Rural Network to Feature IC Artists’ Series

Dr. Haines' office has announced that the Ithaca College Artists series of music and dramatic programs for radio, consisting of five half-hour programs of outstanding interest to the public, will be broadcast over the statewide network of Rural Radio Network from 1:30 to 2:00 o'clock next Tuesday, February 20 to March 20 inclusive.

Each program will be a five broadcast and will be especially prepared for radio audiences. Participating in the programs will be both faculty and students, representing some of the best talent in the college.

The purpose of the series is to bring Ithaca College to the favorable attention of a wide public by means of artistic performances in three of the College's primary areas: music, drama and radio. The series will receive extensive radio public relations publicity by the network, which estimates its normal Sunday afternoon audience at 500,000.

The program on February 20 will feature the popular piano duo, Pratchett and Tague, and a faculty string quartet consisting of Milton Cherry, Mary Cherry, Gladys Bauman, and Miriam Nadeau.

On February 27 a dramatic production will be presented by students in the department of drama and music theory at the college, accompanied by Dr. Bert Remsen, director of the series, and Professor Conrad H. Rawski, associate professor of music theory at the college, will be musical director and will discuss the programs at the network.

On March 6, with a program by the 65-piece Ithaca College band.

On March 13 the program will feature faculty ensembles, consisting of Phyllis Pulaski, Carl Wack, Forrest Sandifer, Horace Cowan, and Margarette Squires, and a student orchestra of the 65-piece Ithaca College Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. Conrad H. Rawski, associate professor of music and chairman of music theory, will be musical director and will prepare and deliver the commentaries, explanatory and interpretive program notes on the musical selections on each program.

Professor Craig McHenry of the Music Department will be musical director of the series, and Professor John Greller of the Radio Department will be program director.

Publicity Campaign Aids Success of “Caesar”

Largely, largest! The much publicized production of Julius Caesar, now playing on the IC stage, has in all probability, one of the most important “firsts” of the Drama Department. The huge cast of sixty-six actors, each student and each faculty, due to the size of the cast, would make it the most difficult task to prepare and deliver, as commentaries, explanatory and interpretive program notes on the musical selections on each program.

Professor Craig McHenry of the Music Department will be musical director of the series, and Professor John Greller of the Radio Department will be program director.

Community House Starts Negro Acting Course

A three months course in acting, open to all Negroes from sixteen to thirty-five, was started Wednesday night, January 19, at the Southside Community House. The course requires enrollment. Classes will be held Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 8:30 under the direction of Mrs. Robert McLeod, formerly director of the Negro Theatre Guild. All students and personal contacts of the course will be either students or employees of the city, and have any interest in theater arts or cordially invited to attend. Mrs. McLeod has announced that out of this class a play producing group can be organized.

“Three Cheers” Scheduled Feb. 9 to 12; Committee Satisfied with Progress

Everyone knows about it! People want to see it! It's the biggest topic of conversation on the campus! It is "Three Cheers," the 1949 production of the Ithaca College Drama Society.

There will be new hit tunes to set the school hummimg, eye-catching dance routines, and hilarious comedy scenes in this year's Oracle-sponsored musical. A full house is expected every night from February 9th to "closing time" on the 12th.

Drama Dept. Schedules Komisarjevsky Lecture

Sunday, January 30th, will be a notable day at Ithaca College when Theodore Komisarjevsky, world-renowned director, producer, and scenico-costume designer speaks before Drama students and guests at 2:00 p.m. in the Auditorium.

Mr. Komisarjevsky will attend the evening performance of Julius Caesar as guest of Mr. Eugene Wood of the Drama faculty and discuss the authoritative version of this play with interested students the following day.

Although born in Italy, Mr. Komisarjevsky's family home was Russia and it was there, in Petrograd (now Leningrad) that he began his theatrical career in 1907. Since then he has been associated with many productions of operatic and dramatic significance in Europe, England, and the United States. His varied talents include producing, directing, and designing costumes and scenery. In addition, he is the author of several plays, a number of books on the theatre, and of the authoritative The Costume of the Theatre.

For his visit to Ithaca College is in line with the Drama Department's policy of sponsoring lectures by theater luminaries to supplement classroom discussion. Drama students have been privileged to hear Morris Carnovsky, stage and screen actor and an alumnus of the famous Group Theatre, and Nosmen, American author and writer.

He is a director of last year's Broadway production, Macbeth which starred Michael Redgrave and Flora Rob-ison.
