Bomber Cagers Humble B.S.T.C. As Vogt Shatters IC Field Goal Mark

By Bruce Theobald

Tom Vogt broke two Ithaca College basketball records last week Tuesday, and the Bombers' goal barrage re­places Richard Stienekens's old college high mark of 17 established in 1959 against Hamilton. The other record was a 12 year old mark of three dollars a couple. Vogt, a 20 point producer coming into the second stanza, but then pounded the opposition's heels and knotted the score at halftime 43-42.

Schutz momentarily put the Bombers back in command at the start of the last half, but it wasn't until six minutes later that Dick Banaszak was high for the Bombers.

Dave Lewis added 20 in the losing cause.

The Bombers grabbed an early 17-10 advantage only to watch it slice and eventually taken away by the Orange men, whose robust newstands at eight wins and five losses. With six minutes remaining in the first half, Banaszak kept on his opponents heels and knotted the contest, but then poured on the steam and reeled off twelve straight points to take the lead into the mid-year break and will feature a complete opera tonight at the V.F.W. Hall.

Steven Conley, vice president of the Student National Education Association and was active in many service organizations. In 1959, he served as one of David B. Schleicher's representatives. In 1960, Lewis was Muscle­car Dynasty Telthon held in New York W.TV.

A native of the Bronx, he attended Christopher Columbus High School. He recently became a resident in Teaneck, New Jersey. An English Major at Ithaca College, Mike has served as Feature Editor of The Bulletin, the University newspaper. He also organized and served as President of the University's First English Minor. He serves as Vice President of the Student National Educational Association and was active in many service organizations. In 1959, he served as one of David B. Schleicher's representatives.

Dorm Advisor -- WVSP-VG Sets Leadership Example At IC

By Joy Torres

If a more perfect Ithaca College is to be developed, good leaders in student government, the representatives of the student body, will be the greatest and most influential. Louise Schneider, vice president of Women's Student Government is one such leader.

A native of Freehold, New Jersey, Miss Schneider, from her early days, has a love of art, design, and fashion. Her strong foundation upon which to work and a flexible framework upon which to build are evident as she leads the student body.

Louise completed this year to student government. "In the past two years there has been increasing improvement in student government development. The student has a greater voice in government and administration, the student body is more harmonious."

Miss Schneider added, "A strong student body has the chance to be a better person for a letter for Ithaca College."

She suggested greater cooperation between Administration, Faculty and Student Government and more unity on our campus.

Louise, affectionately known as "Weasel" is quite a popular leader in Ithaca. In past and present years, she has been selected as "Princess" of several Banquets.

Formerly a Music Major, Miss Schneider, during her junior and senior years and plays for the Ithaca College Band. Even if this is not her profession, at one time she enjoyed classical music, Sinatra, or a good blues.

Louise Schneider is an example to be followed. Student Government has improved and will more greatly improve as the quality that Louise shows is developed in Ithaca College's future.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

I would like to ask how much of the $225 board we pay a semester gives the Foods System for expenditure?

It is impossible for me to believe that all of the money is used by Slater. I realize that the College equipment must be maintained and that Slater employees must have their remuneration. But the quality and quantity of food could not possibly be worth the remainder of the board.

Let's see a statement of expenditure in the Ithacan to clarify the issue. There should be no objection to this if all the money goes to a printed distinction.

Yours truly,

Bob Yost '63

To the Editor:

As my imagination or did I not see the same opinion written to a letter to the column concerning fall-out shelters, in a recent article in the New York Times? It quite valid for two people share the same thoughts, but when they are supposed to express the same words, something appears to be wrong. Let the free-thinkers of the whole world, but separately, not month to month.

Sincerely yours,

Scampers Opens At Theatre; Week-End Performances ‘SRO’

This year’s production of SCAMPERS, “The Village Hei,” opened last night at the College Theatre. The show, an original musical comedy from a book by Jim Aversa and Jay Tarses, will run through Saturday night. The music for the show was written by John Whitney, and arranged by Steve Brown. Jay Tarses also wrote the lyrics.

The director is Craig MacNab, a senior in the Drama Department. He has appeared in numerous shows, most recently “Skin of Our Teeth,” and has also directed Green Room Productions. Roger Ahrens, who has been production manager for the show for two summers, served in that same capacity for SCAMPERS.

The settings and lighting were designed by Cliff Wardle, a sophomore drama major. The costumes were selected and designed by Nancy Smith, who also worked costumes last year’s SCAMPERS. Bonnie Cornell is the choreographer for the show. Bonnie has worked summer stock for several seasons and has danced professionally.

Starring in the show are Mike Wittern, Kathy Keating, Jim Gregory and Linda Graves. Mike Wittern plays the lead role of Elmer Getlis. Wittern has appeared in “The Brink” and “Time Remembered,” a Green Room production. Kathy Keating; who plays Elmer’s girl friend played in “Pajama Game” two years ago and appeared in “The Heiress” last November. Overt Allen, a beatnik who befriended Elmer, is played by Jim Gregory who also had a leading role in last year’s SCAMPERS. Linda Graves appears as Lida, a dancer. Linda has worked stock for several seasons and at one time toured in a company which starred Rhonda Fleming.

The supporting cast includes Roger Ahrens, the drama major. The costumes were selected and designed by Nancy Smith, who also worked costumes last year’s SCAMPERS. Bonnie Cornell is the choreographer for the show. Bonnie has worked summer stock for several seasons and has danced professionally.

Bombers Sport 7-6 Record; Oswego-Lemoyne Next Foes

The varsity basketball team has a 7-6 record at the midpoint of the season. The season began with a 48-41 victory over the Oswego Lakers.

The Bombers, now sporting a 7-6 record, will be out seeking revenge against Oswego State Tuesday night. Oswego State defeated the Lakers in the high school gymnasium. Game time is slated for 8:30 p.m. Freshmen encounter will commence at 6:30 p.m.

The following day, Coach "Carp" Wood's basketballers will jaunt up to Syracuse to tackle the "always tough" Le Moyne hoopers, who have only lost three.

Oswego proved last Saturday night just exactly why they are considered one of the top small college basketball teams in the East. The Bombers "enforced" 12th up their 8th win of the season, handing the Bombers a 73-66 loss. A zone defense was hardly enough for a normally driving Lakers squad as the winners utilized a quick passing attack and maintained the weight Paul Lankau a pounder, moved up to 167, where he spotted Claybeck 10 pounds but

I.C. Grapplers Pin Defeat On Buffalo

The Ithaca College varsity wrestlers tasted for the first time in this season last Friday night, defeating Buffalo University at the Seneca gymnasium, 26-6, on a pin, two decisions and three forfeits.

Undecided Orlando Jacovelli's 8-3 decision for Ron Flayckman in the sixth bout clinched the match for the Bombers, after forfeits for the 123, 137 and 153 pound bracket and Lou Ricks' cradle-pin over Kevin Bean gave the winners a 203-23 lead.

Jacovelli, Ithaca's regular 137-pounder, moved up to 267, where he pinned Flayckman 10 pounds but won easily. Jacovelli now sports a clean slate of six wins without a loss.

Blane Iuliano, another standout grappler who boasts an impressive 5-1 record, earned the Bombers' other three points with an 80-lb. deficit.

Wrestlers Drop 6th Match

The Ithaca freshmen bowed to the Buffalo matmen last Friday evening, 23-18, in the Seneca gymnasium. Fifteen of the Bombers points came on the chart, triple points, but the defenders defeated his opponent 5-2.

The setback was in the sixth six points, but the frogs are hoping to make up for it when they take on the Mandro's next Wednesday night. Saturday the Cats will meet the Army Frikes at West Point.

Frosh Cagers Win Skin Halted At 4 By Auburn 80-71; Now 9-3

The freshmen basketball squad had a four game winning streak halted last Friday night, at the Auburn gym. The Bombers bounced back the following evening to score a 61-57 victory over the Oswego frogs.

There was nothing stopping Coach Joe Schiavone's men as they went ahead 79-69 at Oswego, with five minutes remaining, and the Bombers lead and maintained their distance throughout the game. They scored their ninth win in a dozen outings.

How a 9-5 David and Wayne Lykanoj win with 14 and 25 points respectively, Gary Cornelis and Jim Streeter also had double digits, 15 for Lykanoj and 15 for Cornelis.

Lyke and Cornell had 27 and 20 rebounds in the loss at Auburn, while Streeter and Schiavo chipped in 14 and 16 respectively.

IC Bowling Club Formed; DeLuca Will Be Advisor

An Ithaca College Bowling Club is presently being formed under the advisement of Mr. Eugene V. Child of Ithaca Railroad.

The club, approved by the Athletic Council, already has a home match slated for March 10, against Cortland. On March 20, against Alfred Tech, and three or four more are hoped to be scheduled.

It will be run on a club basis this year, but next year the college will probably take off. The club hopes to affiliate with the Bowling Association and compete with all national colleges in telegraphic matches.

Sophomore Tom Vogt "not only" sank field goals for a 51% record, and 12 of them in the first half (probably a record too), but sank those first 12 in a ROW—probably a mark that will never ever be equaled in the future.

Free throw performance became the agilitv and grace of ballet with the stiffness and the power of a hand balancer. Tumbling moves must flow into agile jumps, natural movements, and rhythmic gymnastic exercises in harmony with difficult, yet efficient, static positions.
