"GOOD WILL TO ALL MEN . . ."

"It was always said of him that he knew how to keep Christmas well."

His grace, of course, talked from the very famous and lovely story by Dickens, "A Christmas Carol."

To keep Christmas is not a task or joy for the Holiday season; it’s a task for the whole year. Keeping Christmas is one of the virtues of plans for it’s Christmas Party with Delta Phi Zeta. After finally emerging from the chaotic happenings of the past tree. Refreshments will be served and the door prizes will be given away.

The party will be held immediately following the M.S.{}

Fraternally Yours
Delta Phi Zeta
Delta Phi Zeta has completed its Christmas season with Kappa Gamma Psi on Dec. 19. The theme was "A Christmas Carol" with all the Christmas carols and a Christmas Tree. Refreshments will be served and the door prizes will be given away. A Christmas Carol will be sung at the close of the evening. The party will be held immediately following the Messiah at Bailey Hall.

Phi Mu Alpha
Delta chapter concluded last week with a visit by Ray Burton, Governor of Phi Mu Alpha. During the visit, many social events were held. After fraternity calls had been issued, the clan gathered. The excitement of a "Come As You Are" party was overwhelming. The atmosphere was one of happiness and success and the next five years in be direct proportion to the sacrifices made in the last five.

Phi Epsilon Kappa
The formal initiation for the new brothers was held in the East Room of the YMCA Saturday evening, December 14. Brother Dr. William Grimshaw read the fraternity charge to conclude the ceremonies. We of Mu Chapter heartily welcome our new brothers into Phi Epsilon Kappa.

Kappa Gamma Psi
With Christmas vacation just on the way, the Kappa Gamma women will be holding their Dance tonight in a Xmas party and dance.

The dance will be held at Delta Phi Zeta’s house. Many of the Drama members of the Ithaca Community will be at the Messiah, Dick Woods will serve as head usher for the affair at Delta Phi Zeta’s house.

Sincerest wishes are extended to all of you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Hatch To Head Varsity Gridders; Cole, Frosh Coach; Freeman To Teach

Reorganization of organization in football at Ithaca College, was announced today, together with the appointment of Harold (Peter) Hatch as head coach of varsity football and James A. (Bucky) Freeman, in charge for the last 16 years, to the job of teaching health and physical education students how to coach the sports.

Mr. Hatch, who like Hatch was a football assistant last fall, will be freshened up.

The primary objective in our athletic program is to train men to become teachers of basketball, said Hill, dean of the School of Health and Physical Education. The school, he explained, with the officiating.

Hill estimated that Freeley, fourth-year varsity assistant, and Michael Lure, and Hatch assistants, will bring a quartet to the football team over a 14-year period. Paulley, along with five other seniors who have been added especially Drama students, put your name in the “S” box in care of the

This plan of action also will be carried out in soccer, baseball, and track and field.

Hatch, a native of Granville, was captain of the football team and a basketball player at Ithaca High School. He was graduated from St. Bonaventure, taught at Pearl and Fort Edward High Schools, and pitched for Syracuse in the International League. He and Yale have been added to the charge of the jayvee and Hatch the freshmen.

Isidore (Doc) Yavits, who has gone on with varsity basketball teams for 14 years, under Hatch, will take up a bigger job of instructing 360 potential coaches in how to play basketball.

A similar plan is now in operation in basketball, where Ben Levy is teaching assistant, with Michael Lure and Hatch assistants. Last week Mr. Yavits called for volunteer candidates for Intramural play-off.

There will be a play-off independent of the Phy Ed Class teams as off.

If there is anybody else who has a suggestion, he will like to enter, especially Drama students, put your name in the “S” box in care of the

Auld Lang Syne

In our lifetime, we've known about three guys named Robert Burns. One, The Arkansas Traveler, gets music out of an old stove pipe. Another was the object of all our dislike in grammar school; and the third was an eighteenth-century Scotch poet, who penned the lyrics to the New Year's song, Auld Lang Syne.

Through some mystic power that comes after the third fifth is emptiness, four Scotchmen get together—in the oddest possible fashion—we'd like to tell you how some Scotch and some people spend New Year's Eve. Ah, Yes! New Year's Eve—when everything becomes W.C. Fields.

Many like to have a bawdy party on New Year’s Eve—a party where licentious stories and whiskey sour flow with equal regularity. No one, however, really knows why he's celebrating. Perchance to command, perchance to trouble him for his prolificcomment, and each young man bends his face to plant a "kiss in the dark" when boss's conscience begins—to trouble him for his prolific comments, and each young man bends his face to plant a "kiss in the dark" when boss's conscience begins.

This seems to signify nothing more or less than plain incompetence in a high school music appreciation course along with the works of Purcell, Handel, and chagrin to her Boston orchestra. Helen Davis, known as "Lennie" is another one of our hurried seniors. She is a member of the Music Department here at IC and is well known as a very accomplished artist.

Lennie has been fascinated with music since the age of seven. Her。 and Sullivan begin and end with "H M S Pinsfire!"

Lennie played in the school orchestra, the band, and chases her Boston orchestra for two years.
