Prom Queen Will Be - ?
Saturday Night Will Tell

... Saturday night is the loneliest night of the week, so the song goes. "But the Saturday night of junior prom, 1945, needn't be lonely for anyone in I.C.,” state the members of the Junior class: "that's the night of the Junior Prom. Beautiful girls beautifully dressed, the scent of gardenias mingled with a strain of 'Clair de Lune', how could anyone be lonely in such an atmosphere?"

The prom will start promptly at 8:00 p.m., and will continue until 12. The music will be furnished by Phi Mu's Sinfonians who have some musical tricks up their sleeves. The Gym will be decorated as a garden on a June evening, with the fact that's all your reporter is allowed to tell you. Come and be surprised!

At approximately 9:15 the procession will begin, followed by the coronation of the prom queen. Who will she be? Well, that's for you to decide. After the coronation, the queen will lead the Grand March which will end the first half of the dance; at that time the favors will be passed out to the ladies. "Honest to Pete," says Emil Kronek, chairman of the prom committee, "it's going to be swell."

"Everyone is urged to come," adds Connie Conroe, president of the Junior class; "and to buy tickets early."

- Samuel Barker, composer of the Command March, was for a time at Stewart Field while Mr. Beeler was stationed there.

Music Students Secure Teaching Positions

Seven seniors in the music department have recently signed contracts to teach and supervise public school music this fall.

Nora Harris will be teaching general music at Crown Point, New York; Jean Lenik will be instrumental instructor at Greenville, replacing Miss Peltzki Blair, former 1st graduate; Monette Martin will be in charge of both instrumental and vocal music at Troma Center; Evelyn Moore will succeed Mrs. Bernadette Nicholas Hohenan, also a 1st graduate, as vocal instructor at Phelps; Betty Rich will take over general music work at Corteswall. been coming in to the music office during the past week. Reports in such quantities that it has been impossible even to consider some of them. It is felt that Miss Mary Louise Potter, Secretary to Dr. Rehmann.

Seven I. C. Students To Be Camp Counselors

Spring, spring, beautiful spring is almost here and then summer vacation is just around the corner. What does this mean? Well, for most of us it means back to work, some in war plants, some in stores and others in specified occupations. There are a few who are taking camp positions.

These include: Bob Schulz, Camp Wigwam; Shirley Ibe, Camp Wheel, Camp Arrow, and Harold Law, Camp Kenwood, Connecticut; Helen Davis, Camp Wyola, Vermont; Paul Krouck, Camp Kanawago, Connecticut; Mary Alice Hix, Camp Quinibeg, Vermont; and Tamper Lodge, New York.

Dr. Grinslau has announced that there are several jobs open for those who are qualified, so why don't you have a look into the situation? Maybe there is a capabilities waiting for you.

"The Imaginary Invalid"

Chosen for Next Play

The Ithaca College Players under the direction of John Reich will present Moliere's classic comedy "The Imaginary Invalid" as their next production.

When Mr. Finch announced the play to the Ithacan staff he said, "This play, like others of Moliere, is an artistic exploitation of human foibles sometimes called 'hypochondriacy'; it satirizes the man who enjoys illness and self-pity. It is told with all the vigor and attention to comic character and situation typical of Moliere."

The real-life situation behind the play provides a stimulus to the imagination of the actors. Moliere as the Imaginary Invalid played his part and greatest part. He had really been ill for some time, and after a magnificent performance of his most ingenious creative role, left the stage and suffered a fatal attack.

The play has a cast of twelve and provides several excellent and varied parts for women. Try-outs have been scheduled for the early spring, and dates for the performances have been tentatively set for April 27, 28, and May 4, 5.

The production will be an experimental one in that it is based on a new version of the play.

Oracle Pledges Seniors;
Initiation April 14

Violet Schallenberg, Angie Fichette, and Shirley Haggard of the Physical Education Department, have received bids to Oracle, senior honorary society. They entered their pledgehood on Sunday, March 11, at ceremonies held at Phi Mu Alpha.

They will be initiated on April 11 at Dr. Job's home, to be followed by a banquet at the dining hall; membership in Oracle is based upon scholarship, leadership, and participation in outside activities. The three candidates for membership are the seniors of the junior and senior classes who have met the qualifications.

Steinberg Sings

With Sinfonians

Elaine Steinberg will sing with the Sinfonians at the prom. Last Sunday Elaine appeared for girl vocalists, and among the aspirations were Helen Laerberg, Peggy Brown, Elaine Steinberg, Beld Lego, Evelyn Barnett, Marj Huyard, and Nancey Pagel Wilson. Each of the two responders and the decision was based on voice and presentation of song.
Scampers Swells Fund

Don't throw that bottle! Don't boo the officials. There may be a special fund to help the Scampers through the Ithaca College student. Some of the referees are liable to be I.C. boys.

In Elmira, N.Y., last Thursday, seven men of the physical education department took an examination, which if passed, would make them members of the National Officials Association. Members of this association are eligible to referee any basketball game, amateur or professional, anywhere in the United States. The Ithaca College representatives were Hank Crowell, Pat Fiore, George Khoury, Dave Stone, Bob Driscoll, Lyle Brown and John Sadoma.

The examination consisted first of a number of difficult true and false questions on technical points, and second, the actual refereeing of a game. Each boy officiated for about fifteen minutes over a church league game. The conditions were the worst that could be achieved, so that the judges Ralph Moore and Al Todd, both well known in the sport would have adequate material upon which to base their decision. The results will be announced in about three weeks.

The Ithacan entrants have attended discussions under Mr. Yavitis for some time and have obtained practical experience in officiating at local J.V. games, or intramural games at I.C.

Organization Notes

Phi Mu Alpha

Bids have been given to the following freshmen: Dewey Rieger, Dave Minier, Leonard Zimolzak and John Jarvis, which will continue for six weeks, in the spring of next week. Phi Mu brother Chris Izzo has signed to play with Vaughn Munroe next summer. Chris met Monroe while playing with some of Monroe's ex-men in the army. When discharged, Chris played for two weeks with the band at Hotel Commodore in New York.

Phi Delta Pi

The girls of Phi Delta Pi are making plans for future bowling. Plans are being made by the girls for a spring carnival in which the entire school will participate. The carnival promises to be one of the big events of the college year. Save your pennies and watch any further reports on the Phi Delta Pi spring carnival.

Newman Club

During Lent the Newman Club members in the various dormitories are holding discussions. "Marriage" is the subject under discussion at present by the outline given in the Hutchinson pamphlete.

Sigma Alpha Iota

The Fraternity is planning the collection of books to send to service overseas. Watch the lobby for any signs of this collection.

Initiation of 6 pledges, Monette Martin, Ruth Knight, Alice Terzan, Marjorie DeBois, Dorothy Teed and Betty Rich was held Monday, February 19 at the Sigma Alpa Iota house.

Former president Dorothy Terzan is now teaching vocal music in Winchester, New York.

Rehearsals for the Sigma Alpha Iota musical have begun and plans are being made to present it during Music Week.

Kappa Gamma PSI

Denny Bouceel, Arthur Goodrich, David Mistrovsky, and Irwin Tobin are now pledging for Kappa Gamma Psi. A short while ago Al Korkous came in from Lake Geneva and visited his Alma Mater. Joe Cusma came in from Guilford.

Dear Johnnie:

This looks like a short letter, Johnnie, 'cause the past few weeks have gone by so quickly that the Ithacan date just sort of jumped up and surprised us. We had a letter from Mac Lewis. He is still in Puerto Rico and seems to enjoy his work there.

Ed Gobrecht, a Phi Mu man was here last week. He is now playing in the Aberdeen band at Aberdeen, Md. Morty Klayman is a First Lieutenant. After completing thirty-one missions as navigator on a B-24 Bomber, he was promoted, and is now on leave on the Isle of Capri.

Guess what, Johnnie! Mrs. Lynch's face has been voted the "face most likely to stop a block huster." Howie Johnson wrote her a letter and said that he had elected her unanimously to the position. Mary DiStarro is now in "sunny" California, and guess who she met in Los Angeles. None other than Ronnie Bishop who now has a major part in the road show of "Othello." Ronnie seems to be doing quite well for himself. Remember how he used to put the little cartoons on the bulletin boards? Well, he has turned his talents toward higher goals and has sold several of his own oil paintings. Dave Rothenberg was in town. He's teaching physical education and is coach of the basketball team in a Westchester high school.

Dr. Tallcott had a letter from Dr. Ray Holcombe who is the head of the drama department at the MacMurray College for Women in Jacksonville, Ill. Dr. Holcombe says that he is preparing "Our Town" for the college's next production. Joe Stutzman met Bob Messinger in Maastricht, Germany. We can hardly pronounce it, let alone meet there. Joe was toddling down Main St. riding a pretty little fraulcin, when he felt an iron hand on his shoulder. Supposing it was the girl's mother, he turned slowly around, and stood face to face with Bob. - Happy New Year!

Pledging has started, Johnnie. The freshmen who got away with very little hazing this year are finding out that pledging is quite different, and that they aren't as glorious as they seem. As yet there have been no lobby orations or Romeo and Juliet scenes in the park, but then, as we said before, pledging has only started.

PFC Lanny Morton, once Kappa Gamma president, is stationed in India. In a recent letter he wrote, "Kipling wrote a poem about India, Rimsk-Korsakov wrote a song about India, but I have to live in India." Eli Cohen is somewhere in Luxembourg and his new address is PFC Eli Cohen 32890781, Ser. Btry 334th F.A. Bn., APO 448, 8th Postmaster, New York. Recently George St. Pierre was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant in the Army Air Corps.

Recently Mother Steve frightened us all by having a heart attack and being rushed to the hospital where she was put in an oxygen tent. We are now glad to report that she is much improved and getting a big kick out of the idea of being taken to the men's wing— we figured that was rather apro-pos for "Stevie," when last seen, she was cursing the hospital out because "they don't know how to take care of flowers."

Love and stuff...

Curfew Cuts

College Capers

The old fable of Cinderella has come to life once more. This time, however, it's no fable, it's the real McCoy. Curfew must ring tonight! (By the order of the Women's Student Commission, all dances and organized parties must end at midnight. The exception to the rule is the type of affair organized and run by the U.S.O., Y.M.C.A., or other Service men's entertainers.)

The faculty of Ithaca College has been asked by the mayor to cooperate in the enforcement of this rule. So the American Cinderella has come to stay!

Mice Are Nice—They Don't Pay Tuition

It's again the question of how to handle the eager but not wholly desirable student. The sack or the tutor?

You've seen him at the piano in the Green Room, or perhaps even in the piano, that fund he is of music. Or you've observed him being with that well educated mouse, but alas! Some one stepped on him—Gustikh.
