Dedication

In dedicating this yearbook to Herman E. Muller, the class of 1966 honors the memory of a man who for fifteen years served as Chairman of the Ithaca College Board of Trustees.

Mr. Muller's devotion to the College, from which both his wife and son graduated, was reflected in his untiring efforts on its behalf. It was under his leadership that a new campus arose on South Hill. In many ways he showed his loyalty to the faculty and administration and concern for the welfare of the students.

The College suffered a grievous loss in the tragic death of its Board Chairman and his wife, Florence. They will both be long remembered by their many College friends. The name of Muller will not be forgotten on our campus. The erection of an interfaith chapel was, for the past several years, an often mentioned favorite project of Mr. Muller's. The Herman E. Muller Memorial Chapel will be a most fitting memorial to a man loved and respected by the Ithaca College community.

On a quiet day in summer once,
earth said:

let meanings move,
let the rhythmic pulse of change sway the air,
let the lingering warmth of summer
breathe the first prophecy of september.

O, let youth feel the stinging numb
of autumn’s first frost and awaken to the promise of what is to come.
It is September and we have come to Ithaca College. This miniature world upon a wind-swept hill is strange to us — frightening and new. When will we call it home?
Lost in a maze of unexplored corridors and unfamiliar rooms, we are surrounded by strange voices and laughter — engulfed by a myriad of strange faces. Like the spinning colors of a kaleidoscope, the first days pass — an opaque blur of colored confusion and activity.
Yet the confusion is not overwhelming, for a sense of challenge sobers our thoughts. The future is pregnant with opportunity — success or failure lies ahead. The challenge, we realize, must be met — alone.
To be alone in September is a feeling we will not soon forget. But youth is a potent tonic and the excitement of campus life is an excellent cure for our doubts and fears.
Meet your roommate,
meet your neighbor,
make snap judgements,
change your mind.
Meet the Bombers,
meet the teachers,
buy your books if you can find — the TIME!
College, we soon discover, leaves little time for thoughts of solitude. We are catapulted into a world without privacy, a world demanding compromise and cooperation. A vital lesson must be learned: a lesson in tolerance and understanding.
Yes, it was September. But the confusion of our initial introduction has subsided. We have regained some semblance of self-assurance and discovered a new motivation, a new impetus in the endless process of maturing. Life adopts a certain familiarity as faces become names and names become people. As the pattern sharpens — the mist begins to rise from South Hill.
“We rowed into the fog
and out through fog.

O, how blue,
How bright the wide sea.”

Ithaca College posted its 27th consecutive winning season in varsity baseball under the fine leadership of James A. (Bucky) Freeman. The Bombers season of 13 victories and 6 losses included five losses by a one run margin to Army, Farleigh Dickinson, St. Lawrence, East Stroudsburg, and West Chester. Three of these games had to be decided in extra innings. The Bombers outhit their opponents .291 to .222 with six team members hitting better than .300. Frank Fazio, a sophomore third baseman, led the team with a .490. Other hitters included Jerry Foody, .333, and Don Lando, .329. The Bombers also showed promising new talent among their sophomores and juniors. Lou DiParisi batted .327, Dan Haire .314, and Dave Barton .306. All of these players will be available next year.

The team played an equally well defensive game with Craig Fox, sophomore, leading the pitchers with a 3-0 record and an earned run average of 0.87. He was backed up by George Valesente, 2-1, with an ERA of 1.12; Tom McHugh, 1-0, ERA 2.48; and Mike Kenyon, 4-3, with an earned run average of 2.57.

Coach Freeman, who has built Ithaca College baseball teams into ranking among the major college and university aggregations of the East, certainly took pride in the accomplishments of his last team here at Ithaca College.

With a record of nine wins out of eleven meets, the 1965 Ithaca College varsity track team had the second best season in the Bombers' 32 years of competition. Coached by Mearl H. (Mike) Greene, the team place fifth among 16 colleges at the New York College Track and Field Assn. Championships.

This season was highlighted by many new records. Outstanding among these was Warren Campbell, already holder of the College's mile and two-mile records, adding the 880 to his laurels with a 1:55.3. Bob Congdon, sophomore, posted a 50.6 in the 440 to break a record that has stood for 24 years. Jim Harris established a new record in the 220 of 21.9 seconds.

Unfortunately, Coach Greene lost six of his squad through graduation: Capt. Ted Terray, triple jump recordholder and broad jumper; Len Muhlich, 100, 200, and relay; William Millard, mile and two-mile; Herb Kahl, relay and 100; Steve Hood, hurdles; and Michael Harwood, high jump. Coach Greene will have twelve lettermen returning next season, plus promising recruits from this year's freshman squad.
Varsity Golf

The varsity golf team, coached by Herbert Broadwell, completed a winning season with a 5-3-1 record. Hampered by bad weather in the early part of the season, the team had a late start in beginning their practice. Despite this handicap, fine performances were turned in by Phil Sandler, Bob McGuckin, and Tom Connolly, all of whom were members of the team last year. Coach Broadwell was also fortunate enough to have four other players return from the previous year. They were Mark Silverman, Bill Miller, Le Ven Gibson, and Dick Kaupp. In the game against Rochester Tech, the match went down to the last hole before Ithaca lost 5-4. One of the highlights of the season occurred when Phil Sandler beat his younger brother, Ted, from Harpur. All home matches are played on the scenic Municipal Golf Course located near Stewart Park.

For the first time in over 20 years, Ithaca College had a lacrosse team of its own. Coached by C. LoVecchio and Nick Gordon, the team was able to play four games; however, inexperience was a key factor in the team's inability to win any games. Only three players had previous experience in lacrosse, and a few players, who suffered injuries, were unable to complete the season. Some of the finer performances were turned in by Albert Shuckle as goalie, Russ Turner on attack, Ken Gerbino and Ken Takayama in the midfield, and Fred Fusara on defense. The best effort by the team was made in the home game against Cornell where Ithaca College was leading the Cornell Frosh until the last quarter. Despite the unsuccessful season, the lacrosse team showed an amazing amount of team spirit throughout the whole season. Plans are actively continuing to make lacrosse a permanent fixture on the Ithaca College spring sport’s schedule.
Led by fine pitching and strong hitting, Coach Hugh Hurst's freshman baseball team finished their season with a 9-4 record. Three of the nine wins were against Cornell, of which the third game, led by Art Marangi's two hits, was decided in the 11th inning. One of the highlights of the season was the 4-0 shutout over Cortland with fine performances by Pete Anderson, who struck out 7 and walked 2. Larry Reusch was 4 for 4 and drove in three of his teammates.

Reusch led the whole team with .415 batting average and 22 hits. In his first 15 times at plate he had 9 hits. Next were Dan Curtin and Russ Marron, both with .353. Marron knocked in two Bomber runs with a double against Cornell, and Curtin's double helped win the Brockport game (7-1). Third in the batting average with .348 was Bob Armstrong. The team's biggest drive of the season was 7 runs in the 7th inning against Hobart.

The winning season was also attributed to a fine performance from the pitchers. John Rowan led the team with four wins and one loss with 29 strikeouts to his credit. Pete Anderson struck out 37 batters.

Despite the disappointment of a losing season, the Ithaca College freshman track season produced some fine individual performances. Pete Toomey led the team with 121½ total points for the season. Tony Destefano was next with 60½ points, followed by Ken Aluisio with 59½ points. Led by record breakers Toomey and Robbins, the Bombers placed fourth in the second annual Oswego Freshman Invitational Track Meet. Toomey jumped 21 feet 7¾ inches, and Robbins hurled the javelin 153 feet. Lou Spiotti and Tony Destefano were also winners in the tournament. The teams three good shotputters, Chuck Shirmer, Bill Horn, and Roger McMahon, and the discus thrower, Lou Spiotti, all added to the team's accomplishments. The weaknesses of the freshman team paralleled those of the varsity. The freshmen were weak in the 880, the two mile, and the relay team; however, the sprint relay team did well.

The Ithaca College Bombers completed their first undefeated season in the College's 33-year intercollegiate football history with an outstanding 8-0 record. With only 14 lettermen returning, the smallest number since 1960, the team chalked up 204 points to 76 for their opponents. The team had many skilled defensive and offensive players. Len Tyler, Little All-American tackle of 1964, and Captain Larry Turel, defensive guard, led the team in tackles. Jim Harris, senior quarterback, led the club to victories with his amazing running and passing ability. Junior halfback, Frank Fazio, was exceptional as a rusher, pass receiver, and placement kicker.

Many records were broken or tied during the season. Harris holds the College's single season passing record, 1,269 yards; touchdown passes, 9; passes attempted, 152; and passes completed 89. Fazio had 16 points after touchdowns for a season record. Bob Glazier led the Bombers in rushing with 459 yards on 93 rushes for a 4.9 average per carry. Dan Iezzi was second with 258 yards.

Leading the pass receivers with 30 grabs for 448 yards was Fazio, while Alan Guenther was second with 24 receptions for 403 yards. Fazio also led the team with the most points scored achieving 60 points on 7 touchdowns, 16 placements, and one two-point conversion. Glazier was next with five touchdowns and a two-point PAT, while Harris was third with 26 points on four touchdowns and a two-point play. The season produced some close and exciting moments for the loyal and exuberant Bomber supporters. The 13-12 thriller over Cortland was certainly one of the highlights of the season. Down by 12 points late in the third period, the Bombers tallied 13 points to achieve their fourth victory. The closest game of the season was against Bridgeport where the Bombers were tied with the Bridgeport team until, with less than a minute of play left, the Ithaca College team scored the winning touchdown.

Coach Dick Lyon, who has compiled a fine 74 per cent winning record since becoming coach in 1956 declared, "This was the best 'team' effort I have ever seen."

Ithaca College's varsity soccer team completed an impressive season with a 10-0-1 record marking the first time that the soccer team had an undefeated season. Highlighting the season was an invitation to participate in the first round of the NCAA National University Division Playoff Tournament.

In 11 contests, Ithaca scored 64 goals to its opponents' seven. Of special significance was the last two games with a 2-0 win over Cortland and a 3-0 shutout against Brockport. Seven of the 11 games ended in shutouts. Coach Carlton Wood's Bombers were led by All-American candidates, Sandor Szabo and James Benedek. Szabo, who was the national scoring leader last year, booted home 35 tallies this season. Szabo has booted 100 goals in four seasons at Ithaca, and led the nation with 29 last year. Benedek, considered playmaker of the team, had 12 goals this season.

Among the other outstanding players who helped the team to achieve its 10 victories defensively were Dan Amendola, Ray Fell, and Lou DiParisi; and offensively, Co-captains Bruce Gordon and George Valesente.

The one tie came in a hard fought battle with Hartwick and the only loss of the year was a 2-1 decision with Brown in the NCAA playoff game. Coach Carlton Wood summarized the season by saying that this was the best soccer team in the College's history.

A hard working freshman football team showed a great deal of hustle and desire despite the record of 1 win and 4 losses. Coach John Shisler's team, after losing the first game to powerful Manlius, came back with a decisive win against Cortland, which proved to be the highlight of the season. Helping with this win against Cortland was the fine effort made by the team's blockers. In the backfield, halfback Andy Portanova carried the ball 22 times for 129 yards. Fullback Ed Kowalski lugged the ball 10 times for a total of 54 yards. Among the top blockers for this game and the season were Tom Tyksinski, Dave Shakes, and Tom Forte. Defensively, Ithaca was led by linebacker, John Gunderman, fullback, Greg Coe, and defensive back, Ron Penna. Throughout the season many of the players were doing double duty, serving on both offense and defense.

The freshman soccer team showed a fine display of individual talent to compile their 6-3-2 record. The team was made up of 32 players from seven states and one from England. Coach George Moore was pleased with the overall strength of his club. The top scorer for the season was Daryl Sato from Honolulu, Hawaii. Arthur Bailey and Carl Cooper did an outstanding job on defense. Co-captains Bob Joly and Dale Dirk were good leaders and gave 100 per cent effort on their job. Terry Habecker did a fine job as right halfback and Doug Johnson was noted especially for his fast running ability. In the season opener against Cornell's frosh, the Bombers came out on top 2-1, with Daryl Sato and Dale Van Dirk doing the scoring. Coach Moore cited the Brockport game as an outstanding team effort despite the fact that the squad lost. The highlight of the season was the match against Cortland when the Bombers won 2-1 in overtime. This year's freshman team was especially strong in defense which should be very valuable to next year's varsity squad.

With five lettermen returning, Coach Hugh Hurst built the Ithaca College varsity basketball team around speed and experience. The Bombers started the season with impressive victories over Plattsburg, Wilkes, Lock Haven and Cortland. After five games the team averaged 87.6 points per game to their opponents 79.4. Some fine shooting was displayed by Don Andrejko contributing 16 points to the Ithaca attack against Hartwick. Barry LaLonde, 6 foot 5, led his team with 20 points against Albany State to finish their homestand with a 93-79 victory.

Wayne Lyke was the top scorer for the team with a cumulative total of 289 points after 16 games with an average of 18 points per game. George Valesente followed second with a total of 239 points averaging 14.9 per game. Third was Don Andrejko with 197 points and an average of 12.3. Lyke led in field goals with 111 out of 267 attempts and in free throws with 67 out of 82 tries. Other fine performances were turned in by Frank Fazio and Jimmy Harris. Despite some heartbreaking losses, the Bombers displayed an enormous amount of team spirit throughout the whole season.
Coach Herbert Broadwell's varsity wrestling team had many unfortunate problems this year due to sickness and injury. The Ithaca coach used 22 different wrestlers in trying to put together a respectable line-up. Co-captain Bob Franciamone, competing at 137, was undefeated in 12 matches and had a winning streak of 12 straight over two years. Co-captain John Sacchi suffered his first loss in the Brockport match and had a season mark of 8-1. Other outstanding varsity matmen were Howie Peirano, with an 8-2 record; Mike Turco, 6-1; and Gary Foote, 3-1. In the season opener against Clarkson, Neil DeRosa registered the Bombers only pin. After dropping five out of six on the road, the team returned home to win two decisive victories over Cortland and the University of Buffalo. They closed the season by competing in the 4-1 tournament in Cleveland, Ohio where they were the defending champions.

The Ithaca College hockey team, despite the handicap of having a small number of skaters, ended second in the Finger Lakes College Hockey League. Coach George Moore's team displayed some fine talent led by the top scorer, Bob Aloian. After 17 games Aloian led the team with 32 goals and 20 assists with Tom McHugh second with 13 goals and 22 assists. Ken Gerbino turned in a fine job as goalie throughout the season. In the game against Oswego the Bombers led 5-3 at halftime, but they lost 9-6 due to the lack of skaters available. Two decisive victories for the team were against the University of Buffalo team winning 10-4 and 7-2.
The Ithaca College freshman basketball team established a new Bomber record for collegiate victories in one season when Coach Bob Congdon's men chalked up their 15th win against Oswego. The freshman team had depth, balance and height to add to their success. The 6 foot 6 twin brothers, William and John Gustafson; Greg Albano 6 foot 4 and Don Bahrenburg, 6 foot 3, made this one of the tallest freshman teams. Steven Hoffman was the top scorer for the Cubs with Gregory Albano second and Dale Dirk third. Ed Kowalski was the leading rebounder.

Coach Congdon was pleased with the hard work put in by the whole team, especially with their ability to come from behind. In the game against Hartwick the Cubs were down by 17 and then came from behind to win 67-64. One of the highlights of the season was against Buffalo State when the team trailed by 16 and rallied to win 95-93 on a 25 foot jump-shot by Dave Rosenthal with one second left in the game. One of the key victories was against Oswego who had previously lost only one game.

September, with its fears and aspirations, has vanished. June has brought these special years to a close and left us reflecting on the past.
Youth, with its heart geared to the future, is unaccustomed to glancing backwards. Though we are proud to have achieved our purpose, our pride is mixed with a lingering melancholy. We must leave.
We are leaving the energy and excitement of campus life.
We are leaving long hours of books and study . . .
... many private moments, many hopes and many dreams.
Most of all, we are leaving friends: people who have helped us learn, helped us grow — people who have grown with us.
June breathes a sentimental sigh for these years. We will remember, though we must find a new September.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF '66
SAGA FOOD SERVICE
The purpose of this year's Cayugan is to personify the special character of our senior class. It is a class not of tradition but one of innovation; not of rigidity but of flexibility; "not of being but of becoming."

It is not only the senior class who exemplifies these ideals but the college and its administration. It is through their guidance that this yearbook is made possible. We owe our special thanks to Mr. Tony Bruculere, Carol Studios, Inc., Mr. and Mrs. C. Hadley Smith, Mr. David Talbot and Miss Margaret Gibson.
