Drama People To Experience With O.Wilde's Comedy

"The Importance of Being Earnest", to be portrayed by Twelve Different Students.

SHOWING IN FEBRUARY

By Ruth Ely

Owen Wilson's "The Importance of Being Earnest" has its setting in the Little Theatre on February 9th, 10th, and 11th of next month,

In the production here, one cast, headed by Agnes Welch, Elizabeth Goring, Thomas Kelly and William White, will present the comedy the same way, changing in "strange", in the parlance of the theater, from time to time. Directed by Helen Bostock, Virginia Delight, William F. B. P. "Mae" said, "We will present the play with the scenario of situation, playing it purely for its dramatic values, and we understand that both are traditional and acceptable professionally in the farces, and acceptable professionally in the dramatic episode and the smoothness of the Band School.

The movement for shorter speeches is so far no formal time limit has been imposed. It is left to Members to make voluntary "cuts" of their own. The Parliamentary report now records the time that may be taken by the one who takes the time allotted to him.

In some cases, such as "iurcht" directed by light may be adopted, a more drastic method as far as evolved is a red electric lamp, placed in the orchestra, and which as a warning device that will be in the orchestra, and which as a warning one minute before the time allotted to him expires.

New Fog Warning Device To Shout Location of Ship

J. C. Chadey, New York, has developed a fog warning device that will locate a fog warning device that will give an alarm and a sufficient warning to the individual who has the device. If the new device proves workable this will be simplified, and a clue to the location of a given object, and showed over the sea.

Waverly High School Loses To Freshmen

By Mirtoll Fuller

The Ithaca College third and fourth freshman teams were combined to form Waverly High School 48-36, giving the college a loss in the Morris County High School game which was played that Saturday.

The early minutes promised a good game with the same result, and both teams were six-tenthed. However, the freshman soon got off to a fast clip, providing a big lead before the half ended.

The men combined to come along smoothly in the second half adding another to the already big margin. Final score: Ithaca 40, Waverly H. S. 18.

Time Restriction To Be Imposed On Parliament

FRATERNITY REPORTS

Delta Pi Kayza
Doris District

Considering the amount of illness this week, we decided to cover up the illness through prayer. Speaking of the illness, a few of our group have contracted the grippe. Speaking of the grippe, it seems to have increased our numbers. We need to keep our blossoms open during the hours when the insects are active. Other than that, our group is doing well.

Phil Alpha Dance

This week, the Phil Alpha dance was a huge success. The dance was held at the Phil Alpha House, and we had a great turnout. The dance is a big event for us, and we are looking forward to next year's event.

Hamilton College Tennis Player Ranks
Eleventh in East

Richard T. Murphy, "33, captain of the Hamilton tennis team and halfback of the football team, is scoring six career on the courts, has been named to an all Eastern team for the last three years. His success in the East according to the recent ratings made by the Eastern Tennis Association. Murphy not only leader of many of the undefeated tournaments of last summer, but took his title as champion of both New York and New Jersey.

Murphy dropped from seventh to third on the All Eastern team due to the meteoric rise of several younger men. In the tourney which was one of the most of former balladists.

A Collins Cup player, was first in the rankings this year.

Close to $4,000 Raised by Alumni Gift to St. Lawrence

Nearly six thousand dollars were contributed by the St. Lawrence alumni to be used for the construction of a new building. The report recently presented to Dr. Richard S. Gray, President of the College, shows that the total number of contributions received to date are $5,604.69 and comprised the annual alumni gift.

Compared with 1931 there were more contributors to the fund last year, but the amount was smaller.
