Report Cards

In a recent issue of the Ithacan, a letter to the editor complained that the production of the yearbook was slow and that many students found it difficult to receive their cards in time.

The Ithaca College yearbook will not be honored for the fourth consecutive year as the production has been greatly delayed. The administration recognizes that the report cards must be sorted alphabetically before the marks can be recorded, and this process can be interrupted until next year at the earliest. Until the new policy can be instituted, the administration asks the students to be patient and understands the difficulties involved.

The conference will begin at 1 p.m. The program will consist of three panel members, one the personnel director of a manufacturing company, another the director of a sales organization, and the third, the merchandise manager of a retail department store. Each member of the panel will briefly describe the opportunities in his particular field, the qualifications looked for in junior executives, and the types of openings graduates of a business college may expect to find in each field.

After the brief talks by the panel members, the moderator, Tom Tokas, will direct questions to the panel for discussion. After the moderator has asked his questions, the audience will be given the opportunity to ask specific questions of any of the panel members.

The program was good comedy and good production. But even time we turned around, we heard the familiar strains of "dun-dun-dun", "dun-dun-dun", Dragana. "Tooted in quite liberally along with Jack Webb," the President of the FIB in Peace and War. The music was from Rogers Gallery. "Well, let's be honest, it's a lot bigger and better now." Script Writers Wanted
An intensive campaign to find scripts by recognized on producing new playwrights will be undertaken by TV to Broadway Productions, a new producing firm established by Oscar S. Lerman. TV to Broadway Productions has been organized to present plays in the various entertainment fields; first, in production and subsequent- ly, on the Broadway legitimate stage and/or films. A new video show "TV to Broadway," is planned to showcase these scripts. Lerman is also considering filming "The Woman With Red Hair," for Broadway production this spring and "The Popular Sport," which is scheduled for full production. Lerman will also be the co-producer of "The Beat Busters," a comedy by Sam and Bella Spe- wack. "The demand for quality dramas for "TV has grown tremendously because of increased dramatic program." says Lerman. "It is in the intention of "TV to Broadway Productions to test new scripts on television, and if successful, then produce them on Broadway. In a way you could liken this to the role the summer stock theatre plays in the legitimate theatre. It has become increasingly obvious that prime time on both Broadway and Hollywood are lacking the"excitement to television as a show case for potential properties."

Lerman also points out that there are thousands of talented writers throughout the country who never even get the opportunity of having their work read. Television networks and advertising agencies responsible for some programs, he adds, will accept a script unless submitted by an agent. "Who knows when another Paddy Cha- rry will emerge?" asks Lerman.

"Relax—it's just the doorbell. Junior will call after 6!"

Of course Dad is wound up like a 98¢ watch the nights you call home. He needs any news about you—hello. He's told all the old stories so many times that his friends are avoiding him like the plague. All he wants is new material.

You've made him hopeful. Or joined that psycho fraternity. Anything! And remember, if you need a little extra oil to lubricate your hifilow, there's no better way to prime the pump than with frequent phone calls. In fact, if you call any night after 6 or all day Sunday, when others aren't around, you've won there. Dad will think you've learned how to handle cash—silly boy!
