Margaret Itter Has Star Role

In Coming "Kingdom of God"

Four Performances To Begin Wednesday

The Kingdom of God, a realistic drama by G. Martinez Sierra and the Department of Drama's fourth production of the season, is to be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday night of next week in the Little Theatre, curtain at 8:15.

With less than a week of rehearsal time remaining, Dr. Charles J. McGaw stated, "This is a very difficult play to produce, and the progress of the cast as "splendid."

Margaret Itter, senior drama student, plays the lead role of Sister Grace. "This is a very difficult student, plays the lead role of Sister Grace. "This is a very difficult student, plays the lead role of Sister Grace.

"Such a play," Dr. McGaw said, "though unconventional as to structure, presents a large variety of characters which should make it interesting to see." According to Dr. McGaw the problem for the director and the audience is caused by this great variety of characters; many of them small emotional parts which are essential to the plot but offer little opportunity for dramatic expression.

EDITH LUNDQUIST was also elected by the Dance Department. Edie is Editor of the Cayugan, President of Delta Phi Zeta, Vice President of Theta Alpha Phi, and Secretary - Treasurer of the Student Council. pions. The night following the defeat at Clarkson, the Bombers played, and defeated a strong St Lawrence team. Earlier in the season the Luries had beaten Clarkson.

The last two games were played in New Jersey against Panzer, and now, Panzer, stronger of the two clubs, and one of the strongest clubs played this season was beaten by a score of 25-29. At the half, Panzer led 22-10, but the boys put on a terrific rally to come out on top.

The following night the Ithacans played Newark, and drew them 46-33 in an comparatively easy game. Even though Newark had a chance to see the Bombers in action, they could do little to stop the crushing drive of Coach Yavits' really great team.

Phi Delta Pi
Five New Pledges

Congratulations to Marjorie Smith, Virginia Selfert, Mary Jones, Joan Hoyt and Eleanor Rushby, who have been bid to join Phi Delta. Informal induction is scheduled for Saturday, February 28. Informal initiation will follow on March 21. A banquet after formal initiation will be held at the hotel to climax the pledging activities. Sue Bertrand has been selected chairman of the banquet.

A formal tea will be held at the house Sunday afternoon in honor of our new patron and patroness, Dr. and Mrs. Steers. All Freshmen girls of the Physical Education Department are invited to attend.

Plans are also underway for a Freshman rush party to take place in the near future. Alda Miller and Emma Emens are co-chairmen of the affair, which is to be in the form of a Scavenger hunt.

Fold Formal February 15

Sunday evening, February 15th ten former pledges took their formal initiation at the house. Following this a tasteful buffet lunch was enjoyed. Those receiving the award were: Settlecase, McGrane, Waite, Rouzi, Gurzynski, Cosma, Roosevelt, Morton, Fuller, and Norton.

The informal house dance (last Friday evening) was acclaimed the best of the year. Plans for a full Junior Week-end are now in progress. We wish the juniors the best 'Prom' ever.

Seven pledges met last Tuesday evening for general instructions for the following weeks. Due to the shortened semester, initiation will probably be held in March.

Phi Epsilon Kappa
Visits From Alumni

Activity is plentiful at "the house on the hill." Scammers, election of officers, pledging, plans for our annual week-end, and of course, school work are all keeping the boys on their toes. It was a pleasant surprise that Charley Baker and John Palmer gave us with their visit last weekend. Both had favorable reports to give us regarding their respective positions.

The date for our annual week-end has been set for April 17th and 18th. As usual, everyone is looking forward to a most enjoyable time.

It's nice to have our own "Steve" back with us again. The boys missed her while she was keeping an eye on the girls at Newman Hall during the absence of Mother Kay. We were glad to hear of Mother Kay's recovery and wish her continued health.

Phi Mu Alpha
Twenty Men Pledge Sinfonia

Last Monday evening fifteen men took their pledge to Phi Mu Alpha, Sinfonia. This Sunday afternoon five upperclassmen, Smith, Meyers, Seely, McNaughten, and Blank took their formal initiation.

Plans have been suggested for a Phi Mu Week-end which will be on April 10-11-12. Formerly this affair was held in conjunction with Alumni Week-end.

Newman Club Plans
Activity Day

At a meeting of the Ithaca College Newman Club Board, it was decided that there would be a Newman Club Day on some Sunday in February. Faust Overture by Wagner, the first number, was excellent. Weber's Second Concerto for clarinet was very well played in unison by the clarinet choir. Morton Gould's American Sympho­nette, inserted as an encore was a modern selection which showed the audience "how the other half lives," as Mr. Beeler commented. Jota Argan­taise, Glinka, followed by Carnival in Paris, Svensden, concluded the program conducted by Mr. Walter Beeler.

Mr. Craig McHenry, guest con­ductor, opened his half of the pro­gram with American Rhapsody by Cherven, followed by Four Visions—Faust, Coleridge—Taylor, and Headlines by Colby. Again an encore was demanded and the audience had a real treat when Sousa's most popular march, Stars and Stripes Forever, concluded a fine concert.

The evening's performance exhibited fine ensemble work and phrasing. This was very evident to those in the audience and was one reason the entire program was so well received. Future band concerts are eagerly awaited.

Marty Avery, the so-called “lover” among the drama girls, entertains his bawdy admirers by playing cribbage nightly in the shop. He started with McGovern, and now he’s added a new competitor in Jean Douglass. If that’s what gets them, here’s where I learn the game.

First he wore different colored shoes and now it’s socks. Come, Betty—can’t you make Pete see the light of day?

Yours truly, who went to the movies last Sunday took a peek and a gander over his right shoulder and saw to his surprise a Mr. Shaw with sweet and becoming Miss Celty. Well, well... From the front page of my little black book: Westminster girls and dates play the balcony scene from “Romeo and Juliet”...

...From this missive. Perhaps it’s the pervasive talk-talk, perhaps it’s the lateness of the hour or perhaps—oh, well.

I don’t pretend to be an expert on the affairs of the athletic world (as you’ll soon find out), but there are some things of national concern that can’t escape even a drama student. And sports in all its phases—professional, amateur, collegiate—issue a question that concerns the whole nation today.

“Can a nation at war afford to waste its time on sports?” is a question frequently asked. The question rather should be: “Can we afford to eliminate it?” And the answer to that was adequately given by our own President in his statement on baseball a few weeks ago. The exact words we don’t know, but it was to the effect that the National Pastime was too valuable an item to let slide by the boards.

This, we believe, can be applied to sports in general. As a vicarious pleasure, where a man can go and see the top-notchers of the game after a hard day’s work, athletics are indispensable. And as a mass program—where the individual gets in to the “game” himself—it’s more important now than ever before.

America today should become more sports-conscious than it has ever been, with special emphasis on individual participation. Only if we are physically fit (in least a mild sort of way), whether we be at the front or at home, can we expect to come through the hardships of this war. And if you can stand a few more words of preaching—the goal line is a long way down the field and the enemy is hard and not always clean; we need all our courage and stamina

.666 For Yearlings

The Ithaca Yearelings to date have taken three straight games since those two setbacks by the Scranton Frosh and the Morrisville Aggies. The percentage now stands at 66% and may move up to 75 if they take the next three games.

Tomorrow night the Frosh will travel to Hamilton, then will close with their friendly rivals, Cornell, up on the hill, on March third. The Central City Business Inn’s, game for last Wed. was called off. This last contest promises to be a thriller. The Big Red Frosh lost by two points when Ithaca invaded Burton Hall the last time, so they will be out to avenge their loss.

Any definite line up for the future games cannot be given at this time, as Coach Light moves the boys about seeking to better the scoring punch and find a combination that works together smoothly. As it now stands it is quite possible that Knize and Stannard will be the forwards, Rival, Center, with Capt. Beaney and Pauls holding down the guard positions. However, the positions don’t mean much, as Johnny with his 6’4” frame jumps at center to start the ball games that shifts as a mass forward position. Snyder, Waskins, Williams, Toomey, Smith, Reil, and Johns make up the rest of the club and will be on hand to jump in when ever they may be needed.

No matter what the results of the remaining two games on the schedule, the Bombers deserve high praise for their season's work.

The fight they put up against East
Stroudsburg is worthy of mention only after terrific pressure that they were able to squeeze by the local boys.

Frank Urso, junior forward, receives special mention of his own.
A substitute last year, Frank has

WHAT! A girl training men to fly for Uncle Sam?

The name is Lennox—Peggy Lennox. She's blonde. She's pretty. She may not look the part of a trainer of fighting men, but—
She is one of the few women pilots qualified to give instruction in the CAA flight training program. And the records of the men who learned to fly from Peggy show she's doing a man-sized job of it. She's turned out

Yes, there is less nicotine in the smoke...extra mildness...

No, there's something more. Call it flavor, call it what you will, you'll find it
