Somewhere in the halls and records of the Registrar in Ithaca College is a compilation of grades, bills and tests that mark the sum total of one's academic experience in this institution. In that file, reflected in black and white, are all the successes and failures encountered within the classrooms of Friends, Gannet, Textor, and, of course, the Library. One hundred and twenty credits worth of fears, tears, victory and pride neatly contained in some inconspicuous folder, now closed forever.
The files are closed, but the lives of those who have filled them remain open and the experiences of those lives continue to gather. The class of 1981, like those which preceded it, managed to maintain a measure of sanity while fulfilling the requirements of higher education. Our diplomas not only testify to our academic abilities, they are also statements of our personal fortitude.
When all is said and done, four years of college is much more than a grade or completion of requirements. It is an overall experience of learning, experimentation, preparation; it is the basis of learning from which we must build.
Learning does not always take conventional or recognizable forms within the confines of Ithaca College. Most of the education received here at I.C., as in any institution of higher learning, does not sprout from the classrooms, but from the people within the institution. We learn from each other in college, we learn from sharing our joy and our pain.
In the years to come, those of us who now leave this place will vaguely recall the pertinent material from our introductory courses (if we still remember them at all). What will never fade from our memories are the seemingly trivial events that so effected and formed our opinions of each other and the world we live in. No course offered here or elsewhere could touch one's life as fully as those which were offered (with no academic credit) in the dormitories, the parks, the bars, in front of the Union, and upon our infrequent visits home. There was work to be done, and fun to be had, and all involved learning in some form or another.
Somewhere in the records of Ithaca College is the official report on our academic performances, but somewhere within our hearts is the true reflection of the learning experience of Ithaca College.
We, the class of 1981, gratefully acknowledge the efforts of the professors and administrators during our four years here. To many of them we were merely a numerical designation, and little more. People move through and around Ithaca far too quickly to be recognized or appreciated.
Without those in control, Ithaca College would be little more than a country club and we thank the professors and administrators who maintain control without cramping the style of the students. Real education continues at I.C., but so does the more subtle forms of learning, which cannot be organized or properly appraised. Those who we leave behind can look at the records and see that another year's graduates have passed through these classrooms, and we can look into our own hearts and minds and thereby judge our own success.
But to those who spent those sunny afternoons in Upper Buttermilk Park, or in front of the Union, or the lunch crowd in the Pub; to those of us who violated the rules and broke the laws in the interest of self expression and generally harmless fun; to us is given the true reward of the college experience, everlasting friendship and understanding. We have now gained the designation of graduate and so been given the right to use all that we have learned to better the place in which we live, for the friends that we hold so dear, and the goals we know so well.
We, who now embark upon the future, can look at four years of experience and applaud our accomplishments. We can look to each other and recognize the true growth and learning that has affected us has had little to do with classrooms, papers and tests. In essence it is the experiences we could never explain to our parents (glimpses of which are contained in this book), those events that brought joy, or thought, or simple smiles, that had educated us. The nights in the parks, the days in front of the Union, the afternoons in the Pub, sitting out alone on the island behind the Chapel, College has afforded the time and the environment to encounter people in a way never experienced before, but one that will remain and repeat itself throughout our lives.
No, there will be no more Aurora Streets, or Buttermilk Parks, or Micawber's to run to in times of instability or sunny weather. The tower wars and food fights, fizzes in the fountain and fireworks in the dorms, these events and endless others sit back in our minds, residing in the gathering dust of fond memories. What will continue is the encountering of new people and new circumstances, new challenges to be met and overcome. What follows is not a continuation of classroom experience but a continuation of almost every other experience we have encountered within the environs of Ithaca, New York, and Ithaca College.

Ronald Wilson Reagan, former actor and former governor of California, was elected our 40th President. The national swing to the right was stronger than even the Gallup and Harris Polls predicted. Reagan came on top with over 50% of the popular vote and 489 electoral votes. Carter conceded the election with 44 electoral votes, and carried only 7 states. Independent candidate John Anderson added further interest to the campaign, but only collected enough votes to insure federal assistance in paying campaign expenses. The predominant theme throughout the election was the conviction that it is "time for a change." The biggest issue was our sagging economy, particularly double digit inflation. The lighter side of the election brought a return of Ronald Reagan Films; "Bonzo" became a household word.

35 Harrington Gardens, SW 7 London, England is Ithaca’s “other” campus. Here, off-campus living constitutes letting flats located anywhere from Kensington to Notting Hill to Earl’s Court. The Tube fares and routes become as familiar to us as the hills in Ithaca. Visits to Trafalgar Square, Harrods, the Hardrock Cafe and Hyde Park Corner only begin the list of “must see’s” in London. “Road Trip” becomes the rallying cry on weekends and holidays since Dublin, Edinburgh, Paris, Amsterdam et al. are only a train or Sealink ticket away. Yes, courses are required and books have to be bought. However, museums, cathedrals, the theatre, sessions in Parliament and the local pubs are the classrooms. "There is a curious paradox
That no one can explain.
Who understands the secret
Of the reaping of the grain?

Who understands why Spring is born

Or why we all must die a bit
Before we grow again."

BOB FERRIGNO

An Associated Press and Kodak All-American, Ferrigno was the second leading rusher in Div. III this season. He rushed for an Ithaca record of 1307 yards, and was selected for his outstanding athletic ability to the New York Times All-East Team. Ferrigno was the only Div. III back to make better than Honorable mention on the Associated Press College All-American Football Team.

Bombers Set New Record
The 1980 Bomber Football Team had a season to be proud of. They made it to the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl for the fourth time, which is more than any other Div. III team. And no team has ever won more Lambert Bowls than Ithaca, which captured its fourth in 1980. Yet the most amazing record set by the 1980 Bomber team is the winning of 18 consecutive games. The success of the Bombers was led by Coach Jim Butterfield, who for the third straight year was named AFCA District 1 coach of the year by the American Football Coaches Association.
Ithaca placed four players on the first unit 1980 Sports Information Director's Division III All-American team. These include Bob Ferrigno, Allan MacDonald, Bill Rosecrans and Carl Guidotti, while Jimmy Hoffman was named to the second unit. Along with those seniors the Bombers will also lose offensive players; Jim Meyer, Terri Jarvie, Toay Fusaro, Tim Downs, Steve Manning, Mike Jordan, Matt Mackey and Marty Conden. On defense Ithaca will also lose; Larry Schunck, John Bertino, Steve Carloni, Mike Biondi, Joe Foley, and Jim Kilmets.
Bill Rosecrans

Rosecrans, a six-foot, 215-pound senior linebacker, was Ithaca's leading tackler in 1980, receiving credit for 154 stops, including 58 solos. Bill, "Rosie" was named for an Honorable mention on the Associated-Press 1980 College All-American Football Team. He was also one of five defensive players named on the first All-ICAC Football Team.
Under the direction of Coach Allan MacCormack, the Booters made it to the second round of the NCAA Division III Playoffs. The soccer team maintained a top spot in the National Rankings all season. They will lose seniors Bob Stiles and Bob Durocher (co-captains), Bob Thompson, Paul Rosow, Charlie Bensley and Kevin Byrne.
Bob Stiles

Stiles led the attack for the Booters, which is one reason why they ended up on top this season. He forwarded 13 goals, nine of them were game winners. Stiles has been voted the offens' MVP for two years in a row, he has been considered such a threat that he has been double teamed in every game this season.
The Ithaca Field Hockey Team had an outstanding showing in 1980. Among the records set is the most number of goals scored in one season. Those 97 goals produced a season consisting of 20 wins and 14 shut outs. Ithaca made its first ever National appearance. They took third place in the AIAW Division II National Championship and second in the EAIAW Northeast Division II Regional Tournament. For the fourth time they were the NYSAIAW State Champions. Senior starters Mary Ellen Champlin, Beth Cox, Cindy Lawton and Mary Beth Fiore played vital roles in Ithaca’s defense which only allowed 15 goals. The team will also need a replacement for senior Patti Klecha.
Klecha is the sensational senior, who led the Bombers to their most wins ever, scoring 29 goals, adding 16 assists for a total of 45 points. She also established three College records, in goals (61), assists (39), and total points (100). She was one of three players nominated for the most prestigious honor in Intercollegiate Field Hockey, the Broderick Award, which is given annually to the country's premier hockey player. "Patty is as good, if not better than any Field Hockey player I've ever seen," said Coach Kostrinsky. "What makes her truly outstanding is her ability to bring the best out in her teammates."

Successful Season for the Spikers
Senior co-captain Sue was named to the ten-member all-tournament team. According to coach Sara Rich, Sue was the organizer and the cerebral person on the 1980 Volleyball squad. The 5-8 athlete from Binghamton was also awarded the Golden Spike Award for the most spikes this year.

The 1980 Ithaca Spikers posted a 28-15-2 record. They captured fourth place in the New York State AIAW Division-II Tournament and fifth place in the AIAW Eastern Regional Tournament. Sara Rich, coaching the Spikers for her eighth season was a vital part of Ithaca's success. Leaving the Spikers will be senior co-captains Sue Novovesky and Pat O'Connor. Also departing are Cathy D'Apice and Judith Watkins.
The 1980 Tennis Team was led by number one singles player Kathy Maguire (5-4) and number one doubles team Pam Grayboff and Terry Madden (6-2). Seniors Janet Smith and Nan Lautenberg had respectable seasons and advanced to the State Tennis Tournament. Coach Iris Carnell brought the team to a record of 5-4 in her 12th season.

Swinging Strong thru Tough Season
It was a season full of injuries, but the I.C. wrestlers maintained a positive attitude which saw them through the numerous disappointments. The final record, 2-6, was not indicative of their late-coming improvement.

Co-Captain Bill Bray qualified for the NCAA Division III Championships but lost a tough 8-6 decision after an opening round. He won out of 8 dual matches and posted overall at 11-5. Bill has one more year of eligibility remaining and may very well become I.C.'s first all American since 1979.
The Ithaca College women's swimming team broke 5 college records this season. They finished 2nd at the New York State AIAW Championships, being particularly effective in the relays. With an equally outstanding contribution from all the women, the Bombers achieved a final record of 9 wins and 3 losses.

Women Splash to Success
Under Coach Bill Wares, the Ithaca College men's swimming team broke 13 college records as they finished 6th in the Upper New York State Championships. Don McVeigh, premier distance freestyler; Jim Bernhardt, fastest swimmer; and Bob McLaughlin with a strong butterfly stroke, all excelled. In fact, McVeigh ranks as Ithaca's first 3-time All-American. Four other teammates joined them in the Nationals. With many strong underclass swimmers, the men's team is anticipating another successful season in 1982.

Men Shatter Past Records
The Ithaca College Basketball Team finished with an impressive 15-11 record. Highlighting the campaign included a third place (7-5) finish in the ICAC tournament, two tournament titles, a five game winning streak and a win over the defending ECAC Division II-III upstate champs Elmira. Coach Tom Baker's third consecutive winning season at Ithaca was orchestrated by a disciplined group of young athletes whose determination and stability won more games this year than in the past four.

TODD HART
The Independent College Athletic Conference "Rookie of the Year," last year came through again this year. There is no such thing as a sophomore jinx when you refer to Todd. In two seasons he has assumed the number eight spot on Ithaca's all time scoring list with 830 points. Coach Baker said "Todd had just a super season." He was named to the ECAC's Division III honor roll twice this season and capped off his senior year by being named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches Division III All-District two team.

Following a questionable start to the season, the women cagers picked up their act. In Feb., they received a bid to the New York State AIAW Division II Tournament. They won the consolation title which isn't bad considering they were seeded 7th out of 8 teams. Before they went to Bloomsburg on Jan. 16th their record was 2-2, they weren't doing too well but throughout the season they sparkled and improved that shaky record to a final 14-9.

FAITH COLTER
A 4 year starter, Faith Colter, captured her MVP honor in the Hofstra Invitational, leading Ithaca to a second place standing. She was named on the All-East team this year and holds some impressive statistics. Faith broke the previous IC single game scoring record with 37 points scored in IC's win over Bloomsburg State. She lead her team with an average of 12.76 rebounds and 24.57 points per game, and has a career total of 516 points. Faith's rebounding helped to rejuvenate the Bombers' fast break, resulting in winning lay-ups.

This year, the Ithaca gymnasts vaulted to their first state AIAW meet since 1970 and were victorious. For the past 3 years, the Bombers have been strong contenders but have finished in 3rd place each time.

"We were pointing toward the States all season," stated coach Harriet Carnes as her team entered the finals with a 6-3 dual record. Quite a few records were set this year. In vaulting, Judy Bell; on bars, Sue Bourne; on beam, Chris Ficken, and in floor exercises, Maria Castrataro. The team also scored its highest points ever: 130.25 against Brockport on February 21, 1981.

In the State Tournament, Chris won the balance beam event with a total score of 16.15. Harriet Carnes said that Chris turned in a "flawless performance." Competing on both beams and bars, Chris broke many past I.C. records, and is sure to be a strong asset during next year’s competitions.

Ithaca's laxmen finished this season with a 7-5 record. Plagued by injuries all season, the team could not play up to expectations or full potential. Coach Al Wolski hopes to utilize the talent already present to lead the team to victory in the coming year.

With men like Attackman Rob Serylte who lead the team in scoring with 22 goals and 18 assists and Rick Marino (23 goals and 14 assists), the future looks bright for Ithaca College Lacrosse.

Women's Softball
Ithaca's baseball team battled its way to a 29-7-1 record and placed second at the Division III World Series. The defending 1980 national champs finished the regular season 22-4-1, then won the Northeast Regional's tournament by fighting out of the loser's bracket to beat Eastern Connecticut twice on the tourney's final day. Sophomore designated hitter Mark Fagan's one out, two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth lifted the Bombers to a 6-5 win in the title game.

Ithaca fell to Marietta College, 6-5, in the opening game of the World Series, then stopped North Carolina Wesleyan, 7-6, and Wisconsin-Oshkosh, 11-3, to reach the finals. The Bombers had to beat Marietta, the winner's bracket champion in the double elimination tournament, twice on the final day, but lost a thrilling 12-inning game, 14-12.

Rugby has been long-considered "an animal game played by gentlemen." Nevertheless, 1981 was the 4th season for the Ithaca Lonestar Club. Highlights of the season included defeating Canadian team, University of Guelph, to capture 2nd place in the Marty Higgins Memorial Tournament. There were 6, three-year veterans who graduated this year: Tom Stiles, Harry Frazheim, Doug Rifkin, Jim Eckels, George Enzian, and Mike Cole. Future seasons look very promising for the young Lonestar team.

Freshman Crew Shines
1981 was a year of rebuilding for the Ithaca College crew team. There were only 5 seniors rowing this season, however, up and coming stars emerged from the Freshman crews. The women were strengthened by each race. The season ended on an upswing with all indicators pointing to a strong crew program next year. Best wishes are awarded to next year’s coach, Dan Robinson, a member of I.C.’s 1979 graduating class.

1981 Cayugan Staff
One might ask; Why would anyone want to commit themselves to be Editor of the Cayugan? Well, there are many benefits, the most important ones being the moral support and dedication received, and the friendships created among the people I have worked with.

Among the people I’d like to mention and thank for their help with red tape, technical difficulties and menial labor are; our advisor Rick Vogel, Lynne Erwin, Roger Eslinger and Doug Lippincott from Sports Information, and our representative Eric Ludeman.

I would like to use the rest of this space to recognize the staff members who were most indispensable to me. Mary Ellen Vukelic, Denise Watov, and Kathleen Jones gave no complaints about the all night sessions of work and displayed constant dedication through complete exhaustion, which they will never know how much I appreciate.

Then there is Ross Cameron whose sense of humor and photographic ability enhanced a major portion of this edition. I find it impossible to mention all the people who offered their time, or to express proper thanks to each and every one of them. A big thank you to Kathy Carroll, my associate editor, for picking up all those loose ends and being in the right place at the right time.

My deepest and most sincere thanks go to Anne Howson, my friend and co-worker. Without her talent, ability, knowledge, humor and moral support, the 1981 Cayugan would never have been completed. Congratulations Seniors, hope you enjoy the book. It was worth it!!
