“Everywoman” To Be Presented This Evening 8:15

Moral Play Is To Feature Chorus And Trio

The second play of the current season, “Everywoman” by Walter Brown, is to be presented Tuesday and Monday evenings.

“Everywoman” is a modern morality play and is known as a “one-woman show.” Joan Houston and Josephine Coder portray alternately the title role. Miss Houston is to present the play Tuesday and Miss Coder, Monday.

The play has a large cast of men and women who portray various qualities, characteristics, and virtues which make up “Everywoman.” There are choruses in speaking and dancing and the musical score of the piece will be played by a string trio.

Dr. Rollo A. Talbott is directing the play and Professor Broughton is coaching the choral groups. Special costume, scenery, and lighting effects have been prepared, and the play is ready for performance.

Sigma Alpha Iota Presents Annual Formal Musicalie

Professionally Presented Program Well Received

Tuesday evening, November 23, Epulon Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, presented its annual formal musicalie. The program was pitched in an interesting vein to the audience and was received with laughter and applause.

The second play of the evening was presented under the direction of Miss Bracken and was entirely in accord with the composer's intention. The mood of the setting was set by the music and the effect of the piece was practically instantaneous.

Dr. Rollo A. Talbott is directing the play and Professor Broughton is coaching the choral groups. Special costume, scenery, and lighting effects have been prepared, and the play is ready for performance.

Fifth Annual Band Clinic Held At Ithaca College

Faculty, Students, Executives Cooperate To Make Clinic Success

The fifth annual Clinic of the New York State School Band and Choral Clinic was held here last week-end, on the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th of December. It was a well-contrived meeting of many school superintendents, including Ithaca College Alumni. The faculty, students, and executives all cooperated most heartily in the making of the event a success that it was. This factor no doubt lies in an improved technique of handling the next annual Clinic, which will again be held in Ithaca.

Thursday afternoon was spent in giving recitals in all school instrumentalists, and to the first rehearsal of the chorus, while the evening was devoted to All State Chorus, Orchestra, and Band rehearsals.

Friday was the busiest day for the musicians, especially the music students of the college organizations.

Following registration in the Green Room at 8:30 A. M., the Ithaca College Band played selected Class A and B selections, conducted by Professor Bodnar.

Dr. J. gave a sincere welcome address to the association, whereupon the program was opened by Dr. N. E. G. A. R. B. T. S. A. (The last line of the program was rewritten. Since then, election to Oracle has been based upon individual merit regardless of the department to which the student belongs.)

Dr. Rollo A. Talbott, State Music Supervisor, then addressed the group. Through the courtesy of Mr. G. L. W. D., the band again played more extensively, which was appreciated by the crowd-loving cup each of whom were benefitting. The music and well-coordinated. The band was conducted by Professor Mehdou.

In the program for Friday afternoon was opened with an address by A. R. McIntyre, National Band President, of Joliet, Illinois. Following that, the Ithaca College Band conducted by Professor Lyon, gave a very enjoyable program, which was appreciated by a crowd-ed audience.

As 23 of the As, Mr. E. E. Simons, School Superintendent of Cortland, was an important guest on the program. A Salutatory Music in our school of the Cornell University, the band played selections from the program.

The band again played more suggested selections from Class A and B, under the direction of the distinguished musician, William D. Revelle, guest conductor.

A more enjoyable evening of music was spent in Foster Hall, with the director of the College band, orchestra, and choir.

Christmas reunion beginning at 3:00 P.M. Classes resumed Monday, January 3

Oracle Installs Fourth In First Formal Initiation Of Year

Impressive Ceremony Is Held In Mr. Lyon's Studio

The first initiation of Oracle for the year resulted in a formal initiation twenty-ninth. A very impressive initiation ceremony took place in Mr. Lyon's garden in the back yard. The following were formally initiated at this time:

Sarah Bracken
Beulah Johnson
Clyde Nicholas
Johnson
Coleman Kyther

Immediately after the services a banquet was held at the Victoria Inn. President Ralph Iorio gave the address of welcome, followed by the Oracle hymn sung by the select quartet. President Moorely presented a toast to the initiates after which Betsy Connolly read for the new members. Dr. Job gave excellent advice to the old members as well as the new, as also did Oracle's advisor, Miss Tall-er. Sarah Bracken added the musical touch to the program with a violin solo. The toast, speaker of the evening was the Reverend A. B. Russell, pastor of the first Baptist Church of this city.

The theme of his speech was that the most important thing in life is to learn to belong. It was based on a quotation from John Wasanaker, the famous industrialist.

For the past several years the members of Ithaca College who are rather vague as to what Oracle is, feel that the college will serve as a brief history of the organization. The club was founded in the spring of 1938 by Mrs. Phillip Skinner who was the first president. At this time, the three seniors having the highest average in the department of the secretaries was an important event in the history of the club. The officers elected that year were Misses Girl and Spaulding with another five students being selected.

The following year was the first home game against Norwich University on the basketball court. There was no re-against the rest, however, his work in the field of music was not completed. Gordon Johnson displayed the best in his performance of tonight, and he left us with the desire to see his prowess at another time.

We wish to express the hope that these freshmen will continue their good work and we desire to extend our hearty congratulations on their splendid efforts.

Basketball Tournament Begins Season On VerMerritt Court

Coach Doc Tavares has speeded up his players in preparations for the game tonight, against St. John's at Connecticut. He has tried to make a better team than the one that played well against St. John's, Barlow, Carp Wood, Gene Baker, and Corbin are the men who made up the basketball team. When these plans did not work out Coach Tavares tried his best to make a better team and, then the next, in a combination of these two teams, a starting five. With the elimination of the center from the lineup, the court has been speeded up considerably. It will be necessary, therefore, to have more than five men to play through the twenty minute period. In the second game, the Blue and Gold men will face Norwich University on the Norwich Court.

Freshmen Present The Monkey's Paw

On November 29, at 8:15, the Freshmen Drama Students, from St. Michael's, will present a play that is their own creation. The play is to be entitled "The Monkey's Paw" which has been adapted by W. W. Jacob. All in all, this play was very well done under the direction of William Dean, Bert Rogers Lyman, Jr. interpreted the role of the first mate, the Melpomene with an understanding of the story and the general run of freshmen would-assure the success of the play. The cast consists of more than 20 characters, which are all played by members of the Sophomore class of the school. The play is to be presented at 8:15 on Friday evening at the Hotel Court. There will be a very good turnout of the students and faculty and Oracle members who pass in the relative merits of the Sophomore class of the school. In the end, there are 18 active members of Oracle—all members of the class of 1939. Good work, you people making Oracle one of your goals to succeed!
During the past two or three weeks, listeners to various radio programs have been asked to give no little effort in procur­ ing — or if you like, making — Christmas Seals for the fight against tuberculosis. It is certainly true that we will be swept by a great number of this season's events, gone to a great number of these seals, no matter who the giver may be.
FIFTH ANNUAL BAND CLINIC HELD AT ITHACA COLLEGE

Each was a fine performance. Every seat in the hall was occupied, and the response of the audience was great. It showed that the interest in music is noteworthy in Ithaca, in all departments of Ithaca College and in the city of Ithaca as well.

At 10 o'clock an informal dance was held in the college gymnasium for the benefit of the All State Chorus, Band, and Orchestra. Features of the dance were the various square dances by twisters and the popular Big Apple. However, it all ended too soon.

Also at 10 P. M. the association members held a round table discussion in the Little Theatre. Mr. Revelli addressed the meeting on the subject, "The Most Common Faults I Have Found in School Bands and How to Correct Them."

Saturday morning at 9 A. M. the Ithaca College Orchestra played over suggested selective Class A and B numbers under the baton of Adam P. Lesinsky, guest conductor. After this was finished, members attended the clinic rehearsals of the All State groups, taking special notice how the guest conductors handled the groups. Class A and B selections were presented.

At the annual business meeting held at 1:15 P. M. the following officers were elected for next year: President, Arthur R. Goffman, Jamestown; Vice-President, Thomas J. Gilfoyle, Endicott; Secretary-Treasurer, Fredric F. Swift, Elmira.

The clinic came to a close with the three concerts given by selected high school students of New York State. It is sufficient to say that, judging from the applause they received, these organizations gave an evening's entertainment of high satisfaction. It was largely due to the expert direction of the three well-known figures in American public school music, Messrs. Revelli, Lesinsky, and Spouse.

Of some interest to those who attended the clinic and those who did not attend may be these facts: that the All State Band is three years old, the All State Chorus two years old, and the All State Orchestra, one year. As the organization got older and as more representative schools participate, we shall expect next year's clinic to be much larger and more successful than this year's, even though the present clinic was so good and have marked improvement over all those gone before.
