On Sun. afternoon, Feb. 15, the first meeting of male students was held in a room for the purpose of forming a national organization here at Ithaca College.

At that time, Al Cahill was elected chairman of the committee and Bob Fowlis secretary. A Constitution and By-laws Committee, composed of John Thistlethwaite, Richard Owen, Bob Rico, and Tom McGeevan, was also set up. This committee will work on the by-laws and constitution and then submit to the regional association a larger committee which will include representatives from all classes and departments.

The following letter was presented at the meeting and clearly shows the purpose of the approval of the new organization that is being formed.

Robert Ribe
President, Student Council
Ithaca College

Dear Bob,

The administration views with approval the interest that has been created by men students for an Ithaca College Men's Organization. The interest in this idea is an indication of the desire for the welfare of the students and, hence, to that of the college.

The establishment of a housing bureau has been set up as a phase of the freshman orientation program. Such a bureau should work in close cooperation with the Director of Housing and the Director of Counseling. The bureau's function will be to provide information to the students of available housing and to arrange housing for them.

The name of the bureau is still under consideration. The name should be submitted to the students for their approval.

Sincerely yours,
Howard S. Dillingham, Assistant to the President

Wage Board Holds Public Hearings in Syracuse Mar. 5

Owen Root, chairman of the New York State Wage Commissioner Minimum Wage Board, announced today that the board will hold public hearings in New York City on Feb. 17 and 18 and in Syracuse on Mar. 5.

The hearings are part of an examining study by the nine-member board under recommendations for wage floors for camp counselors to State Industries and Coronation Gym, Edward C. Eilen.

"These hearings will provide an opportunity for camp counselors to tell us about wages and conditions of employment," said Mr. Root. "We are especially anxious to hear from counselors who are employed on a piecework basis, since we desire to establish minimum wages for these workers."

178 Colleges and Universities Enter Essay Contest Conducted by National Council of Jewish Women

 Essays from seniors of more than 175 colleges and universities have been received by the National Council of Jewish Women in connection with its nationwide contest on "The Meaning of Academic Freedom," which closes December 31, 1952, reported Mrs. Albert Engelfinger, New York, National President, revealed today.

Five cash prizes, totaling $500, will be awarded to the winning essayists of the grading class of '52, who are the only ones eligible to participate in the contest. The winners are as follows:

First prize will be $250.00, second, $100.00; and third, fourth and fifth, $50.00 each.

Names of winning students will be announced at the National Convention to be held next month in Cleveland.

The essays will be examined by a five-man national judging committee. The judges include Ralph Cameron, winner of the Nobel Peace Prize in 1949; and Mrs. Albert Engelfinger, National President.

The essay contest is part of the National Council of Jewish Women's observance of the first anniversary of the 1950 anti-Palestine campaign in Congress which was headed by Mrs. Albert Engelfinger.

The fundamental purpose of the National Council of Jewish Women in sponsoring the essay contest is "to encourage the students to read and think and to express their opinions on the subject of academic freedom from the student's own point of view."

The essay contest is conducted by the National Council of Jewish Women in collaboration with the National Jewish Welfare Board. The winners of the essay contest will receive an unrestricted cash prize of $100.00 from the National Jewish Welfare Board.

The students will receive a certificate of recognition for their participation in the essay contest.

Blood—Your Gift of Life

In Korea suddenly there was war. Guns flamed and American and other U.N. troops fell wounded by the hundreds, by the thousands. By the thousands. By the thousands they desperately needed the greatest soldier, telling of casualties when his company was caught in the absence of letters, it would seem that the students are satisfied to take advantage of the chance to air their gripes. This year they may have to fight. As a second line of defense, it is started. The Department of Defense wants a strong, ready source of whole blood when his company was caught in the absence of letters, it would seem that the students are satisfied to take advantage of the chance to air their gripes.
A new bacteriological laboratory which is being installed in the Student Health Building will be ready for use for the first time in the next few weeks. The purpose of the lab will teach the students the techniques of laboratory work so that they may, after graduation, become affiliated with an institution where they will be able to do research work.

A four-year scholarship for Ithaca College's Liberal Arts Department is being awarded to any high school student who is selected by his principal or a committee of teachers.

Miss Poitier has several lost articles which have been turned in at her office in the Music Building. Among the articles are a business law text, a history text, a pair of men's glasses and three pairs of mittens. They may be claimed at the Music Building.

Professor Fred Brewer is now directing the "Bellman Makes News" broadcasts which are heard at 146 p.m. Pre, over the Rural Radio Network. The radio and television news writing students prepare the copy, and Roy Hugeman and Joan Leach serve as reporters for the program. The broad casts are heard over 15 stations throughout New York state.

Kappa Gamma Pi members are now in rehearsal for their annual recital which will be presented in the College Theater in the near future.

Preparations are now being made for the annual "Kappa Gamma Weekend" which will be held April 10, 11, and 12. The weekend will include a banquet, initiation of pledges, a party, a picnic, and will be highlighted by the "Vendetta Ball." The dance will be held at the Eagles Ballroom at which time the Cinderella Queen will be chosen.

In cooperation with UNICO and ANTA's Celebration of the International Theatre Month, Mr. Wood will present, in the Green Room Mar. 6, 7, 8, a memorial Reader's Theater production of Moliera's Social Comedy, The Misanthrope.

In this production, Ariaqo will be played by John Kontrabecki, Philiste by Walter Carlin; Oronte, by Jim Parisi; Valmont, by Marion Kaplan; Elinor, by Owen Grash... Ariaqo, by Joan Folt; Ariaqo, by James Parker; Clesida, by George Hayward; Babk, by Vernon Hinkle; an Officer, by Joe Polaniez; and Doloin, by Lloyd Hecker.

Nothing-nothing-beats better taste and LUCKIES TASTE BETTER!

Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!

Ask you this question: Why do I smoke? You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you can't enjoy ment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better-cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco.

"Poor Foundation In Liberal Arts' Says College Man"

(From a letter to the Daily Spartan, Fort June State College, Calif.)

What's all this rot about liberal arts education? Higher education today must exist purely for preparation for a vocation. This liberal arts plan does not prepare a person to take his place as a money-maker, a 106 per cent American. I know a few people who have liberal arts education, and each one is nervous or popeyed. One in particular, whose I try to avoid, won't stop at a time sitting in local restaurants, swapping coffee and discussing Beethoven, Plato and Paulhan, and who demands after him as to marches and an overcoat in a charge.

Just what would he do if he had to manage a going business? Not the ideas America can become the supreme nation in the world, we must teach only vocations, such as salesmanship, accounting, and advertising and credit collection.

Pastoral young men and women of high intelligence must be trained to take their places as captains of industry or as master salesman who can flatter everyone and can't induce persons to buy.

In this age of great athletes and television, liberal arts learning is obsolete, and must be written off the book of this grand and glorious nation.

Harvard College Hygiene Teachers Say No to No-Doz

Two members of the Hygiene department at Harvard University have warned students that the use of "No-Doz" is partially responsible for the nervous collapse of many students around exam time.

Dr. Arlie Dobb, hygiene professor, termed the use of "No-Doz" pills "self-inflicted injury." He adds, "If a fellow can't do his work without resorting to a drug, I wouldn't say he doesn't belong in school."

Dr. Arthur Castetto, instructor in medicine at the University, said cause "severe nervous reaction which, although temporary, is handicapping."

"No-Doz" sold without prescription, is standard equipment in many student's bags. Many students who feel the need to cram the clock around for final exams. A Food and Drugs Administration representative puts it in the same class with aspirin, since the stimulant caffeine is its only active ingredient.

Harvard University has unannounced it will not accept abser-tee's excuse of fatigue and collapse if "No-Doz" is a partial cause.

Joe Palmieri

Joe Palmieri, editor in chief of the Ithacan, first joined the staff of the paper in the spring of 1951 as a news reporter. Last fall he became business manager, and he and his staff built up the paper's advertising account which had been badly neglected since World War II.

Besides his work on the school paper Joe is a active member of Xi Gamma Phi Alpha as pledge master.

1953-55, Aedile, Newman Club; and he is a member of Who's Who in American Colleges, editor of the Tupperns County Newsletter for Service. He is a member of all the county institution all over the world. This past summer Joe received a New York State veteran's scholarship.

Before Joe entered Ithaca College he was a resident of Kinderhook Heights and a graduate of Thomas Edison High School. During his junior and senior years he played varsity football and took part in his class plays. Joe joined the United States Navy and was a truck driver in the States. While in service he spent 12 months in Okinawa and was finally discharged in 1946. The next two years found Joe at Bryant and Stratton Business Institute in Buffalo, majoring in radio and television repair. In 1948 he was self-employed for two years when, on the recommendation of the Division of Students of his high school, he enrolled in the School of Business here at Ithaca College.

At present Joe is in charge of the accounting office at J. W. Walsh & Co., the Ithaca Naeh Dealer. Joe has a great interest in advertising he has made a good start.

Typical Youth 'No Such Thing' Claims Magazine

We saw a piece recently in a national magazine describing the characteristics of "The American Boy." According to the article, he has even, white teeth, crisp hair, wide spaced eyes, a lucky, unstructured frame, strong, long-legged hands, a healthy, well-scultped look and a flair for wearing casual clothes. We are rather interested in the story of "The American Boy" be-

 Doug Begeal

The senior class president, Doug Begeal, started being an active student while still in high school.

He halls from Sedro, N. Y., where he also received his education. Doug is a member of the National Honor Society. He was a member of the student council, and French club took part in both the junior and senior years, wrote for the school paper, and helped with the senior year book.

After graduating from high school Doug attended the U.S. Army and went to basic supplies school. He later spent some time in Alaska as a clerk type and was discharged in 1946 with a sergeant rating.

Doug attended the Albany Business College for a half a year and then upon the recommendation of friends he came to Ithaca College and entered the business department in the fall of 1950. He is interested in business education. He has completed his practice teaching at Van Etten; and is now teaching at the Cassadilla school. This is a college prepardary school where Doug teaches typing and shorthand.

Doug has been active in the I.C. campus in many ways. As a member of the student council, was a member of the Ithaca Naeh Dealer, and has been invited to American and Ithaca College.

Doug hopes to find a position as a business teacher in a small centralized school when he graduates. He prefers this type of school because he feels it affords a closer relationship between teacher and students. Good luck to you.

Wrestlers Upset Lock Haven 16-14

Teachers’ Seven Year Mat Title Won By Ithaca’s Powerful Grapplers

Ithaca College matmen scored a decidedly 16-14 win over a highly rated Lock Haven October 21, at the Lock Haven State Teachers Field House. This is the first time in the seven-year span of competition that Ithaca has defeated Lock Haven.

Ithaca’s point winners were Jim Howard, John Ciabotti and Al Gilberti with pins; Jim Langelli with a 6-1 decision; and Walt Stroud, Milton Schlein, Dr. Sampson and John Ciabotti with decisions.

John DeKay, the blond barber, lost his first match in two years of varsity competition to a very strong opponent, Jack Craig. With the score 0-2 and 3 seconds left in the match, Craig rushed at DeKay and dropped him to the mat for a take-down and a pin. Walt Stroud, 2,500 lbs. and fourth on the Ithaca men for the season.

The Bombers broke their six home losing streak by virtue of a close 11-7 win over East Stroudsburg Teachers. A hot third quarter put the Bombers ahead for keeps against the Teachers. The Teachers switched to a zone in the 3rd quarter and Ithaca outran Stroudsburg 14-6. The Bombers lost the game in that quarter for they kept pace with the Bombers for the other three periods. The big gun for the night was Ed Byrne with 15 points, the same number as Duns of Stroudsburg. Four other Bombers were in double figures. Al Gilberti and Gran Roe poured in 15 apiece. Don Howard and Walt Stroud each scored 12 and 10 marks respectively.

The Bobcats came roaring back from a 14-point halftime deficit to hand the Bombers their eleventh loss by a 54-39 margin. The second half drive by the Tigers was led by Wilson of Hobart who sunk 25 points, 14 of their total shots. Byrne led the Bombers with 15 points before fouling out in the fourth quarter.

An upset was in the making as Ithaca led U.C.N.Y. 67-58 at the end of three quarters at New York. A 29-point splinter by the ‘Boy’ boys in the final stanza and the hopes of an upset for the Bombers went out the window. A big hitter in the U.C.N.Y. quarter was a 15-point second half by Denton of U.C.N.Y. Bomber scoring was led by Ed Byrne and Al Gilberti with 15 and 10 points apiece. Gran Roe and Don Howard scored 15 and 10 points respectively.

The Bombers rolled up against one of the top clubs in the country and were beaten by Iona’s Rams. A starting five averaging six feet and 23 percent shooting average was too much for the Rams. Ithaca’s nine field goal lost a 19-20 first half lead and created the rest of the way. High man for the Bombers were Ed Byrne and Al Gilberti with 15 and 10 points apiece. Don Howard contributed 12 points to the cause.

The Bomber squads record at 8-2 with a 45-20 win over the St. Bonaventure Frosh at Olm.

Physio Facts

By Mel Schorr

Psychiatric approach to the treatment of a mental disease, which may accompany or result from a physical disease, is important in modern day medical science. The student of physiotherapy at Ithaca College gets expert training along this line during his fourth year of study in New York at the Manhattan State Hospital. Those for whom to care to know more about the background and content of this training are advised to consult the March issue of the "Physio Facts," which may be seen at the Ithaca College library or obtained at the Physiotherapy Building.

It was good to see a couple of ex-Ithaca College physiotherapy students who are now serving Uncle Sam. Fred Heller, '53, and Jack Sooter, who plans to return to I. C. after the "same" discharge, are both assigned to army medical entitle. "Fib. is just about over, and Jim Myllyniemi and Bob Rudolf, two sophomore physiotherapy students, are already "preparing" themselves for the coming baseball season.

On Feb. 10, the junior class of physiotherapy students visited Biggs Memorial Hospital, Ithaca, New York, which is under the direction of Dr. Lincoln. Dr. Lincoln was very hospitable and informative to the group. He lectured about his tuberculosis sanitarium and tuberculosis in general. The group got an added thrill when Dr. Lincoln and his assistant took the students on a personal tour of the sanitarium.

I made it a point to ask Dr. Lincoln what he believes in as a physiotherapist at the sanitarium. The answer I got was a definite "yes," but situations beyond his control did not permit the employment of case. The physiotherapy department is there, but the money to hire a physiotherapist is not.

After fresh air, please get a secretory for the physiotherapy department, for as Samuel Smiles said in "Thrift," "A place for everything and every thing in its place."
