Foreword

Time is a sort of a river of passing events, and strong is its current. No sooner is a thing brought to sight than it is swept by and another takes its place, and this too will be swept away.

Marcus Aurelius.

The purpose of the 1951 Edition of the CAYUGAN is to record the deeds of the men and women who for the past four years, embodied the spirit of Ithaca College. In the years to come this yearbook will keep alive the memories gathered during their undergraduate days. The future years will bring new faces and new buildings to change the campus scene, but there shall always be this record of the people they knew, the things they did, and the scenes that are still dear to them.

ITHACA COLLEGE 1951
Blueprints....
After four years it is good-bye.

They have been good years for most of us; how good you will learn only in the years ahead. They will have been fruitful years if this is the commencement rather than the ending. All our hopes for you are based upon the fact of commencement. All our good wishes are yours whatever the years may bring. It's now good luck! Straight sailing! God speed and good-bye.

LEONARD BLISS JOB
Mr. Devricks has been with Ithaca College since 1935, a total of 16 years. He received his M.A. from Indiana University and was registrar at State Teachers College, Indiana. Here at IC Mr. Devricks has managed Veteran affairs, is the collector of student accounts, gets out the catalog, and is General Assistant to the President.

Dean Clarke came to IC three years ago as Dean of the General College. Before that he served as Executive V.P. and President of Liberal Arts College in Puerto Rico. He was superintendent of public schools in North Dakota for 14 years, and was in the State Department of Education in North Dakota for 4 years. Dr. Clarke also taught at the State University of North Dakota, and the Insular Univ. of Puerto Rico. He received his B.A. from State Teachers College, North Dakota and an M.A. from the University of North Dakota. Dr. Clarke was also a "fellow" at N.Y.U. where he received his Ed.D.

Dr. Grimshaw came to IC in September of 1942 as director of Graduate studies. He received his B.S. and M.Ed from Springfield College, his M.A. from Columbia University and an Ed.D. from N.Y.U. Dr. Grimshaw taught for 17 years in the Springfield schools and has lectured and instructed in Springfield College. In 1949 Dr. Grimshaw was made head of the Graduate School here at IC. He also served as faculty advisor for the class of '47 and '51.

Dean Taylor came to IC in September '47, previous to this she was at Sampson as a "counselor". She served also as a public service counselor for young people under 21, and the handicapped. Dean Taylor received her A.B. from Syracuse University and took an M.A. in student personnel administration at Columbia University. She now serves in the capacity of Dean of Women, and expert on co-ed affairs and problems.

With a feeling of respect and deep affection, the Senior Class dedicates the 1951 CAYUGAN to Dr. Sydney W. Landon, Professor of Literature here at Ithaca College. For the past twenty years, Dr. Landon has not only successfully tutored thousands of young men and women in Speech and Literature, but has left them with the influence of his forthrightness and generosity. Through his own love of Literature he has imbued us all with a better knowledge of the Great Masters, and a greater insight into the world surrounding us.

A career conference is designed to help students make up their minds about their life's work. It tries to help underclassmen plan a curriculum which will best prepare them for entrance into the field they choose. By hearing directly from business people active in their fields, the students are able to judge whether they would like to enter into that business or profession. The March 1951 Conference marked the second year of Annual Career Conferences sponsored by the School of Business.

To Mr. James T. Winter, of the School of Business Faculty, and a group of student committeemen goes credit for inception of the First Conference. The Second Annual Career Conference Committee was a completely voluntary organization which, with the aid of faculty advisors, provided an excellent opportunity to the students of all departments to learn about such fields as accounting, advertising, retailing, salesmanship, personnel, secretarial science, education, banking, and insurance. Every student should plan his life's work by first choosing an ultimate goal, then doing everything possible to attain that goal.

Career Conferences in I.C. provide an excellent guide in selecting goals.

READER'S THEATER

In 1949 Ithaca College inaugurated its readers theater with a performance of Euripides' "Trojan Woman" as a part of a nationwide commemoration of international drama month. Encouraged by the success of this first venture the project has been expanded by the Advanced Acting class to include four productions, three of which were by Sophocles, "King Oedipus," "Antigone" and "Electra," plus "Agamemnon" by Aeschylus. All were produced under the direction of Eugene R. Wood and Mrs. Fay Yeager.

The public response has been excellent and the publicity so satisfying that invitations were received and accepted to perform "Oedipus" at Keuka College and Cortland State Teachers College as a part of their celebration of the second international theater month observance.

The plays are presented without scenery, the only costuming formal evening attire, but each play is thoroughly rehearsed so that the essential meaning of the play and the delineation of character develop consistently and dramatically to a forceful climax. The chief emphasis is on the force of the spoken word.

Our experience proves that Readers Theater is invaluable as a means of presenting great plays to the public without undergoing the rigors of scene building and memorization.

ARENA THEATER

The Drama division season 1950-51 began with an Arena staged production of J. B. Priestly's "Dangerous Corner." Five performances were given in the College Green Room. A sixth performance was given in the Ithaca Community Players Loft for the purpose of demonstrating the possible use of the Loft for arena or central staging. In January the play was presented in Batavia for the Batavia Players.

The final play of the season was a production of "KG," Arena staged, a new pre-Broadway try-out script written by Halsey Malone. This is a first performance on any stage, a play which won a $2000 play writing award presented by the Theatre Foundation in New York.
It seems we are fortunate in having a very photogenic class this year, for only two lone Seniors neglected to have their pictures taken. With a flourish and a whole page to themselves we give you . . .

The Liberal Arts program at Ithaca College is based on the belief that college students need broad general and professional knowledge as well as adequate skills if they are to cope successfully with problems in daily living. The program is designed to provide the student with opportunities for growth and the development of character, varied interests, and an inquiring mind. It is intended that the student become a self-reliant personality capable of choosing an appropriate vocation for which he has appreciation and aptitudes. The college recognizes its responsibility to guide students toward more effective citizenship in our evolving democratic society, and aims at the development of leaders who respect human rights and who are willing to assume responsibilities. The educational program further endeavors to equip students with an understanding of fundamental values encompassing all humanity, in an atmosphere unhampered by prejudice and intolerance.

Master's degrees with majors in Music, Music Education, Physical Education and Speech are conferred.

Nearly 100 students are now pursuing advanced study on campus.

The study program provides opportunities for advanced professional preparation and permanent teacher-certification.

Advanced teacher-education with courses in Guidance, Psychology, Supervision, and Administration are included in the curriculum.

In-service study for employed teachers is a regular part of the Graduate School program.

Special workshop sessions in Audio-Visual Education, Driver Education, Radio Education and the Dance are conducted.

Two hundred teachers and administrators have been awarded advanced degrees.

Over 400 teachers are now in the process of earning Master's degrees.

sororities
Girls of all departments are eligible for membership in this local sorority which was founded in 1928. Delta Phi Zeta provides the hostesses at the Big Sister Tea, provides for refreshments at the school productions, and decorates the dining hall for special occasions. The Sorority holds annually an open house, Halloween Hop, and Christmas Dance. Delta Phi Zeta works hard at promoting friendship and sociability among the students of Ithaca College.

Pi Theta Phi was officially founded at Ithaca College December, 1946 for the purpose of elevating the standards of the profession, promoting a better relationship between students and faculty, and securing moral, social and intellectual advancement of its members.

The fraternity sponsors the publication of a monthly departmental paper "Fizzio Follies." There was also a forum in conjunction with the Cerebral Palsy Association plus conferences and lectures by men in the Physio and Medical professions. To top all of these activities Pi Theta Phi manages the Student Lounge.

Theta Alpha Phi

National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity
New York Beta Chapter Founded 1934

Theta Alpha Phi is an honorary dramatic fraternity with members elected on the basis of their acting ability, personal character and academic rating.

In the beginning of each new school year, TAP sponsors a Drama Department party to welcome new drama students.

Aspiring young writers have a chance to test their work by entering it in the Annual TAP One Act Play contest. Three of the best play scripts and one best radio script are awarded prizes and produced under the auspices of Theta Alpha Phi.

National Physical Education Fraternity
Mu Chapter Founded April 17, 1926

Phi Epsilon Kappa is the only National Men's Professional Physical Education Fraternity in the country. The Ithaca Chapter has grown rapidly this year and is forging ahead with extensive plans, which it is hoped will become annual events under the sponsorship of the fraternity. Movies and talks by people prominent in the field of athletics flavor their meetings.

Highlights of this year's activities were: The Co-recreational program, The Most Valuable Team Player Trophies, Student Literary Service, The Sport Circus, and the Phi E.K. Weekend held in May, which always is a success.

Delta Kappa

Delta Kappa, having an active roster of fifty-five members is a national teaching fraternity.

It seems that Delta Kappa's big contribution to the school is the arduous task of compiling and publishing the student directory... They have monthly dinners held at the fraternity house, and on February 26, a dinner and party was held in honor of Mr. Cole the faculty advisor. Social gatherings are held monthly for the members which include refreshments and movies. Two dances were held in April and May.

D.K. provides a free mailing service of "Ithacans" to those undergrads in service... and at commencement time the fraternity offers two awards... one for the outstanding senior in the school, and the second for the outstanding athlete-scholar.

Kappa Psi Alpha, the local business fraternity has had a very busy social season. The fraternity sponsored the Harvest Ball this fall, and besides participating in Junior Weekend, Kappa Psi holds their own weekend in the middle of May. Included in this affair is the initiation formal. Kappa Psi also acquired a house this year which makes many more social and business activities possible.

The Ithaca College Choir is the oldest choral organization in the college, dating back to the time when the Westminster Choir school was associated with the college. The concert organization actually evolved from a group of carol singers at Christmas time.

Two formal programs are presented for the college audience, and at Christmas time seven concerts were performed in and around Ithaca. A spring tour taken in April, covered fourteen towns and cities. This group also sings for commencement and baccalaureate services.

The choir has been on all major radio networks and has just finished a broadcast over CBS. It was listed by James Fassett as one of the outstanding choral organizations in the country.
The Ithaca Male Chorus is the newest choral organization in the college. It was organized in 1946 just after the GI’s began to enter school. It has steadily grown in membership and interest, until today there are forty-two members. Membership is on a competitive basis and all of the men are preparing to be teachers, most of them in the field of music.

The purpose of the concerts is to develop in these future teachers a high professional standard, to familiarize the singers with the best in choral literature, and to acquaint the audiences both young and old with the potentialities of a men’s glee club.

The Male Chorus has appeared a number of times in and around Ithaca this year, being continually in demand for service clubs. In February, they presented a concert on Cornell’s campus for the student body and faculty of that institution. Negotiations have been made for a spring program on NBC. Climaxing the spring tour a formal program was given in Ithaca.
IDEO is an Ithaca College organization with a purpose and a program open to all students of the college who have completed one semester.

The purposes are—
1. To develop loyalty to Ithaca College.
2. To encourage interdepartmental friendship and understanding by bringing together students from all areas of specialization.
3. To emphasize human values regardless of professional interests.
4. To provide opportunities for students of diverse occupations to learn by association that the art of living together is fundamental to individual peace and happiness and to the progress of well-organized society.
The Women's Athletic Association has charge of dormitory competition in basketball and volleyball. These inter-dorm games are held every Thursday evening from 7-10 in the Seneca and Aurora Gyms. Any girl who is a paid member is entitled to participate in the activities, and to attend the WAA picnic held in May.

The Varsity Club, in action in Ithaca College since 1947, has as its main aim the promotion of the highest possible standards of sportsmanship among the student body. Through the film library it has placed at the disposal of varsity members in school and in the field, sources of athletic information. The Varsity Club show has now become an annual "Must" . . . Toward the goal of working together for the improvement of varsity athletics the big event of the year was the Baseball clinic . . . under the sponsorship of the Varsity Club and the Philadelphia Phillies and with the capable assistance of manager Eddie Sawyer, the clinic brought many coaches and fans to Ithaca College for the talks and demonstrations by the many present and former big league stars.

The Newman Club of Ithaca got its start in 1943 and has been going steadily forward ever since. The club is open to all Catholic students of the college and its purposes are religious, intellectual, and social betterment of its members.

Working toward these ends the Newman Club sponsors a variety of activities. Meetings are held every two weeks, and a communion breakfast is held on the first Sunday of each month. A "Get Acquainted" Dance is held in September, followed by lectures of varied interest given by outstanding men in their field. An Annual Spring Picnic is held in April at the school camp, parties for important occasions, and educational and entertaining films are all sponsored by the Newman Club of Ithaca College.

The Olympians social contribution to the Ithaca College season of events, was the annual presentation of the "Sweetheart Ball" held in February. The members of the club, planned, decorated, provided the excellent band, and insured the excellent turnout by again using the idea of incorporating the corsage in the price of the ticket of admission.

These maroon blazoned Olympians have established a definite social precedent here at I.C.

Intramural

The purpose of this association is to make it possible for each male undergraduate in every department, who is interested in sports, to participate in some form of athletic competition. The association sponsors the Interdepartmental league and the physical education league in basketball, an Interdepartment league in bowling, and a softball league in the spring.

The object of this sports program is to promote activities that will be conducive to the development of a state of sound vitality in each individual student.

Pi Theta Phi Instrumental In Obtaining Co-Ed Lounge

The men's lounge will be open to co-educational social functions in the near future. President Leonard B. Job and Dean E. Gretchen Taylor, have permission last Tuesday for the Pi Theta Phi fraternity club to sponsor the new student lounge.

The co-educational lounge will have a note box for students to communicate with each other. The students for the co-educational lounge will be held on Sunday evenings.

Result of Fraternity's Work

The professional life of Pi Theta Phi decided to try and make the much talked about educational brand and try to bring actuality into the educational brand by trying to make it into a reality. This is being done in order to show the educational brand what the educational brand would be like with the added social experience.

The educational brand committee consisted of: Dick Ginn, Mentor, John Worthington, Harold Lacco, and Alan Laraway.

The educational brand building is described as follows: The educational brand is comfortable and has a dark green color on the walls. The educational brand has a large window at the entrance, and the entrance has a large area.

The educational brand has a large area of the building where there are rooms and study rooms. The educational brand building also has a large area for events and gatherings.

The educational brand building is the home of the educational brand and is where the educational brand community meets.

The dining facilities of Ithaca College originated with a kitchen on the east side of the present hall, in place of the office and lockerroom, with meals served in Williams Hall only. To satisfy the needs of an increased enrollment, the present kitchen was built in 1928 and more floor space added to the dining room when a building was acquired next door. The present quarters accommodates 240 girls as well as some forty-five students employed in the department.

Recognizing the limitations imposed by space, equipment, amount of help, and budget, the aim of any school dining hall is to supply balanced and appropriate menus. Eating at college is very different from home, hotel or hospital. Most colleges serve a set menu with little choice, still attempting to adhere to dietetic principles and having in mind, to some extent, certain racial food tastes. To meet dietetic requirements emphasis is placed specially on fruit and vegetables, with milk served at all meals when possible. Usually, except for breakfast, meals are served in courses to avoid too much hurry and rapid eating, but even then, with heavy schedules, and numerous outside activities, meals are not always as leisurely as they should be.

Many students find it difficult to adjust themselves to quantity cooking and serving, particularly in their first year when they need be weaned from their mother’s cooking, but later on the meal hour becomes a time to relax, and the dining room a spot to meet classmates and friends. It is said to be a privilege to feed people, in truth it is also a great responsibility, for without too much attempt to regulate the diet of adults, it is still a duty to try to furnish the proper nourishment for happiness and health.

Director
Mr. Craig McHenry
This season the College Orchestra, under the direction of Craig McHenry, gave three concerts in the College Theatre.

In November a varied and highly satisfying program was given, which included works of Handel, Delius, Moussorgsky, Borodin, and Bartok. Handel's Messiah was given at Cornell University, utilizing the facilities of Bailey Hall, and playing to a capacity audience.

The orchestra journeyed to Syracuse to play at the New York State School Music Association conference on December 3rd.

A highlight of the year's activities was the concerto concert given in February. Featured on the program were Schumann's Piano Concerto in A Minor, Concerto No. 1 for Violoncello by Saint-Saens, and Liszt's Piano Concerto No. 1 in A Major, the respective soloists being Patricia Olichney, Robert Perry, and Ralph Boguszewski.

Another highlight of the season was the convocation held the weekend of May 11th. Gustav Haenchen was guest conductor and the Metropolitan Opera star Dorothy Kirsten sang with the orchestra.

The Ithaca College Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Walter Beeler, has been extremely active this year. During the fall, the sixty members of the Band, toured in the Buffalo region for three days. Four concerts have been given at the College Theatre, all of which were broadcast over the local station and the Rural Radio FM Network. Throughout the year the band has performed a number of compositions arranged by Mr. Beeler and by the students themselves.

Another tour took place in the late spring, at which time several concerts were given in the Pennsylvania area. At Atlantic City, the band gave both a concert and performance in a Reading clinic for the Music Educator's National Association. At that time, Sigurd Rascher, foremost saxophonist, played with the band in the first performance of a new composition by Maurice Whitney, successful composer and Ithaca graduate. The Band had a very successful season and did quite a bit towards establishing good relations between different communities and Ithaca College. All those who were fortunate enough to hear the band perform expressed a desire for them to make a return performance in the very near future.

The hilarious comedy directed by Mr. Eugene Wood took the public by storm December 13th-16th. The story depicts a one-time junk dealer turned politician and his Mistress Billie. Both were ably depicted by Gerald Cowan and Doris Hurcomb. The difficult set was done by George Hoerner, and on the whole the Ithaca College version of "Born Yesterday" was equal to the Broadway production.

The action takes place in Washington, D. C. in 1945, in the suite of an ultra exclusive hotel inhabited by "junk dealer" Brock, and "Mistress" Billie.

The play was also given at the Canandaigua Mental Hospital the weekend of May 5th.

The combined efforts of the Music and Drama departments under the able direction of Mrs. Beatrice Macleod brought "Let's Make An Opera" to the IC stage March 7-10th. It was a play within a play and a delightful change from the heavy drama of today.

Egbert Hall has been quite active in the social sense. Their season started off with a Halloween Open House which was followed by a Closed Dance at Christmastime. In honor of St. Patrick’s Day Egbert held a card party. They culminated their season with a very successful float parade for Junior Weekend.

Griffis Hall has been one of the staunch supporters of the WAA Basketball League, and have perfected a highly efficient team. The girls have also sponsored an open house, a Christmas party and have given their support to the Junior Weekend festivities.
Hilliard House, once again, under the guidance of Mrs. Beatrice Albee, boasts 30 socially active girls. The Hilliard social season started off in October with a Halloween Open House, then an annual Christmas dance called "The Holly Hop." Following this on March 17th was a St. Patrick's Day dance "Emerald Isle." In the last week of April a combination Hayride and Wienie Roast was held for the girls and their dates to wind up their season. The Hilliard girls also contributed a float to the Junior Weekend parade in May.

Stewart House has been very active socially this year. A closed party was held in January, the theme of which was “Winter Carnival.” A Shamrock Shindig was held in the Student Lounge in honor of St. Patrick’s Day. Besides these two main events, Stewart House has had very successful monthly birthday parties for their dorm mates.

Ithaca College’s
Eddie Sawyer
Successful

The number one success of the long line of successful alumni of James A. (Bucky) Freeman’s baseball men is Eddie Sawyer. In 1950, Manager Eddie Sawyer had the distinction of leading the Philadelphia Phillies to their first pennant and into the World Series in 35 years. In 1949, he just missed being chosen the manager of the year, when he drove, inspired and generally coaxed the Phillies into a late season third place after taking over the reins of the club in mid-season. Last year he was chosen as Baseball’s “Manager of the Year” by a substantial majority vote of the nation’s top sports writers and sportscasters.

While Eddie was at Ithaca College, he played both baseball and football and excelled in both. He later taught Science and coached football and baseball at his Alma Mater.

Though Eddie has but two years of major league experience behind him, he is no novice in the managerial field. He broke into the New York Yankee farm system 12 years ago, and steered the Amsterdam, N. Y. club to the Canadian American League title as a playing manager with a batting average of .369. In his succeeding years as a manager in the minors, Eddie won three pennants, two playoffs, and finished out of the first division only twice. This is a remarkable record of managerial achievement.

Since his signing with the Philly farm system in 1943, Eddie has proven his worth and mettle to both the Phillies and Ithaca College. Two years ago he was considerably instrumental in conceiving the annual Ithaca College Baseball Clinic. Apart from his own immeasurable contribution of skill and know-how amassed over a period of years in organized baseball, he was responsible for the valuable contributions of Benny Bengough, one of the great catching names of baseball with 12 years of playing experience, and Cy Perkins, another of the great maskmen with 16 years of playing experience. Whenever baseball is discussed at Ithaca, conversation inevitably turns to Eddie Sawyer and Bucky Freeman, the two most consistent and valuable contributors to the sport of baseball at Ithaca College. Because of Eddie and other growing greats of Ithaca College and the baseball world and our own successful club under Coach Bucky Freeman, Ithaca College is becoming increasingly well known as one of the outstanding baseball colleges of the East. Of this we can be justly proud.

Generally described as a real fine fellow, Eddie also possesses a brilliant mind, (it is said that he never forgets a face or an incident) and he has that rare ability of inspiring young ballplayers with a determination to fight and win. He gains respect and loyalty with increasing measure with each of his visits to Ithaca College. The Annual Baseball Clinic at Ithaca College in the early spring is energetically supported and promoted by Eddie and his Phillies.
Varsity Baseball

Early April of this year the Ithaca College Baseball Club took to the road for two tough openers against the co-champions of the Ivy League, West Point and Seton Hall. The Bombers set the “Black Knights” of Army down 4-2, but were edged out 5-4 in the tenth inning against the latter club. With a well balanced, experienced club and the incomparable coaching of “Bucky” Freeman the Bombers are expected to give an excellent accounting of themselves this spring. With consistent and dependable batters as Dick Osmer (who led last year’s club with .380), Frank Weiss, Charley Yancey, Tom Leonard and the smooth controlled pitching of Bill McCarthy, Ray Kirkgasser, and Tom Quest—Bucky’s men will be an exceptionally hard club to beat. The experienced ranks including the key-stone kids—Nick DerCola and Al Pafunda, will be supplemented with promising last year freshmen Greg Cordones, Al Gilberti, Dick Murphy and Ron Coles.

Coach Bucky Freeman took to the road on his Southern trip last year with a well coached and experienced club. He was well stocked with experienced ball players. The IC “Bombers” gave an excellent account of themselves against such strong clubs as Quantico, Delaware, and the Penn A.C. Had it not been for the usual wet weather in Ithaca’s early spring, and the lack of outdoor workouts, there is little doubt that the Southern trip would have resulted in a clean sweep.

The Bombers of old IC have known better years. Cast into a schedule more rigid than any previous cage team has ever had to face, an inexperienced varsity composed almost entirely of sophomores, waded into the season.

Coach Ben Light, faced with the problem of fitting in green sophomores, finally was forced to employ reinforcements from the senior ranks in order to secure a workable combination. When a suitable starting combination was finally molded it was seniors Ray Kirkgasser, Lew Bennett, Dick Osmer, Nicky DerCola, and sophomore Al Gilberti getting the nod. From the reserve contingent Burt Maskins, Don Howard, Greg Cordones, Hank Osmer, Rog Moore, Tom Hicky, and Dick Renner were potent sparks to the squad.

After soundly romping over a visiting Wilkes College team in the season's opener, the Bombers slumped into a tragic losing streak and dropped their next eight straight encounters.

Somewhat enlightened by their play the team continued to New York City where they defeated a highly touted New York Athletic Club 50-48 in a thriller which in the waning minutes developed into a free-for-all. This incidentally was the same club which subsequently beat Boston University who in turn was to upset a favored C.C.N.Y. powerhouse in Madison Square Garden later on in the season.

Playing in off and on fashion the Ithacan's continued to win five of their next seven encounters with wins over Hamilton and Utica College, Queens University and Cortland State before dropping a hard fought battle to the fighting Marines of Quantico.

In the scoring department it was the season's 'Most Valuable Basketball Player,' co-captain Ray Kirkgasser, who led the season's scorers. Ray dropped in 104 field goals and 51 free throws for a total of 259 points. Next in line for scoring honors was sophomore guard Al Gilberti, defensive and playmaking standout.

At the season's end the sophomore squad members combined to defeat the senior "old pros" of the varsity squad in a thriller which saw them go down to defeat 59-58 in the last second of play. A midcourt push shot by sophomore Gilberti dropped through the net to give his team the upsetting victory.

Coach Harold "Pete" Hatch conducted the first IC pre-season football training camp at the college's Camp Danaca Sept. 6-16th. In spite of heavy rains the training was considered successful by both coaches and squad members.

Fair weather the first four days aided the boys efforts to condition long inactive muscles. Work outs were held in the morning and afternoon with scull sessions and movies every evening.

The second week saw the boys greeted by heavy rains and muddy practice fields every time they donned their soggy equipment. Several scrimmages were held despite the inclement weather and blackboard drills were substituted frequently when outside practice was impossible.

Assisting Coach Hatch at the camp were Joe "Smokey" Hamilton, line coach and Clyde "Whitey" Cole, freshman grid mentor. Robert Garlinghouse and Sam Baroody, both graduate assistants and former Bomber grid stars also aided.

In their debut of the season the Bomber's became victims of a spirited University of Bridgeport eleven 13-6 after leading 6-0 late in the third quarter.

Bombers Stop Brockport

Returning to Percy Field for their first home appearance against Brockport State Teachers College a week later, the Hatch-men looked very impressive in staving off a last period Brockport rally to win 18-14. The accurate passing of quarter-back "Greg" Patala to the brilliant pass snatching end "Hunk" Meszaros along with the fancy stepping of half-back "Nicky" DeCola highlighted the blue and gold win.

A powerful Wilkes College eleven played host to the Bombers a little too cordially for their third contest and again were squeezed out by a last period T.D. by the Pennsylvanians.

During the practice session prior to the Cortland game the same brilliant "Hunk" Meszaros received a severe kidney rupture, putting him out of action for the remainder of the season. His absence was sorely felt by the team, not only because of the fine game he always contributed, but also because of the inspiration he extended to the rest of the squad by his exemplifying spirit and determination.

Edge Cortland 7-6

With a 1-2 record the Bombers took off for Cortland being rated an underdog in another traditional meeting. Paying tribute to their injured Co-captain Meszaros (who was listening to the game from the radio by his hospital bed) the Bombers came from behind, completely outcharging and outplaying a heavier "Red Dragon" line, to defeat them 7-6. A T.D. bomb launched from quarter-back Gus Koch to Nick Mamula plus an accurately kicked extra point by Harold Monroe proved to be the margin of victory. A major factor in the victory was the fine playing of IC's defensive line, Bill Oaks, Fred Pisano, Bill Brickowski, Bill Trainor, Pete DeStefano, Joe Caligeri and Jack Getman who bottled up Cortland's offensive time and again throughout the game.

The fine form shown in the above game never presented itself again as the Bombers went into a slump and lost to Lock Haven 13-6, Champlain College 20-19, and East Stroudsburg 28-7 in consecutive home encounters on a "Sea of Mud" field. In all three games the Bombers looked the better team statistically, but their effectiveness seemed to disappear in sight of the goal line.

In any case the spotlight had shown on different players throughout the season indicating a lot of potential for next year's varsity.

End College Grid Days

Winding up their college grid days include such standouts as backs: Nick DeCola, Greg Patala, Gus Koch, John Young, Bob Kirkendall, Tom Racciatti, and linemen: John Lupetin, Ted Murphy, Harold Meszaros, Steve Callendar, Pete DeStefano, Bill Trainor, Bob Alberti, Joe Kurzecheski, Ed O'Bryan, Carm Fragola, Dick Backer, Floyd Wisher and Dave Lamb.

Robert Schaefer and Albert Gargiulo were the team trainers while Cardin Kibler and Edward Bogan handled the managerial duties.

Ithaca College Soccer - 1950

Out our way at old I.C.
The Soccer team, year fifty
Opened its season with Syracuse U.
And was given a one sided beating, too.
The team was green, few vets were back,
The Soccer they played, alas and alack.
Was sad to see. The spirit was willing,
To help protect the eight yard goal—
VanDessen and Thompson took turns at that role.
At full, were Davis, Cordones, and Van
Who kicked with their feet, and grabbed with their hands.
The halfbacks: Whearty, Carp, and Weiss
Slid on the field as tho it were ice.
Help came from Cal, Moore, Tom, and Frye,
But for “Sounding Off,” Tom was the guy.

Soccer teams have to have boys on the line.
The players out there kicking, plus Ryan
Included Waufe, Ralph, Oaks, DeSimony,
Perk, who inspected the tires, by Jiminy,
Oaks, Knuffy, Barton, Sully,
Pete, and Jones, the new manager, by golly.
Back to the game with Bill Orange, alas.
The current Syracuse team had class.
Ithaca’s zero was their season’s trend.
Syracuse’s six was high for the season,
I.C.’s green talent supplied the reason.

Hamilton, next, played at “Meadow Lark Lane,”
The home team scored one, the visitors “nane.”
The forty-niners had a great surprise.
The best they could do, was one of their ties.
Rochester U. was always tough.
Ithaca scored one, that was enough.
Coach groomed Perk for that penalty kick,
A day would come, that try would tick.
Cortland’s power and might prevailed,
For added to the two the forwards scored.

Brookport next, the giant of them all,
The score: One apiece, Ralph kicked the ball—
His teammates played their game of the year,
And thereby provided the Coach great cheer.
Wilkes was next, a team mighty rough,
Who scored one for I.C. and that was enough,
For added to the two the forwards scored.
The totals were three to two on the board.

The forty-niners had a great surprise.
Th e best they could do, was one of their ties.
Ithaca scored one, that was enough.
Coach groomed Perk for that penalty kick,
A day would come, that try would tick.
Cortland’s power and might prevailed,
For added to the two the forwards scored.

Along came Lock Haven, a team of might.
The visitors’ one to nothing margin was slight.
Then came the crowning journey of all.
The Stroudsburg trip: the last of the Fall.
The American House was host to the boys.
Home-cooking, a piano, a parrot gave joys.
The Coach and the bird gave a one act review.
The team sang songs, as Soccer players do.
Coach worked hard and solaced the bird.
With whistle, and song, and grimace, and word.
The reluctant one grunted, and tried to sing.
And then did a most unpardonable thing.
The Stroudsburg team excelled in the mud.
They won the game, three to nothing, “Bud.”

The season’s total was a perfect score.
A tie no less, is there anything more?

A wonderful spirit accompanied the team—
Manager Walt and the captains were “on the beam.”
The many Ithaca teams will come and go
1950 will stand out with an everlasting glow.

P.S.—The Coach groomed Perk for that penalty boot.
Nine games played; no chance to shoot.

Coach .................. CLYDE "WHITEY" COLE

Captain .................. BILL BRICKEY

Capt. Bill Brickey
Coach Clyde "Whitey" Cole's varsity wrestlers completed their 1950-51 season with a .500 (4 win-4 loss) record. They gained wins over Queens, Alfred and St. Lawrence Universities and East Stroudsburg College while losing two matches to Cortland State a powerful Lock Haven team and Wilkes College.

The grapplers were again paced by the incomparable Jimmy LaRock who wound up four years of college wrestling. Jim, undefeated in 30 college dual meets posted a record of 25 pins, 4 decisions and a default in his inter-collegiate wrestling career.

Captain Bill Brickey also completed four successful years of college wrestling under Coach Cole. Brickey's final collegiate victory came in the last dual meet of the season against East Stroudsburg College.

Frank Spadaro, Howard Dunn, Eddy Manginelli, Al Peterson, Jim Clarke and Ken Spenard gave good accounts of themselves and will be counted on another year.

Injuries plagued Fred March, Gene Clark and Ev Cameron who were lost a good part of the season. March and Peterson were elected co-captains for the next varsity campaign at the teams annual post-season banquet.

Kenny Long and Marty Albert handled the managerial and trainer duties respectively.

LaRock "Most Valuable Wrestler"

Slated for next years World Olympics in Europe, LaRock was the first man ever to throw Eichi Kazama, 35 year old veteran who was one of the stars of the Japanese Olympic team in the 1936 Berlin Olympics.

Jim, representing Ithaca College, was named to the American College All-Star Team which was made up of four other champions from Cornell and Syracuse Universities. The five man team met the Japanese National Olympic Squad in a post-season match at Cornell's Barton Hall. Wrestling in the 155 pound class, LaRock was the only American All-Star to pin his opponent in 7:31 with his favorite hold, the crucifix.

A native Ithacan, Jim participated in the post-season N.C.A.A. and N.A.A.U. Tournaments, of which he is a title holder. He was honored with Phi Epsilon Kappa's "Most Valuable Wrestler" memorial trophy at the close of the varsity wrestling season.
Coach Harold J. "Pete" Hatch's Lacrosse team had a fairly successful season considering it was only in its second year and that it played some of the best teams in the country. Among these teams were Penn State, Hobart and R.P.I.

Capably led by Co-captains Joe Corcoran and Sam Baroody the Hatchmen opened the season at Hobart only to bow 14-6. The score is not a fair judge of the team's ability that was shown on the field that day. There aren't many players that will forget the exhibition that Joe Annarella performed in the goal that day. He saved numerous shots at the goal. R.P.I. again stopped Ithaca but the stickmen bounced back on their home field to beat Hamilton 9-6.

Our traditional rivals Cortland were defeated for the third straight year. Ithaca took a lead early in the game which they never relinquished throughout the game. The stickmen never had a doubt as to who was going to win because of the rivalry. The game was well played, rough and tough, with Ithaca winning 10-4.

Winding up the season against Penn State, Ithaca was unable to cope with Penn's vast reserves and lost 10-6.

Throughout the season Joe Corcoran was the outstanding man because of his experience and many capabilities on the field. Sam Baroody and Charlie Gillette were always consistent in their play. At the mid-field Bill Lisi, Bob Sutherland, Jack Callen and Harold Meszaros were always hustling for the home team. We can't forget Jack Hantz and his abilities at facing off.

Our defense was one of the roughest four men to face when you want to make a goal. This included John Lupetin, Ted Murphy, Joe Kurzejeski and Steven Callender, Joe Annarella rounding out the defense in the goal.

Last but not least, we can't forget the second team and the reserves that played a magnificent part in making the past season a good one.

The following stickmen gained honorable mention on the All-Upstate Team. They are: Joe Corcoran, Bill Lisi, Sam Baroody, Joe Kurzejeski, Ted Murphy and John Lupetin.

Most Valuable Player Awards

Phi Epsilon Kappa's memorial trophies were awarded to Ray Kirkgasser and Jim LaRock as the most valuable members of the 1950-51 varsity basketball and wrestling teams. They both received overwhelming majorities in the student body voting held for three days last February.

The "most valuable player" awards were named in the memory of Frank P. Urso and Walter C. O'Connell, two former outstanding IC athletes.

Coaches Ben Light and Clyde Cole, varsity Basketball and Wrestling mentors respectively, presented the trophies to Ray and Jim during the half of the IC-Cortland Basketball game in the Seneca Gym last March.

Frosh Wrestling

Coach Herb Broadwell’s freshmen grapplers completed a successful 1950-51 season posting a 3-win, 3-loss and 1 tie record.

Captain Paul Thomann (6-1), Art McLaughlin (5-2), and Jim Howard (3-0) spearheaded the Blue and Gold cubs throughout the campaign. Julio Amadore (2-2) and John Ciabotti (1-1), displayed a wealth of mat savvy. Lowell Dingman, Frank Mitchell, and Henry Heslop gained valuable competitive wrestling experience, and contributed vital victories.

Highlights of the season were two triumphs over their traditional rivals—the “Red Dragon Cubs” from Cortland.

The Frosh team proved they were one of the most powerful aggregations in this section of the country, when they severely tested Cornell’s undefeated frosh, before bowing 19-15.

Clyde Cole, varsity wrestling coach, commented on the up and coming frosh, “this years freshmen wrestlers were one of the best looking squads in his memory.”

Duo-Pianists

Professors Frank Page and Joseph Tague have set a precedent here at Ithaca College by their extremely enjoyable Duo-piano recitals given annually in the College Theater.

Professor Page calls Denver, Colorado his home. He studied at the University of Michigan and served in the Navy during the war. Not only an excellent teacher, Professor Page was the piano accompanist for Miss Eleanor Steber, Metropolitan Opera star who made an appearance at the Mid-Century Convocation.

Professor Tague makes his home in Ohio and studied at Ohio University and the Eastman School of Music. This year among his accomplishments, Professor Tague gave his own recital in the College Theater, which met with great success.

Their 1951 recital for two pianos took place in the College Theater, April 20, at 8:15 p.m. The program was designed to have balance between the compositions originally composed for two pianos, and transcriptions of works originally written for other instruments. The transcriptions were from the violin and piano pieces of Bach, A Tocatta by Frescobaldi, two excerpts from Aaron Copland's "Rodeo," and a paraphrase on themes from "Die Fledermaus" by Johann Strauss.

The program showed an excellent choice of material, and the recital itself was flawlessly executed. We wish Professors Tague and Page continuing success in their Duo-recitals, and are awaiting eagerly their 1952 performance.

The establishment of world peace on a firm and lasting foundation is the greatest need of a troubled world. The first step toward this long-sought goal is to “reach the minds and hearts of men” with a message that will ensure goodwill. America must take the lead in sending this message to the people of all nations to bring about mutual trust and understanding.

To reach the minds and hearts of men throughout the world requires prompt and positive action in this period of hatred, misunderstanding and war. It is a task that requires the help and cooperation of every man and woman in this country. To point the way in which all may lend their aid, Ithaca College has brought together some of the outstanding leaders of the nation to give their appraisal of the national and world situation in the light of their knowledge and experience.

As it approaches its sixtieth year of service to American youth, Ithaca College is holding this Mid-Century Convocation in connection with the initiation of its plans to create a new campus on a site overlooking the City of Ithaca above Cayuga Lake. A leader in the training of young men and women for careers in the communicative arts, as well as in other fields, Ithaca College believes this to be an appropriate time to ask the leaders of this generation to look into the future and help us guide our thinking through the present emergency into a new era of international understanding, prosperity and world peace.

The educational program of Ithaca College specializes in both graduate and undergraduate training of young people for careers in music, drama, speech, radio, and physical education as well as business, physiotherapy, and liberal arts. The speakers and guests of the Mid-Century Convocation include men and women who have achieved pre-eminence in most of these fields and who can therefore discuss with authority these various arts and professions as channels of communication to minds and hearts of men.

ALMA MATER

Rosa K. Hamlin 'C3

Ithaca, thou lovely city; Hill and lake and dell,

Home of our loved Alma Mater, Loud thy praise we'll tell.

Chorus:

Ithaca, dear Alma Mater, Hail to thee, all Hail!

May the brightness of thy glory Never, never fail.

2. World wide go thy sons and daughters
   On their mission bent;
   Cheering, blessing and uplifting
   As from Heaven sent.
   (Chorus)

3. As the waters of Cayuga
   Smile beneath the sun,
   May God's blessing smile upon thee
   While the years roll on.
   (Chorus)
“Last Words”...

“Never again.” That’s what we say, but don’t sympathize with us. We enjoyed every minute of it. The Staff can cast a retrospective glance on a difficult task flavored with the joy that comes to those who work in unison.

We had a joint publication banquet in April and a special Cayugan dinner in May to celebrate our accomplishment.

A very special “Thank You” to those who gave their valuable time to make this year’s annual bigger, better and worthy of the name of Ithaca College. We would particularly like to thank:
