College To Confer New Degrees

College Band Presents Second Sunday Concert

This coming Sunday evening, February 28, in the college theatre, the Ithaca College Concert Band under the baton of Mr. Beeler, will present promptly at 8:15, the second program of the current semester. After playing the national anthem, the band will perform the OVERTURE to LA PRINCESS JOUNE by SAINT SAENS.

The mood changes abruptly with the rich harmonies of FERVENT IS MY LONGING, an organ prelude by Johann Sebastian Bach. The concert band arrangement of this selection is by Coilliet. This work will be followed by PRELUDE by Beethoven.

Coming fourth on the program is a number by the eminent American composer, Peter De Rose. The band will perform his popular DEEP PURPLE.

PICTURES AT AN EXHIBITION by Mussorgsky adds a dash of Russo-French flavor to the program. The delicacy of this work contrasts strongly with the VIRGINIA RHAPSODY by Wood, which is the following selection.

The highlight of the evening is the trombone solo played by Jack Graves. Accompanied by the band he will play KING CARNEVAL by Kyre.

The excellent choice and wide variety of selections plus the fine reputation of the band should insure a good turnout for this program.

Rawski Offers Course In Modern Music

A new course has been opened to the students of Ithaca College. It is a class in Modern Music sponsored and taught by Dr. Rawski. There will be no extra charge for the course and attendance is not taken. It is purely an elective course, being merely a series of informal lectures for those who wish to become acquainted with composers of recent times. You do not have to stay away for fear of Dr. Rawski's tests, for there will be no examinations at the end of the semester.

The class had its first meeting on January 15. Dr. Rawski started with the Nineteenth Century Composers and intends working up to the modern living composers.

The class meets every Friday at 9:00 A.M. in Room D of the Music Building. Students of all departments who are interested are cordially invited.

Torch Causes Fire At Phi Delta Pi

Although not scheduled last week, one of the outstanding school events proved to be a fire up at the Phi Delta Pi house. The cold weather of the night before had frozen the water pipes on the third floor and it was during an attempt to fix them, that the fire started. The flame of the blow torch crept in between the partitions of the floor and began to eat away the floor and walls. By the time the fire trucks had arrived on the scene, the fire had had a good start, thus necessitating the use of the big fire hose.

Following the path of the fire by chopping up the floor, the firemen quickly got the fire under control. In a short time it was completely out—to the relief of the anxious members.

Costly damage was done but, fortunately, no one was burned or injured.

March Of Youth, Inc. Advocates Suffrage

March of Youth, Inc., an organization representing the youth of America has recently announced many activities. The purposes and objects of the March of Youth, Inc. are:

To promote and maintain through the means of newspaper advertisement, news and magazine articles, radio, and other avenues of publicity, an active and aggressive organization of young people throughout the Nation for the purpose of presenting their views and philosophies pertaining to County, State and National Government; to promote clean and wholesome living; to support morally and financially the church of his or her faith; to emphasize reward of hard work and loyalty, and stress the dividends that are received in practicing thrift through systematic saving, life insurance, and other safe investments; to secure suffrage for boys and girls 18, 19 and 20 years of age; to encourage educational opportunities for all boys and girls at least through high school; to assist in promoting a conviction on the part of our entire citizens that this country is large enough and great enough for agriculture, capital, labor and government to live and prosper together. In fact, cooperating and striving at all time to create a better balanced economic system.

Bombers Travel To Jersey and Penn.

Co-Captains Leave

The Bombers, again taking to the road, will travel south this weekend to play Newark University in New Jersey and Bethlehem College in Pennsylvania. The team will meet Bethlehem tonight, and Newark tomorrow night, both schools sporting teams of high calibre. Although Ithaca has played and beaten Bethlehem in previous years, the Ithacans know this will not be a team to be easily reckoned with. The Penna. lads have plenty of drive and may perform the unexpected at any point in the game, which means the Bombers must be on the alert and play hard aggressive ball throughout every quarter.

Newark, as Bethlehem, has been pitted against I.C. squad previously and has been the victim in the majority of the contests. With the loss of a stellar forward, who has been called into the armed forces, we may find the boys across the border a little weak on scoring power; but as far as team play and defensive work is concerned, Newark will undoubtedly find enough spark to keep the Bombers going at top speed until the final seconds run out.

Tomorrow night at Newark, the curtain will be drawn on the bas-

Defense Or Draft Affects Few Of Faculty

A recent development in the war effort concerning all men is that men who are not already in the armed forces or working in defense plants will be drafted for work in defense plants.

In I. C. this plan would apply to faculty members mostly, and according to a statement made by Pres. Job such a plan will not affect Ithaca College. We will lose faculty members to defense work only if the teachers themselves volunteer for such work.

However, the Association of American colleges has organized a war time placement college for placing faculty members who find themselves without employment due to the draft setup. Many faculty men have already been called into the armed service or into special war time service.

Another development since the last publication of the ITHACAN is that all Army Air Corps reserve men will be called by Feb. 28 and in a release just published, it was stated that those in the Naval Aviation reserve will be called about July 1.

Women At War

Women Have Gone To War! WAVES, WAACS, SPARS, and WAFS are just as common today as their male counterparts. Now a new group has been added—the Women's Auxiliary of the Marine Corps. This group has no nickname, for according to them "Marine is the finest name anyone can bear."

There is a very urgent need for more and more women in all branches of the service. Our armed forces are being sent to all the fronts of this global war, and this makes it necessary for every available man to be on active duty. The women are needed to release men doing clerical and non-combat work for actual fighting.

The government has recently sent out a call for several more women to join the armed forces. These will receive their basic training and then will be stationed for work—the WAVES, SPARS, and Marines in the country and the WAACc either here or overseas.

All members of the auxiliary services get the same wages as men of the same rank. And they have equal chances for advancement. In order to become officers in any of the services the candidate must have a college degree. The enlisted personnel of the WAACS must be at least 21 years of age and must have 2 years of college. The WAVES require high school graduates and girls 18

Student Council Tightens Qualifications For Officers

Two weeks ago when the Student Council was in session, a decision was reached in regard to the index of any student holding a responsible office in any school organization. The ruling, which was passed unanimously, is as follows: Any student who holds a responsible office in any school organization, must have a cumulative index of 50 or above. Officers with a less than 50 cumulative index will be asked to hand in their resignation from that position. This law will go into effect immediately and will effect all organizations except fraternities and sororities.

We of the Student Council feel that anyone holding a responsible position—a position which governs the activities of many of the student body—should be able to maintain a respectable cumulative average thereby proving that he or she is worthy of that position. We deem the "respectable cumulative average" to be 50.

Resignation from offices will be

Regents Board Gives Permission To Grant Masters Degrees

President Job has just announced the favorable action of the Board of Regents of the University of New York on the petition of the College to enlarge its privileges of conferring degrees. The item of major interest contained in the petition was that of granting the privilege of conferring Masters degrees. The Master of Science degree will be given in Physical Education, Health and Nursing Education. Master of Fine Arts will be given in Music, Speech, Drama and Fine Art. The College may also grant Master of Music, Doctor of Music causa honoris and Doctor of Fine Arts, causa honoris.

The College will open a course in Fine Arts in September. It is expected also that a Collegiate Nurse Training program will also be under way in September.

The Graduate study program will get under way at the beginning of the short summer session, opening early in July.

This program is one on which the Administration of the College has spent much time and effort. It is considered a long step in advance for the College. A large graduate group is expected next summer.

These courses, however, are limited to summer sessions for the duration. Thirty-two credits are given for eight hours and four summers are necessary for the degree.

This news should especially interest the drama students because heretofore they could not be certified in English.

Any further information on these graduate courses may be obtained from the department heads.

Bombers Break Even On Northern Trek

Two weeks ago the college team traveled north to play St. Lawrence University and Clarkson Tech, and came back with a .500 average. Playing their typical fast ball game against the Larries, the I.C. boys found easy picking as they handed their opponents a 49-36 set back. The following night seemed to take its toll of the boys, for they couldn't get their offense into motion long enough to put on a scoring spree. As the final whistle sounded, the Bombers found themselves on the short end of a 50-46 score.

Fraternally Yours

Sigma Alpha Iota

We gave a tea Sunday, Feb. 14 for our patronesses. This turned out to be a gala affair with several vocal solos by Jasmine Hull, violin solo by Sunny Roberg and clever readings by Mrs. Beeler.

Due to a thermometer which read 28° in the chapter room, we didn't have any meeting last week.

Saturday night we spent a most pleasant evening at the house, dancing from 10-1. Initiation has been postponed until March 8.

Phi Mu Alpha

Hi ya people!! Here's the column again bringing you the dirt about the lads on the Cliff.

To begin with a problem must be solved, and here it is. All winter long, it's been colder than (although it's pretty warm there). There have been no signs of chirping birds, warm sun, green grass, fair weather and stuff. Then tell me, how come so many girls are sporting our pins of late. It didn't happen once, or even twice, but THREE times!! Can you imagine?? Ye gods, we're all going screwy. Before this columnist tears out his few remaining hairs let's congratulate the boys who "dood it;" Bob Herendeen, Tony Bucolo and Tony Pezzano. Nice going.

Phew!! Let's talk about something else like the war, for instance. Bob Herendeen, Army Air Corps Reserve, was called into active duty last week. While a student here, Bob attained the position of Solo Cornetist in Concert Band, and President of the Frosh Class. Best of luck to you, Bob.

We also had another army visitor in the person of Bob "J." Toft. Bob reports that Phi Mu is quite active in his post band at Massachusetts; and brings with him, regards from Bob Cook and Ernie Ortone.

One more thing, don't forget the Band Concert this Sunday nite. "Tombstone" Graves will be the guest soloist and it sounds swell.

See you soon!!!

Phi Delta Pi

Phi Delt staged an unofficial house-warming a week ago Monday. It was a special affair with the Ithaca firemen as the honored guests. It proved to be so warm that the guests brought along their axes and hose, and did an excellent job of chopping up the third floor. However it was not effective enough to justify any of the members jumping out of the windows. The smoke lingered in the halls for several days and more or less smoked us out, but we have at last lost it. Now we are experiencing the odororous scent of new paint which covers the wall where the disaster struck.

The last two weekends have been special occasions with many of the recently departed Seniors returning for a visit. Some of the familiar face were: Lee Evans, "Debby" Diebolt, Rena Allen, "Umpy" Olmstead. Grace Pierce, Edna Degen, also Dorie Parker and Betty Banker.

Our Bridge Club has swelled its ranks. Every Tuesday night finds the bridge addicts all ready to improve their game, under the able guidance of our supervisor, Mr. Yavits. We have found from the alums that mastering the art of this fascinating game reaps its benefits in the future. They tell us that many of their vacant hours are filled in by playing bridge.

Phi Epsilon Kappa

Taking full advantage of the spring weather last weekend, Phi E.K. had a hay ride and closed house dance which proved to be a real change from our usual form of entertainment. Informality was the by-word and a grand time was had by all. Perhaps something new has been added to the social function of Mu chapter.

Steve Charsky has accepted his bid so that we now have 8 freshman pledges. Their pledge period will end with the new "streamlined" informal, the early part of March.

Three-fifths of the "fearsome five" are leaving today for Rochester, on cadet teaching assignments. Bob Bradley, Karl Cook, and Minat Stewart are through with Ithaca for the remainder of this term. Also going out of town this weekend are Steve Zawyrucha and Dick Cartwright. Dick will not be back at all, since he graduates in April and will start to teach at that time.

Due to Cartwright's forthcoming absence, Joe Caverly was elected Treas. at our last formal meeting.

Visitors during the past few weeks include: Dave Rathenberg, Bob Snyder, Bob Kaufman, Rudy Albanesc, "Butch" Eiscle, Fred Rella, and perhaps one or two more who came and left while no one was looking.

Bill Beal writes to Mother "Steve" that he is on some foreign shore in full charge of a Marine detachment. He is keeping up with the school news by getting the Ithacan, usually months behind time. He says that most of us do not realize the extent to which we are involved in this struggle, but he appreciates the sacrifices that we are making for his benefit. Bill is looking forward to the time when he can come back to the "house" on the hill and participate in bigger and better paddlings.

Other Phi E.K. men heard from recently are: Jim McMann and Charley Lent, Va.; F. O'Neil and Herb Pittman, Fla.; Hank Adams, N. Car., and Bob Pepper and W. Lockwood, N. Y.

Students Present Well-Balanced Recital

A very interesting recital was given last Wednesday evening by a very capable group of music students. A variegated program was offered consisting of piano, string and vocal selections.

Rose Spidalier of Schenectady opened the program with a Beethoven sonata Op. 31, No. 2. She possesses good tonsil control but an extreme case of nervousness was apparent (probably due to the much too fast tempo).

Appearing next with a very professional attitude and with an air of confidence was Burton Goldner who played the Kreisler "Tempo di Minuetto." His technique was very good but he could strive for a richer and more vibrant tone. He plays the violin instead of letting the violin play itself.

"Care Selve" by Handel and "A Pastoral" by Veracini were offered by Lola Clark of Rushville who was the first vocal soloist on the program. She has a very pleasant soprano voice which the audience seemed to have enjoyed.

Ruth Brown playing "Love Dream" by Liszt exhibited a very fine tone. As a whole, the selection was not too coherent.

One of the pleasant surprises of the evening was Anthony Pezzano playing "Heyre Kati" by Hubay. Even though the selection is a bit trite, he plays it deliberately and charmingly.

Another vocal selection next by John Huck of Connecticut "O God Have Mercy" by Mendelssohn. He has a nice voice but perhaps some of the really excellent works by Brahms, Franz or Schubert might have been more adaptable to this recital.

Orchids of the evening to Marion Milkey for a splendid rendition of the difficult "Garden Under The Rain" of Debussy. In this composition it appears that Debussy might have been mimicking Bach, and Marion's interpretation of this was outstanding in typifying the Debussy impression. A beautiful tone color was displayed throughout.

Bob Messenger a bass from Kingston offered "Truly Joy the Impatient Husbandman" from "The Seasons" by Hayden. He sang it in a lively, spirited manner. He seemed a bit stiff, probably due to the fact that it was his first performance on the Little Theatre stage.

The closing number on the program was Joan (Tschaiakowsky Concerto) Day playing a cello solo, "Concerto in A Minor" by Klughardt. In the more technical demanding passages and there were many, she proved herself to be very competent. Her composition was difficult and was a product of the mind not the spirit.

Judging by comment heard after the concert, it was by far the best student recital heard at Ithaca College this year.

LET'S SEE

By Raida

This Sunday the Ithaca Cinema Theatres will present two outstanding motion pictures. One theatre will show "IN WHICH WE SERVE" reputed to be the year's greatest human drama. It stars Bernard Miles, John Mills and Celia Johnson. Noel Coward wrote, produced, directed, composed the music and acted in this, probably England's finest war film to date. Critics say: "The technique is pure artistry in form, the direction both intelligent and brilliant and the acting so natural the characters become a part of our lives." The central character tells the story of a ship, "H. M. S. Torrin," from its inception to its final death struggle at the bloody hands of a Nazi sub.

At the other theatre will be "Life Begins At 8:30". Ida Lupino is the crippled daughter of Monty Woolley, a has-been actor given to inebriety, who needs her desperately. For years she's watched over him, sacrificing her life to his, until she meets musician Cornel Wilde, and must choose between him and her father. Which does she choose? I don't know. See the movie.

Now, let's see what is playing. Well, there is "THE POWERS GIRL" with Benny Goodman's Orchestra, Anne Shirley and Carol Landis as sisters, Dennis Day and his songs, and George Murphy as the boy both girls want. The theme is that of the big sister who wants a career more than all the world and the meek little sister who wants nothing but George Murphy. And who doesn't!

Also there is a double feature playing. "THE GREAT GILDER-SLEEVE" with giddy "Gildy" and his radio show; and "CAT PEOPLE" with Simone Simon and Kent Smith—to kiss her meant death by her own fangs and claws, and all that sort of thing.

Revived at lets-see-it-again theatres: "BLOOD AND SAND" and "WHO DONE IT."

Off The Record

Ed. Hacker

There has been a limited amount of record releases this month by Columbia and Victor Companies. The Victory Red Seal releases include three albums: Sibelius' Seventh Symphony by the St. Louis Symphony and Golschmann; "The Moldau" by Smetana, conducted by Kindler with the National Symphony; and Kreisler's "Rondino," played by the composer. All of these albums are acceptable; except the Smetana set, which is better played by the Czech Philharyears old.

The new Marine Corps, which only last week began accepting recruits, has almost the same requirements. Enlisted members must be 20 to 36 years old and high school graduates. Officer candidates are required to be 20 to 50 years old with either a college degree, or 2 years college credit and 2 years of business experience.

The new Marine Corps is much more liberal than the other women's auxiliaries in regard to dress. The women are allowed to wear make-up and fingernail polish. Their uniforms are of an olive green wool; the cap is visored and tapers in the back; the shirt and tie are beige. For office and other work they are required to wear oxfords with low heels, but for other occasions matching pumps with two and a half inch heels are allowed.

There is good opportunity for graduates of any of the departments of Ithaca College in the service. They will be given opportunities to work in the fields for which they are qualified, and being college graduates they will be eligible for officer rating.

Anyone interested in joining one of the women's auxiliary services should write to Syracuse where the induction stations are located.

The third Columbia Masterworks set consists of Debussy's "La Mer", played by Rodzinski and the Cleveland Orchestra.

YOUTH, INC.

One of these purposes is now being considered in a nationwide survey of colleges and universities; and that is "suffrage for boys and girls 18, 19 and 20 years of age."

The main arguments of the group are these: "Boys and girls of the above mentioned age who are working, fighting and dying for their country should have a voice in the affairs of state and national government. The boys and girls of 18 today are far more mature than the teen-agers of the passing generation. Their college education has been compressed into three years. Their high school years have been accelerated and intensified by night training courses and practical experience in producing armaments, goods and farm produce.

Since heavy responsibility has been the heritage of the younger generation for 1942, it is only right and just that society make acknowledgment of its debt to these boys and girls, so early ripened into maturity."

Letters containing this information have been sent to College Student Councils all over the United States for careful deliberation. Our council in Ithaca College will discuss this matter at the next meeting which any of you students are welcome to attend. Any opinions on the subject, pro or con, will be welcomed by the council. They may be written out and given to the President, Dom Di Sarro, who will present them for consideration at the next meeting.
