Last Period Touchdown Defeats Vermont University

First Half Uneventful; Ithaca's First Touchdown Called Back

Winning Touchdown Made
By Frank Clark

The Blue and Gold team of Ithaca College won its first game from a well trained adversary, the University of Vermont.

Vermont kicked off to Ithaca; Bill Veazie recovered the ball and was downed in mid-field. Play saw-sawed back and forth in mid-field during the first half with neither team advancing into dangerous territory.

During the third quarter the Ithaca team by several completed passes and well executed runs, placed themselves on their opponents ten yard line. On an off tackle smash, Patrick pushed the ball over only to have it called back for offensive holding. This gave the Vermonters a chance to come back as it placed the Blue and Gold warriors on Vermont's 25 yard line. Ithaca was unable to make up the distance in four downs, and the Green team took the ball on the 20 yd. line. Vermont kicked deep into Ithaca territory where Patrick was downed on the 40 yard line. This ended the first bid for a score.

It wasn't until the last quarter that Ithaca came into scoring territory again. A 45 yard pass from Patrick to Livecchi placed the ball on the Vermont ten yard line. Frank Clark, on a delayed buck, went over the goal line for a touchdown. Clark was also successful in converting the extra point.

Ithaca kicked off to Vermont and after a few plays the game was over.

The game was well played for the Junior Varsity Wins From Ovid High 28-0

The Junior Varsity football team journeyed to Ovid Tuesday afternoon to play Frank O'Connell's Ovid High School Warriors. "Oke", as he was familiarly known to his Ithaca College friends, was formerly the freshman athletic director at I. C.

Coach Cole used two teams during the fracas, one a combination of upperclassmen and freshman and the other a strictly freshman outfit. Both teams succeeded in scoring two touchdowns for Ithaca. The final score— Ithaca 28, Ovid 0.

Furlong and Albergina did most of the ball totting for the Ithaca lads. Hard blocking and sure tackling on the part of the forward wall was the determining factor in Ithaca's win.

The Ovid team played hard, aggressive football but lacked the necessary experience to overcome the touchdown drives of the Ithaca squad.

Director Cole seemed pleased with his teams victory, but with a Gil Dobie air announced that the remaining games would show whether the team had the spirit for a winning club.

Dramatic Students Busy With First Play

With the date of "opening night" fast approaching, the cast of "Madame Sans-Gene" is foregoing no effort in shaping and polishing the play. At present writing, the entire three acts and prologue have gone through rigorous rehearsals under the expert guidance of Mrs. Beeler and Mr. Roberts, and the play now shows the results of fine direction and should prove to be one of the outstanding features of the Little Theatre programs of this year.

Local Alumni to Hold Meeting at Dining Hall

The Local Alumni Association will hold its first yearly meeting in the form of a banquet in Williams Hall at six-thirty Monday evening, October 22, after which will be held a short business meeting at which time committees for the year will be appointed. Following the business meeting will come a social and musical hour in Elocution Hall. Mr. Coad and Mr. Ewing will offer short programs.

The committee in charge was fortunate in securing four excellent speakers. They are: Mr. Harry Stutz, editor of the Ithaca Journal and a member of the Board of Trustees of Ithaca College; Dr. Karapetoff, president of the Board of Trustees; Dr. A. E. Brown, Director of the Department of Music; and Dr. L. B. Job, president of the college.

The officers of the organization are as follows: President, Mr. George Driscoll; Vice-president, Mrs. Robert Head; Secretary, Mrs. John Cleary; Treasurer, Mrs. John Mosher.

The faculty and all Alumni members from surrounding communities are cordially invited to attend the banquet and meeting.

PARVA SED APTA

"Cooperation" . . . it's a fine word. Webster defines it thus: "The association, or collective action, of persons for their common benefit."

Collective action seems to be especially applicable to this institution. In 1931, Ithaca Conservatory and Affiliated Schools was granted a charter under which it came by the name of Ithaca College, with all Schools united under one head. The theory is fine . . . why can't we, as students, make the practice finer? Your cooperation is needed individually and inter-departmentally. The Departmental activities, have been so poorly attended by the other departments that a so called "common interest" is entirely despoiled. This should not be.

Our Physical Education Department exhibits a fine athletic program each year. The teams of the various sports display the finest that can be found in the field of athletics. But the disheartening feature is that there is no sympathetic audience with its moral support; and the teams' effort

Delta Phi Sorority Has Alumni Reunion

Annual Mad Hatter's Ball Successful

During the past week-end, members of the Delta Phi sorority have been busily engaged in the initiation proceedings and in the alumni reunion, which took place at the Delta Phi house on Sunday morning.

On Friday evening the sorority sponsored the Mad Hatter's Ball which was attended by a large crowd. The ball, given in honor of the initiates, was a great social success.

Saturday afternoon and evening were taken up by formal initiation and the banquet. Miss Dorothy Fuchs, president of Delta Phi, presided at the banquet. Mary Laskaris spoke on behalf of the new members. Dean Powell then presented a few words of interest. The main speaker of the evening was Miss Coatman who advised the members of Delta Phi to seek beauty. The talk centered about

Dr. Bryan, President Ohio University, Dies

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 15—Dr. Elmer Burritt Bryan, in his fourteenth year as president of Ohio University, died at 6:30 o'clock tonight in Ford Hospital here. Physicians attributed his death to cerebral hemorrhage.

The president had been in ill health for more than a year although until recently he had been carrying the brunt of the administrative duties. Late last spring Dr. Bryan went to Ford Hospital for treatment and had apparently recovered from a heart ailment which had been bothering him.

During the past summer he had been in ill health and spent most of his time at a summer resort, resting. From there he went to Chautauqua Lake, N. Y., where he suffered a relapse. Treatment at home failed, and Dr. Bryan left last Thursday for Ford Hospital in Detroit. Friday, physicians told Mrs. Bryan there was little hope for recovery of the president.

Nationally known as an educator and college president, Doctor Bryan had headed three universities. In addition to holding the presidency of Ohio University, he was previously president of Colgate University at Hamilton, N. Y., for twelve years and Franklin College, Franklin, Ind., for three years. He was recognized as one of the outstanding speakers of the Midwest, his total number of addresses on educational subjects being exceeded by that of only one other man in the United States.

Dr. Bryant spoke at the Ithaca College Commencement exercises for the class of '33.

Hartwick To Play Here To-morrow

The Ithaca College football team continues relations with Hartwick on Saturday at Percy Field.

Coach Freeman has been working hard all week smoothing over the weak spots of last Saturday's tilt with blocking and timing being heavily stressed.

The line-up will probably be about the same that started the Vermont game, with Avery and Nugent at ends, Hillis and D'Orazio guards, Saake and Veazie guards, Muscalino center. Hatch, Cauldfield, Clark, and Grace are likely starters in the backfield posts.

Hartwick has played three games and were successful in two of them. Their victory over Mansfield last Saturday proves that they have a better than average club so a good game can be expected.

Band Plays at High School

The High School Students of Ithaca received a musical treat Thursday at 8:30 a.m. and again at 1:30 p.m. when the Ithaca College Concert Band played a double program which was very well received. This augmented bill was built of descriptive music of many phases and the entire concert was well rounded in every detail.

Mu Phi Epsilon Gives Tea

Mu Phi Epsilon formally tendered its respects to the Faculty and the Student Body at its annual tea, held at Westminster Hall, Sunday afternoon, October 14, from 3 to 5 o'clock. Miriam Prior, chapter president, and Miss Jarvis, patroness, received the guests. Those who poured were Miss Elsbeth Jones, Dean Ida Powell, Mrs. Job, and Miss Fitch, Dean of Women at Cornell.

I. C. Soccer Team Loses To Cortland

Team Plays Well In Spite Of Defeat

Although the soccer team did not turn in a victory in Friday's contest against Cortland Normal they showed the spectators what a well balanced aggregation with expert coaching can do.

Coach Yavits states that he thinks the team is the best in years to represent the College.

"Whitey" Bushnell and Bob Muir were the main offensive strength for Ithaca and their efforts succeeded in keeping the score down to 3-0. The new men MacBride, Peckham and Herrick filled their positions like veterans. This year's Freshman class contributed some very good soccer material which keeps the older men hustling to retain their positions.

On the whole the teams were very evenly matched with Ithaca playing way over par in the first and third periods. In succeeding games the followers of the soccer club will be treated to some fine playing on the part of the Ithaca men.

Graduates Obtain Teaching Positions

Majority Placed Through College Placement Service

Members of the graduating class of June 1934 who have been placed in teaching positions, most of them thru the College Placement Service, are as follows:

Dorothy Diener Palmyra, N. J.
William Dowler Rural Schools, Marion, O.

Thelma Field Dexter, N. Y.
Arthur Hauck Honesdale, Pa.
Donald Hubbard Endicott, N. Y.
Olwyn Neff Hudson, N. Y.
Richard Otto Hamilton, N. Y.
Eva Smith Lammertville, N. Y.
Marion Taber Jefferson, N. Y.
Grace Tremblay Stratford, N. Y.
Grace VanZant Sidney, N. Y.

Thelma Cautin '33, is teaching in Dannemora, N. Y., Dudley Mairs '33 in the junior high school at Scotia, N. Y., Victor Salvo '33, is in Katonah High School, White Plains, N. Y. and Mt. Kisco, N. Y., and Helen Day '31, is teaching in Bergen and Churchville, N. Y.

The increase in placements this year is encouraging as an indication of improvement in general conditions in schools.

College A Cappella Choir Broadcast

Reception Good; Soloist Voices Very Pleasing

With no small interest did many students of the college gather around the nearest radio at six-fifteen of last Tuesday night, for the first a capella broadcast of the season. With the strains of the familiar theme song, the broadcast was under way. For the first part of the program the reception was reasonably clear, enabling us to realize that the fine work done last year by Mr. Ewing and the choir has lost little through the summer, and that we may expect new heights for '34-'35.

Comment was unusually favorable regarding the solo voices. Both the familiar numbers of "Mighty Lak" a Rose" and "Sweet and Low" were particularly enjoyable. Prophecy would even hint at the development of a new radio idol, remembering the warmth of the alto voice which soloed in the latter selection.

SUPERIOR PANZER TEAM DEFEATS I. C. SOCCER

Due to the act that Panzer brought a superior team to Ithaca Tuesday, the Ithaca College Soccer team went down to its second defeat. Team work in its best sense was too much for the Ithacans, and they left the field on the small end of a 4-1 score.

Drama Students Dine At Slaterville Store

Last Monday evening thirty-five members of the Dramatic Department journeyed to Slaterville to challenge the hospitality of Doug Card, proprietor of 'The Country Store.' Doug met their challenge and gave more than was expected. In fact, he even added a demonstration of a washing machine for their benefit.

Even better than the demonstration was the excellent food offered by the culinary department. If atmosphere has anything to do with digestion one should digest his food in a very jubilant fashion here. Meals, served up and down the middle aisle of the store are accompanied by an environment unmatched anywhere. In the quiet seclusion of a general store you may order the speciality, ham and eggs with perfect piece of mind—the eggs are fresh and the ham comes from pigs (a half inch thick). As a matter of fact the menu declares in bold print "We feed man or beast" to which Doug adds "So most any students are welcome!"

After the meal the entire company was entertained by the aforementioned demonstration which goes with the bill-of-fare.

BAND TO BROADCAST OVER W.S.Y.R. OCT. 23

On Tuesday, October 23 between 3:00 and 3:30 the concert band of Ithaca College will broadcast from WSYR, Syracuse over a N.B.C. hook-up. The selected program is balanced to show the possibilities of concert bands in divers types of themes and effects. This program will also feature a trumpet trio and xylophone solo, both of these being very popular with audiences in all degrees of musical education.

Ithaca Defeats Vermont

The University of Richmond upset Cornell 6 to 0. One can easily imagine the triumphant return of the Southerners to their Alma Mater. Ithaca College treated the University of Vermont in a like manner. When Clark of Ithaca College scored seven points to win the game, he little realized the commotion the news would cause when it was flashed back to Ithaca. It was gratifying to watch disinterested ears prick up unbelievably. It is a pleasure to see an underdog win, if the underdog is a friend as in the case of the University of Richmond. So to Richmond and to Ithaca College—Congratulations!

Hartwick vs. Ithaca

Hartwick plays here tomorrow. Ithaca College is supposed to win. In this case one can only warn, or perhaps remind the Ithaca College varsity that over confidence does strange things.

Student Directory

It was impossible for the Student Directory to be published this week because students failed to hand in the necessary names and addresses to Miss Howland's office. There has been posted in each department a list of student's names and addresses. Look the list over. See that your name, address, and phone number is properly listed. The Directory will be published next week.

In Vitalized School Journalism, we are acquainted with the statistics that out of every hundred dollars expended only two go to education and one to religion.

A Mean Lobby Conversation

Time: Now.
Scene: Lobby
Discovered at rise: Two college students sitting on lobby sofa. They are talking.

He: Must go now. I have a class.
She: I must go too. I have a paper to write.

He: Say, did you see him go through the lobby? Why must he carry himself so. People are funny, aren't they?

She: Yes, I love watching people. See her! She looks for mail every time she goes by the box. I don't like her hat. I mean it's too small.

He: I saw her at the dance last night. She looked as though she thought all eyes were on her. She looked lovely though. Wasn't the

AN OPEN LETTER TO ONE'S COUSIN

Ithaca College
Ithaca, N. Y.
October

Dear Cousin Jake,
Here's that letter I've been promising to write to you for so long and which I ain't had time to.

I been doin a lot of goin lately. I went to a soccer game the other day which our college played with some other school. I cant say I enjoyed it much. Maybe if I'd knowed something about the game it would have been different but as it was I just sat there and froze and watched a lot of fellows with bare legs chase a ball up and down the field and kick each other in the shins, and wondered what it was all about. They said the other side won 3 to nothing but I couldn't see why that was. I couldn't see but what our fellows did just as much runnin around as the other fellows. There was one thing I noticed though, Soccer is a game which takes a lot of headwork. Haw Haw Cousin Jake—just a little subtuly.

I went to a very nice dance the other night. It was given by some sur . . . siror . . . by some one of the girls clubs here in College, and it was called the Man Handlers Ball. I had a good time although I ain't so much on round dancin which was all they did. I don't know whether the orchetry coundn't play square dancin music or whether these College folks dont know how to dance a square dance, anyhow they didn't have one all evening. I was hoping they would, because I wasn't doin so well at round dancin but I figger I'm pretty good at square dancin, specially swingin em. Do you remember when I lost my grip on Mirandy Smithers? Remember how she looked when she went skitterin across the floor? I felt awful sorry though when she couldn't attend the Sitting Circle meeting.

There's certainly a swell bunch of folks up here—both the teachers and the students. I've gotten to know a lot of the fellows and I like em all. And the gals! I get all quivery like when I look at some of em. (Especially one called Nurts) But I'm controllin myself, because as Paw says—avoid entanglin female alliances—it's not far from halter to altar, or vice aversa.

BAGATELLES

By A. Propos

Recently the following question was argued; "What do you consider success, or what would you want to do to consider yourself successful?" . . . The question seems to be answered by Walter S. Gifford who says, "Success means making the most of such ability, personality and physique as you have." . . . 'Tis rather crushing however to realize limitations, is it not . . . Time however will do its bit in that respect. . . .

A child on his way by Westminster Hall asked his Grandpappy, "Is this the jail?" . . . Grandpa didn't know . . .

Madame Devil-May-Care had a chance to be that way recently . . . I refer to the unfortunate pin that didn't hold . . .

One of the few things that is difficult to excuse is loudness in people . . . It may be a defense of a complex . . . A new defense should be practised. . .

Odd . . . the way people meet other people so unexpectedly . . . way up on the hill . . .

You must visit Doug Card's "Country Store" . . . Out the road to Slaterville. . . .

First home game of the season tomorrow. . . Should be well attended.

That "Don't look for premiums" line on the back of a Cigarette package is such obvious sales psychology . . . Is it not Mrs. T.—? It's fun to be fooled," . . . By magicians . . .

Frankness is a good quality, if the quality of the frankness and it's content blend harmoniously with "mob thought" . . . I'm thinking in terms of being honest with one's self . . .

Ken Appleton's wit . . . "The Song that scared the world" — Under a Blanket of Boo!

Rumor has it that the Frosh football team will play the camping boys of the C.C.C. . . Ping Pong becoming popular . . .

Like this from Anthony Adverse . . . "Strong friendship begins with respect, traverses admiration, and ends in a trust and affection which continues to combine the first two. The process is greatly accentuated if the friends in the making are both willing to confer and receive favors without conceiving them as obligations or weights on the scales of influence which must ever be kept nicely readjusted and precisely balanced. A true friendship transcends this mere tit-for-tat game of influence played between urbane self-seeking acquaintances. It finds its equipoise in the discovery that both parties have a trust and belief in some eternal relationship beyond themselves. Then, no matter how differently they may approach that common center, they understand their actions and attitudes to be upon a mutually permanent ground."

Some things:—

So many "very nice's" the past week . . . Georgie H. . . and that remark about the awful quietness during a certain play rehearsal . . . "So quiet one could hear a cue drop" . . . Cornell and the Irish . . . Saw much by-play . . . So unnecessary . . . The Frosh are partying tonight . . . Poor Willie Hahn . . . Hearts and Flowers.

Newman Hall House Opening

With cider and doughnuts as an inducement, Newman Hall and Delta Psi Kappa held Open House, Monday evening, October 15. The extensive work of the girls was well rewarded, as more than one hundred and twenty-five people attended. Martha Littler, house president; Mrs. Kelchner, hostess; and Elizabeth Lowenstein, Delta Psi Kappa president, received the guests, who were conducted through the rooms by the house members. The rooms showed much thought and ingenuity of arrangement, and were favorably commented upon by the visitors.

seem to go for naught. You and I of the Student body can give such support . . . but it can't be by proxy.

Even as yet, students of the various departments fail to realize the value of a good play, well directed; for example, the coming production of "Sans-Gene" by the Dramatic Department, into which untold hours of preparation have been expended. It is one of those productions which a spectator is privileged to see only once in a great while. Its costumes, glamour, excitement, and thrilling story, can describe it only in a small degree. There is a no more disheartening experience than playing to empty seats, and we, as students, should fill them. Every play should be well attended. The Little Theatre ought to be filled to capacity at every performance.

No finer music can be heard than that offered by the Music Department. Concerts, operettas, and recitals aid immensely in giving one a cultural background as well as aiding materially in the development of one's powers of enjoyment.

Thus it can be seen that with a little collective action, we can aid each other. Narrow-mindedness is a deplorable feature in any individual. Prejudice against any of the other Departments is wrong—basically and radically wrong. Let Ithaca College become a name in fact and not in theory.

S. A. I. AND PHI MU ALPHA OPEN HOUSE

Something unusual in the fall epidemic of Open Houses was tried Wednesday evening. Sigma Alpha Iota and Phi Mu Alpha successfully pooled their resources, and the result was a charming social event. One went first to S. A. I., to be greeted by Mrs. Mulks, house chaperone; Molly Smith, chapter President; and Catherine James, house president. Then followed a tour of inspection through the attractive house. From there one journeyed to the inviting residence of the Sinfonians, where Mrs. Tallcott, Faculty resident; Jack Brown, chapter President; and other officers of the fraternity welcomed the guests. A pleasant atmosphere was provided by an instrumental trio consisting of James Cahill, pianist, Leroy Connolly, violinist, and Joe DeVaux, clarinetist. The climax to the evening was offered in the chapter room where coffee and cookies were served by members of both organizations.

After the banquet everyone went to the sorority house where the initiates presented an original skit, original poems, and also recited the Greek alphabet.

The events for the weekend came to a close Sunday morning by the new initiates serving a tasty breakfast at nine. After the breakfast the alumnae organized themselves into a permanent association and elected for their officers for the year of 1934-35: Emily Dwyer, President; Frances Alexander, Vice President; Mrs. Margaret Hart, Secretary-Treasurer.

TOUCHDOWN DEFEATS UNIV. OF VERMONT

Ithacan's first encounter of the season. Every player was at his best and the reward was a victory over a more experienced eleven.

The forward wall did commendable work, as did the backfield, and blocking and tackling of the team as a whole was highly gratifying. Comparatively speaking the team is light, but the loss of weight is made up through speed and endurance. Under the capable leadership of Capt. "Pete" Hatch, the team should have the most successful season in the history of the college.

Coach Freeman's stress on team-play showed forth in the game and although the expected mistakes of a first game were made, he was very much pleased with the teams showing.

A Mean Lobby Conversation

dance good? I mean the orchestra. Gosh, there goes a person that gets on my nerves. She uses the wrong make up.

She: Have you noticed that, too. You and I see things a good deal alike, don't we? I mean we think alike.

He: They say she's in love. Do you believe in it? Love, I mean.

She: Yes, but I think football players have a better chance. I mean boys with intellect aren't liked generally. Yes, I think we think alike.

He: Oh, I dunno.

She: I think we do.

He: Gosh? I'm tired. Worn out, I mean.

She: Say, if you have a class you'd better hurry.

He: Hate to go to class on a day like this. The sun looks pretty shining on the colored leaves, doesn't it? I mean the sun.

She: We shouldn't be in here on such a lovely day.

He: Yes, I know.

She: (To a young lady happening by) Oh, hell-o. (Starting to go) I've got to see her. She has some notes I've got to copy. I mean, she has 'em.

He: (Stopping her) Get them tomorrow. I want to talk to you. It's grand fun talking, isn't it?

She: Yes, but I pity people who just talk about nothing.

He: I, too.

She: The leaves are pretty.

He: Lovely.

She: The sun makes them stand out so. I mean, they look brighter.

He: A beautiful Autumn day.

She: Lovely. I wonder what that new notice is on the board. Let's look.

He: On the way out. Probably something unimportant.

She: Yeh, I suppose.

He: (yawning) The leaves are so pretty. The brown ones, I mean.

She: (yawning) Yeh. I mean...

He: Yeh....

Fair enough—

FROM time to time we tell you facts about Chesterfield Cigarettes.

We say that Chesterfields are different from other cigarettes—that the tobaccos are different, the paper is different, and the way they are made is different.

Everything that modern Science knows about or that money can buy is used in making Chesterfield a milder, better-tasting cigarette—a cigarette that Satisfies.

You can prove what we tell you about Chesterfield.

May we ask you to try them

—that would seem to be fair enough.

Strictly on their merits

the cigarette that's MILDER
the cigarette that TASTES BETTER
