College Choir Performs Professionally Under Lyon

This past Sunday evening, January 29, the College Choir under the direction of Bert Rogers Lyon gave a concert in the auditorium. The College Choir is our most important musical organization. And, certainly, as they work with their conductor, their phrasing is active, their rhythm is exact, and their ensemble is solid.

The program was well organized and all songs were sung properly. It was an excellent evening of music.

Elizabeth, Queen On Drama Dept.

PLAY IS ONE OF ANDERSON'S BEST

Marjorie Anderson's Elizabeth the Queen as the fourth vehicle of the 3rd season offers Ithaca College players something new and different from types of plays tried in the past—drama in poetry. Elizabeth was poetic drama, but it was also acted—rehearsed firmly, with strong emotional coloration and achieving dramatic beauty, by incorporating its very essence into the final dramatic play. The author's interpretation, as such, is not theproduct of a single writer's dynamic effort but an interplay of voices (soprano, tenor, and bass) in the overall musical texture of the play.

The director, Carl Schrader, has rhythmical sequence, direction, and the entire game and was never forced to their advantage. As a first-year student, the Freshman choir members sang their parts with enthusiasm and were well supported by the orchestra and the entire cast.

To the lovely melodies were added the voices of the Freshmen and Varsity hoopmen, defeating the opponents in the last game of the season.

Armstrong, O'Neill, Abbott, Charbonneau, Beal, and others contributed to the success of the performance.

CALLING ALL JITTERBUGS

Now has come the time for every good dance man to look to his laurels, for, by popular request, the Ithacan will run a ballot for selecting an "All-Ithaca" band. The qualifications of any one nominated should be:

- On Thurs. and Fri. of next week the traditional Ithaca College ballot and ticket-box will be placed in the lobby to receive your first ballot. That issue will contain the results of those first two days of voting.
- Then there will be open balloting for American Theater in Performing Arts. There are none, except that he be a local musician. The rules are:

- There will be an additional ballot for swing band. Not only that, but you also will have an opportunity to vote on your favorite "horn" musicians to fill the chairs of our "All-Ithaca" corn and square-dance band.

The personnel of each will be:

1st, 2nd and 3rd trumpets, the 2nd doubling on clarinet as the "ride" man; 1st and 2nd tenor saxophones, the 2nd doing the solo work; 1st, 2nd and 3rd cornets, 2nd doing the solo work; alto and bass saxophones.

You will have a chance to hear the selected swing band at a dance to be sponsored by the Music Dept. in March. We hope, too, that the other selected band will lead us in the square dance. So be sure to cast your hand-written ballot to determine the music you will dance to that evening.
