City United Fund Kickoff Carried
On College’s WICB-TV Facilities

Ithaca College Television presented its first remote telecast last Thursday evening at 8 p.m. from the United Fund “kick-off” celebration. The show was carried and delayed broadcast by WTKO.

Tremans Donate
First Track of Land to College

Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. Treman of Ithaca have donated the first track of land to the college. The land was acquired by the United Fund effort, and it is to be used as a dormitory for 185 freshmen men. The land is located on the campus, and it includes 50 feet of frontage on Woodcock Avenue.

I.C. United Fund Festivities Begin Today with "Tag Day"

The International Fraternity of Delta Sigma Pi, after a two-week period of planning, has announced the institution’s annual campaign for the United Fund here on the I.C. campus.

As announced in a previous issue, this year’s goal among the student body will be $150,000. The figure represents the amount that has been pledged in the past two years at the College. The goal this year is to reach it.

Two Dances, Breakfast, Variety Show Point Up Fall Weekend ’58

The plans for a most interesting and spectacular Fall Weekend have been set. The weekend with the theme "Witches Brew," will begin on October 31 with the presentation of the annual "Witches Hop" at the Ithaca College Field. The activities of the weekend will be headlined by the "Halloweeners." The atmosphere and decorations promise to make the Jam Session one of the best events of the weekend.

Newly Formed I.C. Wives Club Holds 1st Meeting; Next Meeting, Oct. 29

The newly formed Ithaca College Wives Club held its first meeting of the year last Wednesday at the Delta Pi Sorority House. The meeting was attended by all members and introduced the following officers: Vice Pres. Mary Beth Drum, Secretary Jeannes Skillman, Treasurer Mary Dlugolecki, Membership Chairwoman Donna Booth, Co-Chairman Nancy Fawell and Mary Cowan, Publicity Chairwoman Marie Bidwell.

The guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Mary N. Smith of the Home Demonstration Unit from Cornell. She led a group discussion on problems involved in developing a small apartment, tax deductible.

For those wives who were unable to attend the meeting but are interested in joining, questionnaires will be placed in the husbands mailboxes. Upon completion, please drop them in the mail slot of the Sophomore Class or the Delta Pi Sorority house.

The next meeting, October 29th, will be held at 1:15 p.m. at the Delta Pi Sorority house. It will be an orientation meeting for the new members. The speaker for this meeting will be Mrs. N. Carpenter, from the Yarn Shop. The topic will be "Make your Own Christmas Gifts."
Dear Boss,

I don’t know what the world’s coming to. Honestly, I thought that the team had been killed off, but the Kingdom of Small Animals is getting its share of troubles also. Take, for instance, the actual case of a large gray squirrel from the Kingdom of Middle-Sized Animals. He actually exists, boss, and you can check this out by asking your French teacher who claims to own him, Eupi is neurotic.

My dear fellow,” he replies, bristling his hair and arching his back in protest, “I'm not sure whether my master and mistress put it outside one of the low windows, so I can put my front paws up section of your body perpetually elevated.”

I asked with concern, “I noticed that you walk around with the posterior to his just the other day. Of his educated paw, “I'm not sure whether my master and mistress put it outside one of the low windows, so I can put my front paws up section of your body perpetually elevated.”

That’s the trouble with a lot of the smaller animals in our kingdom. They’re so busy acting like someone else, that they eventually to attempt to clarify parts of the article which contained some misleading information.

Dear Editor,

After reading the article “Pleading for the Rights of Animals” which appeared in The Ithacan October 15th issue of The Ithaca, I would like to take this opportunity to attempt to clarify parts of the article which contained some misleading information.

PHI MU ALPHA

At its recent Smoker, Delta Chapter of the Phi Mu Alpha National Music Fraternity had the honor of welcoming the freshmen music majors. The Social Committee

THE LITERARY SNAIL

by nan kathryn fuchs

Dear Boss,

I don’t know what the world’s coming to. Honestly, I thought that the team had been killed off, but the Kingdom of Small Animals is getting its share of troubles also. Take, for instance, the actual case of a large gray squirrel from the Kingdom of Middle-Sized Animals. He actually exists, boss, and you can check this out by asking your French teacher who claims to own him, Eupi is neurotic.

My dear fellow,” he replies, bristling his hair and arching his back in protest, “I'm not sure whether my master and mistress put it outside one of the low windows, so I can put my front paws up section of your body perpetually elevated.”

That’s the trouble with a lot of the smaller animals in our kingdom. They’re so busy acting like someone else, that they eventually to attempt to clarify parts of the article which contained some misleading information.

Dear Editor,

After reading the article “Pleading for the Rights of Animals” which appeared in The Ithacan October 15th issue of The Ithaca, I would like to take this opportunity to attempt to clarify parts of the article which contained some misleading information.

PHI MU ALPHA

At its recent Smoker, Delta Chapter of the Phi Mu Alpha National Music Fraternity had the honor of welcoming the freshmen music majors. The Social Committee

THE LITERARY SNAIL

by nan kathryn fuchs

Dear Boss,

I don’t know what the world’s coming to. Honestly, I thought that the team had been killed off, but the Kingdom of Small Animals is getting its share of troubles also. Take, for instance, the actual case of a large gray squirrel from the Kingdom of Middle-Sized Animals. He actually exists, boss, and you can check this out by asking your French teacher who claims to own him, Eupi is neurotic.

My dear fellow,” he replies, bristling his hair and arching his back in protest, “I'm not sure whether my master and mistress put it outside one of the low windows, so I can put my front paws up section of your body perpetually elevated.”

That’s the trouble with a lot of the smaller animals in our kingdom. They’re so busy acting like someone else, that they eventually to attempt to clarify parts of the article which contained some misleading information.

Dear Editor,

After reading the article “Pleading for the Rights of Animals” which appeared in The Ithacan October 15th issue of The Ithaca, I would like to take this opportunity to attempt to clarify parts of the article which contained some misleading information.

PHI MU ALPHA

At its recent Smoker, Delta Chapter of the Phi Mu Alpha National Music Fraternity had the honor of welcoming the freshmen music majors. The Social Committee

THE LITERARY SNAIL

by nan kathryn fuchs

Dear Boss,

I don’t know what the world’s coming to. Honestly, I thought that the team had been killed off, but the Kingdom of Small Animals is getting its share of troubles also. Take, for instance, the actual case of a large gray squirrel from the Kingdom of Middle-Sized Animals. He actually exists, boss, and you can check this out by asking your French teacher who claims to own him, Eupi is neurotic.

My dear fellow,” he replies, bristling his hair and arching his back in protest, “I'm not sure whether my master and mistress put it outside one of the low windows, so I can put my front paws up section of your body perpetually elevated.”

That’s the trouble with a lot of the smaller animals in our kingdom. They’re so busy acting like someone else, that they eventually to attempt to clarify parts of the article which contained some misleading information.

Dear Editor,

After reading the article “Pleading for the Rights of Animals” which appeared in The Ithacan October 15th issue of The Ithaca, I would like to take this opportunity to attempt to clarify parts of the article which contained some misleading information.

PHI MU ALPHA

At its recent Smoker, Delta Chapter of the Phi Mu Alpha National Music Fraternity had the honor of welcoming the freshmen music majors. The Social Committee

THE LITERARY SNAIL

by nan kathryn fuchs

Dear Boss,

I don’t know what the world’s coming to. Honestly, I thought that the team had been killed off, but the Kingdom of Small Animals is getting its share of troubles also. Take, for instance, the actual case of a large gray squirrel from the Kingdom of Middle-Sized Animals. He actually exists, boss, and you can check this out by asking your French teacher who claims to own him, Eupi is neurotic.

My dear fellow,” he replies, bristling his hair and arching his back in protest, “I'm not sure whether my master and mistress put it outside one of the low windows, so I can put my front paws up section of your body perpetually elevated.”

That’s the trouble with a lot of the smaller animals in our kingdom. They’re so busy acting like someone else, that they eventually to attempt to clarify parts of the article which contained some misleading information.

Dear Editor,

After reading the article “Pleading for the Rights of Animals” which appeared in The Ithacan October 15th issue of The Ithaca, I would like to take this opportunity to attempt to clarify parts of the article which contained some misleading information.

PHI MU ALPHA

At its recent Smoker, Delta Chapter of the Phi Mu Alpha National Music Fraternity had the honor of welcoming the freshmen music majors. The Social Committee

THE LITERARY SNAIL

by nan kathryn fuchs

Dear Boss,

I don’t know what the world’s coming to. Honestly, I thought that the team had been killed off, but the Kingdom of Small Animals is getting its share of troubles also. Take, for instance, the actual case of a large gray squirrel from the Kingdom of Middle-Sized Animals. He actually exists, boss, and you can check this out by asking your French teacher who claims to own him, Eupi is neurotic.

My dear fellow,” he replies, bristling his hair and arching his back in protest, “I'm not sure whether my master and mistress put it outside one of the low windows, so I can put my front paws up section of your body perpetually elevated.”

That’s the trouble with a lot of the smaller animals in our kingdom. They’re so busy acting like someone else, that they eventually to attempt to clarify parts of the article which contained some misleading information.

Dear Editor,

After reading the article “Pleading for the Rights of Animals” which appeared in The Ithacan October 15th issue of The Ithaca, I would like to take this opportunity to attempt to clarify parts of the article which contained some misleading information.
OUT OF THE RUT
by Bernie Rutenberg

GRIDIRON GOSSIP: Although our Bombers couldn’t come home from Cortland victorious, they certainly were glorious in defeat. We must admit that winning is primary but in collegiate football it shouldn’t be considered everything. We think the little things that some people consider trivial should be noted: Lineman like Boots, Ornato, Cashman, and Rafferty blocking until the whistle blows in the winning minutes of the fourth quarter; Perry Noun showing as much spirit with one minute remaining in the game, as he has shown for his entire college career; substitutes running onto the field and the confused man running off when winning the game is virtually “out of the wood”; our coaching staff in general, displaying sportsmanship, the like of which any institution should be proud. We just wish in the opening minutes of the game, Cortland got the “breaks.” For the last three quarters, the Bombers outplayed the Red Dragons both offensively and defensively. Any supporter of Ithaca College should be proud of the showing that our men of the gridiron made at Cortland this past Saturday. Cortland never lost sight of the fact that they had a tough ball game on their hands. Case dismissed!

MINSTRELS’ DEPT: Bombers play host to C.W. Post College this coming Saturday afternoon at South Hill Field. See you there... Sorry to say that the Pammela hobbles off the field on Saturday. It’s been a great captain both on and off the field. Mike Angelo received quite a few good votes for the outstanding lineman on the Cortland game. The voting seemed to be split between Mike and Boilers, the big Cortland center. ... Bob Ryan and Al Cain faked a handoff to Cain and pitched the ball to Carmean. Seven men were on top of Cain who didn’t have the ball. Carmean fumbled the ball but picked it up and ran for a touchdown, untouched. ... Den Piano has looked very impressive the last two games. Perry Noun averaging over 6 yards per carry from the line of scrimmage. ... Carmean with six touchdowns leads the team in scoring. ... Ornato, Gage, Mahon, Noun, Piano and others playing in the last home game of their careers on Saturday. ... Rossman, improved in the season goes, takes on Cortland today at Titus Field. ... Joe Bowling forming a club for beginners as well as novices. Contact him if you are interested. ... Like to see the administration try to sponsor a varsity hockey team. The men that played last year very impressive. ... Very proud to note many faculty members brave the cold and get up to the King’s game last week. It’s amazing what a winning football team can mean to a college. ... Bombers about a two touchdown favorite over C.W. Post this Saturday afternoon. ... See you in two weeks. Read Ken Murray’s ALPHABET SOUP next Wednesday.

SUPPORT YOUR BOMBERS, THEY PLAY FOR YOU, AND PROUDLY WEAR THE GOLD AND BLUE.

LETTERS (Continued from page 8) present form, the result of many man’s effort. All of the information concerning pledges is contained in the constitution and these rules etc. governing pledging were not decided upon at the meeting of October 8th. The purpose of the meeting was to introduce to all the members the rules etc. of the Fraternity and Sorority organizations. The individual convitations called BIDS to persons who they desire to have in their organization. People desiring membership do not express this desire in a written or verbal request. The Second Paragraph should have been: The Fraternities and Sororities meet since their bids in Dean Howard’s office by 5:00 p.m. on October 20th.

It is hoped that The Ithacan as a thing of commission might in any way be able to present the importance of any more articles which tend to this end.

If any reader has any questions remaining the IFC or pledging Maye feel free to call 4-9594.

ITHACA’S RECREATION CENTER ITS Ida’s Drome
Roller Skating
Fri. and Sat. Nites
8-11
Bus from terminal and back

Ida’s Bowling Lanes
New York State’s Most Modern Lounge — Restaurant
24 Automatic Pin Spotters
Acres of Free Parking

Cortland Whips Bombers 16-6
Win Skein Broken At Four Games
by JOE GILLAN

Cortland State Teachers College, a team which Ithaca College has not beaten since 1951, did it again last Saturday as they whipped the Bombers 16-4 on the strength of 2 first period touchdowns.

Perry Noun played one of the best games of his college career. Perry exemplified spirit, hustle, and drive during the contest. His 6 yards for a first down was a constant reminder to Cortland, both on offense and defense. ... Mike Angelo, 230 pound center, handled Cortland’s 23 Bel’s very efficiently. ... Coach Lyon thought Mike outplayed the Red Dragons “big man”. ... Halfback Dick Carmean played very well and also scored his 6th touchdown of the season. John Fasolino sustained an injury to his knee and might be out for the season. ... The line-up of Angelo, Boals, Paolino, Sommerfeld, Cashman, Rafferty and Yandal was outstanding. ... Ithaca dominated the statistics, ... Don Pacio and Gerry Neufang, 2nd unit backs, played credibly.

Score by quarters:

Ithaca 6 0 0 0 — Cortland 16 0 0 0

Cortland moved deep into Bomb- er’s territory in the 3rd quarter but Ithaca took over on downs, thwarting the drive on the 23. Gerry Neufang and Don Pacio were the hardkicked specialists for I.C. in the 2nd half, but they were not able to lead Ithaca any further than the Red Dragons 26.

The Bombers will play host to C.W. Post this Saturday afternoon on South Hill. The squad will be looking for Victory number five in an attempt to get back on the winning track.

NOTICE and QUOTES: C.W. Post sports a 2-2 won-lost slate...
T.V. (Continued from page 1)

Entertainment-wise. The audience had its first experience of watching television in action, and the college TV crew had its first experience with remote telecasting.

Credits for the show belong to: Bob Earle, directing; Jack Deal of WHCU, staff announcer for the show; Joe Short of WHCU, Production Co-ordinator; Horace Brockway of WHCU, Assistant to the producer; Anthony Cennetti of the Television Shop, for use of the equipment. The audience acknowledged the faithful assistance of Richard Foster, an employee of WHCU.

Bob Earle, director, Anthony Cennetti, the producer; Horace Brockway of WHCU, Assistant to the producer; Anthony Cennetti of the Television Shop, for use of the TV monitors in the high school auditorium. Special recognition goes to Al Husted, Hugh Oeland, Art Kendall, Slim Piant, and all the others of the Ithaca College Radio and Television crews.

U. F. (Continued from page 1)

Organized groups in I.C. This should not be a question of "can I afford that dollar," but "what should I give that dollar for?" Your United Fund Campaign is chaired by Dick Turek and John Tudor. We want to acknowledge all of the organizations not here mentioned, with your cooperation, the campaign will be a success. Without it, we cannot even hope for mediocrity.

College Choir; Soloist To Perform

The Ithaca College Choir is presenting its first concert of the season on October 26, at 8:15 p.m. in the Little Theatre.

Bach Cantata No. 140 "Wachet auf, ruft uns die Stimme." The choir will be accompanied by a small orchestra under the direction of Mr. Edward Troupin. Soliists for the program are: Melissa Burke, Suzanne Whitcomb, and John Trudeau. We would like to acknowledge the faithful assistance of Dick Turek and John Tudor.

John Trudeau. We would like to acknowledge all of the organized groups here mentioned, with your cooperation, the campaign will be a success. Without it, we cannot even hope for mediocrity.

David Hones, Ted Wiltsie, Donald Well and Jane Monk. Rodney Derefinko will give his Junior Professional Recital on Wednesday, Oct. 29 at 8 p.m. in the Little Theatre. Rodney is a candidate for the Bachelor of Music degree. He previously won the Young Artists Award in Batavia and appeared as soloist with the Batavia Symphony. He has also appeared in numerous recitals here at Ithaca College.

His program will include: Italian Concerto—Bach; Sonata for Piano—Charles Griffin; Sonata (Waldstein) op. 53—Beethoven.

The Man Who Thinks for Himself

In the morning, do you carefully choose a tie, matching jacket, etc., instead of grabbing the first thing you see?

Do you sometimes go to a public event, such as a football game, even if you have to go alone?

Are you able to stay cheerful even when you are alone for a considerable time?

The fact is, men and women who think for themselves usually smoke VICEROY. Their saying is, "Best in the world. They know only VICEROY has a thinking man's filter and a smoking man's taste."