JUNIOR WEEKEND TO OPEN MAY 19

Four days of parades, pageantry, dancing, music and a picnic are being planned for the annual Jun­ior Weekend which will be held from May 19 to 22. The theme for this year's weekend is "Dreamers' Paradise." Committees for the various events have been chosen. They are headed by: Sharon Whitney, social, John Seelye, publicity; and Patman, chapel in charge at Parkhill.

Field House Construction To Start Soon

Construction of the new field house is scheduled to get under way at the South Hill field. Plans for the building are complete for the new structure and bids for the construc­tion will be called. The structure will be under the direction of Mr. Harold L. Dillingham, IC vice president, said that if the bids are reasonable the building will probably be started shortly af­ter spring vacation.

The annual float parade has been scheduled for Saturday, May 21, at 2 p.m. It will be built around the theme "Come Into Our Dreams." Immediately following the proces­sion a band concert is to be held at the WITT Gym. Candidates will be given an opportunity to be interviewed and a cup will be presented to the winners of the organization in the float parade.

The climax of the four-day festi­val, "Dreamers' Roundup," will be held at IC's Drome on Sat­urday night at 8:30 p.m. George Mur­phy and the Starlighters will play for dancing. The king and queen of the Spring Weekend will be crowned.

Open from 2:30 to 4:30 a.m., a coffee hour will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 a.m. at the Fly Away, and a 3 a.m. per­mission will be granted to the girls for this event.

To Present Gold Key

Following an amendment to their by-laws, Kappa Phi Alpha, IC Business department fraternity, with the principal support of the university, announced the presentation of a gold key.

The award will be made to the Kappa Phi member who proves himself an outstanding credit to the fraternity and is scheduled to be given sometime in May.

Miss Mary Young Awarded Medal

Miss Mary Young, European History Teaching Assistant at Ithaca College, has been awarded the Peltier Medal for her article entitled "Creek Fractions and the Chickasaw" dealing with the Chickasaw Confederacy in Alabama during the 1810's.

The medal is given by The Mis­sissippi National Education Asso­ciation for the best essay written by a graduate student in American history and is named after the late Ph.D. Miss Young, who graduated from Oberlin College, is studying under Dr. Ph.D. at Cornell University and will teach at Ohio State Uni­versity next year.

(Starting with this issue is a new feature concerning the life of Miss Demetriou. The second part will be in the 19th edition of The Ithacan.)

Lambri Demetriou grew up in a background of war and suffering. She was born in a little village near the city of Thessaloniki in Greece in 1935. This following year she moved with her family to Thes-Lambri's childhood was filled with the whims of air raids and bombings, their only protection from the bombs was to stay indoors. Air attacks became too concentrated for safety, the families fled to the villages for shelter. Lambri's father, who is a Greek Orthodox Priest, planned to move to a small island village where Lambri was born, but his family was kept there by his wife who did not want to leave. The only way the family could escape was to travel by boat to a safer place. They would then return to their village when the danger had passed. The family would then travel back to their village to continue their daily lives.

pitching staff plus the Bombers' 1-2 offensive punch, indicate another banner season is in store for Coach Bucky Freeman.

At this point it appears that the Bombers' worst enemy will be the weatherman. Lack of adequate pre-season preparation may hinder the UC machine in its first few encounters, but the team should have one of its finest campaigns once it gets rolling.

The main problem facing Coach Freeman this spring, will be to find a replacement for last year's first baseman, second baseman Art Cicichetti, and also catcher Bob Rudolf.
