The first hurdle of the season was the annual Freshman Frolics. The event was scheduled to take place on November 15, in the Little Theatre, under the leadership of Dr. Kenneth Flaherty, the President of Ithaca College. The Frolics were a source of excitement for the freshmen, who were eager to participate in the games and events planned for the night.

The theme for the Frolics was "Three Outdoor Games," and the program included a variety of activities, such as "Pepper Ball," "Wall Ball," and "Egg and Spoon." These games were designed to encourage teamwork, physical activity, and friendly competition among the freshmen.

The Frolics were also a chance for the freshmen to get to know each other and make new friends. The event was a celebration of the spirit of the college and the enthusiasm of its students.

The Frolics were a highlight of the academic year, and the students were looking forward to the fun and excitement that they promised to bring.

Dr. Reinly: "I am not sure if you remember, but I was in charge of the Freshman Frolics. It was a great event, and I hope we can make it even better next year."
Letters to the Editor

The Editor:

If ever I saw something of which the school should be justly ashamed, it was the turnout at the student recital held Wednesday, November 13. Of course, there were a few people present, but it was a most disheartening sight. It is time that something should be done.

Fraternally Yours

Phi Mu Alpha

It's heigh-oh again from the cliffs dwelling. The ladies from the upper fraternity halls are now settling down nicely into the old routine. Next item on the calendar is the traditional Sunday Nite Supper, to be held Nov. 17. The man holding the pot luck will be Mr. C. E. Bigelow, brother Stubby McNaughton. The week following, the rest of the team are Brothers Hacker, Riemersma, Jarvis, Carr, and Riemersma. This will be an advertisement for an evening out.

The pledges of Phi Mu Alpha are beginning to shape up very well. They all seem to have the right sense of humor. It is also time happily and cheerfully carrying out the wishes of the older and wiser men. It is anticipated that in due time they all will prove themselves capable of a normal everyday way of life.

Delta Phi Zeta

Delta Phi has begun its annual week of Rush Parties. The first, "Come As You Are," was held Nov. 5, and was a big success. The second, held Nov. 13, had a comic strip motif. The parties are under the chairmanship of the new Nitte of Phi Delta. This Nitte is comprised of the following: Strong, Rapp, Martin, and a very late already has been chosen for next spring's Mad Hatters Ball • March 28. So all you fellows with your leftover pennies, come and help us out.

Three of our sisters have returned to their respective teaching and have resumed residence at Delta Phi. These sisters are: Margaret, Ruth, Fredericks, and Rita Vadakin.

Griffis and Westminster

Open House Dance

House parties at Griffis and Westminster Halls this week-end were the result of various activities planned for the enjoyment of all the students. Tonight the girls at Westminster are holding a party at their house, and Griffis is having a house dance from 8 to 12 p.m. for all Ithaca College men.

The galas were well planned and depicted in an attractive manner. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. David Riemersma, Jarvis, Carr, and in conjunction with Phi Delta Pi. The guests at the dance were Dr. and Mrs. Stire, Mr. Kleck, and Mr. and Mrs. Broadwell.

Griffis is a two-story house with ample space and is well lighted. The dance is limited to men from Ithaca College.

Fraternities ＆ Sororities

Fraternal News

The Ithaca chapter of Phi Delta Pi was organized two years ago. The organization consists of the following: Florence Fields, Myrtle Stotler, Clara Davidson, Maryann Williams, Bea Kandel, and Mary Ann Considine.

The organization has two main aims. The first is to identify the scholastic needs of the community and to determine the manner in which they can best be met. The second is to cooperate with the school authorities in the provision of educational opportunities for students.

The Ithaca chapter of Phi Delta Pi is currently working on a project to organize a local chapter of the National College Women's Congress. The chapter will work to bring together women from all walks of life to discuss and take action on issues affecting women's lives.

In addition to the above, the chapter is also working on a number of service projects. These include organizing a food bank, volunteering at local schools, and providing mentorship to high school students.

The chapter meets on a regular basis, and members are encouraged to participate in as many activities as possible. For more information, please contact the chapter advisor at

The Ithaca chapter of Phi Delta Pi is committed to promoting the advancement of women in education and society, and to providing opportunities for leadership and service in the community.
SPORTS

Teachers to Play 2 Games With I.C.

Ithaca College has resumed competition with one of its arch-rivals, Cortland. Since the fall of 1943, the Cortland State Teachers Basketball squad will meet the Teachers Basketball squad—one home and one away. I.C. is playing Cortland instead of Mansfield, its other home game.

Preliminaries to the Varsity games will be played by either the Teachers Basketball squad or the Junior Varsity of Cortland. The Teachers Basketball squad will also tackle the Moravian State Teachers and the Varsity squads will also meet the J.V. squads scheduled to meet the J.V. squad.

THE UP-BEAT

By Bob Cook

It was indeed a cold, defeating and disappointing sight to see so many of our good students in the gymnasium. There were no signs of the old days of enthusiasm and spirit. But it's not too late to change that.

In fact, it's never too late. But we can't afford to let our guard down. We must continue to fight for our rights and privileges. And we must remember that the struggle is not over.

The students of Ithaca College have every right to expect a fair and equitable treatment by the administration. They have every reason to be proud of their school and to demand the best.

Now, it's time for us to come together and fight for our rights. Let's make our voices heard and let's make our presence felt.
