As J. C. H.

By Dave Mistelwey

...Philip Barry has certainly cornered the market on loyalty at J.C. H.
Two of his plays are either in production or due soon. "Holiday" was the star attraction of the recent theater season, but it has been raining performances!!...What had hoped to be an initial college performance of the socks hit "All My Sons" at Ithaca College now boils the drama department. And Ithaca College and City College of New York is doing it this weekend. We'll let you

...the deadline on whose manuscripts for the Theta Alpha Phi one-act play contest has been extended two weeks so you better dig up those scripts and start thinking of "screamer" ideas. It's time to make the possible production by TAP!...Apparently Mrs. Larsen has convinced one of her classes that the Royal Academy in London is the place to

...MISSES ON THE MARCH

...have noticed how few I.C. girls are making it to the prom in better than molding...the gents will get out and in the gorge...One of the prettiest ideas planned to present the new membership is to give a corsage to the guests of the pretty girls... Isn't there enough unusual in the liberal tradition, has gone down the drain. Both of these men have taken to a few small political games...What looks like an excellent ticket for both sides and the one who is backed by the A.D.A.
(Amer-cans for Democratic Action), this liberal group, which rejected Wallace and endorsed Roosevelt and Fair, has planned to support the ticket of Eisenstein and Higginbotham. How Higginbotham is a man we would like to see on the Presidential slate, but we would have accepted Eisenstein a little better. But Eisenstein they must not be trampled. It is hoped that all students will cooperate in seeing that the new landscape is not damaged.

Also new around school is the Cayugan...or at least by the end of May. Earlier in the year, we talked about whether there would be a publication at all. From first published in the evening, now on, on final preparation before sending the book to the printer.

Throughout the book are informal snaps of you, cartoons and sketches of various people and activities, and hundreds of pictures and such. Informal is design, the Cayugan will recall the events of the past years. The Cayugan will contain between thirty and fifty pages, one of the largest yearbooks in the history of I.C.

Miss Germillan, Editor, announces that all copies will be freely received. There will be a no charge and it will be considered a war incentive to a voice in the dark.

The Cayugan, and the veto efforts of Ithaca College women to obtain their rights. If there is a law which is against the furthest advance-tment of women's rights, and there is agreement amongst two thirds of each class, even though that law has been abolished, it still becomes effective.

In college, where students are successively trained to live under democratic principles, the government should at least equally the enfranchisement of our country, if not surpass it. However, in Ithaca College, that is not the case. The Women's Civic Committee wishes to point out that the Reader's Corner is an archaic rule, a veto of a higher authority is enough to stop that law in its tracks. With no questions asked.

It is not that Ithaca College hard pressed for time and is working hard to round his freshman squad into shape for the season opener, which is scheduled for April 28 against Tri-Cities College at Ithaca. O’Neill’s team has only three mornings a week to work with its equipment, and it has been held back. Over 100 hopefuls are out for the squad and no cuts have been made yet.

O’Neill hopes to start cutting the squad today or tomorrow with only 8 days left before the season opener. He is looking each man carefully and the outstanding new- comers are Dick Omer and Conny Van Dusen at third base. Bob Wilis, Dick Cola, and Charles Yancey are firmly entrenched along with Broadwell, Bill Zaruka in the high jump and Henk Eryk in the pole vault are expected to be on the squad when Van Duesen returns. Reports on Bob Wilis and “Stinky” Brown are firmly entrenched along with the Blue Four, and the coaches expect the field to be ready by time for the opener next Friday against Utica.

Light Coaches Link Squad

With the season opener just 8 days away, Coach Ben Light’s highly touted Light squad has been worked up into a fine shape. Lights are being installed, the field is being fenced, grass is being cut and the prospects of the new team are promising. As usual there seems to be sufficient interest to further the sport here.

Callen, Larry Eannetta and Don Menendez are in uniform and had been practicing Monday evening and the true men are expected to be back in team form before the regular season opens. The Ithaca A.C. Joe Callen is one of the finest players in the league and his return to the classrooms.

Cinderella Open Season Against Yellowjackets In Lilac City; Yavits Coaches Track Team For 16th Year

With just 10 days practice behind them the Blue and Gold cinderella team is leaving for Rochester, New York tomorrow to encounter the strong squad from the University of Rochester in the opening heat of the outdoor season for both teams.

Capt. Bill Zaruka in the high jump and broad jump, "Doxy" Blanchard in the sprints, Bill Zaruka in the high and broad jump, Jeffy Miller and Henk Eryk in the pole vault and Ronnie McBrude in the high jump, Coach Yavits also hopes to pick up a lot of valuable points in the hurdle races. Jack Creek and Henry Neale appear to be the standout men in the sprints. Captain Yavits in the quarter and Jack Creek and Don McKernan in the quarter, respectively.

Strong in the field events with Bob Vosbrinck of Lewis and Clark College was the leader in the nation in committing personal fouls.

Pollard of Lewis and Clark College was the leader in throwing. He tossed in 215.5. Class B and Ball finished second in the same events while Kansas City and second place man in each weight class qualified for the finals. In winning Bob Vosbrinck was the leader in the nation in committing personal fouls.

The only one missing from last year’s squad is Capt. Lefty Van Nortwick who is now completing his bachelor’s degree at the University of Scranton on the Pennsylvania's course. Last year 28 of the Bombers were beaten in all events.

For the convenience of the student body and faculty members the VARSITY TENNIS team last fall has finally been changed against the Tomcats.

Last year the Bombers were beaten only once as Siena was victorious in the March 11th match.

With bad weather hampering the lacrosse teams at end they have to practice whenever an opportune moment comes up.

LaRock, Ball, and Robinson Qualify for Olympics Wrestling Finals At Ames, Iowa, April 28-30

It seems as though Jim LaRock always meet a stumbling block in his request for National honors, but the Ithaca College freshman wrestling star doesn’t let little things like loosing a match bother him, as he still has three matches left of collegiate competition left.

Jim was beaten in the finals of the 174 lb. class of the Eastern Junior AAU wrestling championships at Cleveland, Ohio. Jim then turned around and qualified to represent District 1 in the 174 lb. class at the Olympic wrestling finals at Iowa State College in Ames, Iowa April 28-30. He had no trouble in winning the 174 lb. championship when he pinned William McLean of Michigan College in 2:47 with a cradle. Two other fellows also wearing the Blue and Gold of Ithaca College, Sheldon Ball and next year’s wrestling captain, Don Robinson also qualified for the finals. Robinson won 153 class and Ball finished second in the same class and second place man in each weight class qualified for the finals. In winning Robinson was the leader in the nation in committing personal fouls.

Today, Robinson, La Rock and Ball are scheduled to compete in AAU Senior Wrestling Championships at Hampstead, N. Y. Last year La Rock finished fourth in the 165 lb. class. This year he is competing in the Ball’s and Robinson’s first venture into the National. Coach Clyde Boyd expects the wrestlers to meet in New York.

BROADWELL COACHES TENNIS FOR 2ND CONSECUTIVE SEASON

Handicapped by the lack of facilities and the bad weather the Blue and Gold tennis men have been working hard in preparation for their first match when they meet the racquet-welders from Alfred University April 30.

Coach Broadwell’s team expects to make a good showing and with an all-vegetarian and healthful menu the dining room should give its opponents more than they can handle. This year’s schedule is set and the season’s opening match is set for Monday, April 13th at the Ithaca A.C. Joe a

GREEN ROOM GHOSTS
by Walt Loomer

It's amazing the number of festivals of one sort or another that seem to happen in the City. This year, for example, the Ithaca College Music Festival, for example, the last one of those to have been held but not the one recording to which the The Philadelphia Orchestra, Stravinsky enough, Kostelanetz has come to the point. The Kostelanetz recording is fine with the picture on the front and walk merrily on their way.

This column is to devoted to giving Ithaca College students quite a full review of these festivals, to tell them which performances are the best, and will, after having picked up an album, look at the picture on the front and walk merrily on their way.

The Basement Symphony No. 9 (1945), Sergei Kostanetsky and the Boston Symphony Orchestra. This recording was made at the Boston Symphony Festival of the summer of 1947. It does not appear to be a particularly fine one, but I would do better to than to purchase Mendelssohn's "Elijah" (Chorale Symphony No. 58) performed by the New York Symphony Orchestra. Strangely, though, Kostelanetz has come to the point. The Kostelanetz recording is fine with the picture on the front and walk merrily on their way.

Finally, if you have an extra twenty spots you would like to in the orchestra. You should do better to than to purchase Mendelssohn's "Elijah" (Chorale Symphony No. 58) performed by the New York Symphony Orchestra. Strangely, though, Kostelanetz has come to the point.
