RESOLUTIONS FOR CLASSES OF

Ithaca College

Resolution I.

Of all the things that impressed me most is the way we have been treated by the people who live here. The way they welcome you and make you feel at home is truly remarkable. The people here are friendly, hospitable, and always willing to help. They have a way of making you feel special and appreciated. This is something that I will always remember and cherish.

Resolution II.

The band (or orchestra) certainly provided entertainment for the audience. The music was well-rehearsed and the performances were smooth. The conductor did an excellent job of keeping the group in sync and directing the musicians. The music was enjoyable and added to the overall atmosphere of the event.

Resolution III.

The dancing was amazing. The dancers were skilled and graceful. They moved in unison and created beautiful patterns with their bodies. The music and the dance were in perfect harmony, and it was a delight to watch.

Resolution IV.

The food was delicious. The dishes were well-presented and the flavors were well-balanced. The variety of options available to cater to different dietary needs was appreciated. The service was prompt and friendly, and the staff was attentive to the needs of the guests.

Resolution V.

The overall experience of being in Krakow was enriching. The city has a rich history and culture, and it was a privilege to immerse oneself in that environment. The people were welcoming and the atmosphere was vibrant. The city has a lot to offer, and I would recommend it to others who are interested in exploring the region.

Resolution VI.

The experience of being in Krakow was a memorable one. The people, the food, the music, the dancing were all part of a wonderful experience. It was a pleasure to be a part of the city and its traditions. I would love to return to Krakow in the future.

GIFT OF THE MADGE MODERN COMPANY

(With Due Apologies to O'Henry) Lila La La was walking down State St. and she was very, very sad. And she wept big, big tears. Was the matter with Big Ben Bos Big Ben a Christmas present?":

Lila La La: "Walking along the street Big Ben suddenly stopped before the A and P store. And she said: "Aye, Big Ben Bos Big Ben a Christmas present, and Lila La La had never seen a more beautiful sight in all her days."

"That night when Lila La La was lying in bed, Big Ben Bos Big Ben was in bed, too. And Big Ben Bos Big Ben drank the bottle of Katsup."

"And the next day, they both went down to see Dr. Dennis." "Need we say more?"

Harry Taylor, another Freshman music student, is of the opinion that: "Ithaca College is all there, especially more so in the Music Department. I have no complaint to make."

Gordon Johnson, second year drama student, thinks that the new theater is necessary, especially if they have more than one stage, with the other one must have a larger stage to work on and adequate dressing room facilities.

Art Schnell, music junior, calls "Allotment of all right things."

"Dorothy Burgess, a Phy Ed. Well sir, I sez down front the fire, 'my good man, I've been naughty, I've been bad."

LARGEST EVER HELD INITHACA COLLEGE

The evening concerts of both the Concert Band and Symphony Orchestras were up to the mark and need no further comment, since both concerts had been previously reviewed in this column. The Ithaca College Choir singing under the direction of Bert Rogers Lyon has something we instrument-ally trained people can appreciate, ye seldom find a greater.” The “Thing”; more than a team work. The choir lives to sing and continually plays ball with their conductor, hence they remain the most professional unit in school.

December Third: The Saturday evening concerts presented by the All State Orchestra, Carl Van Hoegren, guest conductor; the All State Choir, Peter J. Wilkosky, guest conzador; the All State Band Cliff culture. Baimon, guest conductor; The, above items, were supere rior to those of previous clinics held here in Ithaca. We might add that these of past clinics held by the school, our supervisors and our choirs have been much superior. Again we have made a stride forward; “It’s” Dr. Robinson will just keep on bowing us out and we will be in turn keeping on; our ideals should be something of our own.

IT CAN’T HAPPEN HERE

This is a part of a program of reshaping, reevaluating foundational courses in order to give students a better background, especially those going into the teaching profession.

An attempt is also being made to help the Ithaca freshman students who need remedial work in English.

These students who are not up to “par,” will have the benefit of special courses in English. Three sections will be very small and will be instructed by senior students of the department as a part of their practice teaching. This will at the same time increase the experience of our teachers and benefit the students. These sections will be under the supervision of Miss Kosman.

There will be new elective courses offered in the English department in the second semester.

Dr. Tallcott gives Many Programs To Out-of-Town Audiences

Dr. Tallcott has been relaxing from his scholastic duties at Ithaca College a bit recently. On Saturday afternoon at 5:00, he entertained the University Women's Club at Elmira with a book review of the play "Our Town," by Thornton Wilder. Then on Tuesday he repeated his dissertation at the Pi Lambda Theta fraternity.

"Our Town" is the play that just recently closed in New York. It was produced on Broadway without the use of scenery or properties. The play itself dealt with the people of "Grover's Corners," a small town in New Hampshire.

Wednesday morning Dr. Tallcott gave a lecture at Cortland Normal concerning "The Correct Usage of English in Speech and Writing."

"You can depend on this combination"

Together they make the United States admired and respected the whole world over.

And for the things you want in a cigarette you can depend on the happy combination of mild ripe tobaccos in Chesterfield.

Each type of Chesterfield tobacco is outstanding for some fine quality that makes smoking more pleasurable. Combined...blended together the Chesterfield way...they give you more pleasure than any cigarette you ever smoked.

On land and sea and in the air...whatever smoking you enjoy...Chesterfield's mirth and better taste satisfies millions.
