murdoch, Mrs. Elizabeth Better, and student helper Helen Yoko, is now busy engaged in getting the reading and reference materials in order on a semi-permanent basis. Mrs. O'Shea stated that "Attendance in the library reading room is constantly increasing," and she also said, "The Library will probably re­main in the Annex for the rest of the school year."

WINNING 1-ACTS TO BE PRESENTED TWICE THIS YEAR

The winners of the Theta Alpha Phi Fall 1-Act Play Contest will have a chance to see their work presented twice this year. It has been planned to break the established custom of having the plays produced once for the general public to afford the original presentations the opportunity to attract a more effective criticism. The laboratory productions are to be staged this term and criticized by a chosen audience. The plays will then be produced May 1st and 2nd for the public general.

The winners of last year's contest and their plays are: John Thigpen's Hells Angels, directed by Allen G. Rowe, City Hall; Robert Stein's Off The Highway directed by Nortner Clark and an operetta entitled The Cobbler by Nick Da­liano, with music by Richard Sav­lar, is to be directed by John Tucker with musical director, Lyn­wood McClell.

MUSICALLY...

By Marilyn Millsough

Something new has been added to the group of ensembles we have in our Music Department. It is a brass quintet, consisting of 5 students and conducted by Mr. Robert A. Boudreau.
This choir made its debut on October 7 at the first student recital in the Ithaca College Auditorium. At the first meeting, plans for a construction were drawn up, and the purposes of the organization were discussed. The second meeting was held in the Ithaca office, and the policies of the club were taken up. One of the interesting subjects was the taking of pictures at this Saturday's Sophomore Dance. Pictures will be taken of couples who wish prints for themselves, and others will be taken for the Caygian and Lambda. As soon as the club gets under way, lectures will be given by photographic specialists, and classes will be given to beginners on all phases of photography.

Ithaca College has already had a recording made of the Teachers' Theatre's performance of Oedipus the King because of its usefulness as a teaching aid in literature courses. Professor Wood will forward this recording to Mrs. Douglas Robertson, and he hopes that this request may open the way to new and larger audiences for the Teachers' Theatre. If such a distribution of records and phonograph records is to begin, the demand for productions of Ithaca may be heard and enjoyed by many people in distant parts of the country.
Senior Seminar Aims Views On Shortcomings Of IC

Elmer Speer, studying for the Master of Science degree with a major in Speech, will undertake experimental research in dramatics at the Veteran's Hospital in Canandaigua. One of Mr. Speer's basic assumptions is that a program of drama properly selected and properly engaged in will contribute to the process of rehabilitation.

The title of his research project is Determining and Evaluating Pre-cordial Methods Employed and Possible Values According from a Program of Dramatics in a Veteran's Administration Mental Hospital.

William Malin, also majoring in Speech, will develop a thesis dealing with radio in the program of rehabilitation for veterans. Mr. Malin's purpose is to construct a guide for future teachers and administrators whose responsibilities lie in the field of rehabilitation work or in mental hygiene work.

The title of the thesis to be developed is Treatment through Radio Education as Applied in a Veteran's Administration Mental Institution.

A research problem that has attracted considerable attention in the Seminar is Arthur Scott's proposed study. Arthur has the feeling that Visual Aids could and should play an important part in instruction in Music Education. Mr. Scott is taking graduate work leading toward the degree of Master of Science in Music Education.

His graduate project or thesis is entitled The Use of Visual Aids in Music Education.

Dr. Griswold pointed out that the Research Seminar meets every Wednesday at 10:00 o'clock in Room 25. Students and faculty are invited to attend these sessions during the time candidates are presenting their written outlines on research problems to be conducted. Topics to be presented by the various graduate students are posted one week ahead on the bulletin board in the Graduate School office.

NEWSLETTER GOES TO PRESS

The fall edition of the Ithaca College Newsletter, an alumni bulletin, has gone to press and will be mailed, gratis, to 3900 graduates of the school sometime next week. The Newsletter edited by Mr. Harold Jaeson, publicity director of the college, appears three times during the academic year and covers major events and information concerning students as well as alumni reports.

Grid Squad Loses 16 Seniors; Closes With 4-3 Record

Returning home after a stunning 34-0 defeat at the hands of a spirited East Stroudsburg gridiron powerhouse, sixteen of the Bombers drew the curtain on their football careers here at LC.

Wearing the Blue and Gold for the last time in Saturday’s encounter within the boundaries of the Pennsylvania Teachers campus were: Al Pisano, (“Chief”) Sanders, George King, Jack Carona, Frank Yeager, Frank “padaro”, Larry Prince, Clarence (“Bever”) Cona, Sam Volo, Bill Brichowski, Calvis Widderhorn, Ray Frasier, Frank Signorelli, Jerry Hanrow, Tom Kelly, and George Donnemon.

At East Stroudsburg, Saturday, the Bombers never did find themselves offensively or defensively. Although threatening several times, the offense crumbled completely as the half ended. Even though a brilliant defensive stand during the first half held the opposition to a meager six points, LC’s offensive still failed to find itself and left the Bombers on the short end of the 34-0 score.

Nevertheless, as another season comes to an end, the Bombers leave the gridiron history books with a glowing tribute to Coach Hamilton. Mr. Resue and all the players wish to convey to Mr. Hamilton our sincere wish that the success of this year’s Varsity Football squad. Mr. Hamilton has proved that he knew how to instill in his team the determination to have a team that represents our chosen profession co-operation, leadership, and in the corners .. Good luck boys!

Major’s Club

What’s more important to a professional student than to know what’s eating him in his field outside of the classroom? You physical education students can gain this knowledge from Major’s Club. You have, no doubt, heard of this organization, but maybe you don’t know much of its functions. The Major’s men’s purpose is to acquaint you, the student, with the professional side of your future life.

The Major’s Club is the Student Section of the New York Association for Health and Physical Education and Recreation. Five purposes of the club, stated in its constitution, are: 1. Awareness of the available jobs in the field of health, physical education, and recreation; 2. Acquire and disseminate accurate information concerning the above fields; 3. Provide such means of promotion as will secure adequate programs in these fields throughout the state and nation; 4. Advance the standards of teaching and leadership; 5. Promote greater social and professional co-operation among all health, physical education, and recreation majors.

Ithaca college doesn’t possess the only Major’s Club in the country by any means. Among the leading physical education schools in New York State Teachers Colleges with a large membership of 400, are Syracuse University, Manhattan College, and Brockport.

Ibberment, we students are the only ones who can make a success of this Club that represents our chosen profession. For any additional information that may help you, consult the Major’s Club board at the Seneca Gym. See you at Major’s!
