The kaleidescope of I.C. administration and faculty members reflects a colorful spectrum of personalities. Individually and as a whole, they mirror the many facets of education at our college. For instance, take the deep-voiced psychology professor who rescues runaway rats or the business prof. who feels that teaching in “The Pub” is more conducive to learning. Or what about the Dean who’s so tall, he watches over all the students?

But of course our faculty and administration have left lots of room for us — the students — to help shape the I.C. character. In addition to providing us with continuous guidance, they have encouraged and supported our own self-development. At I.C., whether you’re behind, in front of, or even on top of the desk, you are given the chance to voice your opinions.

Once different colored pastels sketching separate designs, the faculty, administration and students have come to complement and highlight one another, creatively combining their efforts.

That’s how we do it at I.C. We work together — learning and growing from each other’s experiences.

The Cayugan would like to apologize to the faculty who were either too busy or whose pictures were mechanically devoured at the last moment.
As color-streaked skies at sunset reflect the beauty of Ithaca, her limitless horizon symbolizes the vast array of opportunities found at Ithaca College. I.C. is more than an academic experience! I.C. is a "land of plenty" where social, cultural, and athletic treasures can be discovered by every student.

Of course, I.C. holds a unique meaning to each of us, but all of us share in remembering some of the wild and crazy times we've spent here.

Whether it was brunching at Hal's, ordering from Domino's, sipping brandy at a Bomber Game; partying in a dorm, joining Lonely Hearts at the Haunt or getting caught doing "whatever" by Sasp. Whether it was enjoying our Spring Concerts, watching The Nothing Special, studying in France or London; sunbathing in front of the Union, pulling all-niters or paying outrageous phone bills.

THERE'S NEVER A DULL MOMENT AT I.C.!!!!!

A popular alternative to on-campus study is the chance to study abroad under one of the College's Foreign Study programs. The College provides an international learning experience for all Ithaca College students by conducting its own program in England. The Lond Center offers a curriculum in the Liberal arts, international business, drama and music, which is designed to take advantage of the social and cultural milieu of London. Since 1972, the Victorian mansion in the South Kensington district of London has become an alternate campus of the College’s undergraduate program. The faculty are primarily British and convey a perspective helpful to the students' understanding of British society and are instrumental in the development of cross-cultural awareness. Field trips and tours to various institutions, cultural centers and monuments comprise an integral part of the curriculum. Presentations by guest lecturers bring the student into contact with distinguished individuals from a wide variety of disciplines to provide a London experience, rather than just a London setting.
When thinking about fraternities and sororities, an "Animal House" image often comes to mind. No doubt, I.C. 's "Greeks" know the secret to having a good time. But beneath this facade lie some other very special qualities.

That same feeling of brother — and sisterhood that links individuals within their "Greek" families spills into both the college as well as the Ithaca community.

They're always busy doing something for someone; whether it's a fellow "Greek", other I.C. students, or some group of people in time. And when they're not, they're usually doing something nutty, initiating pledges, or just having a really good time!
Ithaca College's intercollegiate athletic program for both men and women is one of the most complete of any college in the East. With a tradition of excellence dating back to 1930, Ithaca offers 22 varsity sports, twelve men's and ten women's, and eight junior varsity sports.

Ithaca's athletic teams participate in Division III of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, and are members of the Independent College Athletic Conference (ICAC). The College is also a member of the Eastern College Athletic Conference, and Ithaca's women compete in the AIAW (Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women), the EAIAW (Eastern Association), and the NYSAIAW (N.Y. State Association).

PICNICS
This yearbook was no simple task. For an extra curricular activity it possessed all the challenge and creativity that could be desired. It has its good times and its bad times. I will remember them all forever.

This volume represents the way I saw Ithaca College. I am very proud of this book, and grateful to all the people who helped me put it together. The book was printed by Herff Jones at their Gettysburg Pa. plant. The quality of any yearbook doesn't always reflect the ability of the publisher. They (the publisher), are in a paradox. They are capable of performing at the state of the art level. However, to reach this level they must have state of the art material submitted to them. I feel we are close to that level.

This book could not have existed if it had not been for a few special people. I would like to take this time to thank them. They are:

Rich Pasley — who gave as much time as could be asked from one person and really showed his ability with a camera
Heidi Shikowitz — whose senior section is the best part of the book.
Scarlett Kronenberger — Whose writings were just what I was looking for.
Lynn Rosenberg — who took great pictures and helped when no one else would.
Susan Imber — who takes great pictures.

John Foltz — who came thru when we needed him the most.
Pete Throop — who really can take a few good pictures.
Bill & Peg Celano — Who checked all my work.
Suzy Creamcheese & Blardo — for their undying assistance in the darkroom.
Bob Marx — for giving me all those sports team pictures

I consider the completion of this book a triumph, and only hope it will bring back memories to you like it will to me.
