NOTES AND NOTIONS
By Bob deLany, '30

New York City

Saturday, January 7: Early out of bed and to work at theWestinghouse studio. After I ate my breakfast, I went downstairs and gave my laundress the white handkerchiefs and an orange juice. And it was not until I tried to wash my sardine that I remembered that there were no sardines in the refrigerator. I went downstairs and to the store near me and bought a dozen sardines for 10 cents. Then I had orange juice and an orange for breakfast.

Today in the theater are playing the "My Fair Lady" [sic], so I thought I would go and see it. I arrived at the theater at 1:00 and bought a ticket for 50 cents. The show started at 1:30 and I had to wait for a taxi to take me there. The taxi cost me 25 cents. I arrived at the theater and bought a bag of popcorn for 25 cents. The show was very good and lasted for two hours. I then went home and had my dinner, which consisted of a can of sardines and a banana. After dinner, I went to the movies and saw the "Oliver Twist" [sic], which was very good. I arrived home at 11:00 and went to bed.

I had a good day and I hope to have another good day tomorrow. I am going to the music store and buy a new violin for 50 cents. I am also going to the library and borrow some books for 10 cents.

CHIL DE THE STORM

The present financial shortage now confronting the college student an education which far more than a theoretical or hand-to-mouth existence is, as a rule, impractical. It requires an expenditure of money to maintain a student's education, and this cost must be met by some means of earning income. The student is not only expected to support himself financially, but also to contribute to the support of his family and friends. This is an added burden which he must bear in order to pursue his studies.

In conclusion, I would like to say that the present financial shortage is a serious problem which must be faced by all college students. It requires careful planning and a willingness to work hard to achieve the desired results.

Ithaca College's athletic department, and Dr. Leonard B. Job, president of the college, recognize the importance of athletics in college life. They believe that athletics should be integrated with the academic work of the student.

The album is the result of a collaborative effort between the Music Department and the Ithaca College Music Division. The offerings were of markable beauty, with a wealth of originality and technical elegance. The initia movement was excellently rendered by the Casa Loma orchestra, and the Allegro a beautiful trio for strings.

There is a possibility that the Ithaca College basketball team will be broadcasted this week. The basketball season opens on Sunday afternoon at the home court. The team met the Tioga team last week, and the score was 23-19. The Ithaca team will be able to draw on the talents of its star players, who will be in top form.

Ithaca College's football team met its innumerable matches of the season, Saturday at East Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania, when it met the strong State Teachers College of that city. Although the Blue and Gold grapplers were only three of the evening's eight matches, the 19-13 score was exceptionally good for the Ithaca team. The score came in the first two falls of the match.

H. Cole, Ithaca 118 pounder, lost by a fall to Schaefer. Mike Royle tied the score when he gained a fall on Goodfellow. Levecchi then put Ithaca in the lead of the prize bout of the evening. The former finally scored a fall on Captain Pondonis of the 175 pound class, making the Ithaca victory 11-3.

At the Ithaca College wrestling team's meet last week, to make arrangements to continue school next semester, the Ithaca team was able to draw on the talents of its star players, who will be in top form. The score was 23-19 in favor of the Ithaca team.

The Tioga team is made up of the best players in the state, and the Ithaca team is favored to win. The match will be held at the Ithaca College gymnasium, and it is expected to be a close contest.

The Ithaca College band played Beethoven's Eighth Symphony, with the Allegro giv- ing a stirring performance. The opera was well received by the audience, and the music was well done by the band.
