Let's Give Thanks

"Come Ye thankful people come"—"We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing." It won't be long before those old traditional hymns of Thanksgiving will be echoed throughout houses of worship the world over. There will be Thanksgiving sermons, pictures, television programs, and parades. In small New England towns bathed in the autumn and pre-winter setting, the story of the first pilgrims and their spiritual effect on the history of Thanksgiving will be re-told. Housewives will be busy fixing the turkey dinners, and Thanksgiving will mean a day of rest for the workers and jobholders. Thanksgiving means schools will be closed, and it means vacation for virtually everyone.

In some areas of the world, Thanksgiving is just another day. In areas of Europe, in the Soviet wastelands, in crowded India, Japan, and China, there will be no turkeys and no vacations. It will mean just another day. Unfortunately, the commercial interests have done much to take away the real meaning of Thanksgiving. It will mean just another day. "Unfortunately, the commercial interests have done much to take away the real meaning of Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving will mean a day of rest for the workers and jobholders. Thanksgiving means schools will be closed, and it means vacation for virtually everyone.

Thanksgiving means schools will be closed, and it means vacation for virtually everyone. Thanksgiving is a time to think of ours. We take so much for granted. Most of us have never experienced war or hunger. Most of us have never lived in constant fear of our very lives. Most of us have never suffered the opulence of Hitler or Stalin.

To many, this will be just "another" Thanksgiving—another vacation—another turkey dinner. In the course of all of your Thanksgiving activities, pause a moment and try to realize what you really have to be thankful for—there is so much, that it's probably hard to find a starting place. Thanksgiving is a time to think and a time to take count of our many blessings. So "Come Ye Thankful People Come" and never lose sight of the blessings and the guidance we have received from the Almighty. May this Thanksgiving be truly a time of joy and happiness and may its spirit carry through the year.

Grateful thanks will mean just another day. "Unfortunately, the commercial interests have done much to take away the real meaning of Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving will mean a day of rest for the workers and jobholders. Thanksgiving means schools will be closed, and it means vacation for virtually everyone.

Freshman Responsibility

Freshmen, soon you will be voting for your class officers. Justify your right to criticize your student government by taking an active part in it. Attend your class' meetings, and participate in its activities. Have a class that's "on the ball". It's easy for apathy and indifference to take over in a class. Don't let this happen to the class of 1963. It's up to YOU!

Job Well Done

A word of congratulations for a job well done goes to Delta Sigma Pi for successfully handling the United Fund drive at Ithaca College. The chairman of the drive, concert and dance and his committee performed a commendable job of creating interest and excitement for the drive at the college.

French Exchange Student

Is Enrolled in Art's School

Students walking through Ithaca College's halls have probably noticed the 5th brown eyed blond haired French exchange student in residence. Christine is taking Liberal Art courses here at college and also is an instructor for the French lab.

Nicole, in the southern part of France, is Christ's home along with her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bernard, her three younger sisters—Michelle, 18; Danell, 14; Mary Christine, 11; and her brother Marc, 24. Christine loves her home especially the "beautiful, clear, blue sky.

Literature Major

In France, Christine majored in literature at the Institute d'Etudes litteraires, which is similar to a university.

In the future she plans to do some touring.

This twenty year old girl has a diversified field of interest. She likes to swim, and listening to a jazz platter is one of her hobbies. One of her desires is to be able to ski. She is fond of several American music artists, and movie stars. "Diane" by Paul Anka, and "Venus" are her favorite recordings. Arne Gardasar and Rock Prento are two movie stars she really enjoys.

THE GRAPEVINE

One of the great mysteries of college life is the operation of an old and stable institution called "the grapevine." (By the way, for those of you who may not have come across the term before, "the grapevine" is what all under graduates always hear stories from. For example, we all have heard the phrase, "I got this right from the grapevine").

Unfortunately, noise, to my knowledge at any rate, has ever bothered to define exactly what "the grapevine" is. The grapevine has always managed to conceal itself quite well behind a wall of collective anonymity, acting as a kind of invisible shield to ward off detection or "decay".

Since we are here discussing the grapevine, it would be perhaps good for us to define exactly what the grapevine is and then go on to expose the evils of institution for all to see. But we will not do this for several reasons. One reason is that we are unable to come up with any simple, straightforward definition of "the grapevine." The other is simply that we use this institution too much— to be safe in exposing its evils.

The thing that we will do, which is the only solution to the problem we are able to come up with at the time, is to cite examples of how the grapevine functions in actual operation.

The story after being plucked from "the grapevine".

"Did you know that the plans for the new campus, yes, they have another great from the government or one of the foundations. I think the dean said they'll start moving out within three years. I think they were talking about what they're going to do with the present property. I think that I was talking about a use for the snack bar. Although I couldn't be sure."

"The story after being plucked from "the grapevine".

"Guess who was in the snack bar today? No, you know who that is right... and guess who was with him... you guessed it, the two of them.""}

"Well let me see, I didn't exactly hear the whole story, but the way I heard it they were talking about the new campus. One of them said that everything would be ready to move in two years. The other one said that considering the way things have been going in the past few years, he thought it would be more like twenty."

"They got some money from the government. I think it was something like 400 million, or 500 million, something like that anyway."

"You know what the best part is though. This is great. I really couldn't believe it when I heard it, but I swear it's true. Somebody from the government discovered a wise colonel underneath the snack bar. Yes, it must have been some investigator, you know, someone who checks up on these outfits to see if they are Alright to give money to. Well, the story says it's been there for years. Sure, they're all mixed up in it. Are you kidding me? And then you hear this stuff about they don't know what to do with the snack bar when they move... Are you kidding me?"

Omar Khayyám writes a new jingle

A jug of Wine, A loaf of Bread and Winston's Filter-Blend!

Old Omar has come up with another corker of a couplet. Freely translated from the Persian:

"It's what's up front that counts
If it hasn't got it there it hasn't got it"

True, the lines don't scan. But what do you expect from a tent-maker—the perfect rhyme of "Winston tastes good like a cigarette should?" We'll admit that something may have been lost in the translation. But when it comes to Winston, nothing is lost in the translation of rich, good tobacco taste. That's because up front of a pure white filter Winston has Filter-Blend—a special selection of mild flavorful tobaccos specially processed for filter smoking.

Winston is designed to taste good.
On your next cigarette call The Moving Lighter lights;
Or, as Omar puts it:
"Winston's got what counts!"

THE ITHACAN

Page Three
Ryan, Boots, Leibrock, Bona - MVP's

by Greg Aversa

The Sports staff of the Ithacan has selected its third annual Most Valuable Player for the current varsity football and soccer seasons. As in the past, the staff has selected a man from the line, and one from the backfield on both varsity squads.

The Ithacan's MVP's are not to be confused with those selected by Psi Epsilon Kappa, the physical education professional fraternity, whose choices will be announced later.

Winning the honors for the football Bombers are quarterback Robert Ryan, and tackle Charlie Boots, while Philip Leibrock, center half, and Richard Bona, right wing, hold the honors for the Bomber's soccer squad.

All four men were unanimous choices of the staff.

Was also Fresh QB

Piloting the Bombers to a 5-3 won-loss season this year was 22 year old Bob Ryan, of Fair Haven, Vermont, whose quarterbacking of I.C. squads dating back to his freshman year when he called the plays for the frosh squad. Considered by squad mates and Ithaca College fans as a better than competent ball-handler, passer, and punter, this 6'1", 168 pound senior pulled the squad through some hard earned victories with his level-headedness and all around back play.

Quarterback, Bob Ryan

During the team's last encounter of the season against Alfred University, Bob set up the play in the early minutes of the contest to send Jerry Neuhas 43 yards to pay dirt. He later passed to Cola to send the latter into the end zone for another six point...

Ryan not only impressed I.C. fans with his football feats, but evidently caused enough coaching in the east to notice him, for he gained honorable mention on the All Small College North Football Squad for the 1968 season.

Varsity Baseballer

A member of the varsity baseball squad where he finds his way easily enough outside between the plates or in the outfield, Ryan has earned letters in his sophomore and junior years on the baseball roster.

He is a member of the Varsity Club and the Newman Club.

Leibrock - veteran

Breaking through the toughest center-half slot is Leibrock, a familiar figure in I.C. athletics, this center half having spent at least ten years, concluded a brilliant career in his senior year. Often called the best center by his level-headedness and all around back slot.

Leibrock and Bona Pace Soccer Squad

Bona who covered the outside left earned favorable comments from opposing coaches with his dribbling, passing, and playing-setting-up abilities.

Former footballer

This former Ithaca College footballer switched his talents to soccer when he arrived in Ithaca, getting his first taste of the game under the tutelage of Coach Dan Crow. Wood. Always ready for the fast break from his wing post, this fast moving, crazy legged bopper outmaneuvered some of the biggest defensive backs of opposing teams.

Starting in all of the nine contests, Rich scored eight points, most of which were unassisted. During his freshman year, Dick wrestled in the 137 pound class and played right field on the frosh baseball squad.

Training in a year-round habit with this flexible young athlete, the Ithaca soccer squad is Richard Bona, a veteran of many successful seasons, and their athletic careers that build the very important role of college athletics to the respected position it holds at Ithaca College.

The competition on and off the playing fields are assets to the college.

I.C. Eleven Finishes Season With 5 Wins

Take a goodly portion of veteran performers, add it to a group of bustling juniors, and mix carefully with surprising sophomore talent—the resulting concoction should prove fatal to 5 out of 7 gridiron opponents ... as it did in Ithaca College Football 1959.

An honor student and named to the Dean's List last spring, Rich is presently pledging Phi Epsilon Kappa, the professional physical education fraternity.

Every Thursday night Ithaca College television presents a thirty minute musical called "Showcase." The show features college students who sing, dance, and do comedy routines with the accompaniment of a three piece band.

The host and male vocalist of the show is Chet Curtis, who has a wide background in music. Chet has worked at numerous radio stations before doing work in television, and singing club dates in and around the capital district.

Here at Ithaca College, Chet has played roles in three major college productions, Scapin, 18-59, The Egg and I, and Busa Yankees. Chet sings songs which range from show tunes and standards, to some of the good new tunes.

The female vocalist and a veteran on showcases is Chris Page.

Chris is well known in Ithaca and sings with the Jazz Explorers at Leonardos. The productions of Chris' songs is unique in the fact that Jack Cantwell is always getting in the act as Chris is supposed to be trying to catch Jack in the game of love.

Four weeks now and he has managed to escape the herd but who knows, maybe this week Chris will catch him.

A second female vocalist is featured each week. Previous ones have been: Marcel Abbott, and Marcey Schellman, and this week Miss Elle Dwight will be on hand to supply the entertainment.

Dance number each week

A dance number is featured each week and this usually done by Dick DeNour who dances alone every other week and with Margaret Ackerman between weeks. Quite a large production is done each week to add color to the dance.

The comedy acts are handled by Jack Cantwell, Charlie Mize, and Ken Murray, who teams up to present a different comedy setting each week. One week they may be the Castro brothers and the next the Three Stooges, but whatever they are, it always adds up to a lot of laughs.

Of course no music show is complete without music and this is supplied by George Hodgeott who is the bass player and musical director of the group. Gary Nino on drums, and a guest piano player each week. This week Jeff Baker will be featured.

The band accompanies acts between playing at least one solo during the show. All types of music are played by the trio.

Outlook network

Put the acts together, add artistic scenery and sets, and the final product spells entertainment and enjoyment to the students and towns people alike.

A survey taken last year showed that Showcase outranked two network shows on the cable which is a fitting tribute to the cast of the show.

Credit must be given to the crew behind the scenes which make the show possible.

Dean Murray director

The show is under the direction of Ted Kavanau, and the assistant director is Richie Newman.

Others in the crew include: Hans Hansen, floor manager; John Elspa, and Ted Jones, cameramen; Jim Aversa and Dave Cantwell, lighting; Hugh Chiat, composer; Doug Trenor, Switcher; Don Rich, audio; and Bill Zdech, the announcer.

Showcase is broadcast over Ithaca College cable channel two at 8 p.m. every Thursday.

Bomber Eleven Defeats Brockport

points before the halftime break. George Maurer scored first on a three yard thrust, and Ryan flipped to junior end Jim Rafferty for a 64 yard touchdown play. Guinan added his second field goal of the season plus two extra points. The Bombers picked up two more tally in the second half. Bob Valesente scrambled 44 yards and senior end Ship Segal made a sensational grab of a Ryan end zone pass. Charlie Boots added both extra points via placement.

Bombers stars

In the lone night contest of the campaign, IC, led by Jim Bradshaw traveled to Wilkes Barre, Pa., to rout the Kings College Monarchs, 29-6.

Bradshaw, who led the team in rushing this season with an average of 6.8 yards per carry, contributed touchdowns runs of 31 and 18 yards respectively as he amassed 269 yards in 16 carries. John Damby and Jerry Neufang also scored for IC.

Kings was limited to 24 yards rushing by the strong IC defensive unit led by seniors Mike Angelo, Steve Bedosky, Charlie Boots, and Joe Dailey.

Loss to Cortland

The Cortland Red Dragons disappointed a Fall Weekend Homecoming crowd by handing IC its second loss of the season, 13-7. IC scored first with Jim Bradshaw capping a 64 yard drive, and Guinan adding the point after.

The injury-laden Bombers were unable to maintain their 7-6 halftime advantage and yielded the final Cortland tally early in the 3rd period.

Defeat C.W. Post

In its final road game of the season, IC set back C.W. Post at Long Island, N.Y., 33-0. Bradshaw tallied two touchdowns and Gary Hill the other in leading the Bombers to their fourth win of the season.

Jim Rafferty, John Damby and Ron Segal combined their efforts in blocking two Post punts which set up IC touchdowns. Eighteen seniors played their final games as the Bombers closed the 1959 season on a successful note, beating Alfred University 30-0 at rain-soaked South Hill.

Defense rugged

Al “Hurry” Cain, a thorn to opponents all season, made many fine runs as did Valesente and Bradshaw. The IC defensive unit played its most inspiring game of the season in holding Alfred to a 9 yard rushing total.

Guinan completed 4 out of 6 placement kicks, bringing his season total to 11.

Coach Lyon in his two years as IC mentor, has compiled an 11-3 won-lost record. Last year the Bombers had a 6-1 record, losing only to Cortland.
