Clarkson Jolts Ithaca; Passing Attack In 2nd Quarter Catches Game

LYON'S CHORAL CLUB
To Appear In Elmira

The Ithaca College Choir under the direction of Bert Rogers Langdon, a famous organist and composer, will make its first appearance in Elmira. In the past, the choir has been heard in the East and South, and has been widely acclaimed. The choir consists of thirty members and is divided into two sections: the men and boys and the women and girls. The choir has been well received in every city it has visited, and is expected to do well in Elmira.

OLYMPIC GAMES

The Olympic Games at Ithaca were enjoyed by all who attended. The games were held on the campus lawn, and were open to all students. The events included running, jumping, throwing, and swimming. The winners were awarded medals and certificates.

NEW YORK DIRECTOR PRAISES L. C. STUDENT

All Ithaca College is most glad to see that Thomas Kelly, Ithaca's young man and a student here last year in the Drama Department, will be on his return from touring in the Junior League Follies in Elmira this week. Mr. Kelly, who has already been mentioned in these columns, is expected to finish his tour with the Ithaca College Band, which is due in Elmira next week. In his recent appearances, Mr. Kelly has been seen in the leading roles of the show and has received much applause.

ROBERT'S NEW PLAY

To Be Witnessed by Prominent Visitors

The greatly anticipated date has finally arrived—November 27, which marks the opening of Walter Charles Roberts' latest play, "The Roman Carnival," which exhibition has been created by the students of the Ithaca College Drama Department. The play is said to be the first in the history of war days only with one purpose, to heighten the activities of the American Red Cross nurses as seen by the author, who was stationed in France. The 7th Division at Chatenay-Til- fray, France, during the World War.

Immediately following the presentation of "Red Harvest" to the war audience will hold a reception in Elmira Hall to the students of all colleges who are interested in the play, as well as to many prominent visitors. Many distinguished individuals will be present from out-of-town whom are: Mr. Burgaasen, Johnson, Director of Public Re- relief at Ithaca College, and his party of four; Mrs. Room, operating the English in the Ithaca High School for the Blind; Mr. George, Teacher of English, N.Y., and his party of two; Mr. Pay, Bronko, from New York City; Dr. Joe...

FIRST GAME
for extra point was good and allotted Clarkson a 20-point lead. The band ended with Ithaca trying to score by way of the air route.

Clarkson received at the opening of the second half and Hustman returned the kickoff to midfield. Theers gathered in Hustman's 10-yard pass and then a steady pounding of the Ithaca line by Clarkson produced the final score. Hustman kicked the extra point.

Clarkson then chose to play a defensive game. All attempts of Ithaca to score were well checked except a beautiful 25 yard run by Hatch that was finally stopped by Hustman.

Clarkson won the game and went on to win easily at the end of the second half and with Hustman proving to be a reliable and accurate player.

This Saturday the Blue and Gold meet Hartwick at Hartwick.

The Institute of English Horn in this scene is done by Ray Howard. The English Horn is the pastoral shepherd's horn with its peculiarly distinctive sound.

The second movement, "In a Caucasian scene, and presents another definitely pictorial scene. Adept at such tonal description lvanov's term of service as chief musician in the town of Tiflis, south of Caucasus, where he studied Caucasian national music, served to imbibe within him the spirit of the country. This was rich material for his talents, and his works made a deep impression on Tschaikowsky.

Concerning this particular composition, the following information is interesting. "The Suite contains four typical Caucasian scenes, and opens with the picture, Dans le defile."

The horn call and its echo are heard at the outset; it consits of a phrase of four notes, and whatever else goes on throughout the movement, this phrase is ever present. With a descending sinuous movement, this phrase is ever present.
