PHI MU ALPHA IS HOST TO FOUR VISITING CHAPTERS

April 15 and 16, Delta Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha held an invitation to convention including four visiting chapter delegations, of Syracuse University, Beta Omicron, of Mansfield State Teachers College, Alpha Phi, of Bucknell, and Alpha Mu, of the Eastern School of Music at Rochester. This is the beginning of an unusual get-together of all the chapters of the Eastern Province. Alpha Zeta of State College, Pa., was the only chapter shown.

Our meetings were attended by Brother Raymond Burrows of Teachers College, Columbia University, who is president of our province and whose entertainment was varied. There was group singing led by Brothers Burrows and Varburg of Beta Omicron, Staff and Merrill of Theta, Hollandbde of Alpha Pi, Quigley and O’Neil of Delta and Keegel of Beta Gamma. Brother Keple of Beta Omicron gave a gongaphonc solo and Brother Burncombe of Delta entertained with a vocal solo. The rest of the program included the Bein of Alpha Nu with a violin solo, Brother Snyder of Alpha Omicron with a violin solo, and a saxophone solo by Brother Keple of Beta Omicron.

Brother Burrows led us in a discussion of the progress of “Music in America.” He told us how Brother Church, our National President, was trying to put through an Alpha Mu program to be presented at the World’s Fair this year. It may interest the readers to know that Brother Church to the limit.

Recitations were being given at a “Sinofina Club” in New York City. The businessmen are to hold regular meetings.

It was suggested that Phi Mu Alpha start a summer camp where Sunnymead’s entertainment was as usual time discussions problems as they please.

noticed lightly. She also gave a special performance of Miss Johnson, who seeks outlet for her desired service with the surmise and participation of the situation.

The recital was held completely for the duration of the play.

Miss Eleanor Villiot presented the third play, A Court Comedy, by Marjorie Bettee Cook. Miss Non- liet gave a more vigorous impression of her character than Miss Tobin or Miss Stern, likewise her physical interpretation was more marked. There was not one of the slightest confusion of characters, each being completely individual. Particularly good was her performance of the scenery, which is very much a part of the performance.

If the remaining senior recitals are up to the standard of the first, Ithaca College may anticipate pleasant evenings ahead.

The next recital will be presented on Sunday, May 21. At that time Miss Betty Ford will put a new reading of James Hilton’s well-known, Goodbye My Lady.

ADELPHI INITIATES FORTY-TWO MEMBERS AT ANNUAL BANQUET

Forty-two students were initiated into Adelphi on April 11, at the annual spring banquet held in the Victoria Inn. The new members are: Barbara Henderson, Edward Timmell, Phyllis Craft, Eleanor Kovetzki, Janet O’Donohue, Edith Lippert, David Sorensen, Donald Clark, Mary Segrave, Alice McKeon, Dorothy Abraham, Bette Woodruff, Shirley Toft, William MacDonald, Gertrude Fogle, Bruce Brower, Jim Carmell, Elizabeth Boron, Alice Green, William Blair, Edward Green, Joan Antich, William Woodruff, William Witty, Christian Andrews, Alfred For- man, Mildred Hanley, Donald Hooks, Frances Byrd, Harry Hammond, William Powers, Jack Conlan, Iva Hymer, Joyce Bassett, Jane Beller, Harriette Seidman, Frances Mather, Carin Cark, Rayford Charleson, John Con, Stanley Snider, and Anna Thomas.

The program was opened with a recital by Harry Taylor, after which Miss Grace Coolick gave the program address and welcomed the new members. Miss Henderson gave the initiates recitation which was followed with vocal solo by Miss Norma Wood. Miss Henderson gaveضر the reading and Miss Bette Woodruff entertained on the piano. Sister Joan spoke briefly and a brass quartet composed of William Carney, Edward Timmell, Edward Green, and William MacDonald played three selections. Dean Powell, faculty sponsor of Adelphi, introduced the speakers, Dr. Sidney W. Landon. Dr. Landon spoke on philosophy and the observance of ordinary small matters. The direction of the well educated person.

Sundays put in Individual Dishes to take out.

Notes On Faculty Of Phz Ed Dept.

Several members of the Ithaca College faculty will leave, early during the spring recess, to attend conventions of The American Physical Education Association, held in New York City.

The convention convenes annually to discuss and inaugurate new developments and techniques in the field of health education. It is through the work of this group, rapid advance is made in this form of education.

Ithaca’s twirlers.

The probable team list will be:
Link Halter, pastry huder; Bob Ingersoll, soph. radio artist; Thurston (Tiny) Thompson, who wield the scythe at 237 pounds, and Howard and Lall, all pitchers; Bernie Greed and Ducky Pond, catchers; Gene Baker, 3b; Capt. Cork Wood, 2b; Dutch Prechel, 3b; Mike Lucarelli, vs. Ray LeGere, John Rake, Jack Kub, and Les Barton, outfield.

The relay team left Friday for Philadelphia where they will participate in the great annual event, The Penn Relays. This is the second year in a row that Ithaca College has been represented at the event and they expect to do a better job than last year when they came in fourth.

Ken Mawers, Don Nelson, Bob Bennett, James Hemanway, and Bruce Lamb will make the trip.
Don Nelson is the only one left from last year’s squad. Coach Yavits will be in charge of the group.
