Scampers Tryouts Slated

Production of "Scampers '61" is well under way. This year "Scampers" takes the form of an original musical comedy, "Two Tickets To Heaven." The book was written by Carol Silver, with lyrics by Charles Moss and music by Larry Holdridge. Singing and dancing tryouts will be held in room 50 (two flights above the box office) on Saturday, Dec. 12 in room 24 of the annex.

Fugitive). He has appeared in many Ithaca College productions. The book was written by Carol Silver, with lyrics by Charles Moss and music by Larry Holdridge. Singing and dancing tryouts will be held in room 50 (two flights above the box office) on Saturday, Dec. 12 in room 24 of the annex.

Two stage-struck hopefuls (Mary Ward and John Thompson) come to Ithaca to try out for the college's student-written, student-directed musical comedy, "Two Tickets To Heaven." They are a new couple, and, as a member of the Newman Club, is a student of the Newman Club.

Avera was elected from the post of news editor. He was president of the college, is a former member of the Newman Club.

Joseph A. Gillan, a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, has been named managing editor. He succeeds Virginia Welsh. Gillan is president of the Newman Club, was treasurer of the college, and is a former managing editor and editor-in-chief of "The Ithacan." The other staff appointments: News editor, David Canteen, is a sophomore class president; circulation director, Jack Leach; and music editor, Alan Goldsand.

"Two On An Island," Ithaca College's Drama department's second major production this year, will be presented at 8:15 p.m. today through Saturday in the College Theater. Under the direction of Robert Bardwell, instructor of drama here, Elmer Rice's modern comedy will star Patricia Weeseberg. Junior in the drama department, as Mary Ward, and Chet Carlin, also a freshman in the drama department, as John Thompson.

Cast of 31

The fast-moving story of New York City life features a cast of 31 students in a variety of New York locales, including a sub, a sightseeing trip, theatrical offices, artists' studios and musical offices.

Two stage-struck hopefuls (Mary Ward and John Thompson) come to the big city to make their way in the theater. Also included in the cast are Roger Ahrens, Margo Schmelike and Ed Pilkington.

Tuttle Technical Director

Sovemy designer and technical director is Barry Tuttle, Stage manager is June Comer.

Tuttle had the main role in this year's first major production, "Two On An Island," and is a member of the Newman Club.

Avera was elected from the post of news editor. He was president of the college, is a former member of the Newman Club.

Joseph A. Gillan, a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, has been named managing editor. He succeeds Virginia Welsh. Gillan is president of the Newman Club, was treasurer of the college, and is a former managing editor and editor-in-chief of "The Ithacan." The other staff appointments: News editor, David Canteen, is a sophomore class president; circulation director, Jack Leach; and music editor, Alan Goldsand.

"Two On An Island," Ithaca College's Drama department's second major production this year, will be presented at 8:15 p.m. today through Saturday in the College Theater. Under the direction of Robert Bardwell, instructor of drama here, Elmer Rice's modern comedy will star Patricia Weeseberg. Junior in the drama department, as Mary Ward, and Chet Carlin, also a freshman in the drama department, as John Thompson.

Cast of 31

The fast-moving story of New York City life features a cast of 31 students in a variety of New York locales, including a sub, a sightseeing trip, theatrical offices, artists' studios and musical offices.

Two stage-struck hopefuls (Mary Ward and John Thompson) come to the big city to make their way in the theater. Also included in the cast are Roger Ahrens, Margo Schmelike and Ed Pilkington.

Tuttle Technical Director

Sovemy designer and technical director is Barry Tuttle, Stage manager is June Comer.

Tuttle had the main role in this year's first major production, "Two On An Island," and is a member of the Newman Club.

Avera was elected from the post of news editor. He was president of the college, is a former member of the Newman Club.

Joseph A. Gillan, a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, has been named managing editor. He succeeds Virginia Welsh. Gillan is president of the Newman Club, was treasurer of the college, and is a former managing editor and editor-in-chief of "The Ithacan." The other staff appointments: News editor, David Canteen, is a sophomore class president; circulation director, Jack Leach; and music editor, Alan Goldsand.

"Two On An Island," Ithaca College's Drama department's second major production this year, will be presented at 8:15 p.m. today through Saturday in the College Theater. Under the direction of Robert Bardwell, instructor of drama here, Elmer Rice's modern comedy will star Patricia Weeseberg. Junior in the drama department, as Mary Ward, and Chet Carlin, also a freshman in the drama department, as John Thompson.

Cast of 31

The fast-moving story of New York City life features a cast of 31 students in a variety of New York locales, including a sub, a sightseeing trip, theatrical offices, artists' studios and musical offices.

Two stage-struck hopefuls (Mary Ward and John Thompson) come to the big city to make their way in the theater. Also included in the cast are Roger Ahrens, Margo Schmelike and Ed Pilkington.

Tuttle Technical Director

Sovemy designer and technical director is Barry Tuttle, Stage manager is June Comer.

Tuttle had the main role in this year's first major production, "Two On An Island," and is a member of the Newman Club.

Avera was elected from the post of news editor. He was president of the college, is a former member of the Newman Club.

Joseph A. Gillan, a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, has been named managing editor. He succeeds Virginia Welsh. Gillan is president of the Newman Club, was treasurer of the college, and is a former managing editor and editor-in-chief of "The Ithacan." The other staff appointments: News editor, David Canteen, is a sophomore class president; circulation director, Jack Leach; and music editor, Alan Goldsand.

"Two On An Island," Ithaca College's Drama department's second major production this year, will be presented at 8:15 p.m. today through Saturday in the College Theater. Under the direction of Robert Bardwell, instructor of drama here, Elmer Rice's modern comedy will star Patricia Weeseberg. Junior in the drama department, as Mary Ward, and Chet Carlin, also a freshman in the drama department, as John Thompson.

Cast of 31

The fast-moving story of New York City life features a cast of 31 students in a variety of New York locales, including a sub, a sightseeing trip, theatrical offices, artists' studios and musical offices.

Two stage-struck hopefuls (Mary Ward and John Thompson) come to the big city to make their way in the theater. Also included in the cast are Roger Ahrens, Margo Schmelike and Ed Pilkington.

Tuttle Technical Director

Sovemy designer and technical director is Barry Tuttle, Stage manager is June Comer.

Tuttle had the main role in this year's first major production, "Two On An Island," and is a member of the Newman Club.

Avera was elected from the post of news editor. He was president of the college, is a former member of the Newman Club.

Joseph A. Gillan, a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, has been named managing editor. He succeeds Virginia Welsh. Gillan is president of the Newman Club, was treasurer of the college, and is a former managing editor and editor-in-chief of "The Ithacan." The other staff appointments: News editor, David Canteen, is a sophomore class president; circulation director, Jack Leach; and music editor, Alan Goldsand.

"Two On An Island," Ithaca College's Drama department's second major production this year, will be presented at 8:15 p.m. today through Saturday in the College Theater. Under the direction of Robert Bardwell, instructor of drama here, Elmer Rice's modern comedy will star Patricia Weeseberg. Junior in the drama department, as Mary Ward, and Chet Carlin, also a freshman in the drama department, as John Thompson.

Cast of 31

The fast-moving story of New York City life features a cast of 31 students in a variety of New York locales, including a sub, a sightseeing trip, theatrical offices, artists' studios and musical offices.

Two stage-struck hopefuls (Mary Ward and John Thompson) come to the big city to make their way in the theater. Also included in the cast are Roger Ahrens, Margo Schmelike and Ed Pilkington.

Tuttle Technical Director

Sovemy designer and technical director is Barry Tuttle, Stage manager is June Comer.

Tuttle had the main role in this year's first major production, "Two On An Island," and is a member of the Newman Club.

Avera was elected from the post of news editor. He was president of the college, is a former member of the Newman Club.

Joseph A. Gillan, a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, has been named managing editor. He succeeds Virginia Welsh. Gillan is president of the Newman Club, was treasurer of the college, and is a former managing editor and editor-in-chief of "The Ithacan." The other staff appointments: News editor, David Canteen, is a sophomore class president; circulation director, Jack Leach; and music editor, Alan Goldsand.
Dear Editor:

As President of the House of Delegates of Cortland College of Education, I would like to express sympathy.

Education, I would like to express sympathy.

Letter to the Editor

I would like to thank the president of the House of Delegates of Cortland College for the letter on the subject of the tragic death of Kevin Carney.

The tragic death of Kevin Carney is a great sorrow to all of us. It is a reminder of the fragility of life and the importance of working together to promote the well-being of all individuals.

Campus Calendar

Nov. 16-Nov. 23

Parents Weekend 1960

Friday, November 18

7-9 p.m.

Music Hall

Parental Day

Saturday, November 19

8-10 p.m.

Music Hall

Parental Day

Sunday, November 20

10 a.m.

Jewelry Store

Parental Day

Thanksgiving recess begins at 5 p.m.

The New College SPA

The Best of Everything served by your host

Pete Atesides

216 E. State St.

First Natl Bank Bldg.
Delta Sigma Pi Fraternity Will Crown '60 “Rose” At “Moods In Blue” Dance Saturday

By RAY HOBART

Ithaca College’s “Rose of Delta Sig” for 1960-61 will be crowned Saturday at Delta Sigma Pi’s annual dance at Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, 416 E. State St.

Theme of the dance is “Moods in Blue.”

The five finalists competing for the honor of “Rose of Delta Sig” are: Sue Ann Lurie (music, ’63); Lucy Simon (music, ’63); Mimi Teleisha (physical education, ’62); Barbara Parlato (liberal arts, ’63); and Pat Wesenberg (drama, ’62).

Each year the brothers of Delta Sigma Pi, national business fraternity at Ithaca College, select a “Rose of Delta Sig.” A picture of the winner is sent to the national office of the fraternity for judging.

In past years celebrities such as Lucille Ball, Desi Arnez, and Ed Sullivan have judged the national contest.

IC’s 1959 “Rose,” Miss Bonnie Jo Marquis, was chosen national “Rose of Delta Sig.” She also was Miss New York State for 1960.

A seven-piece band from Geneva, the “Gaytones,” will play for the dance.

“Moods In Blue” will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. College women will receive 1:45 a.m. permission. Tickets are on sale in the college annex for $3.00 per couple.

Jill

When I showed up with a Schaefer six-pack instead of an engagement ring, my girl threw me out...
Basketball Team Prepares For Dec. 6 Opener Here Against Lock Haven State

By PETE PETERSON

Coach Carlton Wood's varsity basketball players have been working out on the Aurora street court for the past two weeks, preparing for their Dec. 6 opener against Lock Haven.

The Bombers list 10 home games and 11 road contests on this year's schedule.

Coach Wood faces the problem of replacing last year's trio of top guards, Phil Lathbrook, Carl Wambold and Ken Stiles, all of whom were lost through graduation, along with forward performer Don Churchill.

Returning lettermen include Paul Mueller, Bob Burksley, Mike O'Brien and Jim Lockman. Also on hand is John Howe, who saw service during the second half of last season.

Also counted on for help are Gary Gregorski, John Liles, Tom Baker, Charlie Klump and Bob Riddle, all up from last year's frosh squad.

Transfers Show Promise

Other hopefuls are transfers Art Meyer and Bob Serafin, and Bill Vag, from the 1964-65 Freshman team, who sat out last year, and Larry Carr, Del Borden and Bruce Theobald.

Wood tentatively plans to use Lockman and Howe in the pivot positions, with the backcourt crew to come from Mueller, O'Brien, Gregorski, Liles, and Serafin.

Mueller and Gregorski may also see service under the boards.

Hayride Scheduled Friday

Dashing through the snow
In our one tractor wagon,
Over the fields we go,
Nipping at our flagman.

This will be the favorite song Friday of those braving the cold and attending Ithaca College's first annual hayride.

The ride, sponsored by the Sophomore class, will start at 8:30 p.m. from Marshall Farms, on Mecklenburg road.

Rides to the farm will leave from in front of the College library at 8 p.m.

The hayride will last until 11 p.m. Cost is $1.75 per couple.

Sonic Trio

Adelphi Renamed Zeta Sigma Nu; Also Reorganized

Adelphi, the Freshman honor society at Ithaca College has been reorganized and will be known as Zeta Sigma Nu. The revamped organization features different rituals, keys and goals. The basic purpose of Zeta Sigma Nu is to stimulate high scholarship, interest and attainment by all students. The Greek letters clearly express its primary idea, "Youth seeking wisdom."

Zeta Sigma Nu accepts as members every student, either freshman or transfer, who has attained a first year average of 2.0 or above.

To encourage the high ideal embodied in its purpose, Zeta Sigma Nu hopes to sponsor a series of discussions or forums during the next semester. Suggestions by students on topics of discussion are welcomed.

The new officers of Zeta Sigma Nu are: President, Mary Arlin; Vice-President, Judy Sheep; Secretary, Sue Rork; Treasurer, Tony Scherer and Department Representatives, Barb Gresen, Lorraine Behrens, Dick Waring, Rosalie Walzet, and Susan Rosenhoelter.

Scampers (Continued from page 1) Ithaca College, initiated "Scampers" in 1934 to raise money for a revolving loan fund from which deserving juniors and seniors may borrow to aid in the completion of their education. The fund has accumulated over $2,000 and has given assistance to almost 150 students.