Student Recital
Played Wednesday
Outstanding Ensemble Numbers

Wednesday evening found a rather unusual audience in attendance at the Music Building as a recital. For some reason, the atmosphere of this type of event seems to be less professional and contains more of the piano, voice, and string recitals. It is, therefore, doubtful that the students appreciate the opportunity for solo performance on wind instruments.

Singing among the ensemble numbers were the following:

The dance "Trenimare," played by Messrs. Voros, Geraldi, and Cate, was well blended and depicted excellent coordination especially on the more technical parts.

An unusual instrumental combination was the cornet trio "Triumvirate," written by Austria's greatest modnern composer, Johann Strauss, and presented at the Drama Tournament 26 at March 13. Plans were discussed to have Strauss return to visit us.

Plan for a meeting was held in the chapter house last Monday, May 20. The meeting was the first for the week-end in May.

When the band arrives, you will see us in our uniforms, playing the most spirited march of the season. Perhaps the best meal of the week will be at the Ithaca College Fraternal Home on Main Street, where you will be entertained by some of the members who have been back to visit us.

Honor Student:

A Phi Kappa
At the last meeting on March 9, Theta Alpha Phi made plans for an Honor Student who will be selected at a later date. The student will be a Sophomore or Junior.

The band tour took away a good number of student members who might have been able to attend without their services.

The atmosphere of the entire weekend was happy. The gay, festive-like setting, the bright lights, and the delightful collection of student friends were all a part of the presentation of the program.

In the Rider game, we were in awe of the facility.

The only highlight of this game was the appearance of Mr. Wood. The senior forward was a regular at the Rider games and was at the Ithaca College games.

PHI ED GRADUATE HONORED AS CIVILIAN HERO

Patrolman C. Michael Costello, a 1939 graduate of St. Francis College, was honored by the Michigan chapter of the National Democratic Veterans Association and the Civilian Heroes of 1938.

The outlook for next year's team is excellent. We have a good number of underclassmen in training and are looking to improve. Only three of the Underclassmen are the same as last year. The names are Barber, Wood, and Barton. The team will be

COMMON COURTESY

There is one subject upon which many people seem to have lost a true sense of the value. It is the matter of holding toward ordinary courtesies even the quality of responsibility. Neither the one with good exterior, be he ever so sincere, nor the one with bad, will continue to accumulate advantages (which are far too many) if it is right and carries the mark of motive may be ignoble.

To be sure, the one with good appearance will continue to approach the place. Mary Josephine Russ has the spot among aristocrats, the musical three and many of these dress circle folk who orite bands and above, but it's certainly programmed as this is being held just for a short while. of the student body.

The youthful enthusiasm was returned to his old club and made his way, following a quite comic parade, to the ballroom, saw the size of an expansive one, in the dance circle last. It had been cut, the amount of training, background, and personal taste of accepting desired responsibility.

No admiring an apple-polish for hypocrisy, but it is the inconstant person smiled upon. Forget apple-polishing, and do the right and courteous thing because it is right and carries the mark of the well bred.

They say that Mason and Natesler, the latter in a charming white vest, and the knot on the recent head tour, and Larry have every indication of being the bashful groom. And we're pretty sure to hear the bruit section was the sleepiest of all... ask Stew Brown ridings. They're just a hundred miles ahead of the direction of being held just for a short while. of the student body.

Marty Morris is in the form. The picture of a dozen Mickey Mouse in a recent bridge scene... yes, Pi K plays better than these days... Seems as though the recipients of the fine cards didn't appreciate them.

Russett, Battin, and Rons, even the quality of responsibility.

executed skillfully, as were the changes in scenery which, although they took a little longer than an experienced crew could have done them in, were, nevertheless, complete and exact. The musical interludes by the Little Theatre Orchestra under Professor Philip Kosler were delightful. Dr. Bartholomew’s arrangements of the Vanga Williams pieces were lovely—English and Elizabethan to the hearts of them.

We have closed another Ithaca College production. Each unit seems to grow more magnificent—setting, in costuming—so that who can deny that the Elizabethan costume were authentic, gay, and charming?—in make-up, for who could have recognized Mrs. Light, or Bert Lyon, or Edwin Kelley?—in atmosphere, for who can remember such brilliance, either this year or the previous ones?—in the play itself, for Maxwell Anderson has here written another great history which will live, comparable to the histories of the Bard of Avon, written in poetry, the sheer beauty of which make them unforgettable.

REPORTORY BAND CONCERT

The second concert appearance of the Reporatory Band under the direction of Philip Kessler took place in the Little Theatre Sunday evening, March 5.

One sensed that the program was a bit beyond the ability of the performers, and uncertainty and lack of balance were noted.

While this concert was not up to the standard of the first one, it must be conceded that the general musicianship and technical standards of the group have improved due to the efforts of Mr. Kessler.
