New Constitution To Govern Women Students

The members of the Woman's Civic Committee, under the direction of Dean Virginia C. Howard, drew up and submitted to the beloved group of Ithaca College women on the Annex. Certain revisions were then made to improve the draft, and the final constitution offers each woman student fairer and more personal relations with the governing body.

The two most important changes are: 1) the name of the organization will be changed from The Woman's Civic Committee to The Women's Student Government (W.S.G.), 2) the new constitution will be changed from nomination by department and election by class to nomination by individual dormitories for the organization governing dormitory situations rather than departmental situations.

The new constitution was presented to the students and dormitory representatives at a meeting in Dean Howard's office on Sunday, April 15. That evening, each president read the constitution to her dormitory, and a vote was taken to accept or reject the constitution. At a mass meeting of all women students on Monday evening, April 14, the new constitution underwent some much discussion, and certain revisions made before it was approved. The constitution was officially accepted by a unanimous vote.

The type of woman student government that will be in accordance with the constitution is the most popular type of government on American campuses, according to Lucia B. Butten, W.S.G. president, stationed in regard to the new constitution. "We hope it is a step toward democratic woman's student government, and that it will take strides in the future."

State Will Back Student Loans

The New York Higher Education Assistance Corporation, a nonprofit corporation, created for the purpose of lending funds to students who are residents of New York State to assist them in meeting their expenses of higher education at colleges in this state or elsewhere, has been authorized to guarantee loans students obtained from private sources. Under this act, a student may apply for an educational loan to a bank and, if approved, the repayment of the loan will be guaranteed by the New York State Higher Education Assistance Corporation. It is expected that with such guarantees, loans to students will be more attractive to banks and more favorable terms than heretofore. Students under twenty-one years of age are eligible for such loans.

A loan may not be guaranteed for a period of more than six years, and the maximum amount of any given loan is $1,000 for any school year.

Further detailed information may be had by writing to the New York Higher Education Assistance Corporation, Education Building, Albany 4, New York.

New Representatives To Student Council

On Monday, April 21, at 7:00 in the annex, representatives for next year's Student Council were nominated. In a new system, the college has kept broken down into more areas so that the representation in the council is increased. The nominees indicated representatives for next year: Sophomore Representatives: Liberal Arts and Business, Steven Brown; Physical Education and Physical Therapy, Murphy Stern; Music, Lee Burnett. Junior Class Representatives: Liberal Arts and Business, Arnold Sherman, Radio-TV; Physical Education and Physical Therapy, Sue Taub; Radio-TV, Drama, Speech, Fred Douglas.

T.A.P. Sets Play Deadline—May 15

 Theta Alpha Phi, national dramatic fraternity, is now holding its annual playwriting contest. Any one-or-play written by an Ithaca College student for T.A.P. is eligible, if it is submitted by May 15. Choice of subject matter and type of play remains entirely up to the student. Cash prizes will be awarded to the first, second, and third place winners, and their plays will be produced in the Green Room next fall.

The aim of the contest is to further the interest in dramatics at Ithaca College and to encourage the development of writing ability in talented students. It provides the rare opportunity for an amateur writer to have his play performed before an audience. The direction will be under qualified members of Theta Alpha Phi, and the cast is open to all students enrolled in the college.

While judging the scripts, the committee is unaware of the authors' identities. This year's judges are Mrs. Marion L. Miller, Arcadia, Assoc. of Drama; Dr. H. R. Crystal, Assoc. of Drama; and Arnold Sherman, Radio-TV student, and member of T.A.P.

Radio and T. V. Department To Hold Summer Workshop

The Ithaca College Department of Television and Radio announces a summer workshop for teachers who will be specifically geared to television and radio. The workshop will be held during the summer session in "Television and Radio Techniques in Education" and will be offered twice during the summer.

The dates of the workshop are: July 4 to 29 or July 11 to August 15. Classes will be limited in enrollment so that all students have an opportunity to work on all phases of production.

Therefore, openings in the workshop will be closed in the order in which applications are received. Application for a three-week workshop of three credits is $65.00. Applications must be postmarked by 5:00 p.m. on July 20 to be held from July 20 to 30 and July 28 to August 15.

Those interested in joining the workshop should write to Dr. William D. Stern, Director of Graduate Studies, Ithaca College, Ithaca, New York.

Undergraduates May Affiliate With Alumni

As a result of the adoption by the Student Council to allow undergraduates at I. C. to affiliate with the Alumni Association, a meeting was recently held at the office of the Executive Secretary of the Ithaca College Alumni Association, Mrs. Lillian V. Burt.

Suggestions were made in regard to setting up the program of study for alumni and it was decided that the committee members would oversee the student body for further ideas. A final meeting is planned before graduation, at which time a tentative program will be put into effect so that next year's work may begin as the result of suggestions for membership in the association.

If you have any suggestions or questions for the Student Council to allow under-graduates at I. C. to affiliate with the Alumni Association, please contact one of the following persons: Art Cohen, Bruce Tague, Steve Brown, David Schaefer, or Mrs. Burt.

WICB—TV viewing

by Chet Curtis

Since its inception March 2, ’58 WICB-TV has been airing programs over Ithaca’s’ channel 2 station for one hour each night Monday through Friday. There has been a slight change in broadcasting hours for Ithaca’s first local television outlet, Wednesday and Thursday nights of this week, it will be on from 9:00 to 10:00 o’clock instead of the regular 7:30 to 9:00 o’clock time.

- Starting tonight at 7:30 the film “Industry on Parade” will be shown. The program for the 7:45 slot this evening will be presented. A 9:00 o’clock, the pros and cons of medical hypnotism will be discussed on “Controversy,” and at 8:30, Mr. Charles Friedman will introduce a film on the Federal Income Tax system.

The Cornell University Women’s Glee Club will be featured Thursday night at 8:10 on “Tempo.”

Published bi-monthly for the students and Faculty of Ithaca College.

Contributions and suggestions are invited but will not be returned unless specifically requested.

Editorial

A word or two with those who are so quick to criticize WICB-TV and its people, whether it be from the observation room, living room, or the street. Concerning comments occurring in programs, personal opinions and so forth have been posted by both pro and con. These comments are more than welcome, but the “hacking” should cease. There is nothing the department wants more than expressions of honest, creative thinking and constructive criticism, however, some of these comments have gotten a little out of hand. Perhaps the “grandstand directors” should be brought in to the boss, better justified by the same 110 students and 4 faculty members of WICB-TV.

For one thing, a greater percentage of the radio and television students know absolutely nothing of the nature of work involved in telecasting before a few short weeks ago—March 3rd to be exact. Then, due to tardiness of equipment and other unforeseen difficulties, there was little time for preparation and training. WICB-TV was to be fed to the local cable system for thousands of area viewers to scrutinize. The work load was on the boss, but it came through with flying colors. Programming began with 5 hours a week, less than half of what was on film. It might be interesting for students to learn about an hour northeast, which also offers courses in radio and television, was trusted with only 30 minutes of programming to be aired each hour northeast, which also offers courses in radio and television, was trusted with only 30 minutes of programming to be aired each hour.

The Ithaca College Broadcasting credit list has many unannounced heroes who are responsible for what appears to be some sort of record in Educational Telecasting, both quality-wise and quantity-wise.

The hacking remarks and cutting, unconstructive passes have come not only from several “grand stand directors,” but members of the faculty and student body. Also of particular significance is the fact that these programs were begun, you could almost have counted on the fingers of one hand the number of persons who knew anything about camera operation, lighting, audio, visual, graphic, switching, directing, etc. The students have been on the fundamental first things about telecasting. However, these people learned and taught each other and did it fast, and did it well.

The TV studios and equipment are not the same as those belonging to NBC, CBS, etc., but the talent and genius behind the WICB-TV is God only knows how. It will stand comparison to any. In some instances the technical directional and all round technique has been far superior to many, so called network presentations.

Enough said.... the “grandstand directors” know who they are and so do the unwary people responsible for WICB-TV’s success, who don’t have to be any more pointed.

The people of the Radio and Television department can be proud of their accomplishments under such handicaps. The 110 future communicators, and their 4 guides are to be congratulated, not only for their accomplishments to this point, but for what is inevitable. The future programming scope is almost unlimited. Don’t take our word for it... just STAND BY!

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

The Christian, who believes that “Man is made in the image of God,” in the Paulus, we read “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our heart is restless until it finds rest in Thee.” Guided with scientific progress and philosophy.

In these ideals we are just words when faced with the realities of the frailty of man. Men carrying war. Women and children will be the lauders of others lesser. They will be siganed for the benediction of speciments in a zone. They obtain signatures and say Minor and Misses as a conclusion as equal as big rigging with fear of doing wrong. “I personally, see no pledge sweet as a noble fraternity brother to the college because the pledge’s friend accidently touched the pledge’s book.”

We are forced out of Ithaca College to degrade men, but to make them aware of the fact that they are men, to make them understand what is meant by the words, “Mircle of Manhood”.

303 S. CAYUGA STREET — OPP. DODGE GARAGE
Shades of the Old West! I. C.'s upcoming Spring Weekend is heaping aboard of the current rash of adult Western movies and T. V. programs as the theme of the week-end in Westward Ho. Each would-be cowboy and cowgirl will have a golden opportunity to "play the role" for a well-pleased four days.

Eloise Tausig, the new radio frolicking, will ride shot-gun for the entire sixty hours with a radio marathon. Some of our more enterprising students will further the atmosphere of the festivities by attending various functions in Western garb.

Evidence of the already successful beard-growing contest can be seen around school. By the time the judging takes place on May 2nd, the crop of whiskers should prove interesting.

Besides the costumes and beards, the Westward Ho theme will be carried a step further in the float parade on Saturday, which is aptly entitled "Legend of the West." The inside dope has it that the various dormitories and campus organizations have gone all out to present floats of originality and unsurpassed color.

A paradox of modern jazz and strains of the West will be presented Friday evening by the famed Mark V. On Saturday evening, the "crowning" weekend event will take place in the form of the Cotillion Ball. Here, dancing will be supplied by Dick Ford's group.

Sunday will find the weekend cowboys still in the theme as A.M. when a Chuck Wagon breakfast will be served in the school Snack Bar. A picnic entitled the Pow-Wow will terminate the festivities at Enfield. The picnic is slated to start at 2 P.M. and should end, according to the stamina of the participants, at 7.

Harrington tornados or extended stays at the "Long Branch" the week-end should be a tremendous success. Let us forget, a recapitulation of the events appears on page two.

"Why Can't You Be Like the Other Satyrs?"

Miss Ester McCullough, better known as Mickey by her campus-mates, was honored by the members of Delta Sigma Pi Sunday evening, April 20, at a gala banquet held at the Statler Hotel on the Cornell Campus. Over 60 members of the fraternity were in attendance as Mickey was presented with a bouquet of long-stemmed red roses, and a rosewood and bronze plaque engraved with her name and the best wishes of the fraternity.

This national fraternity event, sponsored by chapters of Delta Sigma Pi all over the United States and Mexico, promises to become one of the big social events of the year on the Ithaca College calendar. The Delta Lambda Chapter of Delta Sigma Pi will hold this event annually at Ithaca College, and plans are being formulated to combine the contest with an A's & B's-formal dance.

The Bomber Baseball Nine Meets Wilkes At Percy Field Today

The Ithaca College Baseball team returns home today to face off against Wilkes College at Percy Field at 3 p.m. The game will be the home opener of the 1958 campaign, and will be the last home game to be played at Percy Field. Both "Bucky" Freeman's Bombers and John Reece's Wilkes Club are strong outfits, and today's game could be as close as last year's non-decision test which saw the Ithaca men come up with a close 6 to 5 road win. The Bombers this year gave plenty of potential in a club that is a good mixture of seasoned veterans and fine young prospects. There are eleven lettermen returning from a 1957 squad. Joe Capalongo, a five foot eleven, one hundred seventy-five pound junior from Bayonne, New Jersey. On the left side I'll Schnellbaecher. Shortstop Scerbo is a fine glove man who will be around just in case. Along with those starters, there is one addition to the starters, there is another junior second baseman, Joe Internicola will provide additional insurance. At third, sophomore Ev Kiff, number one, and Tony Forte, also has Jack Bower back this year. The mound staff are all proven veterans of last year's baseball wars, and on the defensive line up for the team this afternoon. Eddie Birnella, number one, and Tony Forte, are the pitching and catching. The schedule for the tennis season is as follows: Hamilton, April 30; Harper, April 29; Brockport, May 2; Hobart, May 7; Cortland, May 10; Utica, May 14; Hartwick, May 14; Alfred, May 19; and Cortland, May 20.

The Golf Team is looking forward to a successful season. The two top men from last year's team are back in the person of Joe Panarski, number one, and Tony Forte, number two. Coach Herb Broadwell also has Jack Flower back this year. Jack was the number two and three man of a few years back. The schedule for tennis season is as follows: Utica, April 23; Harper, April 30; Brockport, May 2; Hobart, May 7; Harpur invitation, May 10; Cortland, May 12; Hartwick, May 16; Alfred, May 19; Brockport, May 22.

The Ithaca track team faces Brockport this afternoon in the third meet of the season. In two previous outings this year the Bombers lost to Lockhaven 26-22, and to Rochester 73-58. If the Bombers are to win today, they must improve in the running events. While continuing their good showing in the field events, the failure of the runners to score points has hurt the team in its showings against both Lock­ haven and Rochester.

At Lockhaven, Bob "Fins" Mar­ ella won both the Discus and Shot Put events with record breaking tosses. However, the Discus record didn't stand long as Bob came back against Rochester to set a new mark of 138 ft., 2 in. Dick Carmone also turned in record breaking performances in both meets in the Pole Vault. His high jump against Rochester when he
