President Job Tells Alumni He Will Retire In February, 1957

On April 21, 1956, Leonard B. Job, President of Ithaca College, spoke at the Alumni Luncheon at Job's Diner. Dr. Job discussed many pertinent questions concerning Ithaca College, and the part that the alumni, present students, faculty and administration play in this institution. He discussed first of all the improvements made in Ithaca College during his 25 years of Presidency. The College was organized as a Conservatory of Music in 1892. Since then, creditable branches of Physical Education, Business, Phy­

Dear Editor,

As I was looking through one of my old high school newspapers, I came across a column entitled "Homecoming," which was written by one of the newspaper's columnists. I was intrigued by the column's content and decided to write a letter to the editor to express my thoughts on the importance of homecoming and the role it plays in college life.

Homecoming is a tradition that has been around for many years and is an important event for many students. It is a time when students from different classes and even different schools come together to celebrate their school spirit and traditions. Homecoming is also a time when alumni return to their alma maters and reconnect with old friends and classmates.

In my opinion, homecoming is more than just a day filled with parades, floats, and games. It is a time when students can reflect on their college experience and celebrate their achievements. Homecoming is a time when students can express their gratitude to their teachers, coaches, and administrators for all their hard work and dedication.

In conclusion, I believe that homecoming is an important event that should be celebrated by all students and alumni. It is a time when students can come together to enjoy each other's company and reflect on their college experience.

Sincerely,
[Name Submitted]

N.B. Handwriting on the wall... producers on the carpet... press reports... and PEED-MACK is still in print. With increased personal liability, we carry on.

RECIPE FOR TERROR: Take one used script, one overworked director, a ton of sound effects, one zoo from a row, a ding-dong from a chino-chino and a Ford V-8 motor. Sit in an overworked studio, and add a broken stop watch. Stir gently for seven hours and take in top. Cool it and then sit in. This is the latest HARLEQUINADINE Chillier. A very nasty horror.

This culture masterpiece was called THE HITCHHIKER, and as we all know from the last editorial, hitchhiking is illegal. Ron Apin, the lead, should have been led to a different show. His interpretation was as flat as last year's beer. Carl Dunn did a dashing job as the Hitchhiker. But Unix was in a slight rut. All he could say was "Halloo, I'm coming, going to Californ-I-an-a-a-a-a,a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-
Alumni Feted At Weekend
April 20-22 weekend, alumni attended events in larger numbers than usual in the past three spring reunions, due to the bad roads around Ithaca. Dr. John Egbert, president of Ithaca College, and G. H. Farquhar, a member of the class of 1916, attended. This was a 75th reunion for him, and the alumni association she has ever attended. Almost every B-class reunion was represented in the class of 1921 being most numerous.

A banquet was held at Ithaca Inn Friday night. Some of the senior class guests of the alumni. President Lloyd B. Job gave his usual address to the alumni, outlining the progress and future of the college and announced his retirement to take effect February 15, 1937, when he will have completed twenty-five years of service. Professor Mort C. Clark (D ’52) of Alfred officiated as master of ceremonies. Joseph A. Short, president of the Alumni Council, also spoke.

At the banquet, Miss Betty Naylor (333) of Schenectady announced that a life membership in the Alumni Association is now in the name of Misses M. Mcelroy, H. Nemerow, and Miss Jones, who have completed their class, 1897. The twenty-five dollar life membership fee was contributed by Alumni and will be placed in the scholarship fund. Professor Walter Beiler revealed that an appellation has been made to the New York State Department of Education for Glen W. Norris, of Ithaca, Historian, for historical markers commemorating W. Grant Egbert, founder of the college. A marker will be placed on the main highway near his birthplace, a farm in Dancy. Egbert started the college as the Ithaca Conservatory in 1832, and served as its president for many years. Another marker has been requested to be placed on a site near the Adminstrative Building of the College, which was first used in 1916.

The main event of Saturday afternoon was the alumni banquet again at Percy Field, between J.G. and Hamilton College. Alumni watched the football game, as always.

A dinner recreation of " Brigadoon" was attended by about 80 alumni, guests, and faculty and was an unqualified success. After the show there was a formal dinner in the library for the cast directors, and alumni. Open House was also held at the homes of faculty.

Important, far beyond the funds they may provide.

The most important problem confronting us today is adequate pay for our faculty. Our salaries have always been at least fair when compared to the salaries in other colleges. But the press is now on salaries, and the administrators are in the library for the cast directors, and alumni. Open House was also held at the homes of faculty.

But we approach the end of the third phase.

On February 15, 1937, I shall have been President 25 years. I expect to retire as President on that (Cont’d on page 6, col. 7)

Baseball Team Drops Opening Games of Season

It's initial baseball trip, which began with the question, "Are the pitchers ready yet?" ended with an emphatic answer, "No!" Bomber hurling, which was minus the nucleus of one of Ithaca's best teams ever assembled, finished as it was sent reeling to two consecutive stunning losses at the hands of Adelphi and Fairleigh Dickinson. The Bisons ball game was rained out.

A steady stream of checkers passed to the mound and then left, as 24 walks and 28 runs were hung up, which matters, usually ten to win three ball games. Eight errors, behind ineffective pitching, didn't help matters any, and most of them came at crucial moments. One apparent glaring item was evident. Without the Bombers have no stopper. A bone chip to come. Bob Thwaites was the smooth righthander on the bench. Bill Freeman, has won his battle with the circuit in addition.

The Red Raiders are beaten IC in the finale at Allen Fieldhouse, where they lost to the eventual NCAA champs, having gotten 1-0 in the Forest.
