Ithaca College
Stroudsburg Invaders Have Long Record Of Wins

The small, but mighty Stroudsburg State Teachers will arrive here tonight to face the pride of I. C. in a do-or-die cage test. The famous foragers from Pennsylvania bring a commendable reputation with them. Their zone defense and fast break has added many a notable opponent to their long list of vanquished foes. Even mighty Seton Hall has succumbed to the impregnable spirit, and ravaging tactics of the Stroudsburg club.

Ithacans Prepared
Coach Yoav has the Bombers well girded for the big battle. Last Friday night's sham contest with the Engans was conclusive proof of the Big Blue's ability to cope with the visitor's style of play. Although they were slow to start, the Ithacans soon made their opponents zone look like a sieve, and their "fast break" a veritable Lombard Walk. In fact, the Ithacans became so frustrated in their attempts to stop the onslaught that they were forced to drop the "fast break" in favor of other defensive measures.

Reserves Improving
With characteristic sagacity, Coach Yoav has been giving his reserves every opportunity to increase their knowledge, and widen their experience. As a result, the indispensable second string has shown a decided improvement. In... (Continued on page 3)

Large Summer Course Probable; Living Costs For Extra Term Low

The latest reports on the three semester program are still somewhat vague. However, a partial tally of the student questionnaires which were filled out at the time of registration reveal that 55% are definite about returning for the third semester. The college's executive board feels that even 45% or 55% would be high enough to warrant the third semester. However, this figure will probably climb because of the fact that the physical education men will, in all probability, be deferred on the grounds of "national deferment" as long as the school or the individual can give some assurance of obtaining a job in the future.

Regarding this, Mr. Hill has informed us of a very high employ-ment percentage, stating that he could have placed 50 men and 20 women immediately. Joe Hill has the graduates. The same situation has existed in the music de-partment.

A few facts concerning the third semester include the following: There will be no lowering of the standards now existing in the three departments. Three attending school, the coming of summer will not mean relaxation, but the continuance of a normal school program.

A few faculty members who have previously been contracted for summer jobs elsewhere will leave Ithaca for the summer. In addition, one or two others may be allowed to continue their post-graduate studies, if their classes can be handled by some other member of the faculty.

Disciplinary ratings, however, will be somewhat reduced because of reduction in maintenance costs. The work in some subjects may be planned on a half semester basis which will allow the change of instructors at mid year so that some may have a longer vacation or continue their post-gradu-ate work.

Mr. Kessler Features New Set-Up For Band

The Repertory Band, under the direction of Mr. Philip S. Kessler, played its fourth concert last Sunday evening, January 25 in the Little Theatre. The band displayed marked im-provements in musicianship which has been steadily developing during the past few years. In particular, the playing of the violins was remarkable, with the second violin especially good. The concert was opened with a beautiful and enjoyable pro-gram which included works by Debussy, Ravel, Handel, and Corelli. The program included two pieces by Debussy: "Partita Bb Major" and "Gigue." The latter piece was particularly well played by the clarinet section, which gave a beautiful and vivid interpretation of the composition.

Large Summer Course Probable; Living Costs For Extra Term Low

The following is a copy of the new policy affecting Physical Edu-cation Students of draft age. It was sent to Mr. Lawrence Hill, head of the Physical Education Dept. by the New York State Headquarters of the Selective Service Board.

1. Length of time in which the student has been pursuing the course.
2. The relative progress and standing in such course.
3. The relative chances of employment or placement for such activity for which he is preparing.

This latter factor may be evi-denced by contract of employment or any reasonable assurance that the registrant will engage in that activity.

Upon receiving the above notice, Mr. Hill has in-formed the necessary students to some fifteen students from his department who had already left for induction into the service. Just how many of this group will be able to return as a result of this new policy cannot as yet be de-termined.

Lady Precious Stream Cultural Contribution To Western Theatre

Audience Appreciates Oriental Flavor

McGovern, Doddleston, Ryan Turn In Top Performance

Light and delightful seemed to be the reaction of the select, invited audience at the preview of Lady Precious Stream, under Mr. Reich's direction, Thursday even-ing, January 28.

The one typically Chinese set-ting was extremely beautiful, as were the costumes, and the total visual effect was striking. The lighting seemed perfectly blended and carried out what we felt was the correct setting. Music and sound effects seemed perfect.

The Hon. Reader, played by Margaret Litter, somehow failed to give us the atmosphere and pace that we expected, and that we found when the play was actually under motion. The pacing and timing of the show appeared to be professional and in the correct style. The too many western adsides, however, detracted from that which should have brought the house down. Fine-stone's scene was too much slap-stick for audience consumption.

Dr. Rebmann announces date for requiem; alumni to sing

In order to help build the reputation of the Ithaca College Library to a higher level and to bring to the students of Ithaca College more and better books, Mr. Earle W. DaMotte, President of The Corner Bookstore, has in behalf of that firm donated the following books to the college library:

Dr. Rebmann has finally unlocked the secret doors and given forth the performance date of the requiem. Saturday, March 28, is the day, and it is to be presented in Foster Hall (Ithaca High School Auditorium).

The fact that this is the Fifteenth Anniversary of the founding of the Ithaca College accounts for alumni soloists appearing on the program and Miss Margaret Daum, Mrs. Florence A. Wilcox, Messrs. Wilmer R. Moyer and Luke E. Matts will sing the solo parts. According to Dr. Rebmann, the chorus is now at a point of perfection where assisting soloists may be invited to sing with it. This is the result of five years' hard work on Dr. Rebmann's part.

More information will be divulged later in the semester, but the performance of the Requiem with chorus, symphony orchestra, and outstanding soloists promises to be one of the highlights of the Fifteenth Anniversary Celebration.

Bagatelles

Now that exam week is over through the lobby you'll see drawn-out faces, faces red with tears, clean faces, bearded faces, happy faces and unhappy faces all caused by the rigid tempos that the teachers so happily imposed upon the students. Back up kids, the worst is yet to come. A romance in two scenes and an epilogue.

Scene I—Sunday morning at 11 a.m. Haman, Lamason and Gage going to church.

Scene II—Same party strolling in later afternoon.

Epilogue—The butting office. Odds 2 to 1 on Gage.

Joe Broccardo seems to be the reason for Janie Washburn's wanting to get out of rehearsals early. This brings her number of admirers up to umpteen.

Norm Webb was first seen around school with Mary Ann Reever, later with "Terry" Wright. Bobbie Crouse is now occupying all of his time. Oh well...

Special note: Bruce Flaherty would appreciate the names and addresses of all the students who are now in the U. S. Service. We'd like to send them copies of "The Ithacan".

See nightly at the college are Bill Carney and Jane Beller. They aren't watching rehearsals either. The blackout proved beneficial for the dry-cleaning establishments of Ithaca. There was a special on bellar cleaning . . . and it wasn't dirt either . . . Oh, that Green Room.

Here's a follow-up from the last issue. Kappa Gamma's rooms are sufficiently illuminated, including Van Dito's room. Therefore before it must be love. Yes, and Betty Loretti is the reason for his weariness... and experience ...

Willy's Absence Significant

The vacancy left by the departure of dynamic Dick Willover may prove to be a difficult one to fill. The334 faultless efficiency of Dashing Dick figured prominently in the function of the victorists Ithaca machine. At present the most likely looking prospect seems to be Irv Halstead. Although Halstead lacks the slashing scenes representative of highlights in the history of the school, the second act is Scampers in two parts. The first act is made up of half a dozen hilarious scenes representative of highlights in the history of the school. The second act is Scampers.

Scene 1—Sunday morning at 11 a.m.

Friday was an eventful day.

Not only was this last day of school a balanced day in every sense but it also marked the end of a school year. As the school year draws to a close, the students are faced with a new and different challenge . . . the vacation. The last day of school was a day of mixed emotions for the students. Some were excited about the upcoming vacation, while others were sad to see the school year come to an end.

Scene 2—Late afternoon.

The final bell of the day rang, signaling the end of another school year. The students left the classroom, some of them in tears, while others were cheering and shouting. The day was filled with memories and moments that would be remembered for a lifetime.

Scene 3—An epilogue.

As the curtain came down on the school year, the students were left with mixed feelings. Some were excited for the vacation, while others were sad to see the school year come to an end. The day was filled with memories and moments that would be remembered for a lifetime.

Scene 4—A note.

As the school year comes to a close, the students are faced with a new and different challenge . . . the vacation. The last day of school was a day of mixed emotions for the students. Some were excited about the upcoming vacation, while others were sad to see the school year come to an end. The day was filled with memories and moments that would be remembered for a lifetime.
Once again we bring you an intimate review of the life of one of our graduating seniors—smiling, congenial Larry Dunn. Born and reared on the flat bosom of Long Island's wave drenched shores, in he arrived on October 12, 1918, incidents and achievements of his character from which they were years of football and one year of All Western Suffolk team. In addition, he was elected president of the student council, and in his senior year, president of his class.

Larry entered college in 1938, and in his freshman year played football, managed the freshman baseball team, and made the Adelphi honorary society. In his sophomore year, he played football, managed varsity baseball, and was pledged to Phi-E-R. During his junior year he devoted much of his time to social work at the South Side Community Center. This year he was elected to the presidency of his fraternity, a temporary responsibility, which was eclipsed by the more permanent one of taking a wife.

To the casual observer, the preceding paragraphs might seem quite conclusive, but to the great number of Larry's more intimate friends, he are but a week outline. For, behind the smiling countenance—behind the heavy black brows, there exists a mind that is keenly alert, and sharply sensi-five to those less fortunate than himself.

The growth of this ever increasing passion to champion the underprivileged, began with the reign of President Roosevelt. Larry, a faithful history student, noted the President's extreme measures to aid the poor, and became intensely interested. It wasn't long before he became acutely aware of the existing facts. His work in the settlement houses, and his association with the Brentwood State Hospital served to uncover some startling evidence. This evidence has opened new channels of thought, and broadened the avenues of appreciation—this evidence has created a desire and evolved a purpose for living. And when a man has found his place in life—and the meaning of his existence has become inalterably clear—he is a man indeed...

to the charm of the oriental atmosphere.

The main criticism one could find, such as prop men or other characters detracting from the main action, was entirely lacking in the extremely beautiful scene between Lady Precious Stream and her Mother, the Madam, at the poor home of the heroine.

Joan McGovon as Lady Precious Stream did a very polished and satisfying job, as did Virginia Bevin, Randy Duddleston, Art Ryan, Ruth Oakey, Morty Klayman, and the most consistent actor in the entire show, Gloria Haffsaur who turned in a beautiful performance as an attendant of the Wong family (and no scene stealing). Lack of restraint and over direction wasn't noticeable as has been the case with most shows.

Futurama

by John Rosenburg

Bruges represents a period of plenty and spiritual exaltation; New York illustrates wealth, an abundance of material, industrial power, and the heart of a thriving nation.

Art expresses the individuality of the person or nation developing it. Look back at Egypt, Greece, Rome, medieval times, the Renaissance, and all the succeeding periods up to our time. Try to trace the development of the people during these times. History can be derived from the arts. During our own time, a new spirit is arising. Science and art are more closely related today than at any previous time. Even so, this does not mean that we are disregarding the past; the best in our modern art has been derived from the heritage of the past but is given new life and form. Thousands of years of art and work still stand as witnesses to the universality of this as the imperishable expression of the life of a people. It will take more than any totalitarian nation can do to destroy this!

This is entirely apart from the preceding paragraphs but it is a lesson which we might all benefit from.

The other evening your writer walked in on a "bull session" on the present war situation. After entering the rather heated discussion, his attention was catched by a minute by minute until he had to leave the room lest his spirits be destroyed by the one of taking a wife.

Larry Dunn

The Horatio Alger quality of the story pleased the audience. Oriental drama is to be considered an interesting experiment, rather than material for a smashing success. Consequently we liked it as an entertainment, and a contribution of a different culture to our war-time theatre.

Delta Phi Zeta
Mrs. Bert R. Lyon Entertainers

Mrs. Bert Rogers Lyon, president of the Delta Phi Zeta patronesses, entertained at a tea in her home on Thursday, January 22. She had as guests of honor the new patronesses of Delta Phi Zeta who were installed last month at the formal initiation of members. The new patronesses are Mrs. Adrian Newens, Mrs. Johann Reich, Mrs. Ralph Jones, Miss Bess Daniels, and Mrs. Lee Small.

The sorority members will be hostesses to the Drama freshmen girls this Sunday morning, February 1, at 10:00 o'clock in the house. An informal breakfast party has been planned.

Delta Phi Zeta is awfully sorry to see Sylvia Glassman leave school, but wishes her the best of luck in her new surroundings.

Phi Delta Pi
Gym Night Soon

Girls, come one, come all, every one! Tonight is your night! Participate in basketball, badminton, square or round dancing, for the pure enjoyment of it, not to mention and too for the "slimming" you'll get. It's 7 to 9 in the Gym, every Wednesday. Edie Degen and Viola Diebold in charge, and Miss Hugger as our advisor. Remember to mark your date.

Saturday night was one of relaxation off the strain of pre-terms. "Luna," "Wilda," and "Josephine" were as sweet as their vegetable corsages... for it was a Sadie Hawkins dance at the house, and well attended. A nice idea for the girls to entertain the fellow! It's been asked, "Why don't we do this more often?"

The following Sunday brought the welcome return of Sue Bartrond and Nancy Parks from teaching duties in Rochester. Taking their places is another batch of prospective pedagogues, Doris Harrington, Libby Bartholomew, and Viola Diebold. In town for their first experiences of the kind are Emma Emens, Jane Berneuthe, Betty Banker, Edna Degen, Dore Parker, and Lee Evans. That's all for now folks.

A Visit From "Corky"

Owen Brillhart, better known as "Corky" visited the house last week-end. He is with the Navy Air Corps, having joined shortly after graduation last June.

Beta Chapter celebrates its fourteenth anniversary this week-end. On January 31, 1928, Beta was installed as an active chapter in the national membership of Kappa Gamma Psi. The many activities that have taken place and the life-long friendships that remain serve to remind us of the past.

Entertain Miss Wasterlain

We were happy to entertain Miss Wasterlain at our house during her stay here. It was a happy and honored evening for us. We are looking forward to Mrs. Margaret Clark Hall's recital with great expectations.

On Monday evening, January 19, we held Pan Pipes Hotel. Those 16 girls invited played a piece on their major instrument. We were only sorry that our house can't accommodate more. Janet Brown and her committee deserve bouquet for a well planned evening of music, fun and not to forget the refreshments (a regular dinner in itself. As good as we ever had on any hotel menu.)

Newman Club Meeting

The Newman Club is having another in its series of meetings. This one will be a Valentine's Eve party on Friday, February 13, at 8 P.M. in the James Hall Library. The party will include fireworks dancing games, refreshments, and fun. Several Ithaca College Newman Club members have been asked to serve on the committee for the party. Quite a few I.C. girls attended the last Newman Cornell Club party. We'd like to see more of them and lots more of the fellows from here. There will be care to take our kids up, lot's all to do. There will be a meeting of the Newman Club next Wednesday at 8 P.M. in Room 13. Plans will be discussed for a buffet sup- er and elections.

Phi Epsilon Kappa

Twelve To Be Inducted

The following are to be formally inducted into our fellowship tomorrow evening. Theodore Fay, Thornton Newhouse, Henry Adams, Richard Curtwright, Thomas Green, Charles Compton, John Housemen, Carl Cook, A. R. H. U. Wheaton, Charles Lent, Joseph Abrahams, and Rudolph Albanese. Congratulations to you all, fellows. After the ceremonies are completed there will be a house dance in honor of our newly acquired brothers.

"Male" Mu Alpha

Saturday evening the Phi Mu boys invaded the Lehgih Restaurant and put on one of the finest farewell parties in its history. This party was in honor of "Male" Reynolds and "Sultan" Tarbell. Approximately twenty-five couples joined the brothers in their final social event at Ithaca College. After a fine Italian dinner the group moved en masse to the fraternity house where we held our annual midsemester dance.

Brother Ring has lost his pin to Norma Bloomberg congratulations are in order. Jerry is social chairman of the fraternity and is doing a fine job this year. He feels that a plan is being made for another barn dance in the near future. Probably this affair will be in honor of Orsone and Ring.

Tape and Liniment

By Fritz Becker

What's all the hullabaloo for? Dick Willower has left for the army—but that isn't going to break up a good football team. This will be the first line-up change since the first game of the season.

Coach Yavors has not yet decided who will replace Willower, but Irv Holstead or Ted Fay seem to be the logical men for the spot. In my humble opinion Holstead should get the nod.

Bill Frits, a joyvee player has also left school. Bill was a good ball player, and might have moved up if the army had not called him elsewhere.

Last week various players were tried out—but—Practice this next week included two practice games—one against Syracuse at Syracuse. The boys didn't look bad at all.

Tonight the Bombers take on one of the toughest opponents on the schedule—E. Stroudsburg. The main event is scheduled for 8:15 and the preliminary at 7:00.

The Saturday afternoon league composed of 4 teams: The Stagehands, Tioga Terriers, I.C. House, and P.E.K. Ringers. In the games played last Saturday the Ringers defeated the Stagehands 51-36, and the Tioga Terriers defeated the I.F.T. House 32-23. The schedule calls for each team to play every other team twice.

The schedule:
Jan. 31-P.E.K. vs. Terriers
Feb. 7-P.E.K. vs. I.F.T.
Feb. 14-P.E.K. vs. Stagehands
Feb. 21-P.E.K. vs. Terriers
Feb. 28-P.E.K. vs. I.F.T. Terriers vs. Stagehands
March 7-Playoffs.

There has been talk of a basketball game between Ithaca College and Cornell, the profits of which will be given to the Red Cross. What about it? Let's hear some opiniations.
