Prom Queen Election Pending

Next week the final from Prom Queen election will take place in the Ithaca College lobby. Make sure that you vote for your favorite candidate.

Jane Bellar—President
Joan McGovern—Vice-President
Marian Virginia Seifert—W.A.A., Hockey Team
Marian Ernst—W.A.A., President and Treasurer
Ruth Oakey—Oracle, Adelphi, Fraternity Council

Immediately following the voting, a banquet will be held at the Club Closet. A toast to the initiates was given by Betty Boleski, after which the new members were introduced. Those introduced included: Elizabeth Beth, of Northport; Grace Drak, of Green; Frances Giff, of Sandy Creek; Esther Drak, of Freeport; Dorothy Krantz, of Warwick, R. I.; Robert Miller, of Saratoga Springs; Maisie Shulsky, of Hudson Falls; Warren Robinson, of Ellenville, and Dorothy Voorhees, of Green Island.

The program included a violin solo by Nicholas Marana and two vocals by a male quartet composed of Joseph Stuttman, Moe Sher, Nicholas Marano, and Dominick DiSarro.

A report on the current Scampers production given by Joan Mckinlay, of Bainbridge. Juniors; Nicholas Morano, of Middletown; and Wilma Shlafer, of Green, to prove to be one of the most all popular men in school but the handsome six some is above seventy. So “get on the ball” Frosh, keep up those good efforts. I’m not prejudiced mind you, but you note for your favorite candidate.

Now a Soph victory, and the result. How they get out of the range. Time and time again they peppered the ball at the Bloomsburg goal, but only to have them stopped by the fine play of the Bloomsburg defense. Bloomsburg scored first in the early minutes of the first quarter, when they took advantage of free kick deep in I. C. territory. Wagner, playing right half for the I. C., came into the stretcher, and the ball jet over the outstretched hands of goalie Dick Willover for the score.

The third quarter was a score less period, with I. C. definitely outrushing and outplaying their opponents. The Blue were superior in all the central areas of the field. They scored in the second quarter.

In the fourth quarter, the ball jet into the net for the I. C. score.

It was a very fine victory for the I. C. Boosters. The performances were excellent. Going to have a baby.

L. C. Boosters Lose To Bloomsburg Teachers

On a rain soaked field, causing sloppy play throughout the game. The I. C. Boosters were defeated by Bloomsburg.

I. C. again outplayed their opponents and had several scoring opportunities, but just couldn’t find the range. Again, they are under way for what should be our last successful Prom of Ithaca.

The performers were Elizabeth Bishop, of Lansing, as a star in the studio; comes into C. F. ’s offices and announces that she’s going to have a baby. The best performance by the New York group; and of course, the true to life pattern of boy meets girl, boy loses girl, and boy gets girl.

Dr. Denniston Issues Health Warnings

Dr. Denniston requests that all students refrain from visiting patients now in the infirmary. There are the victims of a contagious epidemic known as “Virus pneumatic” (pneumonia). It is reported that the dreaded virus germ is now prevalent in the majority of the colleges throughout the country. In order to effectively combat the germ, patients must be kept quiet and rest as much as possible.

As yet the epidemic is mild, but these utmost precautions and take more serious distress will result. College students cannot afford to spend their time in the infirmary. Be careful! Do not disobey the infirmary rules which are made for your benefit. Obey your doctor’s orders. Try to avoid catching cold, which is the seat of the new virus. Students are again cautioned about “Athletes Foot.” Read Dr. Denniston’s bulletin board for proper care of the feet.

Our annual Hallowe'en Barn dance was held last Friday night in the East Seneca Street gymnasium. Some followed the spirit of the dance and came in costume to represent some odd creatures from out of this world. Doc Small was the prize for the fanciest costume. He came as a fair-haired lassie. Who helped rig you up, Doc?

Our practice teachers are back and it seems good to have the house full again.

Sigma Alpha Iota
After a short business meeting October 26, a surprise kitchen supper was given to our bride, Michelle Foster Camp. A beautiful, serious, and happy time was had by all. Only Katie Belle knows what the entertainment was furnished by our brothers who were initiated two weeks ago.

Our new pledges, among whom you will be inducted into the organization Sunday.

Newman Club
Newman Club of Ithaca College joined the Cornell chapter last week in celebrating Newman Day. Refreshments were served and entertainment was furnished by our people. Following the supper a business meeting and forum was held in which a dance was planned for sometime in November to be held at Willard Straight.

Phi Epsilon Kappa
Congratulations to our new brothers who were initiated two weeks ago: Dr. Grimshaw, Hercinger, Hope, Halstead, Loughna, Kiel, Frood, Beaumont, Kline, and Stanford.

We’re having our open house dances regularly and we’d like to have you all come up to 111 Osborn and enjoy yourselves.

Brother Al Formichella recently wrote in that he has been made a bombardier and that he has passed his flying test. Congratulations. Al, congratulations! We visited us two weekends ago.

Kappa Gamma Psi
Kappa Gamma is pleased to announce that a most successful dinner and smoker were held last Monday nite, Dr. Thayer discussed Latin American Relations and gave us a view of the present day world at a time which was very interesting. Those who accepted bids were, Myron Yavits, Warren Roberts, Louis Kitler, Arnold Santinelli, Kenneth Nathanson, Jerome Allen, Robert Gonyard, John Russo, Francis Hennis, Osvald Chebrovich, John Richardson and Burton Goldner. We congratulate the new pledges and hope they enjoy their pledging period as much as we do.

Among the missing: Alfred (Big-time) Yarkin, last seen carrying a duffel bag. If found, return to 506 E. Seneca St.

Phi Delta Pi
With the return of all members who have been out practice teaching, Phi Delta Pi is active again and starting out with a bang! Last Tuesday night, we had a homecoming, as well as a rush party for all the new pledges. We had a wild scavenger hunt sent them searching for weird and funny objects. The evening was climaxed by a "five" session, and the seasonal cider and doughnuts.

Congratulations to the following members who have already signed signed signed signed signed signed teaching contracts: Betty Banks, Betty Harkleroad, N. Y., Edna Degen, Lavana, N. Y., and Jane Bernreuther, Phelps, N. Y.

WAR BRIEFS

COLLEGES WILL BE COOLER THIS FALL

Students in Eastern and Midwestern colleges are not going to have as warm rooms as in the piping times of peace, but they need not freeze.

Reason: The East normally consumes 1,200,000 barrels of all oil, but this year it consumes 750,000. Submarines and the need for toners in our overseas supply service have cut the supply by a third. Overland facilities are taxed and the Midwest must share its tank cars and other facilities. As a consequence, use of all fuel in those regions must be kept at a minimum.

Tip: In buying new clothes, get them warm!

PURDUE NOW A WAR PLANT
Purdue engineering students have enlisted in the war as "soldiers of production." The University has signed a sub-contract with Westinghouse Electric and the students are already turning out machine parts. Working part time, 275 students have achieved a production equivalent to a 75-man machine shop on full time.

SHOEMAKERS' PALETTE

Two-color shoes are out for the duration. WPB has banned the production of fancy footwear to save leather. At the same time it has reduced the variety of shoes and cut the number of colors to six: black, white, turqouise, Army russet, Tom Brown and blue. Athletes' shoes, including hockey, will be made as usual.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON WALKING

Bicycles are going to be less plentiful from now on. Their manufacture has been cut to 10,000 a month, to be distributed in equal parts. Bicycle manufacturers have to wait for orders, and the order books are empty.

I. C. To Face Hartwick
In Season Windup

The final game on the I. C. football slate will be played tomorrow afternoon at Oneonta against Hartwick. Traveling on regular scheduled routes, the team will make the trip in three days, returning Sunday afternoon.

One of the outstanding changes in the lineup of the I. C. squad concerns the tackle spot which has thus far been handled by Frank Tomney. Coach Freeman intimated that in all probability Steve Charsky, 190-lb. Binghamton boy and a transfer from William and Mary, will replace Tomney who is out with a bad leg injury. Charsky has been doing well both with his kicking and running. Hitherto, Steve had been working at end, he will be replaced there by Doug Swarts, a native of Oneonta. Another Oneonta boy, Parparides, 200-lb. guard, will see action at center.

With the exception of the tailback and end positions, the line-up will remain the same as in previous games with Colegrove and Stevenson at the tackles; Demen-half at center and Biltz at the guards; Johnson center; Lunievich, Laster and Beckwith as the backs.

The schedule promises to be a tough one, dropping games to Albright, Westchester, and Moravian, while Hartwick took Fort Totten, last to Penn Military College, Moravian, Buffalo, Cortland, and St. Lawrence.

Last week the Big Blue was beaten by the Hartwick club 6-0 after dominating the play for the entire game.

We drove up to see the Hartwick game, their center forward driving the last and winning tally through the net.

The game was highlighted by fine defensive play on both sides. Our fullbacks again did a swell job and goalie Dick Willover made several magnificent saves.

Dave Kelley did a nice job as referee, and some credit should go to Dotty B. for her enthusiastic cheers. The I. C. booters will close their season when they meet their old rivals, Cortland Teachers here on Saturday.

With the game at Oneonta this weekend, the Ithaca College football season will come to a close, the college has yet to win a ball game and will be looking for its first win after a tough battle.

This has been a very poor season with many difficulties, in fact, a vote was taken in mid-season among the players on whether they should finish the remainder of their schedule or not. It seems that the old college spirit is lacking, maybe it's the inexperience, maybe it's the inexperience of our ball players, because this is a freshman club, something Ithaca has not had before. If it is at all possible to keep this club together a few years, they could be quite good. Could it be that the I.C. P.F.I. is missing this year?

It has always been a part of college life to be able to see your own football team in action during the gridiron season, but because of transportation difficulties and not being able to secure opponents, we have not been able to see our boys in action this fall. It seems funny to have a football team and not be able to see it play, but there are at war, and we just can't have things the way we want them nowadays.

Our soccer team will be very busy this week playing Bloomsburg and Cortland. This has been a successful season, although the losses outnumber our wins 2-1. The soccer team has played very well, outplaying most of their opponents so far this season.

One thing the soccer team has this year that was lacking in past years, is a scoring punch, which has been so typical of Ithaca. The Ithacans have thus far been ably handled by Frank Urso and Bob Carleton because of graduation in the lineup of the I. C. squad centering the tailback spot which has been well done by Halstead, Red Lynaugh, and Dick Totten, lost to Penn Military college.

Moravian Trips I. C.

By Irv Holstel

Last Friday night at Bethlehem, Pa., our football team again "took it on the chin." For the third time in as many trips to the Quakers state the crippled Bombers put in 5 minutes of football nightmares. As in its previous encounters the team lacked the spark and spirit that has been so typical of Ithaca in their offensive drives came within scoring distance time and again, the Ithacans, however, showed

With the return of the practice teachers, there has been more spirit down at the field. The girls are raring to go. They have decided to show the Cornell Co-eds at this time what hockey playing really is. There is a game scheduled for Thursday afternoon. Good luck girls.

I might add that the Fraser are doing pretty well in hockey. As yet the cheerleading squad is at a stand still. What has happened to the manager?

With the election of the Pron Queen this coming up, next week all six contestants must give with the smiles. It will be a close race to decide upon the popular kid. Don't forget fellows to vote for your favorite fem.

Just one more thing—the dances for Scammers have been considerably neglected. It is up to you girls to get your partners to rehearse. Let's keep on our toes. These are only two weeks before the show goes on.

Fred Joseph Rella was born May 8, 1920 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Rella of Suffer, N.Y. It seems that Fred learned how to swim right before he could walk. At a very young age he passed his life saving exams, and was soon saving lives at various pools in Suffer.

At Suffer High School, Fred was quite active in school activities. He was on the swimming team, and played two years of varsity football. In his senior year he was elected captain of the football team, and led his team to the league championship.

Deciding to become a physical education teacher, Fred enrolled at I.C. in 1939. Since that time he has diligently worked, helping others in school, and fraternal affairs. He became a member of Adelphi during his freshman year, and during his sophomore year became a member of Scampers, the I. C. gym and apparatus teams, and also a member of Phi Epsilon Kappa.

At the beginning of his junior year, however, things really began to happen to Fred. He was elected president of the Junior class, and automatically became a member of the Student Council. Capable of doing a considerable amount of work, Fred organized committees and labored day and night for what resulted in one of the finest class organizations the school has known. A fitting climax to the diligent work of the class was the Junior Prom, which some say topped all former Proms in the magnitude of its success. However, if asked about it, the modest Mr. Rella would unhesitatingly give all credit to the members of the class.

This year Fred is President of the Interfraternity Council and President of Phi E. K. This would be more than enough work for many students, but the ever will...

a big turnout, and we also know that one of the main events of the evening, not to mention the crowning of the Prom Queen, will be the contribution by the Junior Class of a large sum of money to our nation's war effort.

The Prom will be held in the college gym on Nov. 20 from 10-2 A.M. at which time Charlie Strong and his orchestra will provide some of that smash swing for which he is rapidly becoming famous in many New York night spots. The tickets are $3.75 this year including the traditional programs and favors which incidently, will match one another and be a delightful little eyeful.

Ithaca, let's make this the biggest social event of the year!

Joan McGovern is practice teaching in Moravia, N. Y., and from all comments she likes it very much. Evelyn Bobbett (Bobbie) is practice teaching in Rochester. She says she misses everyone at I. C., and she does enjoy teaching.

Yankee soldiers in France during the World War wasted little time in impressing the enemy with their deadly skill as bayonet fighters. The sight of advancing Americans with fixed bayonets caused many a German to throw down his weapons and cry “Kamerad.” The bayonet is still a major offensive weapon and is carried by all combat troops. The bayonet costs $5 and the scabbard $1.50 each.
